Dear Friend:

Thank you for your letter which came at least a month ago. The closing days of our school year, Commencement, hosting on campus the Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, and final preparations for our Centennial Celebration which begins this week have kept me from keeping up with my correspondence as I ought. My apologies.

It will be a privilege to preach on Sunday morning, August 5th, for the special commemorative service in the history of Indian Springs. I count it a high honor to be a part of that service. We also look forward to the chance to be with Governor Harris at that time. It should be a great day.

Thank you for the complimentary copy of the Centennial History. I will treasure that. Indian Springs has had a definitive place in my life as you well know. We will trust God for a great time together.

Sincerely,

Dennis F. Kinlaw
