United Methodist Polity & Discipline
CL 553 X1
2 Credit Hours
Summer 2008

Course Description

The purpose of this class is to provide a thorough study of the polity and discipline of The United Methodist Church. This class, along with DO 690, CH 600, and DO 670, helps participants meet the requirements for United Methodist ordained ministry.

Personal Introduction & Welcome

Dr. S. Brian Yeich
Adjunct Instructor

Welcome to CL553, United Methodist Polity and Discipline! I look forward to exploring our church’s organization and structure together as you prepare for ordination in the United Methodist Church. I pray that God will bless you as you take this and many other steps toward full time ministry.

Course Objectives
As a result of successfully completing this course, we will:

(1) Have a working understanding of United Methodist church order and practice.

(2) Be capable of administering and following The Discipline as ordained clergy or appointed pastors in a local United Methodist Church.
(3) Be familiar with some of the representative issues presently confronting our United Methodist polity.

(4) Be able to recognize and appreciate the biblical, theological, and historical foundations for our denomination’s structure.

(5) Be able to offer critique and vision for the future of United Methodist polity.

Course Requirements
To successfully complete this class, each student will need to complete all assignments on time, participate actively in class discussion and build relationships with fellow classmates.

During the semester, individual grading will be based upon the following:

(1) Assigned Readings: You will be responsible for all reading assignments specified in each module. Reading must be completed during the two-week period assigned in the syllabus. This will be key to your participation in discussion forums. You will submit a reading report at the end of each module (every 2 weeks), indicating the percent of the reading you completed. (15% of final grade)

(2) Research Paper: You will select a topic from those covered during the semester and write an 8-10 page research paper (typed, doubled spaced) on that topic. The research paper will be due the last day of class. On questions of style with regard to paper organization and references, see Carole Slade, Form and Style: Research Papers, Reports, Theses (10th ed.; Boston: Houghton Mifflin, 1997). (20% of final grade) Due August 22 by 11:55PM EST.

Research Paper Option: If you are preparing for probationary membership in your Annual Conference, you may write your responses to the Board of Ordained Ministry questions as your research paper.

(3) Interview: Interview a United Methodist Pastor or District Superintendent to get their perspective on how the Discipline impacts the ministry of the church. Submit a one-page summary of your interview to the instructor. Post your most significant observations from your interview on Moodle (the Virtual Classroom) for discussion (see posting guidelines below). (5% of final grade) Due June 29 by 11:55PM EST.

(5) Final Exam: You will be given an objective exam that will cover your knowledge of and ability to work with The Discipline. (30% of final grade)

(6) Class Participation: You will actively and thoughtfully participate as a member of a learning community. CL 553 is not an independent study. We will be interacting with and learning from one another. (30% of final grade)
Grading Summary

Readings 15%
Research Paper 20%
Interview 5%
Final Exam 30%
Participation 30%
100%

Expectations

What you can expect of me:
1. Prompt replies to questions and Forum postings.
2. Interaction, participation, and direction in ongoing discussions.
3. Prompt feedback and evaluation of assignments.
4. Occasional bloopers as I continue to learn this mode of teaching and interact with the class.

What I expect of you:
1. Active participation in online discussion through Moodle (the Virtual Classroom) Forums.
2. On time completion of assignments.
3. Your honest questions when you don't understand the material or the instructions.
4. Your patience as we work together in this emerging learning environment.

Guidelines

1. Assignments: All assignments are due by the stated due dates. Late assignments will result in one letter grade deduction per day. For example, a B paper turned in one day late becomes a C, etc.

2. Forum Postings: should be limited to between 50 and 75 words. Please use good grammar, spelling and punctuation. Please avoid the use of text abbreviations/shorthand.

3. Discussion: A crucial element of this course is the dialogue that we enter into with each other. All discussions are to be in the vein of encouragement, gentleness, patience, persistence, and hope. This does not mean that we will not challenge, confront, or question each other. It does mean that these things will be undertaken for the purpose of growth and stimulation to think and understand the subject at hand more deeply and more intimately.

How to Submit Your Work
Please submit your assignments and responses to the appropriate assignment links and forums. When you name them be sure to use your last name in the title.

Required Textbooks

Online Section Descriptions & Communication Guidelines

The Virtual Classroom is built upon the open-source Moodle platform. By logging into http://virtual.asburyseminary.edu you will have access to this course and be able to collaborate with participant-colleagues and me throughout the course. The following are functions with which you should familiarize yourself:

1. The Course Information Center, in the center of your screen, contains many features to be used throughout the semester, including:

   a) Course News and Announcements, where I will post items important for the entire class;

   b) Syllabus, where a copy of the syllabus is provided;

   c) To Professor, which is a way for you to post a message directly to me and we can discuss an issue privately;

   d) Course Questions, which is a public forum where you can publicly post any questions you have regarding the course so others may see your message and respond. Anytime you have a question or comment about the course, the schedule, the assignments, or anything else that may be of interest to other participants and me you should post it to the Course Questions Forum;

   e) Prayer Forum, which is a public forum where you can post prayer concerns and praises for all to see. This is a way for us to build community;

   f) Open Forum, which is a public forum where you can post anything that is not course-related for all to see. Examples include someone getting married, an upcoming birthday, discussions on topics not course-related, etc. This is a way for us to build community.

2. Modules, which are located below the Course Information Center, will contain forums where group discussions will take place, documents or other files to download, and assignment links where you will post your assignments to me. Modules will be clearly labeled so you can follow along during the semester.

3. Resources, a section located on the left side, provides links to items you will want to use often in the semester.

Copyright Policies

The copyright law of the United States (title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

ExL Media Copyright Information

By the using this material, you are consenting to abide by this copyright policy. Any duplication, reproduction, or modification of this material without express written consent from Asbury Theological Seminary and/or the original publisher is prohibited.

Buying Books. Address an e-mail to ATS Bookstore. Type in on the “address” line of a new e-mail, ATS_Bookstore@asburyseminary.edu. This will send your message to our local Cokesbury bookstore on the Wilmore campus. You may also call the Cokesbury bookstore toll free at 1-866-855-8252.

New Online Resource. There is a new online library of resources available from Cokesbury. These include dictionaries, handbooks, and encyclopedia commentaries; worship, sermon, and lectionary material; teaching resources; Bible translations, and more. You may access this material through the Information Commons link on the Asbury webpage. Go to http://www.asburyseminary.edu/icomm/index.shtml, enter your borrower ID, and scroll down to iPreach, and you are in. A link to this will be placed in Moodle (the Virtual Classroom).

For questions regarding the syllabus or our course, post them in the Course Questions forum in the Course Information Center. If you have a particular question, it is likely others in the class will have a similar question and will benefit from the exchange. We want to “iron out any wrinkles” that may inhibit the learning process.
