Introduction

The Papers of Melvin E. Dieter is a collections of photocopied correspondence belonging to Hannah Whitall Smith, one of the leading figures in the Holiness movement. In addition to the correspondence, the collection includes Dieter's literary works, such as Recollections of John Jay Smith and the Inventory of Hannah Whitall Smith's correspondences housed at the Lily Library at Indiana University.

Biographical Sketch

Dr. Melvin E. Dieter, a distinguished scholar in the field of Holiness theology and American religious history, is known for his deep engagement with the history of the Holiness movement, particularly through his research on key figures such as Hannah Whitall Smith and John Jay Smith. Dieter has contributed significantly to the academic study of the Wesleyan and Holiness traditions, focusing on theological, historical, and biographical aspects of the movement.

Scope and Content

The Papers of Melvin E. Dieter consist primarily of a rich collection of correspondence belonging to Hannah Whitall Smith that was photocopied from Indiana University's Lily Library Archives and Special Collections by Dieter. Spanning from 1841 to 1911, this collection offers valuable insights into the life and work of Hannah Whitall Smith.

I. Correspondence

The correspondence section of the collection, contained in box 1 through box 17, spans the vast majority of this collection.

II. Literary Productions

The literary production section of the collection contains research notes and papers of Dieter, including: Recollections of John Jay Smith, and the inventory of Hannah Whitall Smith's (friend's and family's, as well) correspondence created by Dieter, most likely in reference to Smith's Collection at Indiana University's Lily Library.
