MINUTES OF MEETING OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES
Indian Springs Holiness Camp Ground
Monday, August 14, 1961

Members Present: McKibben, Mobley, Peabody, Gamble Fuller, Harris, Haynes, Newton, Edenfield, J. Luce, Pittman and Barrett.

President McKibben presided at meeting. Opened at 2:00 P.M. with prayer by Edenfield.

McKibben instructed secretary to write letters to Mrs. C. B. Bowen concerning the death of her husband and a member of the Board of Trustees, C. B. Bowen, to A. L. Luce, Sr., on his illness, and to George Baker, member of the Board, on his illness.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES:

Cottage Holders' Committee - Edenfield reporting. Application of Oscar Shaw to transfer deed of his cottage to his brother, Alvah Shaw, approved. Application of D. Gorham Jackson to buy cottage of Miss Azalee Jackson (known previously as Hutcherson cottage, lot No. 7) disapproved. Committee had no recommendations on A. O. Allen's application to buy Mays cottage. (Allen had already bought cottage without knowledge of committee). After much discussion, Pittman moved that Edenfield, McKibben, and Harris be authorized to contact Allen relative to his buying cottage and to offer to buy cottage for camp ground, offering him the amount of money he had tied up in cottage. Gamble seconded. Motion passed.

Pulpit Committee - Haynes reporting. The following workers for Camp Ground approved for years indicated:

1962 - Dr. J. C. McPheeters

Rev. Jimmy Lentz
