The Precincts,

Canterbury.

Sept. 21st 1893.

Dear Mr. Russell Smith,

We are looking forward to your visit and address next Monday, and shall expect you & your daughter, as you proposed, to be luncheon. I might have this & have sent you some of the notices, of which I now send three.

Adieu me, with all good wishes, your very truly,

W. H. Remondet.
