William Knowler: who was born at Bolton, in Lancastershire, in England, June, 1803. He remembered his Creator in the days of his youth, and found a fulfilment of the promise, They that seek me early shall find me. He began preaching as a local preacher, in England, in the year 1829. In 1839 he came to America, and resided one year in New York. Thence he went to Ohio, for three years, and thence to Louisville, Ky.; and, after several years more, he removed to Indiana, and in the year 1837 joined the Indiana Annual Conference. For that and the following year he was appointed to Princeton, and for 1839 to New Albany, Ind. During this year his health failed, and returning to Kentucky he acted as a Bible distributor, according to his strength, until 1847, when having partially regained his health, he took an effective appointment and was stationed at Russellville. The improvement of his health, however, was not permanent, and at the close of the year he was superannuated. His mortal disease was pulmonary consumption, of which he died, in great peace, in Russellville, Ky., February 12, 1849.

William Lasley, died in the town of Bowling-Green, Ky., July 1, 1849. The son of a travelling preacher of many years standing, he was converted at the very early age of nine years. He was licensed to preach, and admitted on trial in the Kentucky Conference, in the year 1841; for which year he was sent to the Princeton circuit. To Salem circuit for the year 1842, Wayne circuit for 1843, Burksville 1844, Bowling-Green circuit 1845, Franklin circuit 1846, Springfield 1847. In this last circuit, his health gave way; but not apprehending the extent of the evil, he made no application at Conference for relief from labor, and was appointed to the Princeton circuit for the year 1848, where his labors ended. He died of inflammation of the stomach and bowels, possessing his soul in patience, full of faith and the comfort of the Holy Ghost.

George Hancock, Brother Hancock was born in the county of Franklin, Ky., but we are not informed as to the time when. He was admitted on trial in the Kentucky Conference in the fall of 1842, and appointed to Owensburg circuit, for 1843 Lebanon circuit, 1844 Mt. Pleasant circuit, 1845 Morgantown circuit, 1846 Bowling-Green circuit, 1847 Middletown circuit. Here at the house of his faithful friend Dr. Stephen Reid, in Jefferson county, Ky., he fell asleep in Jesus, July 22, 1848.

Society: twenty-five cents from the Preachers’ Aid Advocate, and eighty-three dollars and eleven dollars and twenty-five cents.

And to this sum has been applied the foregoing sum has not obtained making in all.

The amount collected is six hundred and eleven dollars and twenty-five cents. And to this sum has been added, one hundred dollars from the Nashville Christian Advocate, and eighty-three dollars and twenty-five cents from the Preachers’ Aid Society: making in all the sum of seven hundred and ninety-four dollars and fifty cents. And it has been applied as follows:

To the Bishops, two hundred and fifty dollars; to superannuated preachers, one hundred and seventy-five dollars and ten cents; to widows and orphans, two hundred and seventy-one dollars and sixty cents; and to deficient preachers of the circuits, eighty-nine dollars and eighty cents.

Quest. 16. What has been contributed for the support of missions; what for Sunday School books; and what to aid the American Bible Society and its auxiliaries?

There has been contributed for missions during the year, the sum of three thousand one hundred and sixty-seven dollars and fifty cents; for Sunday School books the sum reported is four hundred and twenty-four dollars and thirty-five cents; and to aid the American Bible Society, six hundred and fifty dollars; but this last sum falls short of what has been done, the reports not being complete.

Quest. 5. Who have been elected and ordained Elders this year?

Quest. 6. Who have located this year?

Quest. 7. Who are the supernumeraries?

Quest. 8. Who are the superannuated or worn out preachers?
Moses M. Earnhart. He was born in the year 1814; was converted and joined the church in 1832; was licensed to preach in 1835; and was admitted on trial in the Tennessee Annual Conference in 1836. At the close of the year he was discontinued, and remained a local African Mission. His next appointment was to a similar work in Sumner county, and did he labor, and with great success, in these fields for several years. At the Conference of last year he was appointed to the Fountain Head circuit, and four months afterwards, on the 24th of February last, in the midst of zealous labors, he was taken to his heavenly rest. His last year he was appointed to the Lebanon Mission, and four months afterwards, on the 24th of February last, in the midst of zealous labors, he was taken to his heavenly rest.

Our brother was but feeble of body, and may, perhaps, have been, (as some have thought he was,) a martyr to his work; but his devotion to duty was that of "the spirit of faith," and his end was eminently happy.

Moses M. Earnhart. He was born in the year 1814; was converted and joined the church in 1832; was licensed to preach in 1835; and was admitted on trial in the Tennessee Annual Conference in 1836. At the close of the year he was discontinued, and remained a local preacher till 1845, when he again joined the Conference, and was appointed to the Lebanon African Mission. His next appointment was to a similar work in Sumner county; and well did he labor, and with great success, in these fields for several years. At the Conference of last year he was appointed to the Fountain Head circuit, and four months afterwards, on the 24th of February last, in the midst of zealous labors, he was taken to his heavenly rest.

Our brother was but feeble of body, and may, perhaps, have been, (as some have thought he was,) a martyr to his work; but his devotion to duty was that of "the spirit of faith," and his end was eminently happy.

ABRAM PENN was born in Patrick county, Virginia, on the 16th of March, 1803. Endowed by nature with an amiable disposition, suavity of manners, and a captivating address, seldom met with, even in the walks of virtuous life, the tendency of his mind was towards “whatever things were excellent, virtuous and of good report.” These were improved by early training, and matured in manly piety. After prosecuting a course of study at the University of North Carolina, he returned to Virginia, and in February, 1824, was married. Having adopted the medical profession, he went to Philadelphia to finish his course, in the fall of the year; and in December received the distressing intelligence of the death of his wife. This painful bereavement changed all his purposes and plans with respect to “the life that now is.” He immediately returned to his home, paused in his professional career, and gave himself to the contemplation of, and preparation for, “the life that is to come.” He was soon deeply impressed with the necessity of being “born again,” and sought “a new heart,” with weeping and fasting and prayer. At a camp-meeting in Henry county, Virginia, in 1826, he found that which he sought; and thenceforth “walked with God in newness of life.” Being led by the Spirit of Christ, he commenced preparation for the work whereunto God had called him. He travelled awhile under a Presiding Elder, and at the Conference held in Raleigh, North Carolina, February, 1828, was received into the travelling ministry, and sent to Caswell circuit. In 1839, he was stationed in Halifax, and in 1830, in Raleigh. In 1831, Richmond, Shockoe Hill; 1832, Richmond, Trinity; 1833, Rapid Ann Circuit; 1834, Petersburg; 1835-6, Salisbury District; 1837-8-9, Lynchburg District; 1840-4, Petersburg District. He was then placed on the Richmond District, and continued on it until the Conference of 1847, when the declining state of his health compelled him to desist from the regular work of the ministry. He also served the Church in her general councils. He was a member of the General Conference of 1836. He was a member of the General Convention, convened in Louisville, Kentucky, 1845, for the purpose of organizing the Methodist E. Church, South; and of its first General Conference, held in Petersburg, Virginia, 1846.

In 1836, Dr. Penn re-entered the holy estate of matrimony with Miss Mary F. Thomas, of Louisville, North Carolina—a fit companion for one who counted not his life dear unto himself, so he might win souls to Christ, and finish his course with joy. She was truly an help-meet to him; and she sorrowed most of all that his work was so soon finished, and that he preceded her to “the great recompense of reward.”

In September, 1844, Dr. Penn suffered a severe attack of bilious fever in Louisville, North Carolina. Soon after his convalescence, in Petersburg, Virginia, he had a slight hemorrhage of the lungs. It is believed these brought on the disease, angina pectoris, of which he ultimately died.

In all the relations of life, and especially in the duties of the sacred office, Dr. Penn was true and faithful; giving himself “wholly to God and his work” with a zeal that difficulties could not quench, and a fervor of soul that death only could abate. As in life so in death he glorified God. For several years, such was his physical disease, he “died daily,” and held himself in daily readiness to “depart and be with Christ.” Resigned to the will of God, relying upon the atoning merits of Christ, and in full hope of eternal life he welcomed the messenger that summoned him to ascend and worship before the throne.
Joseph Pinnell was born in Culpeper county, Virginia, on the 10th of April, 1767. He made a profession of religion in 1790. He entered the itinerant ministry in 1795, and travelled successively Convent, Tar River, Portsmouth, Haw River, Bertie, Cumberland, Camden and Caswell circuits. His next appointment was Wilmington. He spent some time on Orange circuit, as supernumerary. In 1805, he, for several months, supplied the place of the Rev. Sixth Mead, on the Richmond District. In 1806-7, spent nine months on the same District. From this time until the Conference of 1810, he was Presiding Elder, first on the James River, then on the Meherrin District. In 1810 he located. He subsequently travelled two years under the appointment of Presiding Elders, William Wright and J. C. Fry. On the 18th of November, 1819, he married Harriet, daughter of Matthew and Esther Raghill.

In 1840, Mr. Pinnell was re-admitted to the Virginia Conference, and placed on the superannuated list. He continued in this relation until death severed him from all earthly connexions.

Mr. Pinnell was one of the earliest American Methodist ministers—in many places a pioneer of the Gospel. His travels extended over the territory now filled by the Virginia, North Carolina and Baltimore Conferences. He fulfilled his ministry at a time when it was truly a life of toil and self-sacrifice. Nor was he inactive in his local relation to the Church. He was here "in season and out of season," striving always, by all means to save souls. His life of uniform piety and strict integrity gained the confidence of those among whom he lived, and they took knowledge of him that he walked with God. A life thus spent in the service of God was crowned with a joyful death. A short time before his death he was asked if his prospects for the future were clear. He replied, "What to choose I wot not; for I am in a strait between two, having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better." In this frame of mind he continued until he met the last enemy of mortality, and triumphed over death through the merits of "Him who died for us, and rose again for our justification."

After a life of devotion to God, and in a good old age, he fell asleep in Jesus, on Sunday, the 18th of January, 1849, in the eighty-second year of his age, at his residence in Alleghany county, Virginia.

John C. Ballew was born in Burke county, North Carolina. He embraced religion and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1800. In 1808 he was admitted on trial in the Virginia Conference. He commenced his itinerant career under great discouragements, and with many fears. But he was led in a way he knew not; and though he went forth weeping, yet he bore precious seed, and God blessed his ministry to the saving of souls. He continued in the regular work with increasing usefulness to the Church, until the Conference of 1813, when he took a local relation. He had entered into the estate of matrimony with Mrs. Elizabeth A. Christian, of New Kent county, Va. during the preceding year. It is presumable the change in his relations, under the circumstances of the times, led him to retire from the active work of the ministry. But his soul was not at rest; and at the Conference of 1814 he was re-admitted to the itinerancy. He thenceforth gave himself fully to the work of preaching the Gospel, and continued in it until 1827-8, when age and infirmity compelled him to retire. He was placed on the superannuated list, and remained in this relation to the Conference until he closed his mortal career.

On retiring from the regular work he settled in New Kent county. In 1834 he removed to Tennessee, and from thence, in 1839, to Livingston county, Missouri, where he terminated his life and labors on the 16th of January, 1848.

Mr. Ballew was possessed of more than ordinary strength of mind; and his attainments in biblical knowledge were very creditable. In the years of his active connexion with the Conference he filled various appointments with honor to himself and usefulness to the Church; and he is still remembered and loved for his work's sake by many among whom he went preaching the kingdom of God. For several years before his death, increasing age and declining health admonished him that "the time of his departure was at hand." He was ready. His "house had been long set in order." He often conversed of death, his spiritual state, and prospects for the future, with great composure of mind, expressing unshaken confidence in God, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. A few days before his death, while speaking of his former labors he said, "I make no account of aught I have suffered; my trust is alone in the merits of Christ." On being asked as to his hope of salvation, he said "my way is clear." And to his wife, "death has no terrors for me." In this calm and confiding frame of mind he closed his eyes upon earth, and went, a redeemed sinner to the general assembly and Church of the first born in heaven.

Quest. 1. What preachers are admitted on trial?

Quest. 2. Who remain on trial?

Quest. 3. Who are admitted into full connexion?
James L. Culpepper, James M. Hampton, Bryant Medlin, John P. Richardson, Alexander B. Winfield—5.

Quest. 4. Who are the Deacons?

Quest. 5. Who have been elected and ordained Elders this year?
Quest. 6. Who have located this year?

Quest. 7. Who are the supernumeraries?

Quest. 8. Who are the superannuated or worn out preachers?

James D. Rhodes. He was admitted on trial in the Memphis Conference, November, 1841, and ended his labors in Carrollville Circuit, on the 12th of June, 1849. He was at the house of a brother in the town of Carrollville, MI. and ready to set out for his appointment to preach, when going into the yard to observe the clouds, he was instantly killed by a stroke of lightning. Our brother was an acceptable and diligent preacher and pastor, but his body was weak and his health imperfect. We have no doubt of his entire readiness for his sudden removal from time to eternity. May we improve the admonition of his death, and be ready also.

Elias H. Rhodes, brother of James, has also been taken from his labors to his recompense; and his death, too, was occasioned by an unusual cause. It was produced by having had one of his teeth extracted. Inflammation ensued, and resulted in mortification and death. Conscious of approaching dissolution, he gave glory to God, and died in the triumph of his faith, rejoicing in hope of everlasting life, June 6, 1849. He was born in McNab county, Ky., March 22, 1825; joined the church in the year 1842; and was admitted on trial in the Memphis Conference in 1845. During his brief course, he labored with great success in Benton Mission, and in Troy, Dresden, and Jacinto Circuits, where he was much esteemed and has left many friends.

Quest. 9. Who have been expelled from the connexion this year?
None.

Quest. 10. Who have withdrawn from the connexion this year?
None.

Quest. 11. Are all the preachers blameless in life and conversation?
Their names were called, and their characters examined and passed, one by one, except Thomas Smith, who was suspended from the ministry.

Quest. 12. Who have died this year?

Quest. 14. What amounts are necessary for the superannuated preachers, and the widows and orphans of preachers, and to make up the deficiencies of those who have not received their regular allowance on the circuits, and for the support of the Bishops?

Quest. 15. What has been collected on the foregoing accounts, and how has it been applied?

From the circuits and stations, there has been received eleven hundred and nineteen dollars and sixty-two cents; from the Relief fund, three hundred and forty-three dollars and seventy-five cents; from the Nashville Christian Advocate, one hundred dollars; and a donation from J. L. Drake of five dollars; making the sum of fifteen hundred and sixty-eight dollars and thirty-seven cents; and this has been applied as follows:

- To the Bishops, three hundred and fifty dollars; to superannuated preachers, two hundred and sixty dollars; to widows and orphans, six hundred and thirty-six dollars and fifty cents; and to make up the deficiencies of the quarterly allowance to preachers, six hundred and seventy dollars and eighty-five cents.

Quest. 7. Who are the supernumerary preachers?
B. T. Blake, Addison Lea—2.

Quest. 8. Who are the superannuated preachers?

John A. Miller, son of Armstead Miller and Susannah, the daughter of George Redd, was born March 9th, 1799, in the county of Prince Edward, and State of Virginia. At an early age he was impressed with a sense of religion and the importance of living up to its precepts, in order to be happy in life and prepared for death. His parents were Baptists. When ten years old, his most affectionate mother was taken from him, and when about thirteen, he lost his father. At this age he was placed by his uncle in a book-store in Petersburg, where he remained five years and six months. During this time he fell into many vices common to that day and place, although his deportment was unobjectionable, and in a worldly sense estimable. The fruits of early religious instructions, imparted by his mother, were often felt by him in checks of conscience and strong convictions, in the course of error and impropriety in which he walked while in Petersburg. These were the cause of his seeking a country life. He returned to his native county. Here, however, for a while his resolutions gave way, and his course was as it had been—in the follies and waywardness of youth. In 1823, under the preaching of the Rev. Enoch Johnson, sent that year to the Amelia Circuit, he was powerfully convinced, and resolved on an entire change of life; he went up to the altar of prayer, availed himself carefully and diligently of other means of grace, sought his Makerconstantly, and found him in his forgiving mercy.

His wish now was to do the work of his heavenly Father. This he endeavored to ascertain satisfactorily. He believed he was called of God to the ministry; was employed by the Presiding Elder of Mecklenburg District to travel on the Mecklenburg Circuit in 1826. In 1827, went up to Conference in Petersburg, duly recommended; was received on trial, and sent to Bedford Circuit. In 1828 he travelled the Amherst Circuit. At the Conference in Lynchburg, in 1829, he was received into full connexion and ordained Deacon. Two years after, he was ordained Elder in the Church of God, and continued as an itinerant, travelling under the directions of the Conference and Bishops until the year 1840, when he asked for and obtained a superannuated relation. In this relation he was continued until he left by death.

Brother Miller travelled many years as a married man. His companion was a daughter of Dr. Williams, of Martin county, North Carolina—a most amiable and pious lady, who, with her children, is an object, and a worthy object, of our Christian attention and regard. The oldest son, though not converted at the time of his father's death, and quite young, took up and has continued family prayer. He now, with others of the children, professes the sweetly slept in the arms of his Saviour. He now rests from his labors, and his works follow him. It is, we believe, surely with him as it is expressed in Divine revelation, "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord."

There, on those high and flowery plains,
His spirit ne'er shall tire;
But in perpetual, joyful strains,
Redeeming love admire."

Quest. 10. Who have been expelled this year?
A. Owens.

Quest. 11. Were the characters of all the preachers examined?
This was strictly attended to.

Quest. 12. Who have died this year?

Quest. 13. What numbers are in society?

Quest. 10. Who has withdrawn from the connexion this year?
No one.

SOLOMON G. SIMPKINS; who was born in the State of Maryland in the year 1811; moved to Vicksburg, Miss. in 1837; was shortly afterwards awakened and converted; was licensed to preach in the fall of 1840, and recommended to the Mississippi Annual Conference. He travelled the Crystal Spring Circuit in 1841; Natchitoches, 1842; Trinity, 1843; Baton Rouge, 1844; Yazoo, 1845; Cole’s Creek, 1846; Yazoo Colored Mission, 1847; Boloxi, 1848. For the year 1849 he was appointed to Bayou Pierre Circuit, but was taken ill and died, after much suffering, before he could reach it. His end was peace and assurance forever. His brother was not eminently gifted as a preacher, but was distinguished for zeal, and was peculiarly successful in the management of Sunday schools.

Ques. 14. What amounts are necessary for the superannuated preachers, the widows and orphans of preachers, and to make up deficiencies to those who have not obtained their regular allowance on the circuits, and for the Bishops?

The amount wanted for these purposes, is two thousand nine hundred and fifty-two dollars.

Quest. 15. What has been collected on the foregoing accounts, and how has it been applied?

From the circuits and stations the whole amount collected has been seven hundred and seventy-one dollars and twenty cents. To which sum has been added a dividend of one hundred dollars from the office of the Nashville Christian Advocate, a donation of fifty dollars from James Wright, Esq. of New Orleans, and also, a donation of ten dollars from John Scott, Esq. of Louisiana, making, in all, nine hundred and forty-one dollars and twenty cents.

Of this sum, one hundred and eighty-five dollars has been applied to the support of the Bishops; a small sum, of about two dollars, was applied to contingent expenses of the Conference; and the balance was applied, pro rata, to the claimants above named.

Quest. 16. What has been contributed for the support of missions; what for Sunday school books; and what to aid the American Bible Society and its auxiliaries?

The amount raised for missions during the year, as reported to the Conference by the preachers, is four thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight dollars and nineteen cents; for Sunday school books, three hundred and ninety-five dollars and twenty-five cents; and for the Bible cause, sixty-five dollars. For the last named of these great interests, however, we are assured that the reported sum, as above given, is very far below the amount which has been contributed by our people through auxiliary societies, and other means, not reported.

Quest. 17. Where are the preachers stationed this year?

None.

Quest. 8. Who are the superannuated preachers?

Quest. 9. Who have been expelled this year?
None.

Quest. 10. Who have withdrawn this year?
None.

Quest. 11. Were all the preachers’ characters examined?
This was strictly attended to, by calling over their names before the Conference.

Quest. 12. Who have died this year?

John Tarrant was born in Virginia, in 1784. He was received on trial in the South Carolina Conference in 1809, was admitted into full connexion and elected to Deacon’s orders in 1811, and continued to travel until the close of the year 1813, when his connexion with the Conference ceased by his location. He was received again at the close of the year 1835, and travelled successively until the close of the year 1845, when he was placed on the superannuated list, which relation he sustained until the end of his earthly career, on the 1st day of April last, in the sixty-fifth year of his age. His disease was of an inflammatory nature, and was a source of much pain and suffering, which he bore with Christian patience and resignation. He was a man of God, and possessed a kind and amiable spirit; and sustained the character of a plain, practical and successful minister of our Lord Jesus Christ. The religion of the Bible which he embraced and urged upon others while living, sustained him as he "passed through the valley of the shadow of death." Though his path through life was beset with many snares, his end was peace and triumph.

Quest. 12. Who have died this year?

William Tostrick, a native of Prussia, who came over to this country in 1842, and not long after was converted under the ministry of the lamented Bremer, our first German missionary in the city of New Orleans. He was licensed to preach in the year 1847, and after exercising his gifts a year as a local preacher, was admitted on trial in the Louisiana Conference, and appointed to the second German mission in New Orleans. His labors were faithful and successful, and he was returned to the same charge for 1849, but in the month of March he was attacked with cholera and died after three days illness; his last words being, "For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." He was young, gifted, and eminently pious and diligent—a thorough Christian, a faithful pastor, an exemplary man and minister, promising much to the Church of Christ; but in the thirty-fourth year of his age, and at the very opening of his ministry, it has pleased God to release him from the toils of earth, and take him to his rest in heaven.

Rev. Robert L. Edwards commenced travelling as Methodist preacher in the year 1807, and continued laboring in that capacity until the close of the year 1811, when, having married, and the prevailing sentiments of the ministry and the church in those days being that a minister greatly impeded his usefulness when he entered into the matrimonial connexion, he located. In 1815, however, he re-entered the Conference, and continued laboring in various circuits, mostly in the western part of South Carolina, and eastern part of Georgia until 1830, when he took a superannuated relation to the Conference. The circuits which, during these years and the nine following, when he was at different times supernumerary and effective, enjoyed his ministry to the fullest extent, were Keewee, Little River, Broad River, Saluda, and Abbeville Circuits. In 1839 he entered upon a superannuated relation again, in which he continued without interruption until his death. It was during this time that he engaged in business, and, as is often the case with ministers of the Gospel entering into secular engagements, did not succeed well, and contracted a good deal of prejudice against him in certain places. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that when this prejudice was at its height, brother Edwards commenced a protracted meeting in the very neighborhood where it was the strongest, and God blessing his labors, all prejudice was entirely dissipated, and one of the most gracious revivals ensued that had ever been witnessed in that section of the country.

As a preacher of the Gospel, brother Edwards was one of the most remarkable men that ever labored in the southern States. His preaching abilities were good; especially did he excel in the talent for extemporaneous speaking. Upon the spur of the moment he could deliver a discourse, marked not only with good sense and fervency, but with system of thought and power upon the hearers. He was distinguished for his skill in planning and conducting those meetings in which the conversion of souls is the especial object; nor was he ever satisfied with any efforts which did not result in this end. He was an indefatigable laborer in the ministry, always coming up with a host of help in himself when others began to weary in strength or flag in power. As a camp-meeting preacher, where the object of the meeting was the conversion of souls, he was often with powerful and blessed effect. As his life was useful, so his death was peaceful and triumphant. His memory is embalmed with the most sacred associations in the hearts of hundreds in these lands. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

Matthew Raiford, the eldest son of Maurice and Asenath Raiford, was born July the 12th, 1789, in Jefferson county, Georgia. His parents being Methodists, in the proper sense of that term, so trained him from infancy that under the grace of God he was strictly moral from his earliest years. He often said that the precise time when the work of regeneration passed upon his heart was unknown to him. But the comfortable assurance of a minister of the Gospel. He believed it his duty to attend regularly the sessions of his Conference, and hence, rode from Fort Mitchell, Alabama, to Wilmington, on horseback, once, rather than fail of duty in this regard. He had a strong sympathy for suffering humanity, and for its relief daily prayed and labored. He was sorely afflicted for several years before his death. He often spoke of death with calmness and Christian confidence. He retained his mind to the last. He died at the house of Dr. James Thweatt, in Monroe county, Georgia, on the 16th of April, 1849, in the full assurance of hope. Faithful on earth, we expect to greet him among the faithful in heaven.
