

Asbury Theological Seminary

ePLACE: preserving, learning, and creative exchange

Correspondence

Hannah Whitall Smith

1983

Box 1_14 Correspondence Fowler, Emmato French, Thomas 1880-1910)

ATS Special Collections and Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://place.asburyseminary.edu/hwscorrespondence>

Part of the Christianity Commons

Answered
Feb. 20, 1910

X

Mrs Hannah W. Smith.

Dear Mrs Smith:-

I have read and re-read your "Christians Secret of a Happy Life." And feel that it is so true, that it is surely the privilege of Christians to be happy.

But I am not. I feel sure that I have consecrated all, and God does keep me from actual sin, and enables me to do what I feel that I must do. but there is not the liberty. the love to do his will that I want. There is not the pleasure in doing my duty that there should be.

Oh. please pray for me
that I may be delivered
from bondage and walk
at liberty.

I have been convicted for holiness almost ever since I have been a Christian which is about six years.
Have attended Revivals
where it was preached

and Taught, have gone to the altar time after time. I am now in a Hospital, and am trying once more to be free.
I am trying to trust
His word each moment.
Please do pray for me.

And if you would write a few words of encouragement and counsel

I would appreciate it very much.

Will ask you to pardon

writing with pencil, as I have nothing else at hand.

If you write me, address

Mrs B. C. Foxworth.

Paris.

W. C. P. Cook.

Kentucky.

Please tell me if you think it consistent with a holy life, for one to try to make themselves agreeable when thrown with persons that do not care to discuss church matters or Christian living. Thanking you so much, for any favor shown.
Mrs B. C. F.