The team of students who recently completed a survey of churches in Calcutta would like to share with you some personal observations. Based on these observations we make some recommendations. We also realize that some observations may be incorrect or not fully true due to our ignorance of the true situation and the history of the church in Calcutta. While these statements may be general in nature, they do not all apply specifically to every congregation.

OBSERVATIONS:

- + The Christian church in Calcutta has clearly demonstrated its concern for the Republic of India and the advancement of her peoples. This has been accomplished through the Church's various social action, welfare, rehabilitation and development schemes. The Church is clearly in the lead in demonstrating concern for individuals and for the masses.
- + The Church and individual Christians have been the leaders in the field of education as well. A multitude of educational institutions have been founded, established, staffed and maintained by the Christian community and the Church, in co-operation with the government.
- + The Church is concerned with and is ministering to the 'strangers' in Calcutta, the sojourners and immigrants. The Church in this city worships in many languages. This provides welcome, hospitality and fellowship for people from all over India and the world.
- + The Church in Calcutta is also demonstrating the Oneness of humanity in Christ. This occurs primarily in the many ways that the Church serves.
- + The Church in Calcutta demonstrates the Oneness of the Body of Christ. This occurs most clearly in the 'English-speaking' congregations where people of many backgrounds and races meet to worship and fellowship together.
- + The Church has, however, done little social work to the neglect of much of the rest of the city. There is very little evident church-growth - both inward and outward. Some evidences are:
  - Many congregations meet just once a week for the Sunday service.

- Attendance in massive edifices is appallingly low.
- Pastors go through a busy schedule of weekly services, which serve or minister to very few, including the pastor.
- There is little being done in the areas of nurture, discipleship, and spiritual church growth (outside of "Sunday school" and the Sunday service).
- There has been a decline in church membership in many churches since 1947. This is due to the emigration of the British and Anglo-Indian communities. Membership and attendance also declined when it was no longer advantageous to be a Christian, and even further since it has become a liability.
- In a few localities this decline has been offset by the immigration of Christians from Bangladesh and the rural areas.

Based on these and other observations, we recommend that the churches work for church growth, in all areas, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Some examples and suggestions on how this might begin are given here.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

- * That a Co-operative Internship Program be established. The interns would be current theological students at the seminaries and Bible colleges. Interns would serve in a congregation under the supervision of the pastor and program director. They could be utilized in numerous ways to serve and expand the life of a congregation. It would benefit these future church leaders by giving them opportunity to utilize their various gifts while still engaged in theological training. Suggestions for the use of the interns include: evangelism and outreach, youth work, preaching, directing home Bible studies in "unreached" areas of Calcutta where a church member resides, etc.
- * That each congregation hold a series of extra services for revival. These could utilize teams of students from the Bible colleges, which could be part of the program. The major focus of the teams though would be personal evangelism and discipleship. Follow-up could be done through small group Bible study cells and prayer cells. These cell group could be led by elders in the congregation with the assistance of the student interns.

Dear Brother,

Greetings,

I am writing this letter in connection with the publication of Calcutta churches information. A copy of the whole material had been given to you by Dr. R. E. Hedlund.

Dr. R. E. Hedlund has asked me to write to you to enquire about his writing an introduction for the publication. He wants to hear from you over this matter. He also would like to have the CHURCH GROWTH RESEARCH CENTRE information added in the publication.

We are proud to have you involved in our church growth ministry in India.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

God bless your ministry.

Yours sincerely,

R. Raja

CALCUTTA - 12

Dear Dr. Hedlund,

Greetings!

I hope this letter finds you and all at home in good health and cheer, as the same can be said about me out here.

Thank you very much for dropping in at my sister's place and passing on Dad's card. I recently got news that he has improved considerably and that his health has relatively stabilised. God sure answers prayers.

How is your work getting along? I hope this letter reaches you when you are in station, because so often you are here, there and every where, but not at home.

Dr. Hedlund, I am planning to spend my practical months (Nov + Dec) in Madras and I was wondering what and where I should be serving. I have also written to Rev. Peter Miller of St. Andrew's Kirk, about this. If I come to Madras, I will not be able to stay at my place, and that means I would have to be independent and self-sufficient! If you could advise and help me in this it would be wonderful.

I was planning to be with Operation Mobilisation in Bihar, but now I've decided to come to Madras. It would be also an opportunity for me to be close to Dad for some time too. Please consider this, I'll be anticipating your reply in the near future.

Please convey my love and regards to all at home and
May the good Lord bless you as you continue in service to Him,

Yours sincerely, Ann

NOTES

- (a) Based on a preliminary survey of Calcutta churches, conducted in 1991. These figures relate to congregations having regular services in a particular language. Thus there may be several of these different language congregations meeting in a particular church building. House churches have not generally been included.
- (b) Note - Most of these population figures are based on the 1981 Census, and 1991 church numbers. However, these Census numbers are probably lower than the actual numbers, especially for some minority groups. Also the population of Calcutta has increased to 1991 numbers of CUA - 10,860,399 CMC - 4,388,262 - increases of 18% and 33% respectively. (Although the area of CMC has also been increased). However, for these reasons the true ratio of people per church will be higher than shown in many cases.
- (c) 1981 Census of India.
- (d) ~~2.135m~~ is from CMDA report (verbal) Nov 1991. Does not include 465,000 in Howrah bustees
~~1.734m~~ is from 'Calcutta Bustee Profile' by B.G.Roy, in Urban Management magazine.
- (e) Caleb Report.
- (f) 1991 estimate.
- (g) 1991 estimate. Other published estimates vary from 2,000 to 100,000.
- * This significantly large group has no culturally or linguistically appropriate church.
