Educate Our Mothers, or Wise Motherhood.

By Mrs Pearsall Smith. (London: James Nisbet & Co., Limited.)—This little book ought to have been entitled, "How to Deal with Children." It contains a number of hints on the home training of the young, and its advice should be as serviceable to fathers as to mothers. Mrs Smith shows that she has a sympathetic insight into the mind and needs of a child, and her counsels are wise and practical. She conveys her instructions in a simple and interesting style.
