

Asbury Theological Seminary

ePLACE: preserving, learning, and creative exchange

Correspondence

Hannah Whital Smith

1983

Box 1_4 (Correspondence-Beecher, J.A to Booth-Clibborn, A.S.-1877-1908)

ATS Special Collections and Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://place.asburyseminary.edu/hwscorrespondence>

Part of the Christianity Commons

From the Duchess of Bedford

Sunday.

Woburn Abbey.

Dear Mr Smith

Thank you for the Leaflets w^{ch} I have enjoyed more than I can say. It is good of you to give them to me. I hope you have put me
down as a subscriber myself with our the money

I sent the book on comfort away to an uncomforted one, being used it - I long for another copy - may I have one? I am very yours; I fear - I shall be much interested in the Progress of the King's Daughters -

Yours very sincerely

Adeline M. Bradford