

Asbury Theological Seminary

ePLACE: preserving, learning, and creative exchange

Correspondence

Hannah Whitall Smith

1983

Box 2_2 (Correspondence- Gurney, Emelia P.- 1885-1888)

ATS Special Collections and Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://place.asburyseminary.edu/hwscorrespondence>

Part of the Christianity Commons

3. True life
w.

Dec-7.

Beloved Beloved!

I leap & thy words - a flame seems to start up ever when they come to me by word or pen - I am sure those East
bourne meetings must be as thee describes!
Dearest Isabel Greene

is such a grand being of utter disinterestedness
She has stood alone in such a worldly &
earth to earth family!
& has really fought
a wondrous fight of faith - yet will not accept joy in what God is because she feels herself so unworthy of it - She looks in all to Miss Bell because she thinks - she is certain Miss B "wins more souls to Christ" ^{than she does}

Darling Beloved
would you not come & give me & a little circle
some readings
after Christmas? Say 3 or 4 in January?

Does sleep visit thee
any more kindly - I ask it for thee some times -

Thy loving grateful
E.

Geraldine O'Meara
does not arrive for another week - or 10 days - Let me know when thee could come here morning noon or night