The Marshall Plan and Its Relevance Today

Aspen Institute - Washington, D.C.

Author Greg Behrman speaks about The Marshall Plan and Its Relevance Today as part of the Alma & Joseph Gildenhorn Book Series at The Aspen Institute.

*Sixty years after the United States implemented the Marshall Plan to aid Europe in its post-World War II economic recovery, author Greg Behrman spoke at the Aspen Institute offices in Washington, DC, about what the Plan's legacy and success can still impart on us today. "The Marshall Plan was one of the greatest achievements in statesmanship in the modern world," said Behrman, who is the Henry Kissinger Fellow for Foreign Policy at the Aspen Institute and author of the new release The Most Noble Adventure: The Marshall Plan and the Time When America Helped Save Europe (Free Press, August 2007) - Aspen Institute
