WO510: WORSHIP LEADERSHIP/CHURCH
ATS: Donald C. Boyd, Instructor
SYLLABUS

DOCTRINE
The work of worship is the work of the whole church in joint venture with Jesus Christ in hope of the Kingdom of God.

PURPOSE
WO510 is a three-hour graded course primarily dealing with cognitive and affective aspects of worship:
T to develop competent ministers for the celebrating Christian community;
T to demonstrate sacred behavior in all forms of worship, by valuing the sanctity of the times and places of worship and the liturgical elements of order, rite, and rubrics.
(Performance aspects of WO510 are primarily implemented by other courses and means.)

INSTRUCTIONAL OBJECTIVES
At appropriate times during and at the end of the course the student should be prepared and able to do any or all of the following:

1. To be able to interpret an established Order of Worship, as well as to construct an Order of Worship within a stated context, by writing commentary (ORDO) that displays a general knowledge of the historical, theological, and practical significances of each element, differentiates the sequences, describes the integrity of each part with the whole, and gives evidence of following the planning principles espoused in WO510.
   [SUPPLEMENTARY: pp. 15 – 17]

2. To be able to accurately identify and explain, as well as personally compose, the prayers of the Church according to their literary and theological forms, such as the Collect, Prayer of Great Thanksgiving, and any of the primary prayer types (e.g., Prayers of Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, Supplication; litany and versicle).
   [S: 16 – 19]

3. To demonstrate an understanding of the church year, the lectionary, and principles of liturgical planning by being able to develop a worship/preaching scheme covering a 12 week segment in the Revised Common Lectionary and developing at least one of those parts into an Order of Worship, so that it all may be readily explained by the planner and clearly understood by both the professor and a parish layperson.
   [S: 20 – 21]

4. To demonstrate an understanding of liturgical etiquette and pastoral responsibility in the space of common worship and primary sacraments, by listing personal observations of strengths and weaknesses in the responsibility of ushering people into the presence of God. These inductive observations are to be drawn from at least 5 different worship services, reflecting on the (1) the use of eyes, face, voice, hands, movements, posture, words, silence, and attire; (2) the skills in reading, singing, praying, and handling; and, (3) the sensitivity to the numinous and to others, hospitality, convention, and preparations. This listing should be adequate for parity discussion and a group check-off on the day the subject is scheduled for class attention (usually week 8 of the Spring/ Fall Semester and week 4 of J-Term).

5. To demonstrate comprehension of the readings and lectures of WO510 and the ability to integrate the same by answering correctly questions in a mid-term graded exam on “A Service of Word and Table I” (as found in THE UNITED METHODIST HYMNAL, pages 2, 6-11); and, in a final graded exam on a pre-announced subject area and on any of the intended outcomes, terminal and accepted behaviors, delineated in Objectives 1-4. These exams will be graded according to the qualitative degrees in the current ATS Catalog [See Syllabus, p. 3].

6. Other essential outcomes.

To recite at the level of pastoral catechesis a theology of the Church, Worship, Time, Space, Prayer, Music, Sacraments, and Passages of Marriage and Burial. This competency should be evident in all the course work submitted and lived out in future ministry.

To show a competent understanding of basic principles in regard to selecting and reading of Holy Scripture in public, by rendering an accurate oral interpretation of the intellectual, emotional, and aesthetic entirety of a lection before the class or in exam questions.

To be mindful of the why and how of music as a means of enhancing the worshipping assembly’s opportunity to experience God.

To relate theological meaning, ritual norms, and pastoral rubrics of the sacraments and life’s passages:

In baptism.--- to rehearse the 5 key NT baptismal metaphors; the rationale offered for the practice of infant baptism; and, an identification and explanation of the various parts of the rite.

In eucharist.—to rehearse the 5 NT images as well as other dimensions that give exposition to its meaning; the basic structure and meaning of the Prayer of Great Thanksgiving; and the pastoral actions in regard to preparations, settings, presiding, disposition, and education of the sacrament.

In the wedding.—to identify and explain the 6 movements of the “Service of Christian Marriage” (WRUM, 131-44; or UMH, 864-69), or interpret one’s own denominational rite; to explain the difference between a secular and Christian marriage; and, to state and follow the norms and procedures of a wedding rehearsal.

In the funeral.—to rehearse the rationale for a funeral and an overview of the steps in the total process of pastoral tending to death and resurrection; to collate the planning and presiding of the funeral with a Christian understanding of death, key-note criteria, and an established basic pattern for the funeral and grave services.

In the turn-of-the-century church.—to reflect on the contemporary culture and worship wars (traditionalists/contemporaryists; unitarian view/trinitarian views) and answer the questions of Why did God become human? and How does that answer define the nature of worship?

☐ All the above are subject to written examination.
REQUIREMENTS

QUALITY
All work by an evangelical pastor or Christian worker must be of the highest quality in neatness, correctness, and form. All work submitted must be typewritten, except written exams. Any work that is late or does not meet a high quality of general appearance and editing either will not be accepted or will be accepted with a reduction in grade.

ATTENDANCE
Attendance is to be a model of that expected from future parishioners and colleagues in ministry.

GRADING
1. The measurement procedures of WO510 will test outcomes according to the course Objectives. Grading will follow the qualitative degrees explained in the current ATS Catalog as follows (these are not numerical grades):

The reading assignments are found in the READING SCHEDULE, pages 6-11. These reading assignments are to be reported on the last day of class on the READING REPORT form, page 5.

3. The testing is designed to assist the student toward good study habits, to appraise achievement of the course objectives, to diagnose strengths and weaknesses, to provide practice for skills, and to define what the professor deems important.

   The liturgical etiquette paper will be graded “Pass/Fail” using the criteria assigned in the Instructional Objectives.

   The mid-term is a graded exam that will be given on “A Service of Word and Table I,” as found in THE UNITED METHODIST HYMNAL, pages 2, 6-11. (Usually in Week 9 in the Spring/Fall semesters and Week 3 in J-Terms.)

   The final exam is a graded exam over a pre-announced content area. This exam will always reflect one or more of the aspects stressed in the Instructional Objectives.

SUPPLEMENTARY

WO510:
WORSHIP LEADERSHIP / CHURCH
Donald C. Boyd

ASBURY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
HELPS ON THE INSTRUCTIONAL OBJECTIVES

#1. COMMENTARY (ORDO)

In writing a commentary on your denominational or local church’s Principal Service, note the historical, theological, and practical significances of each act. Also, include in your commentary the following fundamental questions:

- What do you understand to be the theological purposes [GOALS: Who is God...Who are we...Who is our neighbor...] of this Order?
- What determines [CRITERIA] the kind of material and style used?
- Who are the people [REALITY] for whom this service is planned?
- What passage(s) of Scripture are at the base of this Service? (State in a sentence the Theme [basic message] of the Biblical Lesson[s] in the context of both the Christian Year and the local human situation; cf. ICW, 77, 83).
- What music best serves this Theme and Service?
- What is the intended aim of the sermon?
- What types of prayer are employed?
- How does space utilization and art media reflect and shape this worship event?
- How does the movement, rhythm, and beauty of the Order demonstrate the Gospel? (cf. ICW, 90; 160-64.)

Conclude your commentary by addressing the questions of --
WHAT KIND OF WITNESS IS BEING MADE?
WHAT KIND OF COMMUNITY IS BEING FORMED?
IS THE church BECOMING THE CHURCH?

1. Collect and classify from diverse Christian traditions and ages their acts and aids to worship (e.g., Scripture Sentences, Calls to Worship, Prayer spectra, Creeds, Versicles, Ascriptions, Offertory Sentences, Service Music, Benedictions, Dismissals, Drama, Dance, Lectors, Acolytes, Servers, Ushers, Ritual Notes, Liturgical Art [ICW, 116-21].
2. Collect bulletins from sundry churches and highlight creative designations, contents, and styles.
3. Write out in a bulletin format the various "Orders" cited in ICW, 156, 142-160, noting their unity and diversities. Distinguish between the Liturgy of the Word and Liturgy of the Hours patterns.
4. Superimpose the successive layers of liturgical strata (ICW, 149; and your findings in suggestion No. 3) on your own denominational or local church Pattern and Order.
5. Gather information to help answer the following:
   What is the role, the ministry, of the congregation at worship?
   What makes for good space and placements for the celebrating community (design, furniture, vessels, books, centers)?
   How can a presider enable the celebrating community to bring itself alive and to the activities of gathering around, speaking up, singing out, paying attention, looking at and touching one another, looking inside oneself, and sorting out feelings through silence?
How many individual ministries or other ministerial roles, other than the ministry of the congregation, are essential for making an effective celebration? What standards of competence can you establish for these roles?

COMMENTARY

A. (Differentiate the sequences/movements)
The ORDER follows the sequence of Isaiah 6:1-8: Awareness of God, the occasion, self and the people (vs. 1ff); adoration of the holy (vs. 3); confession of personal and corporate sin (vs. 5); assurance of pardon and purification (vs. 7); challenge of God's word to mission (vs. 8); response of oneself in humble service; and commission to do and say (vs. 9).
B/C. (Distinguish theological, historical, and pastoral significances. Describe the integrity of each part.)

The GREETING and the COLLECT reflect (Isa. 1:18-19) the summons to heaven and earth to listen, understand, and be willing to participate in God's Salvation. The worshipping community is an ATS chapel where S. Min. students are to receive prayer for their upcoming placements.

The OT LESSON stresses that one's call and commission is in the context of God's holy majesty.

The first HYMN sets a rhythm of call-and-response for the entire worship event.

The NT LESSON is the Benedictus. It emphasizes that our mission is to prepare the hearts of people to receive the redemption of God through Jesus Christ. It is done responsively to allow the opportunity for those who assemble to offer a positive voice concerning the nature of partnership in the bringing of salvation.

The HYMN OF ADORATION is a "Sacrament of the Trinity," reflecting Isa. 6:8, bringing to a climax this priority movement of . . . ETC.

#2. PRAYER

In working out a theology of prayer, it is important to be able to respond to the following questions:

1. Is all prayer Christian? If not what distinguishes Christian prayer?

2. Is all Christian prayer intended to be from the "overflow" of moralistic or pietistic, measuring or feeling, preoccupations? If not, how would you arrange the following matters in forming a theology and practice of prayer—

   - awareness of God in all things
   - giving to God an offering
   - receiving of God Himself
   - cooperating with God's will
   - asking whatsoever we will?

3. Is there any difference between popular/private prayer (maybe even in some forms of daily public prayer) and corporate/liturgical prayer in the principal worship service of the church? If yes, in what ways?
THE COLLECT

Oratio ad collectam: “The prayer ... for the gathering together.” A prayer of one sentence in 6 distinct parts to invoke the collective petition of the people.

1. The Address to Deity [Invocation ... address sometimes with an adjective]
   [E.g., “Almighty God . . .”]

2. The Relative Clause [Acknowledgment ... “who...”
   grounds of approach ... a reference to an attribute or act of God or praise of Him as a reason for the prayer] {Should be simple, single, specific, and Biblical}

3. The Prayer Proper [Petition ... prayer itself, expressing the deep need of the heart ...
   Must grow out of the Relative Clause, the request being related to the quality or attribute of God mentioned.]
   {Adoration or Confession or Thanksgiving, or Intercession, or Dedication}

4. The Clause of Consequence [Aspiration ... ”(so) that...” Must grow out of #2 and #3 and state “why” the request is made.]
   {The desired end sought; the motive. Frequently begins “that we may . . .”}

5. The Formal Conclusion [Plea “through...” our only acceptance with God is through the merits of our Savior ... a concluding doxology]
   {“Through Jesus Christ our Lord.”}

6. The Amen [Assent of the congregation]
   {This act belongs to the congregation. They should say it with one heart.}

CONGREGATIONAL AFFIRMATION
(Doxology/Amen)
Lift up your hearts
and give thanks to the Lord our God.

Blessed are you, Lord our God,
Creator and Sovereign of the universe.
You loved the world so much you gave your only Son Jesus Christ to be our Savior.
He suffered and died for the sin of the world.
You raised him from the dead
that we, too, might have new life.
He ascended to be with you in glory and, according to his promise, is with us always.

On the night
he offered himself up for us
he took bread,
gave thanks to you,
broke the bread,
gave it to his disciples,
and said:  "Take, eat:
this is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over
he took the cup,
gave thanks to you,
gave it to his disciples,
and said: "Drink from this, all of you;
for this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many,
for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it,
in remembrance of me."

Therefore,
in remembrance of all your mighty acts
in Jesus Christ,
we ask you to accept this our sacrifice
of praise and thanksgiving, which we offer
in union with Christ's sacrifice for us, as a living and holy surrender of ourselves.

Send the power of your Holy Spirit on us and on these gifts that in the breaking of this bread and the drinking of this wine
we may know
the presence of the living Christ;
be one body in him, cleansed by his blood;
faithfully serve him in the world;
and look forward to his coming in final victory.

Through him, with him, in him,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honor and glory is yours,
Almighty God,
now and for ever.

AMEN.

The [Brief] Great Thanksgiving is intended for use in home or hospital settings or in other situations where brevity is essential.

PREACHING SCHEME/PLAN ALTERNATIVE

SEASON AFTER EPIPHANY + YEAR B

1. SCHEMA: Epiphany is a season of new vision. It is a time for asking. Who knows about God's creation? Who is Jesus in the world? What is God really like? How are we to know the will of God today?

Therefore, the first four Sundays in the Epiphany season will focus on the following nuances of "revelation":

- Revealings of God (Gen. 1:1-5)
- Responses to God (John 1:43-51)
- Restorations by God (Jonah 3:1-5, 10)
- Representatives for God (Deut. 18:15-20).

2. SERMONS:

   First Sunday After Epiphany . . .

   Title: God's Face Has Many Guises
   Text: Genesis 1:1-5
   Subject: God
   Theological Issue: Revelation and Kairos
   Thesis: God [manifests himself through his creation].
   Purpose: To cause the hearers to reflect on experiences and ways when God actually appeared to them.

   Second Sunday After Epiphany

   Title: "Everybody Ought to Know" (chorus)
   Text: John 1:43-51
   Subject: Jesus
   Theological Issue/Theme: Receivers of Divine Revelation
   Thesis: Testimony to Jesus [is attested by the quality of his followers' response to him].
   Purpose: To assist the hearers by instructional unfolding of the text to leave all and follow the Son of God.

   Third Sunday After Epiphany . . . ETC.

   Fourth Sunday After Epiphany . . . ETC.

QUESTIONS TO CONSIDER
on Past Patterns and from Tradition

1. What tensions has the traditions represented by ATS inherited from the past?

2. What happened to American Methodism in the nineteenth century?

3. What is "the Wesleyan dilemma"?

4. What does this Wesleyan dilemma have in common with the Protestant Reformation of the 16th Century and with current American religion (OSIG, 32; 36)?

6. What are the balances White deems important in worship regarding the totality of the Christian life (ICW, 137-39)?

7. How do you know when you have an unimpeachable tradition, and when a simple abnormality?

WHAT DO WE LEARN FROM LITURGICAL HISTORY?
#5. OTHER SUBJECT AREAS: Guides for present study and future growth.

BAPTISM (ICW, 192-218).

1. List the various sacramental traditions and tensions, showing your tentative approach to the various values by beginning to organize your system of belief (e.g., In baptism, primarily is it we who speak or is it God who comes to meet us with His divine authority?).

2. Analyze a standard denominational service of baptism for its ritual norms, liturgical sequences, and essential actions. (How would you explain the theological, historical, and practical meanings of the rite in counseling, preaching, or during the administration of the rite?)

3. Collect alternative rituals of Baptism, Confirmation, and Renewal of Baptismal Vows.

4. Give attention to the practical matters of utensils, holding of the infant, placement of the font, the gathering of sponsor(s) and family, participation of the community of faith, manual acts of the celebrant, music, placement in the Basic Pattern/Order, manner and forms of sprinkling, pouring, and immersion, the sensual significances of the water, and the disposition of the same.

5. Interpret the various uses of water-symbols in the OT, in Jesus' life, and in the NT.

6. Prepare an approach for postbaptismal instruction and follow-up, mystagogia. What is the concern of the NT toward a new convert? What concerns of the Early Church are revealed by the Apostolic Tradition of Hippolytus, 48? What should an infant in the faith know about the Eucharist, the church, and the world?

7. Consider a third-century form of evangelical and catholic evangelism used effectively in the context of a secular and pagan society. For steps in this "liturgical evangelism," see Robert E. Webber. CELEBRATING OUR FAITH.

HOLY EUCHARIST (ICW, 219-53).

1. List the various sacramental traditions and tensions, showing your tentative approach to the various values by beginning to organize your system of belief (e.g., Presence of Christ, efficacy of the Rite, proper administration [administrator, liturgy, elements, frequency, appropriate recipients])

2. Create a Study-Discussion curriculum for laypeople on the Prayer of Great Thanksgiving.
3. Gather sundry Communion Services, noting their common characteristics and their creative differences and distinctions.

4. Give attention to principles and suggestions on space and place for The Lord's Supper (e.g., furniture design and arrangement, community and presiding space, vessels, decorations, light and sound).

5. Spell out the general principles and practical roles for each of the ministries exercised at the Breaking of the Bread (e.g., Pastor/Celebrant, Reader, Servers, Musicians, and Ushers).

WEDDING.--

1. Take a standard Order for a Service of Marriage and show by its structure, words, and actions what it declares about God, love, and marriage.

2. Gather information and forms that will give understanding to the processes and patterns of wedding policy and requirements, pre- and post-marital counseling, and the wedding rehearsal.

3. Note the complex, creative, and delicate resources and specific actions that help make the Christian wedding a warm, dynamic, and participating act of worship.

4. Explain the basic pattern of the marriage rite, noting the differences between a civil marriage, a welcomed civil marriage, and a Christian/Sacramental marriage.

5. Write out a Wedding Procedure, that may be used by the wedding party.

6. Compile a list of music for the Christian wedding--(Preludes, Processionals, Recessionals, Collections, Vocal, Congregational).

FUNERALS.--

1. Have a Basic Pattern for which resources can be gathered and filed (e.g., Opening Sentences, OT/NT Lessons, Psalms, Prayers, Music, Committals, Benedictions, Sermon texts, ideas, illustrations, models).

2. State major purposes of a funeral service, showing how these necessities can be met by fulfilling the pastoral office.

3. Collect helps for special circumstances (e.g., fraternal groups, veterans, problem deaths, local customs, children, prenatal/infant), Memorial Service, cremation, grief-recovery programs, education on death and dying, and funeral arrangements.

4. Write out steps in the process of tending to death and resurrection as a pastor and/or a faith community.

5. Trace the history of the Eucharist and Christian burial.

6. Write to: KAIROS
