McGavran Institute, Carmelaram
Oct. 16-29, 1988.

Twelve Christian leaders drawn from six denominational background came together from October 16-29, 1988 to study "Spiritual Life and Witness" under the experienced and efficient teacher Rev. Subodh Sanu at Carmelaram one of the RC retreat centre near Bangalore.

Five participants were from Indian Baptist Mission, one of the Christian agencies who have sent several leaders in past to our training programme. Others represented Lutheran Church, independent baptist church and also CSI.

The following practical subjects were dealt during the twelve days of learning.

1. Listening to God 2. Expository Bible Study 3. Communicating gospel to Hindu mind 4. Communicating gospel to the Muslims and 5. Fighting against satan.

The feed back from the participants were encouraging. The habit of listening to God was practised in addition to learning the principles. One of the valuable suggestions given by the participants was to offer a suitable course with this course to make the programme more interesting.

McGavran Institute, Sat Tal
Sept. 18-30, 1988.

From September 18-30, 1988, McGavran Institute has its training programme especially for the Christian workers in the North India at the beautiful Sat Tal Ashram. Ten participants gathered for a period of twelve days to study Evangelism, North India Communication Principles. Rev. F. Hranghkuma earned the appreciation of the participants for the relevance of the subject to the situation in which they minister and for his effective communication skills. Communication Principles was taught by Rev. S. Vasantharaj Albert.

Out of the ten participants five were experienced missionaries of FIMB, two youngmen represented FEBA, one Methodist pastor also attended the Institute. Pastor Sam Vengadesan and his wife, Malaysian missionaries who attended the course appreciated for offering these subjects which gave them insights in the ministry.

Expectations of us was not adequately met. Efforts were taken to have more than 20 participants. The absence of the Methodist pastors was the main reason for the less attendance. In spite of Bishop Stanly Downs interest in our programme many Methodist pastors could not come because they had some other training programme just a week earlier to our programme.
