Dear Mrs. Smith:

Despite the disinclination you have to hearing anything of yourself, I take the liberty to refer to your recent book, "Bible Readings" on the books of the old Test. The great satisfaction I have enjoyed in reading it compels me to thrust this testimony upon you. I have a right to be thankful for what I receive, and bless God for providing the feast to my hand. Jesus multiplied the loaves;

yet doubtless, as each hungry body received a piece of bread, he felt like saying "Thank You" to the disciple who gave it.
So to you I say, "Thank You," for the rich Repast in the "Bible Reading." The book will greatly assist Sincere Seekers, as well as furnishing Morrow and fat-ness to the Saints who are in love with the ways of the Lord. Like the bread of Mir-acle, it is a remarkable pro-duction. To God be the praise.
The Lord continue his blessing to you and your house.

W. H. Boole
