None.

Ques. 11. Were all the Preachers characters examined?
This was strictly attended to.

Ques. 12. Who have died this year?
John Barringer and Leander Wilson.

John Barringer was a native of Montgomery county, Virginia. He was admitted on trial in this Conference in 1829, then a young man. He traveled and filled important circuits and stations for seven or eight years, when it is believed, to attend to the settlement of his deceased father's estate, he located. Sometime prior to this he married the estimable Miss Sabre Embree, of Washington county, Te. In 1838 he was re-admitted, and faithfully discharged the duties of a traveling preacher until 1842, when his health having failed him he was granted a superannuated relation. About five years ago he lost his estimable wife, who, after long affliction from pulmonary disease, left the world with the brightest prospects of heaven. Our bereaved brother continued laboring, as his still declining health would admit, until the Conference of 1849, when he had become so prostrated in constitution that he was compelled to desist from regular work. Brother Barringer was a most pious and devoted minister of Christ. His talents were of a quite respectable order. In the early part of his ministerial career, he professed to have obtained the blessing of perfect love, which confidence he retained to the last, when all was peace and triumphant anticipation of heavenly rest. He died at Knoxville, Ten., at the house of his friend, Mr. William Homer, on the 17th of July last.

Leander Wilson, late a member of this Conference, was born in Buncombe (now Yancy) county, N. C., September 19th, 1816. He was favored with early religious training by his worthy parents. In the Fall of 1836 he was licensed to preach, and at the ensuing Conference admitted on trial, and appointed to travel Ashville circuit. In 1838 he traveled Franklin; 1839 New Market; 1840 Jonesville; 1841 Washington; 1842 Cleveland. At the close of this Conference year he was married to Miss Sarah E. Ragsdale, of Rhea county, Te. In 1843 he traveled Maryville circuit; 1844 Knoxville circuit; 1845 New Market. This year his health failed, and the succeeding year he was left without an appointment, in consequence thereof. In 1847 his health having somewhat improved he traveled Athens circuit. In 1848 he was appointed to Decatur circuit; but his health again declining, and assuming indications of consumption, he was compelled to desist from the work in which he so much delighted. In the Fall of this year he was called to endure the loss of his estimable wife, who died of consumption, in full assurance of a blissful immortality. At the next Conference, having somewhat improved in health, he was appointed to Abingdon station, Virginia, where he labored with great acceptability for some weeks, when he was again compelled, from declining health, to give up his appointment. He then returned to his mother's, in Meigs county, Te., where he spent most of his remaining days.

Brother Wilson's talents were of a high order, his piety unquestioned, and his death most triumphant. His obituary notice says: "A few moments before he breathed his last, he raised his hand and pointed upwards." When asked if he wanted any thing? he articularated, "Brother Henninger." It is known that brother Henninger, one of our most venerable and useful members had, a few years previously, closed his earthly career most triumphant.

David Wood.

The Rev. David Wood, the subject of the following memoir, was born in the county of Louisa, Va., on the 2d of February 1808. At an early age he was deeply impressed with the necessity of religion, but did not embrace it until December 1826, when he was happily converted to God. He attached himself to the Methodist Church July 1827; was licensed to preach in December of the same year, and employed by the presiding elder to travel on the Hanover circuit. He was received on trial into the Virginia Conference in 1829; he was appointed to the Charlottesville circuit. He afterwards received successively the following appointments, viz: to Williamsburg circuit 1830; Mecklenburg 1831; Petersburg station 1832; Suffolk 1833; New- bern, N. C., 1834. On the 21st of January, this year, he was married to Miss Juliana Ridick, of Suffolk, Va. In 1835 he was sent to Brunswick circuit; in 1836 to Suffolk and Smithfield; in 1837 to Orange; 1838 to Madison; 1839 and '40 to Rappahannock and Culpeper; 1841 to Nottoway; 1842 to Gates, N. C.; 1843 to Smithfield; 1844 Columbia. In 1845 he was appointed to Fluvanna, but in consequence of ill health did not travel. In 1846 he was superannuated, and settled in Charlottesville, where, for a part of the year, he had charge of the station, and served as chaplain to the University of Virginia half the session. In 1847 he traveled King George circuit; 1848 Albemarle; 1849 he was superannuary on Albemarle; 1850 supernumery on Fluvanna; 1851 supernumery on the Harrisonburg and Elk Run circuit. Sometime in December last, with a constitution greatly impaired, he removed to Port Repub, in the county of Rockingham, Va. Shortly after his arrival in this place, a gracious revival of religion commenced, of which he appears to have been the principal instrument, and in which he labored with extraordinary zeal and success. His exertions in this glorious work transcended his strength, prostrated his health, and rapidly accelerated his end. During his illness he said, in substance, he was conscious that for several years past his preaching had been hastening his death, but that he preferred to shorten his life by activity than to protract it by idleness. As the last scene approached, he spoke sweety of "a home in heaven." When asked a short time before he expired if he had any message to send to his brethren of the Conference, he said, "Tell them, one and all, press on to the kingdom." Amongst many other expressions of confidence and joy he said, "God is eminently near to my soul;" "Jesus died for me." After several days of severe suffering, at 3 o'clock, P. M., Thursday, 27th of March last, in great peace, he fell asleep on the bosom of Jesus, leaving a wife and one son to mourn his loss. He was buried in the church yard at Port Re-

Ques. 11. Were all the Preachers' characters examined?
This was strictly attended to.

Ques. 12. Who have died this year?
Geo. W. Sneed and Albert G. Kelley.

Rev. George W. Sneed, son of James Sneed, was born in Davidson county, Tennessee, four miles from Nashville, December 26th, 1799. He was raised and educated in Williamson county. He professed faith in Christ at a Camp meeting held at Salem in or about the year 1822. Some years subsequent to his conversion, he was licensed as a local preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and exercised his gifts to the edification of the Church. He was afterwards admitted into the Tennessee Conference, and continued an efficient itinerant minister for many years, laboring faithfully on various circuits and colored missions. He was a man of respectable talents, uniform piety and unflinching fidelity; much beloved by the people and his brethren in the ministry. Some two or three years since his health failed, and he was placed on the superannuated list. Hoping to recruit his health he removed with his family to Texas. Soon after his arrival there he grew worse, and died suddenly. His end was peace. He has left an interesting family and many friends.

Rev. Albert G. Kelly was born in Giles county, Tennessee, on the 21st of February 1823. He was licensed to preach the Gospel December 31st, 1842, and received on probation in the Tennessee Conference at Gallatin in 1843. He filled eight successive appointments, in the following order: Stone's River circuit 1843; Richland circuit 1844; Franklin station 1845; Lebanon circuit 1846; Duck River circuit two years in succession, 1847-'48; Chickasaw circuit 1849; and Athens station, his last charge, 1850.

In these several charges he labored with a true and rational zeal, and with that varied success which all ministers meet with in their fields of toil. In all of them he was useful, and in some of them he saw the cause of God prosper abundantly, and rejoiced over the happy numbers who were brought to Christ by his preaching. Many yet live in these circuits and stations to call him blessed; and doubtless many, saved through his instrumentality, welcomed him home to glory.

As a man, brother Kelly was a true Christian gentleman. He regarded tenderly the feelings of others, and strove to make them happy in his presence. He was just such a gentleman as fervent piety and a liberal charity always produce. He was social and brotherly in his intercourse, and esteemed it a privilege to admire what was generous in others.

As a minister of Christ, his character can bear the strictest scrutiny. He was earnest, ardent, pious, full of love to God and love for the souls of men. He duly considered the sacredness of his calling, and its high obligations were ever before his mind. In his last charge especially, his heart appeared to be burdened with the weight of souls, and his efforts were ceaseless to promote their salvation. His walk was as eloquent as his discourses; he preached by his life as well as from the pulpit.

His talents were of no mean order; his mind was of a logical cast, and his sermons well digested and thoroughly arranged. His talents were of no mean order; his mind was of a logical cast, and his sermons well digested and thoroughly arranged. His talents were of no mean order; his mind was of a logical cast, and his sermons well digested and thoroughly arranged.

His last sickness was protracted and severe. During its continuance, he conversed freely on the subject of his approaching end, and spoke of it with as much calmness as he would of a day's ride to a pleasant place. He left a wife and two children to mourn his loss. May our Father in heaven be their protector and stay. "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace."

JUBA ESTABROOK. He was born in Vermont, but emigrated to Ohio, where he was converted and began his ministry. In 1838 he was transferred to the Arkansas Conference, where, till his recent death, he has labored with great fidelity and usefulness. In this field his first circuit was Litchfield; then Batesville two years; Clarkeville, Washington, Union, Pine Bluff District four years; Eldorado circuit, Van Buren and Fort Smith; in the last of which he died, on the 21st of July last, in the 56th year of his age. As a circuit preacher he had few equals, and hundreds claim him for their father in the Gospel. A diligent, faithful, affectionate pastor, and an eminently holy man. He died of cholera, after exerting himself beyond his strength to visit, comfort and relieve all within his reach at Fort Smith, where this fearful scourge was prevalent. Dying, he said that he was going home, and would soon be in heaven. Well was he prepared, and may we also be ready.

WILLIAM B. MASON. He was born in Robeson county, North Carolina, March 24, 1808. He was converted at 25 years of age, and joined the itinerancy in the Tennessee Conference in 1837. In that Conference he traveled Somerville and Jackson circuits, and was then transferred (1839) to Arkansas. In this Conference he has traveled the Helena, Warren, Marion, Mt. Vernon and Harrison circuits, and the Red River African mission. His death transpired shortly after his third year's appointment to this mission, and crowned a life of great purity, fidelity and zeal, with exultant triumph. Our brother was well known as "a good man, full of faith and the Holy Ghost;" a faithful, devoted, successful preacher, eminently honored and beloved by his people, and by us all. He knew that his time was come, and a few hours before his easy exit hence, comforting his sorrowing wife he said, "I go home to-night?" It was the night of the 13th December 1850.

Linguin S. Birkhead, Zebedee Rush, David D. Byars and Alexander Gattis.

Ques. 4. Who are the Deacons?

Ques. 5. Who have been elected and ordained Elders this year?
James M. Fulton and Paul J. Carraway.
Ques. 12. Who have died this year?
John Rich.

Rev. John Rich, of the N. C. Conference, was born in Davie county, N. C., on the 10th October, 1813, where he spent his childhood and youth. When he arrived at manhood he removed to Davidson county, where he was converted in 1837. His conversion was bright, and the knowledge of his acceptance with God was clear. From this time forth he grew rapidly in wisdom and in favor with God and man, evincing a degree of mental strength and vigor, and a depth and perfection of heart-religion seldom found in one of his years. He had not long enjoyed the rich fullness of religious pleasure before he felt that a dispensation of the Gospel of Christ was committed to him. He yielded to the heavenly calling; like his Divine Master, for the joy that was set before him, he endured the cross. When he arrived at manhood he was converted in 1831. His conversion was clear. Ques. 12. Who have died this year?
Joseph Moore and Reddick Bunch.

JOSEPH MOORE, a pioneer of Southern Methodism, was born in the State of Virginia, in 1767. In his childhood his parents removed to Rutherford county, N. C. He enjoyed the advantages of early religious training, and in youth became a subject of Divine grace. He was licensed to preach in his nineteenth year, and five years afterwards admitted into the traveling connection. The Minutes show that he labored fourteen consecutive years in Virginia and North Carolina. In 1806 he located, which relation he retained until 1820, when he was re-admitted into the South Carolina Conference, where he remained until death released him from... his toils and sufferings. Either as a traveling or local preacher he sustained the character of a workman that needeth not to be ashamed. Though athletic in body and vigorous in mind, yet both failed him under protracted years of toil and disease. He has passed away. His worn-out body sleeps in peaceful grave, and his sainted spirit has flown to its home in the sky. He died in peace on the 14th of February 1851, in his 85th year, having been 67 years a worthy member of the church, and about 65 an effective minister of the Gospel of Christ:

"Servant of God, well done;
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle's fought, the vict'ry won—
Enter thy Master's joy."

REDDICK BUNCH, son of the Rev. John Bunch, formerly of the South Carolina Conference, died in great peace at the house of Thomas Hardee. His kind physicians and friends could not turn aside the fatal shaft. He had but just entered upon the mission field and the second year of his itinerancy. On the 14th of February last he was called to his reward. He was pious, devout and faithful.

Ques. 12. Who have died this year?

John T. Flanders and Lewis Myers.

The Rev. John T. Flanders, the subject of this memoir, was born and brought up in Emanuel county, Georgia. His pious mother died when he was young, and though his father was a local preacher of distinguished piety, he labored under many disadvantages in early life. He never learned even the first principle of English grammar till he was a man grown and an exhorter in the church. But when in the Providence of God an opportunity offered, his progress in learning was rapid, and he soon gave promise of future usefulness. In 1846 he joined the Georgia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and was sent to Emanuel mission. Here, all inexperienced and young as he was, and though a "prophet in his own country," he left the mission in a prosperous condition, having done a noble work of colporteurage as well as preaching.

In 1847 he was on the Sandersville circuit, and was happily successful in winning souls to Christ. In 1848 he was on the Pulaski mission, and in December of that year he married Miss Mandania M. Collinsworth, daughter of the late Rev. John Collinsworth, one of the most noted and useful preachers of his day. This marriage was a most happy one for brother Flanders. He now enjoyed for the first time the opportunities and facilities for study, and well did he improve them. In 1849 he was on the Kingston mission, and in 1850 and '51 he was on the Putnam mission to the people of color. On these missions his peculiar piety, industry and nobleness of soul, shone more brilliantly than ever before; and eternity day will reveal an host of these children of Ham saved through his instrumentality.

On the first day of July, while the fire of a holy revival was blazing on his mission, God called him from the field of conflict. His death was most triumphant. He shouted and praised God, and asked his wife to sing for him; and when he found that her feelings were too strongly excited, she could not, he lifted his own feeble voice, and sung, "Earth hath no sorrow that heaven cannot cure." Thus fell this soldier of the cross.

"Victorious his fall, for he rose as he fell, With Jesus his master, in glory to dwell; He has passed o'er the stream and reached the bright coast,
For he fell like a martyr, he died at his post."

The Rev. Lewis Myers, long a minister of the Gospel in the Georgia Conference, is numbered with the dead, and we would offer this brief memoir as a feeble tribute to his memory. This venerable man of God was born in Charleston district, South Carolina, on May 7th, 1775. When very young he was thrown upon them as an orphan. Under what circumstances he was led to the experience and profession of a religious life we are not informed; but a certificate signed by Hope Hull and J. H. Posey, in 1797, shows that he was a good student and Christian professor at that time. Some four or five years before he entered the itinerant ministry he was engaged in acquiring an education. He was admitted on trial in the South Carolina Conference in 1799, and appointed to Little Pee Dee and Anson circuit with Tobias Gibson and Britton Capel; 1800, Orangeburg circuit; 1801 was ordained Deacon by Bishop Ashbury, and appointed to Bush river and Cherokee circuit with Levi Garrison; 1802 to Broad River circuit; and in 1803 was ordained Elder and appointed to Little river circuit with J. Randall; 1804 to Oguchee circuit; 1805, Bladen circuit, with James Ros­sell and J. Porter; and in 1806 was stationed in Charleston with Levi Garrison; 1807 appointed to Saluda district; and also 1808, 1809 and 1810 Oguchee district; also, 1811, '12 and '13, and in 1814, '15, '16 and '17, he was on Occonee district; 1818 stationed in Charleston with A. Talley and Henry Bass; also in Charleston 1819; 1820 Edisto district; also 1821, '22 and '3; 1824 stationed in Georgetown; 1825 he was appointed supernumerary on Effingham circuit; and, finally exhausted by the labors of his active ministry, and the vicissitudes of spasmodic asthma, he took a superannuated relation to the conference, and settled himself at Goshen, Effingham county, Georgia.

Having retired into private life, he commenced teaching school, but never ceased to preach as his strength and circumstances would allow, until his tongue faltered in the pulpit, and his step benumbed by paralysis, tottered in the sanctuary. In the days of his manly strength his ministry was characterized by point, terseness and dignity, combined with great tenderness of spirit. He knew his Bible thoroughly, and the great elements of salvation. With a searching intuition he looked through the mysteries of human nature, understood its varying moods, and fathomed its depths. Not vehement, not exclusively argumentative, never frigid, never flowery; he was a massive commonsense, a spirit-anointed preacher of the truth as it is in Jesus. Many of his sentences, unadorned with the finish of the rhetorician, were mighty in path and meaning, and fell on the listener with the emphasis of demonstrated truth. He was a sturdy pioneer in the early developments of Methodism in Carolina and Georgia. Let his memory be honored as one of the fathers of Southern Methodism.

While walking in his house in March 1847 he was stricken by an apoplectic fit, which, however, rapidly subsided and assumed the form of paralysis. His mental powers soon waned, and his intellect, once so sound, fell into almost total eclipse. About six months before his death, he recognised his son for the last time, and losing his consciousness, apparently on every other subject, his mind retained a lingering vitality on his relation to God. The ruling passion, the love of God, gave evidence of its control of his decaying faculties; and frequently after he had lost the power of speech, his looks showed the drift of the mental and emotional currents. At last the weary wheels of life stood still; what was mortal of him obeyed the stern decree, and the immortal spirit went to join the company of the redeemed. Thus he finished his course with joy November 16th, 1851.

The partner of his labors and sacrifices passed to her heavenly home a few years before; but they have rejoined in that better land to part no more. Their children cherish the most affectionate veneration for their memory, and the liveliest sense of the value of those prayers in their behalf, which were daily offered before the throne of the heavenly grace. May they ever emulate the example of spotless and consistent piety, which, as a rich inheritance, is left them.

Ques. 12. Who have died this year?
John C. Johnson.

The Rev. John C. Johnson, son of Jonathan and Rachel Johnson, was born in the State of Pennsylvania on the 19th day of August 1782. His father died when he was four years of age. In his eighth year his mother moved to the State of Kentucky, where he was raised up to manhood. On the 20th day of July 1800 he was converted to God, and joined the Presbyterian Church. In the year 1802 he came to the State of Mississippi, and settled at Spring Hill, in Jefferson county. In the year 1805, under the ministry of the Rev. Newit Vich, a local preacher, he joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. Soon after he joined the church he was appointed class leader, and was licensed to exhort. In the year 1812 he was licensed to preach the gospel. In the Fall of 1839 he was received into the Mississippi Conference on probation, and appointed to the Bayou Pierre colored mission. At the ensuing conference he was discontinued at his own request. He was re-admitted on trial at the conference in the Fall of 1844, and was appointed to the Bayou Pierre circuit. In 1846 he traveled the Amite circuit. In the close of this year he was received into full connection, being in Elder's orders, and returned to the same circuit. In 1848 he traveled the Coles Creek circuit. In 1849 he was on the superannuated list. At the ensuing conference he made effective, and appointed to the Coles Creek mission to the people of colour. In 1851 he traveled the Crystal Springs circuit. On the 3d day of September, on his way home to see his family, he was taken sick with the Typhoid Fever. He reached home on the next day. From the commencement of his sickness he had a presentiment that he would not recover. He said his work was done, and rejoiced at the near prospect of going to his rest above. During his protracted illness he never doubted for a moment his acceptance with his God. On Friday before his death he believed he was dying. He had his wife, his children and servants, all called to his bedside; he exhorted them, individually, to meet him in heaven, and bid them farewell. He then threw his arms around his beloved wife and said, "If the Lord will permit, I will be your guardian angel." The last plain sentence he was heard to utter was, "My home is in heaven." He lingered till Tuesday, the 30th day of September 1851, when his immortal spirit took its flight to the regions of bliss. Brother Johnson was a most excellent man, a devoted Christian, a very useful minister. He died in the 69th year of his age, in the 52d of his Christian experience, and in the 39th of his ministry, local and traveling. It may truly be said that he died in the Lord, and his works will follow him. May the good Lord bless and save his companion and children, and finally bring them all to meet in heaven.

Byron Benton.

Rev. Byron Benton was born in Caldwell county, Kentucky, on the 18th of December 1812. He removed to Port Gibson, Mississippi, in 1820, where, in 1827, he embraced religion and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. All who knew him at this period of his life were impressed with his unaffected piety and sincerity. By trade he was a Printer. He assisted Rev. John N. Maffit in the publication of the Mississippi Christian Herald at Natchez, and was at the same time editor and proprietor of the Natchez Courier. In 1837 he published the Southron at Port Gibson. He was licensed to preach in 1838, and was received on trial in 1839, and was received on trial into the Mississippi Conference at its session held in Grenada. He traveled until 1842, when he located on account of his feeble health. In December 1843 he was married to Miss Pamela S. Goff, of Covington, La., with whom he lived until her decease in 1846. He was re-admitted into the conference in 1845, and continued in the faithful discharge of his ministerial duties as far as health would permit, until the 28th of June 1851, when he was suddenly called from labor to reward. His death was occasioned by a kick from his horse on the chest near the heart. He survived but a few hours; this short time was spent in earnest prayer, commending himself to God. Brother Benton was a pure man, zealous, devoted, unostentatious, unaffected and generous. He was beloved by all who knew him. He has left one son, about 7 years old, to be cared for by his kindred and friends.

This Conference commenced its first session, and was organized in Wesley Chapel, San Francisco, California, April 15th, 1852, in which Jesse Boring, the first superintendent of the California mission, presided.

From the seventh annual report, 1852, of the missionary board, we extract the following statistics of that Conference:

Sabbath School Scholars, 192
Superintendents, 7
Teachers, 22
Volumes in Libraries, 536
Amount collected for Sabbath Schools, $125 00
Amount collected for Missions, $731 35

This is exclusively missionary collections, and not counted in the amount paid in support of the Missionaries.

Houses of Worship, 10
Parsonages, 6
Schools—two in operation and two waiting the arrival of teachers.

Appointments for the Present Year.

Jesse Boring, Superintendent and Editor of the Christian Observer.

The Texas Minutes were not received, until at a late date Brother Alexander was kind enough to furnish them, after seeing it announced in the papers that they were not forthcoming; and the Minutes of one of the Western Conferences were not received until the Spring.
The Agent is sensible that the General Minutes should be published at farthest in the month of March, and would be, if the Minutes were furnished as soon as the Conferences are over.

The falling off in the number of Local Preachers is explained by the fact, that there are no Local Preachers reported in the Minutes of the Tennessee, Indian Mission, Mississippi and Alabama Conferences. Last year those Conferences reported 382 Local Preachers, which (without any increase) added to the number reported from the other Conferences, would make an increase of 71 Local Preachers.
