Dear Mrs Smith

I have been desirous for some time to know your address, and at last it is in my possession. yet at times I wonder if I ought to write. But were you living here I do not think it would be wrong to talk with you. most gladly would I lay aside pen and paper to talk with you face to face.
If Mr Spurgeon, or Mr Moody were living perhaps I might have written them at For a long time I have given much thought to the 11 chap't of 1 Corinthians at least the first 16 verses I would like to know how you understand it. Does Paul have reference to public worship only, or that a woman should be covered at home or always, as one might say, never proc. uncovered Is there not a possibility of ^{or} danger of some legality creeping ⁱⁿ is it to be a special thing to be worn on proper

Should one lay aside their Bennett or not in church and wear only that special thing. Please let me know your mind in regard to this matter and what you prefer. My mind has seemed down to you. I am a widow and ~~thrift & labor the girls~~ live with my Daughter and her husband in the county.
 I am a member of a Baptist Church. Dear Sister will you remember me in your prayers.

Truly

Mrs J. C. Bennett
