NORTON LODGE,
HARROGATE.

To Mr. Reesale Smith.

Dear Madam,

Recently I came across a small booklet written by you entitled "Chains of God" & thinking it a very valuable message, given in such a way that it arrests interest, I wrote to the publisher for some copies to distribute, only if leave in reply, that it is out of print.

I am venturing to write you, asking if you would feel inclined to have it reprinted in rather different style, not so small print, as these things have changed so much, & people have to be attracted to the good, & the true; if you do think it worth while, & its publication is made known. I think it would meet with ready sale. You do not know me, but I know friend of yours, & mine many of whom are now with - the Lord With every kind wish for you, & sincere appreciation of your helpful messages

Believe me

Yours very truly

Hannah Batsor
