Introduction

The Papers of Clarence Yates contains ___ cubic feet of materials which include correspondence (1951-1974), subject files (1983-1994), literary productions and sermons (1950's-1960's), financial documents (1974-1975), scrapbook materials (1955-1980), and printed materials (1940-1985).

All materials are unrestricted.

Processing of this collection occurred between April-May 2004. The finding aid was prepared in June 2004. Both were compiled by Kelly Hedgecock.

Content

The Papers of Clarence Yates consist mainly of documents from 1940-1994 with the bulk of the collection between the 1950's and the 1970's.

The collection is composed of correspondence, subject files, literary productions, financial documents, scrapbook materials, and printed materials. Most series are arranged alphabetically, then chronologically.

The largest section includes printed materials, which have been arranged alphabetically and chronologically when needed.
