

Asbury Theological Seminary

ePLACE: preserving, learning, and creative exchange

Correspondence

Hannah Whitall Smith

1983

Box 1_10 (Correspondence- Crosfield, s.to Eglestein, Countess.1879-1905)

ATS Special Collections and Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://place.asburyseminary.edu/hwscorrespondence>

Part of the Christianity Commons answered of sent books

Lovell
Vic

C. Douglas Crouch,

"NEWTON VILLA,"
CAMBRIDGE ROAD,
WORTHING.

May 22/93.

Dear Madam

I owe you a debt of gratitude for your admirable little book: "The Christian's Heret of a happy life". The book has been made a great blessing to me.

Worthing is my home (and the Pastorate of the Baptist Church my charge; but I am suffering from a throat affection, and resting here, and at other places.
Having heard various brother ministers on my holiday.

I am persuaded that they need just the help which your book is calculated to give. I should much like to give them one each but cannot afford to do so; but if any of your friends enable you to make presents of the book for free distribution, it would be a great joy to me to be the medium of distribution. I could easily find recipients for a dozen or more. And with the continued blessing of the Lord upon the book, I believe that untold good would be the result in their congregations.

I stay here till Monday next, after that I expect to be at "The Grange", Northoe, North Devon, for three weeks, and then home, my address being as on enclosed card. Trust - may your book will yet lead many more into the enjoyment & power of Life more abundantly?

I am, Dear Madam

Yours sincerely
F. Douglas Crouch

Mr. Pease & Co. Smith.