Introduction

The Papers of Edmund W. Robb contain 44.2 cubic feet of materials which include: biographical materials (1946-1995), organizational proceedings (1975-2000), correspondence (1943-2002), subject files (1968-2002), reports (1936-1978), sermons and literary productions (1968-2001), legal documents (1971-1997), financial documents (1984-2002), scrapbook materials (1942-2002), lists (1980-2002), printed materials (1966-2002), photographic materials (dates unknown), and audio recordings (dates unknown).

All of the John Wesley fellows application (i.e. materials from the AFTE, A Foundation for Theological Education) have restricted access. The other materials in the collection are open.

The Papers of Edmund W. Robb were given to Asbury Theological Seminary by Ed Robb. They are housed in B.L. Fisher Library according to the established policies of its Special Collection Department. All newspaper clippings and scrapbooks have been copied.

Processing of this collection occurred from March 2003 to January 2004; the finding aid was prepared in February 2004. The collection was completed by Kelly Hedgecock and James Wooster, under the direction of Grace Yoder. The finding aid was compiled by Kelly Hedgecock.

Biographical Sketch

Edmund Whetstone Robb Jr. was born in 1926 in Marshall, TX. He was a member of the U.S. Naval services in World War II. He is ministerial member of the Northwest Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church. He has served as an ordained pastor for many years and was an evangelist for nearly 40 years before his retirement in 2001. As executive director of the Ed Robb Evangelistic Association, he has preached in every area of the United States and has visited more than 40 countries.

Mr. Robb is the co-author of The Betrayal of the Church: Apostasy and Renewal in the Mainline Denominations, a book which received the Golden Medallion award in the theology doctrine category of the Evangelical Christian Publishers Association Awards.

His association published a quarterly magazine, Challenge to Evangelism Today, which went to over 45,000 households. He has written many articles that have been published in religious publications such as Christianity Today, Christian Advocate, The Herald, Good News, and Christian Century.

He has been a leader in his own denomination, having served on the executive committee of the Council of Evangelism and as the chairman of his Conference Board of Evangelism. In 1982, he was a delegate to the Oxford Institute on Methodist Theological Studies, Oxford, England, sponsored by the World Methodist Council.

In 1972, Asbury Theological Seminary conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. In 1989, Mr. Robb was named to the Foundation of Evangelism's Hall of Fame as one of world Methodism's forty distinguished evangelistic leaders of the past 40 years. Good News Magazine named him one of the ten leaders who shaped the 1980's in United Methodism. In 1991, Asbury College conferred upon him the honorary Doctor of Humane Letters.

Mr. Robb was the founder of A Foundation for Theological Education. The Foundation is committed to evangelical theological renewal within the United Methodist Church. The Foundation funds scholars, called John Wesley Fellows, to help enable them to pursue their Ph.D. degrees.

In addition, Mr. Robb has served as chairman of the Executive Committee on the Institute on Religion and Democracy. He was the past chairman of Good News, A Forum for Scriptural Christianity within the United Methodist Church. He also served as a trustee of Asbury Theological Seminary. Mr. Robb was the director of the Mission Society for United Methodists. Mr. Robb was a delegate to the World Methodist Council that met in Singapore in 1991.

Mr. Robb has toured the former Soviet Union and preached in Estonia in 1982. In 1983, he visited Norway and preached at the United Methodist Annual Conference of Norway. In May 1990, he toured Eastern Europe and preached in Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, and East Germany. He has preached on four continents.

Mr. Robb has been married for many years to his wife, Martha Robb and is the father of five children. One son is a United Methodist pastor, two of his daughters are married to United Methodist ministers, one son serves as the CEO of a Christian financial development ministry, and a daughter is a journalist and co-authored The Betrayal of the Church.

Mr. Robb retired from ministry in 2001.

Scope and Content

The Papers of Edmund W. Robb consists mainly of documents from 1936 to 2002 with the bulk of the collection between 1968 to 2001. There are many documents that are not dated.

This collection is composed of biographical material, proceedings, correspondence, subject files, reports, literary productions, research materials for articles, legal and financial documents, scrapbook materials, printed materials, photographs, and audio recordings. Most series are arranged alphabetically and chronologically.

Significant information regarding the Ed Robb Evangelistic Association, A Foundation for Theological Education, The United Methodist Church, Good News, the Institute on Religion and Democracy, Asbury Theological seminary, the Mission Society for United Methodists, and the National Council of Churches can be found in this collection. Also, more personal information regarding Mr. Robb and his family is included, even though these are much less expansive.
