What is the Great Commission Research Network or GreatCommissionResearch.net?

The Great Commission Research Network is a worldwide and professional association of Christian leaders whose ministry activities are based on the basic and key principles of church growth as originally developed by the late Donald McGavran. Founded by renowned missiologists George G. Hunter III and C. Peter Wagner, the GreatCommissionResearch.net (formally the American Society for Church Growth) has expanded into an affiliation of church leaders who share research, examine case studies, dialogue with cutting-edge leaders, and network with fellow church professionals who are committed to helping local churches expand the kingdom through disciple-making

Who Can Join the GCRN?

GCRN membership is open to all who wish a professional affiliation with colleagues in the field. The membership includes theoreticians, such as professors of church growth, and practitioners, such as pastors, denominational executives, parachurch leaders, church planters, researchers, missions leaders, and consultants. Some members specialize in domestic or mono-cultural church growth, while others are cross-culturally oriented.

McMahan: About the GCRN

PH.D. IN EDUCATION STUDIES

Is God directing into a vocation of teaching in education ministry? The Ph.D. program equips the “researcher-teacher” with the research, integration, and teaching skills to contribute to the field of Christian education and prepare others for ministry leadership roles. This is the preferred degree for full-time teaching at most Christian higher education institutions.

If you are hoping to teach in the fields of Christian education or practical theology and contribute to the development of these fields of ministry, this program is for you.

ED.D. IN EDUCATION STUDIES

Are you ready for a mid-career challenge? The Ed.D. program equips the “leader-teacher” with skills in research assessment and application to educational ministry concerns. The program provides the same training as the Ph.D. program, but with a more applied focus. It is an opportunity to go deeper in personal and professional development.

If you are an educational ministry leader hoping to better lead in your ministry setting and better equip others for educational ministry leadership, this program is for you.
