Mr. Arthur Greene,
North Tisbury,
Massachusetts.

Dear Mr. Greene:-

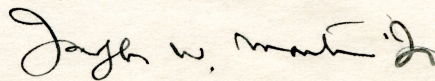

I have your letter and was indeed very glad to hear from you. It was like an echo from other days.

I appreciate your good will and also note your views on the Supreme Court. I am quite in accord with the same and intend to do everything I can to prevent the proposal from being enacted into law.

I hope you are in good health.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

M. C.
