kind and I don't want to help it. I thank you ever so much for all the trouble you have taken, about my experience. And now dear I would do anything about the tracts. I would like you to ask Dr Bullis to have about twenty-five extra copies struck off and send them to me and I will pay him whatever they are, then I will mail them to my friends who do not take the paper. At the same time just inquire how much they will be. It is lovely for you to have such confirming evidences, I rejoice with Miss W. and Mrs B. remember me to them. Yes I think there is more yet. I met with a lady at sea - Cliff Mattie Mc Clellan Brown and coming home on the boat our conversation turned upon the mysteries of the hereafter, and I was bid to tell her my experience and I found myself talking about the Union with Christ; as His Bride the first time I have ever mentioned it - and for the moment I was almost frightened, but I was calmed by my Bride-groom's presence and thrilled with His divine touch, and she closing her eyes said, "I know what you mean". and then she referred to the morning prayer meeting which I led, and told me she felt it in her soul that I had it, and then she told me that she did not think I gave myself up enough to god in leading meetings she said do bring out; will I do sometimes but-he cannot, His wife drove him to do something and he did that, he did not take any part in the ruling kept quite out of the way, I am so sorry,

Thanks for the item of news you sent-me, I wonder what-he will do, I hope he will unite with a denomination that will allow him to preach Bible-doctrine. I expected it-would come to this.

And now dearie, you are so kind all the time to me, you are just-lovely, you see, I will write my praise, but-if I did not-feel so I would write-nothing about-it-One could not-help loving a friend who was always doing something
