Dear Bro McKibben

The inclosed, 'Mr Pittman has asked me to send to you & ask you to please handle for him

You will be glad to hear he is back home & hoping to regain his strength. He is walking around the house & hopes to get out under the trees soon.

He are both remembering the Camp-meeting and pray that the ministers may bring God's message to the people present.

Most Sincerely

Mrs H.W. Pittman
