Nos. 4, 12 and 14 are each gilt edges, round corners, boxed.

"To commend this work would seem almost superfluous; and yet to young Christians who may not know it, we cannot refrain from saying: buy this book and keep it with your Bible for constant study, until you have thoroughly mastered, in your own experience, the 'secret of which it tells.' It will transform the dark days of your life, as it has transformed those of thousands before you, into days of heavenly light."—The Evangelist, New York.

Every-Day Religion; or, The Common-Sense Teaching of the Bible. By Hannah Whitall Smith, author of "The Christian's Secret of a Happy Life." 12mo, cloth, $1.00.

"The aim of this little volume is practical, and no further concerned with a doctrinal exposition of the Scriptures than is implied in the practical, every-day sense they carry. In this view of the matter the author writes with clear and pungent force. She deals in homely illustrations, and writes a plain book for plain people."—The Independent.

The Open Secret; or, the Bible Explaining Itself. A Series of Practical Bible Readings. By Hannah Whitall Smith. 9th thousand. 12mo, cloth, $1.00.

The Ideal Prayer Meeting. Hints and Helps Toward Its Realization. By W. H. Groat. Introduction by Rev. Wm. M. Lawrence. 12mo, cloth, 50c.

"Dr. William M. Lawrence of Chicago, introduces the book and its author, and says: 'Mr. Groat has manifested rare fitness in the capacity of leader, and the suggestions which he sets forth in the volume are the result of much practical experience both in his own church and elsewhere. * * It will be found helpful to all pastors and laymen who have to meet the responsibility of arranging for prayer meeting.'—Men.

The Life of Privilege; or, Possession, Peace and Power. By the Rev. H. W. Webb-Peploe, Prebendary of St. Paul's Cathedral, London. Northfield Conference Addresses, 1895. 12mo, cloth, $1.00.

"Thirteen sermons marked by much spirituality of thought. Such glowing words as these, coming from the heart, go to the heart, and must be a help and an inspiration to many an earnest seeker after righteousness."—The Christian Advocate, New York.

The Indwelling Christ. By Rev. J. M. Campbell. Introduction by Prof. A. B. Bruce. 12mo, cloth, 75c.

"The book is indeed rich, in its interpretations, in its comparisons of truth with truth, and in its appreciation of the divinely planned life of the believer. One rises from its reading with a keener desire for a full experience of Christ's purpose in his heart."—The Standard.

The Heaven-Life; or, Stimulus for Two Worlds. By Rev. David Gregg, D. D. 12mo, cloth, gilt top, 75c.

"A helpful and inspiring book."—The Observer, New York.

"Exceedingly attractive subjects treated by a thinker of great discrimination."—The Baltimore Methodist.

Inspired Through Suffering. By Rev. D. O. Mears, D. D. 12mo, cloth, 75c.

"It deals with a topic of every-day and universal interest. The style is fresh and attractive, and from beginning to end there is not a dull page. The handling is tender but intelligent and manly, sympathetic but instructive and encouraging."—The Advance.
