Introduction

The Albert Edward Day papers include biographical materials, literary productions, correspondence, sermon notes, retreat lecture notes, poetry, prayers, public addresses, works on spiritual healing, articles, radio broadcast notes, some scrapbook materials and photographs.

The bulk of the collection is composed of handwritten sermon notes (65%). Among these notes are series of sermons, some of which are entitled, "Will Christ Come in 1922?", "Religion of Modern Drama" (1933), "America's Choice" (1936), "Twenty Nights in Hell", "The Climb to Heaven", "Studies in Matthew" (1952,53), "Faith, Prayer and Miracles", "Frank Answers to Personal Problems", "Christianity and Psychology" and many series on the life and ministry of Jesus. Also among the mss. Are addresses to a wide range of civic organizations: Kiwanis, Nurses Convention, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Masonic Club, Historic Society, etc.

Perhaps of special interest are the radio broadcasts and the material concerning the Pittsburgh Press Controversy.

The Day papers were given to the library in 1975 by surviving members of his family. Coming from three sources, they arrived in no apparent order.

These papers are a part of the Special Collections Department of the B. L. Fisher Library, Asbury Theological Seminary. They are available for research.

The finding aid was prepared by Pat Bennett and others in April, 1987.

Biographical Sketch

Albert Edward Day was born August 18, 1884 in Euphemia, Ohi. 1904 marked a singular beginning for the young Mr. Day, for in that year he graduated with an A. B. from Taylor University, was ordained in the Methodist Episcopal Church and married Emma Reeder.

From 1904 to 1916, Rev. Day pastored four churches in the Central Ohio Conference: Belle Fontaine (1904-1906), West Liberty (1906-1909), Bradford (1909-1910) and St. Paris (1910-1913). During his fifth pastoral assignment (1913-1916), this time in the West Ohio Conference, in Cincinnati, Rev. Day earned an M A. from the University and received an honorary D. D. from Taylor University.

Day's peace time ministry was interrupted from 1918-1919 while he was chaplain for the 117th Field Signal Battalion, 42nd Div., A.E.F. (Army). On returning from the European theater, Day pastored in the Northeast Ohio Conference at Canton (1919-1925). Here he served both as a delegate to General Conference (1924) and as a member of the Board of Foreign Missions (1924-1936).

1925 signaled Day's departure from the Ohio Conferences and his appointment to Christ Church, Pittsburg, Pennsylvania (1925-1932) in the Pittsburg Conference. While at Christ Church, he received another Honorary D. D., this time from Ohio Wesleyan University, and began his literary career by writing, Present Perils in Religion (1928), and, with others, he writes Whither Religion (1929), Revitalizing Religion (1920), and Contemporary Preaching (1931). From 1931 to 1942, Day tried his hands at radio addresses (KDKA, Pittsburg) and again served as delegate to the General Conference (1932).

On the move again, Day took an appointment at Mount Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, Maryland in the Baltimore Conference (1932-1937). During these six years, Day lectured three times: Shepherd Lecture on Preaching, Bangor Seminary (1933), Lyman Beecher Lecture on Preaching, Yale (1934), and the Earl Lecture, Pacific School of Religions (1937). He was the chairman of the Social Service Commission (1933-1937), wrote Jesus and Human Personality (1934) and received from Allegheny College his third honorary D. D.

In 1937, Dr. Day was called to the west coast. He pastored the First Methodist Church, Pasadena, California (1937-1945/48). Here Day seems to have entered the most active period of his life, for he writes five times: God In Us: We In God, The Evangel of a New World, The Faith We Live, The Terrible Meek, and Discipline and Discovery, and lectures there times: Gates Lecture, Grinnell College (1938), Sam Jones Lecture, Emory University (1934) and Fondren Lecture, Southern Methodist University (1940), receives two more degrees: a Litt. D. from the University of Southern California (1934) and an honorary L. H. D. from the College of Osteopathic Phys. and Surg. (1942), is selected twice as a leading Methodist preacher: 1 of 6 in America by "Christian Century" Poll (1940) and 1 of 10 most influential living Methodists by "Christian Advocate" Poll (1947), becomes involved in church and federal government: Special mediator, National War Labor Board (1942-1943), Vice President, Federal Council of Churches (1942-1944), Chairman of the Committee on Evangelism, Southern California-Arizona Conference (1943), again delegate to the General Conference (1944), member of the General Board of Evangelism (1944), member of the sub-committee on Church and War (1944-1948) and Executive Committee, Crusade for Christ (1944-1948), contributes to Methodist periodicals (1945-1948), and founds the "Disciplined Order of Christ" in August, 1945 at Albion College in Michigan. In 1945, he also becomes the editor of the "New Life" magazine and the Director of the "New Life" movement.

1948 marks both the harvest and decline of a most popular and prolific Methodist preacher, for he retired to Mount Vernon Place Church in Baltimore (1948-1950) and commenced his most significant Radio Broadcast: The English Lecture, Andover-Newton Seminary (1949) and The Ida S. Werneke Lecture, Eden Seminary (1955), is again a Delegate to General Conference (1952 and 1956), writes An Autobiography of Prayer (1952) and celebrates his 50th anniversary both in ministry and in marriage.

He retired from the pastorate in 1957, moving to Annandale, Virginia. He taught at Wesley Seminary in Washington (1957), lectured for the last time as Earl Lecturer, Pacific School of Religion (1958), wrote five more times: Existence Under God (1958), Dialogue and Destiny (1961), The Cup and the Sword (1962), Letters on the Healing Ministry (1964) and The Captivating Presence (1971). In 1966, Dr. Day began a prayer discipline and retreat ministry at Gently Farms in Virginia. Apparently this was his last work, for we have nothing until his death on October 12, 1973.

Dr. Day's life and work falls easily four phases: (I) The Formative Years (1884-1904), (II) The Struggling Years (1904-1924), (III) The Achieving Years (125-1948) and (IV) The Harvest and Decline (1948-1973). These four phases are marked primarily by major pastoral moves: to Ohio between Phase I and II, to Pittsburg (also Bltimore and Pasadena) between II and III and back to Baltimore for IV.

Scope and Content

The Albert Edward Day papers span the years from 1918 to 1968, with the bulk of the material (some 65% sermons), though undated, representing the period from his pastoral appointment at Christ Church, Pittsburg, Pennsylvania in 1925 to his retirement and transition from Mount Vernon Place Church, Baltimore, Maryland in 1957 to his Gently Farms Ministry near Front Royal, Virginia in 1966. Though the bulk of Day's material falls roughly between 1926 and 1966, he nevertheless wrote before 1926 and continued to write after 1966 until near his death in 1973; however, little of that material is included in this collection.

Materials from Day's pastoral years (1926-1957) are primarily sermons, yet interspersed throughout are college lecture notes, seminar notes, retreat lecture notes, unspecified book chapters, a poem, prayers, civic addresses, works on spiritual healing, articles, radio broadcast notes, scrapbook material, a copy of his book: God in Us: We in God, and photographs of the "Disciplined Order of Christ" retreat in Santa Barbara, California. The collection includes a small amount of correspondence from Mrs. J. B. Clark and Carol and Walter Dickson, but perhaps of greater interest is the correspondence concerning the "Pittsburg Controversy".

Although the collection is missing evidence of Day's early school, military and pastoral years (1884-1924) and his closing years at Gently Farms (1966-1973), it nevertheless seems to contain enough of his thought both in sermons and radio address to capture the essence of the man, his message and his ministry.

Perhaps the greatest draw-back to the collection is Day's early penmanship; it is neat and consistent, yet it defies deciphering because it modulates so little that all words appear the same. Indeed, it is a marvel that Day himself could read his own notes, save preach from them, which he apparently did. His later writing improves in legibility.

The heart of the Day collection seems to lie in his sermons and public addresses generally and in his writings during the Second World War period specifically. Between 1940 and 1947, Day is selected twice as one of the most influential preachers and living Methodists in two magazine polls. It is perhaps during this period (1940-1947) as an influential Methodist preacher and writer.
