> > STATEMENT OF FAITH

The following is a statement, in short form, of the Wesleyan-Arminian theological doctrines on which Asbury Theological Seminary was founded in 1923.

WE BELIEVE:

God

In the one God, creator and sustainer of all things, infinite in love, perfect in judgments and unchanging in mercy. God exists eternally in three persons — Father, Son and Holy Spirit;

Scripture

In the divine inspiration, truthfulness and authority of both the Old and New Testaments, the only written Word of God, without error in all it affirms. The Scriptures are the only infallible rule of faith and practice. The Holy Spirit preserves God's Word in the church today and by it speaks God's truth to peoples of every age;

Humankind

That human beings were created in the image of God. This image was marred in every part through the disobedience of our first parents, and fellowship with God was broken. God, by His prevenient grace, restores moral sensibility to all humankind and enables all to respond to His love and to accept His saving grace, if they will;

Jesus Christ

That Jesus Christ is God's Son incarnate, born of the Virgin Mary. He died for the sins of all, taking on Himself, on behalf of sinful persons, God's judgment upon sin. In His body He rose from the grave and ascended to the right hand of the Father where He intercedes for us;

Holy Spirit

That the Holy Spirit is God present and active in the world. The Holy Spirit was given to the church in His fullness at Pentecost. By the Spirit, Christ lives in His church, the gospel is proclaimed and the kingdom of God is manifested in the world;

Justification

That God graciously justifies and regenerates all who trust in Jesus Christ. Believers become children of God and begin to live in holiness through faith in Christ and the sanctifying Spirit;

Entire Sanctification

That God calls all believers to entire sanctification in a moment of full surrender and faith subsequent to their new birth in Christ. Through sanctifying grace the Holy Spirit delivers them from all rebellion toward God, and makes possible wholehearted love for God and for others. This grace does not make believers faultless nor prevent the possibility of their falling into sin. They must live daily by faith in the forgiveness and cleansing provided for them in Jesus Christ;

Assurance of Believers

That believers are assured that they are children of God by the inward witness of God's Spirit with their spirits, by faith in the gracious promises of God's Word, and by the fruit of the Spirit in their lives;

Christians in Society

That Christians are called to live in daily witness to the grace which comes to us in Jesus Christ, to preach the gospel to every person according to the command of Christ, and to declare God's insistence upon righteousness and justice in all relationships and structures of human society;

The Church

That the church is the people of God composed of all those who believe in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. The church is Christ's body; it is visible in the world wherever believers, in obedience of faith, hear the Word, receive the sacraments, and live as disciples;

Return of Christ

In the personal return of Jesus Christ, in the bodily resurrection of all persons, in final judgment, and in eternal reward and punishment;

God's Ultimate Victory

In God's ultimate victory over Satan and all evil and the establishment of His perfect kingdom in a new heaven and a new earth.

General Information

> > > GENERAL INFORMATION

Note of special importance about this catalog.

The catalog is not a contract between students and/or applicants and Asbury Theological Seminary. The Seminary reserves the right to revise it and policies derived from it as it deems appropriate.

Consistent with the requirements and options under applicable law, the Seminary does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, physical impairment or gender. The Seminary, however, does reserve the right to make admission, employment and degree conferral decisions on the basis of those principles and beliefs set forth in the Ethos Statement and Statement of Faith. Each student, as a condition of entering the Seminary, represents that he or she has read and understands the Ethos Statement, Statement of Educational Mission, and Statement of Faith and further understands that remaining a student of the Seminary or having a degree conferred by the Seminary is dependent upon compliance with the Ethos Statement and Statement of Faith.

STATEMENT OF EDUCATIONAL MISSION

Asbury Theological Seminary was founded “to prepare and send forth a well-trained, sanctified, Spirit-filled, evangelistic ministry” to spread scriptural holiness throughout the world. The contemporary form of this mission commits the Seminary to maintain a multid denominational, multicultural community which:

1. Pursues the union of sound learning and vital piety through excellence in graduate, professional and continuing studies for ordained and lay ministries, and provides resources for scholarly leadership in the Wesleyan-Arminian tradition;
2. Nurtures men and women called of God for parish ministry and other forms of servant leadership in the experience and practice of personal and social holiness as defined by Scripture and Wesleyan theology;
3. Encourages its members, in their teaching, scholarship and service, to live out the witness of a Spirit-filled life formed by the authority of Scripture; and
4. Prepares women and men for prophetic ministries of redemption and renewal in an increasingly urbanized and secularized world.

EDUCATIONAL ASSUMPTIONS

The Christian faith rests on the personal self-revelation of God in Jesus Christ. Therefore, the philosophy of education at Asbury begins with the Christian faith which centers in God, as revealed in the person of the Lord Jesus Christ and as witnessed in the Holy Scriptures by the Holy Spirit.

Asbury Seminary, founded upon and committed to a vital evangelical Christian faith, finds its roots in the Wesleyan-Arminian theological tradition which is summarized in the Articles of Incorporation and in the Statement of Faith. The trustees, officers of administration and faculty members are committed to a style of education in which this faith will permeate all the work and instruction of the Seminary. The theological, ethical and social commitments of the Seminary provide the foundation for its instruction and life. The institution purposes to assist students to grow intellectually, emotionally, physically and spiritually in their lifetime quest of becoming and doing all that God intends.

In general, theological seminary is an institution of higher learning composed of scholarly teachers, leaders and students dedicated to truth. In the search for truth, the faculty at Asbury Seminary affirms the following guidelines: Scripture, reason, experience and tradition. Learning and growth take place in an atmosphere of love, caring, faith and obedience to God. In this sense, the seminary is the Church at work in the education of its clergy and leaders. The theological seminary serves the same Lord as other parts of the Church, and it makes the same general commitments as any other part of the Body of Christ. The theological seminary, however, seeks to make its central contributions in keeping with its character as an educational institution.

While Asbury Seminary stands within the Wesleyan tradition and holds to a clearly defined statement of faith, the faculty is committed to academic freedom. Central to all academic work at the Seminary are two commitments: the first to Jesus Christ as sovereign Lord and the second to the pursuit of truth as a corporate and personal vocation. Faculty members and students are encouraged to carry on research, lecturing and publishing that reflect a growing knowledge of God and a widening awareness of truth. The faculty members are committed to the objective study and discussion of all theological opinions, and the Seminary regards liberty of conscience as an important dimension of theological and personal integrity.

COMMITMENTS TO THE STUDENT

Asbury Seminary takes the position that God calls to His ministry men and women renewed by faith in Christ and set apart for Christian service by a divine call. God empowers them in their work and guides them into the pastorate, missions, evangelism, teaching, the chaplaincy, Christian education, music, staff ministries, social work, counseling, campus ministries, youth ministries, administration and other forms of Christian leadership. The major objective of Asbury Seminary is to help facilitate the preparation of men and women called by God to such forms of Christian ministry.

The Seminary includes several important dimensions in its curriculum, program and ministry to students. The first commitment Asbury makes to the student is to provide a spiritual education. Persons are essentially spiritual beings and the primary thrust of Christian ministry is spiritual. Therefore, the process of spiritual formation constitutes an intentional part of the Seminary's program. Asbury stresses the development of spiritual devotion through regular chapels, prayer services, classes, special lectures, spiritual formation groups, counseling and periodic calls to dedication and service to others.

Second, Asbury commits itself to balanced preparation for ministry. Ministry in the contemporary age requires a holistic development of the entire person. The Seminary stresses a balanced emphasis on both the personal and social factors in student life. Attention is given to fostering emotional and intellectual maturity. Students are provided spiritual and emotional support so they may gain a better understanding of themselves, their personal growth opportunities, their unique potential, their callings and their relationships with others. Since Scripture constitutes the final authority for faith and life, stress is placed upon the application of the biblical norms of love and justice in human concourse. This regard for social justice takes the following forms:

1. Inclusion of women and minorities on the faculty and the development of ministries to specific social needs;
2. Admission of qualified students from every continent and from diverse nations and ethnic backgrounds, and enhanced intercultural understanding among all members of the Seminary community;
3. Opportunities for field education, internship and Christian ministry in both urban and rural settings; and
4. The continuing pursuit of a biblical ethic to shape the relationships between social action and spiritual formation.

In all aspects of human life, the Seminary seeks to introduce students to a range of responsible options and to help them develop a balanced approach to ministry.

Third, the Seminary is dedicated to professional preparation for Christian service. The Seminary takes the view that its program is one of graduate education and preparation for the practice of ministry. Scholarship, honest inquiry and a high standard of academic excellence are considered vital to professional readiness for fulfilling God's call in one's life. The Seminary offers a full-orbed program which covers all of the significant theological disciplines. The trustees and faculty are intentionally committed to achieving and supporting the highest academic standards. In order to maintain this commitment, the Seminary includes the following components in its instructional design:

1. Commitment to flexibility in curriculum planning so as to allow for innovation, change and growth;
2. Encouragement to use a variety of teaching models;
3. Support of faculty professional development through travel, research, conferences and publication; and
4. Careful feedback and evaluation through student and faculty participation.

Fourth, Asbury emphasizes ecumenical theological education. Asbury hosts students from a large number of denominations and takes seriously the apostolic description of the Church as one body with many members. Students are encouraged to work within their own denominations, and the Seminary encourages loyalty to one's parent denomination. At the same time, students are urged to work cooperatively with Christians from theological traditions other than their own. While the Seminary is committed to a Wesleyan-Arminian theological position, the Seminary believes that enormous treasures can be gained from a variety of traditions. Therefore, careful study and respectful attention is given to every serious theological development that emerges from the life of the Church in worship and service. The Seminary is committed to assisting the various denominations and local congregations that comprise its constituency. In order to serve the larger Church, the Seminary program includes the following emphases:

1. Faculty research designed to understand and evaluate current trends in the Church and society;
2. Continuing education events to meet present and future needs of clergy and laity;
3. Mentored ministry experiences for students and faculty; and
4. Dialogue with denominational leaders and outstanding Christian thinkers from around the world.

Finally, the Seminary commits itself to personal theological education. Students are helped to discover and develop their own spiritual gifts and individual talents. Through the Counseling Resource Center under the direction of the director of student life, opportunities for counseling both on and off campus are coordinated for those students with special needs and concerns. The curriculum is structured with some flexibility and a number of free elective hours to enable students to develop a degree plan that best prepares them for career goals. Asbury is dedicated to helping students in their preparation for Christian service by equipping them to lead others toward maturity and effective ministry to the world.

Asbury affirms the role of women in ministry, including the ordained ministry. Thus, the Seminary aims to create a climate in which women are encouraged in their progress toward professional ministry goals and enabled in their spiritual development toward effective ministry.

ETHOS STATEMENT

The Asbury community is a family of believers who have committed themselves to Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. They seek to live out this commitment in lives of sanctity, both personal and social. As servants of Christ and as ministers to one another, students, faculty, staff and administrators seek to develop relationships in mutual respect. They exercise their individual and collective responsibilities within the policies and structures which make it possible for the whole institution to fulfill its ministry.

Out of these common commitments they seek to witness to authentic Christian discipleship by living with each other and with the world in integrity, purity and love. Through their common life together, in classes, in study, in chapel services, at meals, in small-group sharing, in prayer and other scheduled activities, they encourage one another to find wholeness in Christ and readiness for ministry in the Wesleyan-Arminian tradition.

The Asbury community expects its witness to society today will include personal commitment against prevailing moral laxity by not participating in, advocating, supporting or condoning sexual relationships outside of marriage or homosexual practices, since these are contrary to Scripture and Christian tradition, and by refraining from the use of alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs and tobacco. This commitment will also show itself in sincere efforts to minister redemptively on behalf of Christ in every human relationship and societal structure.

HISTORICAL STATEMENT

In 1923 several members of the faculty of Asbury College met with President Henry Clay Morrison to discuss the matter of evangelical theological education. Growing out of a recognition of the need for a graduate theological seminary committed to the historic Wesleyan interpretation of evangelical Christianity, plans were made for the organization of Asbury Theological Seminary.

Asbury Seminary was officially opened in the fall of 1923. From 1923 to 1931 the Seminary was an integral part of Asbury College. In 1931 articles of incorporation were drawn up and the Seminary became a separate educational unit. In 1939 the Seminary moved to its present campus. Since 1941 Asbury Seminary has been an independent administrative unit, completely separate from any other institution.

Dr. Henry Clay Morrison, long-time president of Asbury College, was the guiding spirit of the entire movement. In addition to being the founder, Dr. Morrison became the first president of Asbury Seminary, serving until his death in 1942.

Dr. Julian C. McPheeters succeeded Dr. Morrison as president of the Seminary and served until his retirement in 1962.

Dr. Frank Bateman Stanger became the third president of the Seminary on commencement night, 1962. He served in this executive capacity for 20 years, officially retiring May 31, 1982.

In July 1982, Dr. David L. McKenna became the Seminary's fourth president and served with distinction until his retirement on July 1, 1994.

On July 1, 1994, Dr. Maxie D. Dunnam assumed the presidency of the Seminary. During the spring of 2003, Dr. Dunnam announced his retirement from Asbury Seminary. He was elected chancellor and began this new role June 1, 2004.

Dr. Jeffrey E. Greenway began his term as the sixth president of Asbury Theological Seminary on July 1, 2004. Dr. Greenway began his presidency after having served as a pastor and District Superintendent of the Pittsburgh East District of the Western Pennsylvania Conference of the United Methodist Church. He resigned in October 2006.

Dr. J. Ellsworth Kalas, former dean of the Beeson International Center and current professor of preaching, is serving as the acting president during the interim period.

ACCREDITATION

Asbury Theological Seminary is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, GA; telephone: 404-679-4501) to award master's and doctor's degrees. It is an accredited member of The Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (TATS) and is approved by The University Senate of The United Methodist Church.

Asbury Theological Seminary does not, within the context of its religious principles, its heritage, its mission and its goals, discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, physical impairment or gender in administration of its admission policies, educational policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletic or other school-administered programs.

The Seminary is authorized under federal law to enroll nonimmigrant alien students.

LOCATIONS: KENTUCKY, FLORIDA AND VIRTUAL

Wilmore, Ky.: Asbury Seminary's Kentucky campus is located 16 miles south of Lexington, at 204 N. Lexington Ave., Wilmore, KY 40390.

The Kentucky campus offers the following degrees: certificate in Christian studies, master of arts (biblical studies specialization, theological studies specialization) master of arts in Christian education, Christian leadership, Christian ministries, counseling, pastoral counseling, intercultural studies, world mission and evangelism, and youth ministry, master of divinity, master of theology (biblical studies, world mission and evangelism), doctor of ministry (Beeson pastor program, Beeson international leaders, in-ministry), doctor of missiology, doctor of philosophy in intercultural studies.

Orlando, Fla.: Located in the heart of Orlando, Fla., Asbury Theological Seminary operates at 8401 Valencia College Lane. The Florida campus is accredited to offer the master of divinity, the master of arts in Christian ministries degrees, the master of arts in counseling, the master of arts in pastoral counseling and the certificate in Christian studies. Students on the Florida campus may take courses toward the Seminary's master of arts programs (biblical studies specialization, theological studies specialization), Christian education, Christian leadership, world missions and evangelism, and youth ministry. Also located on the Florida campus is the Latino/Latina Studies Program (LLSP). It offers a Certification in Advanced Theological Studies and an opportunity to specialize in 6 different areas of ministry. The three-year curriculum was designed to provide theological education in Spanish and also from a Hispanic perspective. Areas of specialization include theology, pastoral studies, missions and evangelism, leadership, and worship.

Virtual Campus: Asbury Seminary's Virtual campus is located on the worldwide web at www.asburyseminary.edu/virtual/, and services graduate degree programs of the Seminary. Students taking Extended Learning courses can earn the certificate of Christian studies, earn up to two-thirds of the master of divinity degree, or up to one-half of a master of arts degree online.

Asbury Online Institute (AOI) is an online experience of Asbury Seminary that allows current students, as well as ministers, missionaries, lay and church professionals to sharpen their ministry skills and to be connected to valuable resources on the worldwide web. Continuing Education Units (CEUs) are optional and can be customized with topics that interest individuals. To learn more about AOI and its offerings from leading ministry-related periodicals, visit our site at www.aoi.edu.

INTERDENOMINATIONAL RELATIONSHIPS, FOUNDATIONS AND INSTITUTIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Asbury Theological Seminary is an interdenominational graduate school of theology. Members of eight Protestant denominations serve on the faculty. The student body represents nearly 90 denominations. Alumni of the Seminary serve around the world in 66 foreign countries, more than 137 denominations, all 50 states and the District of Columbia, and in 22 out of 24 time zones.

Asbury Seminary is approved by the University Senate of The United Methodist Church for the preparation of ministers for the denomination.

In its relationship to the various denominations it serves, Asbury recognizes the validity of the foundation principle. A denomination, in accordance with the terms of an agreement with Asbury, is entitled to establish a denominational foundation at the Seminary to care for the continuing spiritual life of student-members of that denomination and to give them denominational instruction. The general purpose of a denominational foundation is to guarantee the identity and integrity of a denomination whose students are being served by the Seminary.

The agreement establishing a denominational foundation states that, though each foundation is granted autonomy in its program and is independent of the Seminary's administration, all the activities of the foundation must be kept within the spirit and practice of Asbury. It is also agreed that a foundation shall hold no vested interests in the property or corporate holdings of Asbury Seminary and that no Seminary funds are to be invested in a denominational foundation.

Asbury Seminary likewise agrees that adequate courses in the polity and history of the denomination shall be provided in the curriculum. At present there are two denominational foundations serving the Seminary: the John Wesley Seminary Foundation of the Free Methodist Church and the Wesleyan Seminary Foundation of The Wesleyan Church.

Asbury Seminary holds institutional memberships in the National Association of Evangelicals (NAE) and the Christian Holiness Association (CHA), is a charter member of the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability (ECFA), and is a member of the Council of Christian Colleges and Universities.

ASBURY FOUNDATION FOR THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION, INC.

The Asbury Foundation for Theological Education, Inc., is a separate, but wholly owned subsidiary of Asbury Theological Seminary. It was established to help advance the ministry and mission of Asbury Seminary. It exists to help friends, donors and alumni benefit Asbury Seminary and other charitable interests in the most effective and efficient way possible. It employs the techniques of financial, estate and gift planning to help fulfill the goals of individuals seeking to support the Seminary, their church, other benevolent interests, and the financial futures of themselves and their loved ones.

The Asbury Foundation supports all the programs of Asbury Theological Seminary, whether on the Kentucky, Florida, or Virtual campuses.

ADMISSION POLICY

Asbury Theological Seminary, within the purpose and confines of its mission, Statement of Faith, tenets and principles, is dedicated to the concept of equal opportunity. Subject to the foregoing, Asbury Theological Seminary will not discriminate as to any qualified person on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, physical impairment, or gender in its admissions, treatment of students or in its employment practices.

The applicant must meet the requirements for admission set forth below as well as the requirements for the program to which the applicant seeks admission.

SPIRITUAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

ATS recognizes that students entering seminary represent a wide range of experiences and backgrounds, and welcomes students from Christian communities outside the Wesleyan tradition. ATS seeks in every aspect of its life and programs to represent the commitments expressed in its Statement of Faith.

The applicant must, therefore, demonstrate that personal integrity, spiritual maturity, and theological conviction meet the standards expected of applicants called by God to undertake study in an institution whose mission is “to prepare and send forth a well-trained, sanctified, Spirit-filled, evangelistic ministry.” The applicant must demonstrate compatibility with the Seminary’s Statement of Faith and Statement of Educational Mission, and commitment to observe the Seminary’s Ethos Statement. Applicants must further genuinely testify to their personal relationship with Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. When, during the application process, questions arise regarding any of these matters, the Seminary may arrange an interview with the student.

The Admissions Committee shall, in its prayerful discretion, be the sole judge of the extent to which the applicant meets, or fails to meet, the standards and criteria for admission.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES

The following is a list of the requirements and procedures for admission to any degree or non-degree program at Asbury Seminary.

1. Accredited baccalaureate degree for graduate programs; accredited Masters of Arts or Master of Divinity degree as specified for postgraduate programs. Accreditation is required by an agency recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation or holding membership in the Association of Universities and Colleges in Canada. Applicants whose baccalaureate degree is from a college not accredited by a recognized national or regional accrediting agency must have one complete year of work at an accredited institution before being considered for admission to Asbury Seminary.
 - As many as 10 percent of the students in the Master of Divinity and Master of Arts (excluding MABS and MATS) programs may be admitted without possession of the baccalaureate degree, or its educational equivalent. Those persons must demonstrate possession of knowledge, academic skill and ability generally associated with persons who hold the baccalaureate degree.
2. Application for admission must be made on the form furnished by the Admissions Office. The application is available online at www.asburyseminary.edu.

3. In addition to the information required on the application form, the applicant must send or arrange for the following:
 - a. Official transcripts of all postsecondary schools attended. Applicants must provide the Admissions Office with all official transcripts, even if the overall college transcript reflects a transfer of hours. These documents must be sent directly to Asbury Seminary by all institutions attended.
 - b. A non-refundable application processing fee of $50 (U.S.). (The fee includes processing of the application and a personal background check.)
 - c. Four references, on forms supplied by the Admissions Office. Reference source determined by academic program.
 - d. A cumulative grade point average of 2.75/4.00 is required for admission in good standing to all graduate degree programs except for the M.A. (with specialization in Biblical Studies) and the M.A. (with specialization in Theological Studies). Applicants whose grade point average falls between 2.50 and 2.75 may be admitted on a “reduced load” basis. Applicants whose grade point average for all baccalaureate work is below 2.50, a report of the Miller Analogies Test (MAT) or the general aptitude section of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) score is required. The Admissions Committee expects to see a minimum score of 500 on the verbal section of the GRE or a Scaled Score no lower than 410 on the MAT. The grade point average as calculated by the Admissions Office at Asbury Seminary shall be considered the official grade point average for admission. Therefore, applicants with marginal averages are urged to check with the Admissions Office. Students needing to complete the MAT or the GRE will not be considered until the official scores are received. Information concerning these examinations is available from the Admissions Office.
 - e. The Admissions Committee may request the applicant to submit additional materials and/or schedule an interview with a representative of the Seminary
4. When all of the above materials have been received, the Admissions Committee will act on the application for admission. The Admissions Committee will give prayerful consideration to each application and accompanying materials and will in its sole judgment and discretion determine whether the applicant meets the standards and criteria for admission.

Admission Categories

Applicants who are admitted will be notified and placed in one of the following categories:

- a. Degree student: one who meets entrance requirements and follows a curriculum leading to a degree.
- b. Unclassified student: one who meets entrance requirements and takes courses for credit but does not work toward a degree. Students may pursue up to 12 semester hours in this classification after which they must consult with the Registrar to justify continuation in this category.
- c. Reduced Load admission: Reduced Load is defined as a maximum of 10 hours/semester. In order to be removed from Reduced Load status, students must complete at least 25 hours with a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.00.
- d. Academic Probation: Students admitted on academic probation are removed from probation as soon as they have completed at least 25 semester hours of work with a cumulative GPA of 2.00/4.00 or higher.
- e. Provisional admission: one who applies to the Seminary without the completion of the baccalaureate degree. This admission requires that 10 semester hours or less be needed to complete the bachelor's degree and restricts the academic load at the Seminary. The student has one year to complete the remaining undergraduate hours. A transcript verifying completion of the degree must be received from the institution or the student will not be allowed to enroll the semester following the one-year provision and a statement will be placed on the transcript indicating that the student did not meet the requirements for full admission.

- f. Auditor: one who studies without credit. Admission policies for auditors are as follows:
 - i. Submit the application for admission and secure four references on forms supplied by the Admissions Office. (The Personal History is not required.)
 - ii. Request completed transcript from undergraduate institution verifying the completion of undergraduate degree.
 - iii. Enclose the $50 application processing fee.

The audit fee for currently enrolled degree students and graduates is $20 per credit hour, per credit hour, and no charge for their spouses. Persons unrelated to the seminary in this way must pay 50% of tuition. Credit may not be received at a later date for hours taken by audit. Auditor hours are recorded on the permanent record. Grades and credit are not recorded. Registration is dependent upon space available in the class and instructor permission. Course registration is arranged in the Registrar's Office.

- 5. Admission is valid for one year from the term for which the applicant is admitted. If enrollment is postponed by more than one year, the applicant must reapply for admission.
- 6. Upon notification of admission the applicant must provide the Office of Admissions with a non-refundable $100 matriculation deposit to reserve the applicant's position. The fee will be applied to tuition payments upon matriculation.
- 7. Those who register for courses and subsequently withdraw from school for more than one year must reapply for admission.
- 8. Records submitted in application for admission are not returned. Transcripts from other institutions become a part of the permanent file and may not be copied or released.
- 9. More specific admission information is found under the description of each degree program.
- 10. For application deadlines, see degree program description.

READMITTING STUDENTS

After one year's absence from seminary enrollment, students who wish to attend classes must reapply. Reapplication procedures include:

- 1. Completing the application form.
- 2. Providing an updated personal history.
- 3. Securing two new references, preferably persons who are well acquainted with work the applicant has been doing since attending Asbury.
- 4. Submitted official transcripts of any work done simultaneous with enrollment or after leaving Asbury.

Students who are readmitted are admitted to the catalog that is operative at the time of re-enrollment.

Due to changes in degree plans and to time limitations on the completions of degrees, not all academic work previously completed at Asbury Seminary may apply to the degree program to which the student is being readmitted. Readmitted students should contact the Registrar for a review of the former academic work.

SECOND OR DUAL DEGREE STUDENTS

Students may apply to receive a second (or dual) degree at Asbury Seminary by:

1. Completing the application form.
2. Providing an updated personal history.
3. Securing two new references, preferably persons who are well acquainted with work applicant has been doing while attending Asbury.
4. Submitting official transcripts of any work done simultaneously with enrollment at Asbury.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

Students who wish to transfer to Asbury Theological Seminary must meet and follow all requirements for admission, as well as the guidelines outlined below for transfer of credit.

Guidelines for transfer of credit are:

1. In consideration of transfer of coursework, primary concern is given to equivalence in the level of instruction and, in core and core-elective requirements, comparability in learning objectives, comparing Asbury Theological Seminary expectations and those of the other institution from which transfer of credit is sought.
 - “Level of instruction” is determined by the level and amount of required reading, and by the quantity and quality of student work expected, particularly with reference to the requirement of graduate-level competencies in critical thinking and reflection, as these are reflected in the course syllabus.
 - Accreditation by The Association of Theological Schools, a regional accreditor, or by another US Department of Education-approved accrediting agency is a central but not decisive criterion in transfer decisions. Accreditation-related issues must be supplemented by a comparative analysis of course syllabi, comparing Asbury Theological Seminary expectations with those of the other institution from which transfer of credit is sought.
 - In consideration of distributed-learning coursework, concerns with level of instruction are supplemented by concern for general equivalence with Asbury Theological Seminary expectations regarding a learning environment characterized by student-student collaboration and student-faculty interaction. Equivalence must be documented in course syllabi from the former institution.
 - When course syllabi are unavailable, catalog descriptions and copies of the student’s coursework may substitute.
2. For Graduate Degree Programs
 - Hours/Units completed from other graduate schools may be considered for transfer for courses completed within 10 years of enrollment at Asbury Theological Seminary in the case of M.Div. students, 7 years in the case of M.A. students. Transfer may be considered for language courses completed within 1 year of enrollment at Asbury Theological Seminary.

- For program (free) electives, up to 9 hours of coursework completed outside of religious and/or theological studies may be considered for transfer, provided that a reasonable connection to the student's degree program at Asbury Theological Seminary can be documented. Coursework completed outside of religious and/or theological studies may not be considered as substitutions for core and core-elective requirements.
- The last 32 hours of work in the M.Div. and M.A. in Counseling degree programs, and the last 30 hours of work in other M.A. degree programs must be completed at Asbury Theological Seminary.
- In order to be considered for transfer, transcripts must list courses with letter or number grades, and the grade achieved must be at least "C," or "75." In the case of supervised ministry or field education courses, a grade of "Credit" is acceptable for consideration of transfer.
- From institutions accredited by The Association of Theological Schools, a regional accreditor, or by another US Department of Education-approved accrediting agency, up to 47 hours may be received on transfer into an M.Div. program, 31 hours into the M.A. in Counseling, and 29 hours into other M.A. programs. From institutions that are not accredited by The Association of Theological Schools, a regional accreditor, or by another US Department of Education-approved accrediting agency, up to 32 hours may be received on transfer into an M.Div. program, 21 hours into the M.A. in Counseling, and 20 hours into other M.A. programs. The number of hours received by transfer, combined with the number of hours taken on Asbury Theological Seminary's Virtual Campus, may not exceed 64 hours for the M.Div. program, 32 hours for the M.A. in Counseling, and 30 hours for other M.A. programs.
- Although work completed at the undergraduate level may be considered for Advanced Standing, no undergraduate coursework may be received for transfer at Asbury Theological Seminary. Advanced Standing allows the student to opt out of certain introductory-level courses in the seminary curriculum, in order to take more advanced coursework in the same field. Advanced Standing is possible when the student's undergraduate degree program, completed within the past three years, includes content that substantially overlaps with an introductory requirement at Asbury Theological Seminary, as determined by review of the undergraduate course syllabi in question. When Advanced Standing is granted, the student will be notified regarding how to meet the waived requirement.

Procedure for Transfer:

- All transfer-related materials, including official transcripts and course syllabi, must be lodged in the Office of the Registrar, together with a formal request that coursework be considered for transfer.
- Within the parameters set by the Faculty, the Registrar makes decisions on all transfer requests for M.A. and M.Div. degrees.
- Exceptions to faculty policy must be reviewed and approved by the Provost.

3. For Postgraduate Degree Programs

- No transfer hours are allowed for persons enrolled in the Th.M. program.
- Persons holding a Th.M., S.T.M., or D.Min. in a field related to missiology may transfer up to 9 hours toward the D.Miss. or Ph.D. in Intercultural Studies, provided that coursework was completed within 7 years of enrollment at Asbury Theological Seminary.

- Persons holding a Th.M., S.T.M., or D.Min. in missiology may transfer up to 18 hours toward the D.Miss. or Ph.D. in Intercultural Studies, and that coursework was completed within 7 years of enrollment at Asbury Theological Seminary.
- Persons holding the D.Miss. or an Ed.D. in missiology or intercultural studies may transfer up to 24 hours toward the D.Miss. or Ph.D. in Intercultural Studies, provided that coursework was completed within 7 years of enrollment at Asbury Theological Seminary.
- Persons entering the Ph.D. in Intercultural Studies degree program, holding the D.Miss. from Asbury Theological Seminary, may apply up to 48 hours of work taken toward the D.Miss., provided the D.Miss. degree is first relinquished, provided that coursework was completed within 7 years of enrollment at Asbury Theological Seminary.
- Up to three hours of coursework completed at the doctoral level can be transferred into the D.Min. program, provided that coursework was completed within 5 years of enrollment at Asbury Theological Seminary.

Procedure for Transfer:

- All transfer-related materials, including official transcripts and course syllabi, must be lodged in the Office of the Registrar, together with a formal request that coursework be considered for transfer.
- The Director of Postgraduate Studies makes decisions on transfer requests for the D.Miss. and Ph.D. degrees, and communicates those decisions to the Office of the Registrar.
- The Dean of the Doctor of Ministry program makes decisions on transfer requests for the D.Min. degree, and communicates those decisions to the Office of the Registrar.

VISITING STUDENTS FROM OTHER SEMINARIES

Asbury welcomes visiting students from accredited seminaries. A visiting student may not become a degree student unless he/she completes the full admissions procedures outlined on page 18. Admissions procedures for visiting students are as follows:

1. Complete the application form and enclose the $50 application processing fee. (The personal history section, references and official transcripts are not required.)
2. The prospective student's Academic Dean must verify in writing that the applicant is a student in good standing and that credit for courses taken at Asbury will be accepted.
3. Visiting students may enroll for one term at Asbury for a maximum of 14 semester hours.

NON-MATRICULATED AUDITORS

Spouses of enrolled students may attend classes without charge by permission of the instructor and the Registrar. Missionaries in residence may also attend. No application procedure is required, nor is a permanent record maintained for such non-matriculated auditors. Admission and course registration is arranged in the Registrar's Office. Auditors may not enroll for private instruction.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

In addition to the Admission requirements and procedures listed on page 18, International students are required to submit:

- Official course-by-course transcripts (English-translation required; transcripts must include an interpretation of the grading system) from all schools attended since high school,
- For students whose first language is not English, who have not completed a post-secondary degree in an institution in which the primary language of instruction is English, a minimum TOEFL score of 550 (213 computer based) or a 7 IELTS score is required for admission to the certificate, master of arts, master of divinity and doctor of ministry degree programs; a minimum TOEFL score of 575 (231 computer based) or 7 IELTS is required for the master of theology and doctor of missiology degree programs; and a minimum TOEFL score of 600 (250 computer based) or 7.5 IELTS is required for the doctor of philosophy degree program.

Information concerning the TOEFL and IELTS tests is available from the Admissions Office.

Applicants for a limited number of international student scholarships will be considered on a competitive basis in March prior to the beginning of a given academic year.

In the event an international student desires to apply for a second degree at Asbury Theological Seminary, a letter from the student's sponsor supporting the application, or an alternative plan for support, will be necessary before admission is considered.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

The regular school year consists of a four-month first semester, a January interterm and a four-month second semester. Summer school consists of three four-week sessions, one each in June, July and August. The ExL summer term runs throughout the summer (June through August).

ACADEMIC POLICIES

Persons enrolled for nine hours or more in the M.A. or M.Div. programs are considered to be full-time students. All students who have met regular entrance requirements are classified by the Registrar. Classification is based on this scale:

MASTER OF DIVINITY DEGREE PROGRAM

Juniors	Middlers	Seniors
0-24 hrs.	25-54 hrs.	55-96 hrs.

MASTER OF ARTS DEGREE PROGRAM

M.A. I	M.A. II
0-24 hrs.	25-60 hrs.

Depending upon workload and financial or other needs, students may choose to complete the M.Div. degree in three, four or more years (maximum of ten), or the M.A. degree in two, three or more years (maximum of seven).

REGISTRATION

All students are expected to complete their registration at the specific time established in the current calendar. Detailed instructions will be provided by the Registrar. Arrangements for financial payment must be made by the Payment Due Date. An additional fee is assessed for late registration and late payment.

Students choosing to pre-register must pay a $100 advance deposit which will be applied to the term registered upon matriculation.

The student's registration for each term of study is to be planned in consultation with their Academic Advisor. Students may not register for a given term until they have received registration clearance from their advisor.

The student is held responsible for updating the personal degree plan throughout the year and meeting all requirements for graduation.

CHANGE OF REGISTRATION

After registration is completed, any change must be completed online or by notifying the Office of the Registrar. Unless special permission is granted, a grade of “F” is recorded for any course dropped without notifying the Office of the Registrar, or for any course dropped after the date specified in the Academic calendar. Changes made after the official change of registration period must be approved by the Registrar. A fee will be assessed for late changes. (See also the Financial Information section. Note particularly that the refund schedule applies only to full withdrawal. There is no refund for individual courses dropped beyond the change of registration period.)

CREDIT LIMITED TO CATALOG LISTING

No course may be taken for either more or fewer hours than listed in this catalog.

COURSE LOAD

For M.A. or M.Div. students on any of Asbury Theological Seminary’s campuses (including students on the Virtual Campus), full-load status is defined as 9 hours of coursework per semester. In scheduling coursework, however, ExL students should carefully consider the amount of time that must be devoted to coursework, balancing this against the amount of time they will be engaged in employment and other responsibilities. Many students find that the regular and sustained on-line interaction expected in an ExL course requires more of them than attending courses on a geophysical campus. For this reason, students enrolling for ExL courses for the first time are strongly encouraged to take no more than 6 hours.

The semester course load for students in the M.Div. and M.A. programs will be limited to 14 semester hours.

The course load for January, June, July and August terms will be limited to four semester hours.

WITHDRAWAL FROM CLASSES

Students may drop and add classes without penalty during the drop/add period:

- Fall and Spring Semester, through the first week of classes;
- ExL Summer Semester, through the first week of classes;
- One-week intensive courses, through the end of the first day of class;
- Other intensive courses, through the end of the second day of class.

Students withdrawing from courses after the drop/add period will receive a grade of WD (withdraw) on their transcripts, provided they meet the deadline for withdrawal:

- Fall and Spring Semesters, through the end of the sixth week of classes; and
- ExL Summer Semester, through the end of the sixth week of classes.
- For one-week intensive courses, one day equals three weeks in a semester.
- For other intensive courses, one day equals two weeks in a semester.

After this deadline, a grade of F will be assigned to the course from which the student has withdrawn.

WITHDRAWAL FROM SEMINARY

A student who, for any reason, finds it necessary to withdraw from school at any time other than at the close of a term is required to obtain official approval. Permission to withdraw shall be secured from the Office of the Registrar. A grade of “F” shall be recorded for all courses from which a student withdraws without permission or after the deadline stated in this catalog.

MEDICAL LEAVE POLICY

Currently enrolled students, in graduate or postgraduate degree programs at Asbury Theological Seminary, will be allowed to take time off from their academic studies for medical or psychological reasons documented by a psychologist, psychiatrist or other health care expert. The following outlines the process for application for a Medical Leave:

- Application must be received and approved before the deadline dates set forth in the Academic Calendar and must be submitted to the Registrar, with supporting health care expert documentation attached.
- Student must have a cumulative GPA of 2.00 or greater.
- Student must sign an agreement stating that they will get the proper treatment while they are on leave.
- Student must submit a statement, signed by a health care expert, clearing them to return to their studies.
- The medical leave can be for a maximum of two years and the student can return without going through the readmission process. After two years, they must apply for readmission.
- Tuition refund will be determined by the current refund policy in the Academic Catalog, Financial Information sections entitled "Dropping Courses" and "Withdrawal from Semester or Seminary".

STUDENT GRADE REPORT

Students may view their academic records and print out unofficial grade reports at any time, using their web login and password. Requests for official transcripts must be made in writing (no fax, phone, or e-mail) to the Registrar's Office.

VETERANS REQUIREMENTS

Students receiving Veterans Administration Educational Assistance Allowance are required to meet certain minimum standards in attendance and academic progress towards graduation. The student is responsible to report immediately any change of status in enrollment or withdrawal. This report should be made at the Registrar's Office. Recipients should familiarize themselves with other requirements of the allowance, also available from that office.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT OF 1974

In accordance with federal law, students are hereby notified that they have the right to inspect and review any and all official records, files and data pertaining to them, including all materials incorporated in their cumulative record folder. Official student records are kept on the Wilmore campus, and therefore may only be viewed at this location. Exceptions may be requested in writing and sent to the Registrar.

Students have the opportunity for a hearing to challenge the contents of these records to insure that they are accurate and not in violation of any of their rights.

Students also have the opportunity for correction, amendment or supplementation of any such records.

The only information that may be given concerning the student will be directory information as defined in the act, unless the student has specifically waived his/her rights within this act. Directory information may include the student's name, address, telephone listing, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in any recognized club, organization or activity, church relationship, spouse, academic classification, degrees, awards and the most recent previous educational institution attended. Should a student desire that the Seminary not disclose any or all of the foregoing information, he/she must notify the Registrar in writing within 30 days of the commencement of the term or semester he/she are entering the Seminary or within 30 days of the commencement of any fall semester.

Students with questions concerning their rights within this act are urged to contact the Vice President of Academic Affairs. Students may only view their academic record files after submitting a request in writing to the office of the Registrar. Files can only be viewed on the Kentucky Campus.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATION POLICY

Asbury Seminary seeks to provide an optimal opportunity for success for qualified students with disabilities without compromising the caliber of instruction or the self-confidence of the learner.

The American with Disabilities Act of 1990 prohibits discrimination against individuals with disabilities. The following policy statement describes the procedures the seminary will follow in providing reasonable accommodations to persons with disabilities.

Prior to admission into a particular degree program, an applicant should arrange an interview with the Accommodations Officer in the Office of the Registrar to discuss how projected accommodations will interface with degree program requirements.

A student having a disability requiring accommodation must provide the seminary with documentation from a specialist certified to diagnose the particular disability.

1. The documentation provided by a physician or a certified psychologist must indicate the type of disability and recommended accommodation.
2. The diagnosis must be not more than three years old. More current documentation may be required on a case-by-case basis.
3. It is the student's responsibility to inform the institution through the Accommodations Officer of his or her disability and of the need for accommodation. Such disclosure should be done no later than two-weeks before the first day of classes for any academic term.
4. Documentation of disability must be submitted to the Accommodations Officer two-weeks prior to the first day of classes for which the student is requesting accommodation. The Accommodations Officer will keep the documentation in a separate file.
5. The Accommodations Officer, upon review of the relevant documentation of the disability, will determine reasonable accommodation in each particular case, and for each individual class. The student and relevant professor may be consulted during this process.
6. The Accommodations Officer will communicate to the relevant faculty member, the registrar, and the student the elements of accommodation for each particular class.
7. Requests for accommodation must be made each term. The student must make this request in writing no later than two-weeks before the first day of classes, and present this written request for accommodation to the Accommodations Officer.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

In the academic process, it is assumed that regular attendance is beneficial. In addition, the discipline of submitting oneself to a daily fixed schedule will be helpful in adjusting to the demands of ministry after graduation. In view of these considerations, the faculty expects responsible class participation.

Different courses call for a variety of approaches to the teaching-learning process. Consequently, there is no uniform requirement concerning class attendance. In order to make possible the greatest flexibility in the teaching-learning process, the professor will establish the attendance expectation which best suits the nature of each course. Failure to meet this attendance requirement may affect a student's grades. The professor will explain the attendance policy at the beginning of each course.

In order to attend a class, all students and auditors must first register for the course.

PREPARATION

1. Students in masters level courses at the Seminary will normally expect to invest two and one-half (2.5) to three (3.0) hours of work per week outside of class in preparation for every hour of credit to be earned. Students enrolled in mentored ministry courses, in which usual expectations for outside coursework are less applicable, should expect to devote three to five hours per week outside of class for every hour of credit to be earned.

2. Students doing independent studies will contract for a minimum of 48 hours of work (including research and consultation with the faculty mentor) for every hour of credit to be earned.

3. Non-traditionally scheduled courses will have a minimum of 10 hours of contact time plus an expectation of at least 38 hours of preparation beyond these hours for every hour of graduate credit to be earned.

TUTORIALS

All M.Div. and M.A. tutorials are numbered 550, 650, or 750 in the respective departments. Tutorials are designed for students and faculty with specialized interests in selected areas of study not addressed by the current curriculum. Learning tasks are defined and prerequisites are established by the professor with the approval of the Area in which the tutorial is to be offered. Tutorials may be structured for 1-3 semester hours of credit, dependent upon the defined learning tasks. Tutorials are graded on the "A" to "F" scale.

INDEPENDENT RESEARCH COURSES

All M.Div. and M.A. courses involving independent research are numbered 599, 699, or 799 in the respective departments. Only students having completed 25 hours with a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.75/4.00 may request permission to take these courses. Normally, six hours of such courses are allowed. An independent study contract agreement requesting permission to take an independent research course must be approved before the student registers.

No course in the core curriculum may normally be taken as an independent research course, and no independent research course is allowed which duplicates a regular course offered in the same term. Independent research courses are normally to be taken on campus while school is in session.

All independent research courses must be submitted no later than the end of the drop/add period of their designated term, and they are to be completed, and credit is to be recorded at the end of the term during which the student has registered for the course. The grade of "CR" or "NC" shall be given.

FIELD EDUCATION LIMITATIONS

The maximum limit of mentored ministry internship hours or other field internship courses that a student can take for credit is 12, including those taken in other departments.

M.A. AND M.Div. THESES

Students in the M.Div. and M.A. programs having a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.00/4.00 can elect to write a thesis. Application for M.Div. theses shall be made no later than the end of the fifth semester of study, and for M.A. theses not later than the end of the third semester of study.

1. Introduction

The thesis serves as the culminating project for one's degree program. As such, the M.Div. Thesis should be marked by its integrative quality, drawing together research and insight across the master of divinity curriculum, while the M.A. Thesis should be more focused, grounded in the discipline in which the M.A. is to be awarded. The proposal of the topic must be approved by the Vice President of Academic Affairs, using the form available in the Office of Academic Affairs. All theses should demonstrate the students' mastery of the field of study as well as contribute to that field. They should demonstrate the competence of students for independent inquiry, critical engagement with primary and secondary sources, and scholarly creativity. Theses should demonstrate the students' capacity to engage in the form(s) of research appropriate to the nature of the research project, and to organize a problem in acceptable academic form.

2. Steps toward Registering for the Thesis

Although theses are normally completed in the students' final semester, four steps must be completed prior to registering for the thesis.

First, the M.A. student must demonstrate competence in a research language (other than the biblical languages) appropriate to his or her field of study (e.g., French, German, Statistics). The M.Div. student is strongly encouraged, and may be required by his or her Thesis Advisor, to demonstrate competence in a research language (other than the biblical languages) appropriate to his or her area of study. Before an M.Div. student registers for the thesis, the Academic Affairs office should receive from his or her Thesis Advisor a memorandum outlining the language competency expected of the student.

Second, the student must apply for and receive permission to write a thesis. This is accomplished by obtaining a "Request for Approval of Thesis Proposal and Committee" form from the Administrative Assistant to the Vice President of Academic Affairs. The student completes the first section; the Academic Affairs office completes the second. The Academic Affairs office certifies the student's grade point average and language competence. Prior to this step, the M.A. student must have completed at least 30 units of course work; the M.Div. student must have completed 64 units. Having completed these two steps, the student is now in a formal position to organize a Thesis Committee.

Third, the student should find a Thesis Advisor willing to provide primary supervision in the thesis process; together, they will select and recruit a further member of the Asbury Seminary faculty to serve as a Second Reader for the thesis. Both M.A. and M.Div. theses must be planned and written in consultation with a Thesis Committee consisting of at least two persons—the Thesis Advisor and a Second Reader. For M.A. theses, the Thesis Advisor shall come from one's own School, and the Second Reader from a second school. For M.Div. theses, the Thesis Advisor and Second Reader should represent two different schools.

Finally, working with his or her Committee, the student will prepare a thesis proposal, which must include the following:

- Tentative title
- A clearly articulated statement of thesis
- A provisional bibliography

Statements of Thesis should (1) include a statement of what one hopes to substantiate in the thesis—i.e., a claim that is substantive, contestable and explicit; (2) outline the method(s) one proposes to utilize in the thesis; and (3) indicate how the thesis will demonstrate the student's mastery of the field of study as well as the nature of the contribution the student proposes to make to that field.

Once a proposal for a thesis has been deemed acceptable by the Thesis Committee, the student obtains the signatures of each member of his or her committee members on the "Request for Approval of Thesis Proposal and Committee" form. Finally, the student submits the "Request for Approval of Thesis Proposal and Committee" form and thesis proposal to the Vice President of Academic Affairs, who must approve both the Thesis Committee and proposal.

Students are encouraged to discuss their thesis proposals and committees with the Vice President of Academic Affairs early in the process.

Only after completing each of these steps is the student permitted to register for the thesis (6 units). Although work on the thesis may commence earlier, the student should plan to register for the thesis in the semester of its anticipated completion.

3. Approval of the Thesis

When the thesis has been completed to the satisfaction of the Thesis Advisor, a meeting of the student and his or her Thesis Committee is arranged for the purpose of examining the thesis. Normally, this oral examination is limited to one hour, during which the substance of the thesis is discussed, suggestions for improvement and/or further study are made, the student's further academic career may be discussed, and a decision is made regarding the approval of the thesis. The Committee may take the following actions: approve, reject or approve with required changes. The Thesis Advisor should not grant final approval of the thesis until satisfaction is reached on content, format and presentation. A written report of the Committee's action should be provided to the office of the Registrar. If the Committee is unable to reach a decision, the Vice President of Academic Affairs of the student's School shall join the Committee and cast the deciding vote.

CHOOSING A RESEARCH LANGUAGE

Knowledge of a language(s) other than one's primary language is integral to academic theological study. Professors teaching upper-level electives are urged to encourage students to use languages other than English in their research.

The choice of language(s) is tied to one's chosen field of inquiry. In historical studies, for example, Latin may be appropriate; in theological or biblical studies, French, German, or Spanish; in social research, statistics. Non-native speakers of English may petition the Vice President of Academic Affairs in order to certify English as their research language. The choice of a language(s) in which to certify should be made in consultation between the student and his or her advisor. In cases where the propriety of a particular language is in doubt, the Vice President of Academic Affairs should be consulted.

Language Certification

1. Ordinary Forms of Modern Language Certification

Students may certify modern languages in either of the following ways:

- (A) Translation of a Text: Students will be given three hours to translate two texts, each of approximately 400 words in length, with the use of a dictionary (but no grammars, verb charts or personal notes). Non-native speakers of English will be given four-and-a-half hours to complete the exam. Successful completion of the exam requires a translation of sufficient accuracy to attest accuracy of comprehension. Exams will be evaluated as pass or fail; students are allowed to attempt certification in a given language through this means no more than three times.

Language exams can be offered at any time throughout the academic year. A student preparing to sit for a language exam should notify the Academic Affairs Office no less than one month in advance of taking the exam. The Vice President of Academic Affairs recruits appropriate faculty to draw up the exam, supervises the examination process, and communicates with the student regarding the results of his or her exam.

Preparation for this exam can be through coursework at another institution, directed study or student initiative.

- (B) Completion of CH 590 Theological German with a grade of no less than B+ on the final exam.
- (C) Successful Completion of Undergraduate Coursework: A student who, within the previous five years, has successfully completed work in a language at the undergraduate level may certify in that language provided that she or he received a grade of no less than a "B" in the fourth semester of language instruction and can provide official transcript evidence of this coursework.

2. Additional Forms of Language Certification

- (A) Certification in English: Non-native speakers of English whose petition to the Vice President of Academic Affairs for certification in English as a research language has been granted certify proficiency by achieving a score of no less than 550 on the TOEFL.
- (B) Certification in Ancient Languages: For students required to certify in an ancient language (e.g., Latin) and for students other than those enrolled in the master of arts in biblical studies who need to certify in a biblical language, the level of proficiency and means of certification will be determined by the student's advisor in consultation with the Vice President of Academic Affairs.
- (C) Certification in Statistics: Students for whom proficiency in statistics is required may certify by successfully completing one undergraduate course in statistics with a grade of no less than a "B" within the previous five years.
- (D) Petitions for other forms of certification are evaluated by the Vice President of Academic Affairs

GRADING AND EVALUATION

The unit of credit is a semester hour, which is defined as one hour of classroom work per week for one semester, or its equivalent. The 4.00 point system is used to compute grade point standing. The grading system is:

A	4.00	Exceptional work: surpassing, markedly outstanding achievement of course objectives.
A-	3.70
B+	3.30
B	3.00	Good work: strong, significant achievement of course objectives
B-	2.70
C+	2.30
C	2.00	Acceptable work: basic, essential achievement of course objectives
C-	1.70
D+	1.30
D	1.00	Marginal work: inadequate, minimal achievement of course objectives
D-	.70
F	0	Unacceptable work: failure to achieve course objectives
CR	Credit: assumes work of a "C" or better
NC	No Credit: marginal work; will not receive credit
PC	Provisional Credit (for M.Min upon completion of growth contract)
AUD	Audit
WD	Withdraw

INCOMPLETE WORK

The official end of each term is 5 p.m. on the last day of the final exam week. This hour is the deadline for handing in all course work. Each instructor may set an earlier deadline for submission of any or all course work. The student must petition the Registrar and the faculty person involved for permission to receive an "I" at the end of a semester. The petition must be received before 5 p.m. on the last day of the term.

A grade of "I" denotes that the work of a course has not been completed due to an unavoidable emergency, which does not include delinquency or attending to church work or other employment. If the work of a course is incomplete at the end of a term without an emergency, a letter grade will be given based on the grades of work done, with incomplete work counted as "F."

Incomplete grades shall be removed one calendar month prior to the close of the following semester unless an earlier date is designated by the Office of the Registrar. on the individual petition. If the work is not completed by the time designated, the "I" shall be changed to an "F" unless a passing grade can be given based on work already completed or unless special permission is granted by the Registrar.

Professors are required to give either a grade or an "I," if approved, to each student registered for credit in a course.

Students with Incompletes in two or more classes will not be allowed to enroll in a new semester or term without permission from the Registrar.

REPETITION OF COURSES

A student is permitted to repeat a course in which a grade of "F" as received. In the case of a repeated course, the grade of "F" on the first attempt will be converted to "NC" and will not be included in the calculating of the cumulative grade average. A student is not permitted to repeat a course for credit in which a passing grade was received. Failure in a core course shall necessitate its repetition except by special permission of the professor of the course and the approval of the Registrar.

ACADEMIC PROBATION

Students admitted on academic probation are removed from probation as soon as they have completed at least 25 semester hours of work with a cumulative grade point average of 2.00/4.00 or higher.

A student is placed on academic probation when the cumulative grade point average falls below the adequate standard for graduation (2.00/4.00 for M.Div. and M.A. students; 3.00/4.00 for Th.M. and D.Min. students; 3.30/4.00 for D.Miss. students; and 3.50/4.00 for Ph.D. students). As soon as the cumulative grade point average reaches the standing required for graduation, the student is removed from academic probation.

At the end of each semester a student on academic probation is considered by the office of Registrar to determine future academic status. A student who remains below the minimum GPA required for graduation from his/her program for two consecutive semesters, including Summer and January terms is normally discontinued from the Seminary.

A student who makes a grade point average in a given semester which is below the minimum for graduation (if allowed to continue in seminary), may be required to take a reduced load during the following semester.

TRANSCRIPTS

A transcript of a student's record is released only at the written request of the student to the Registrar's Office, and only when all accounts with the Seminary are paid except as may be otherwise required by law.

GRADUATION

Students must apply for graduation online at the beginning of the fall semester of their final year. A graduation fee will be assessed during the student's last full semester. This fee covers the cost of the diploma and the rental of academic attire.

A winter graduation ceremony is held on the Kentucky campus in early December for students completing their requirements in the fall or January terms. The spring ceremony in May on the Florida and Kentucky Campuses is for those completing their last class in the spring term or before the end of August. Students who do not complete their requirements in the year in which they applied must re-apply for graduation once all requirements are completed and pay the fee a second time.

Any student who is not able to attend commencement must notify the Registrar in writing.

M.A., M.Div. and Th.M. degrees may be conferred in May, August, December, or January, provided all degree requirements are completed before the end of the accompanying term. DMin degrees may be conferred in May or December, and D.Miss. and Ph.D. degrees may be conferred in May only.

The Board of Trustees, upon recommendation of the faculty, reserves the right to deny a degree if, in their estimation, the student does not show character and personality which indicate readiness for ministry.

Any exceptions to these requirements will come under review by the Academic Committee (for M.A., M.Div., and D.Min. students), or the Postgraduate Faculty (for Th.M., D.Miss., or Ph.D. students). See specific graduation requirements listed under each degree program.

THE STUDENT GUIDEBOOK

A student handbook, which is available through the Office of Community Life, provides information regarding academic and community life matters. The student is held responsible for becoming thoroughly acquainted with this publication. Each student is urged to read the handbook carefully and to use it continually for reference purposes.

AFFILIATED AND COOPERATIVE PROGRAMS

Master of Social Work

Through a joint arrangement between Asbury Seminary and the College of Social Work at the University of Kentucky, the graduate professional degrees of M.Div. and M.S.W., or M.A. and M.S.W., may be earned. Students interested in either of these combined programs must meet the regular admission requirements of both institutions.

The mutual recognition of certain courses between the Seminary and the College of Social Work makes it possible to shorten the time required to earn both degrees.

Inquiries about the programs should be addressed to Dr. Christine Pohl, Department of Church in Society. It would be to the student's advantage to visit both campuses for personal conferences before committing oneself to the combined program.

Master of Social Work Joint Degree Possibilities:

M.Div. and M.S.W.

For students seeking a combination of the M.Div. and the M.S.W. degrees, 18 hours may be transferred from the M.S.W. program at the University of Kentucky. All 18 hours may be counted toward electives in the M.Div. program, or the student may elect to receive credit in the following areas of the M.Div. curriculum:

SM602	2 hours
Ethical Studies Core Elective	2 hours
Understanding the World Core Elective	3 hours
Servant Ministry, Second Core Elective	3 hours
Electives	8 hours
Total	18 hours

M.A.P.C. and M.S.W.

For students seeking a combination of the M.A.P.C. and the M.S.W. degrees, 12 units may be transferred from the M.S.W. program at the University of Kentucky. All 12 units may be counted toward electives in the M.A.P.C., or the student may elect to receive credit in the following areas of the M.A.P.C. curriculum:

Counseling Core Electives	12 hours
Total	12 hours

M.A.Y.M. and M.S.W.

For students seeking a combination of the M.A.Y.M. and the M.S.W. degrees, 12 units may be transferred from the M.S.W. program at the University of Kentucky. All 12 units may be counted toward electives in the M.A.Y.M., or the student may elect to receive credit in the following areas of the M.A.Y.M. curriculum:

Youth Ministry (Core) Electives	9 hours
General Electives	3 hours

M.A.C.E. and M.S.W.

For students seeking a combination of the M.A.C.E. and the M.S.W. degrees, 12 units may be transferred from the M.S.W. program at the University of Kentucky. All 12 units may be counted toward electives in the M.A.C.E., or the student may elect to receive credit in the following areas of the M.A.C.E. curriculum:

Christian Education (Core) Electives	9 hours
General Electives	3 hours

M.A.W.M.E. and M.S.W.

For students seeking a combination of the M.A.W.M.E. and the M.S.W. degrees, 12 units may be transferred from the M.S.W. program at the University of Kentucky. All 12 units may be counted toward electives in the M.A.W.M.E., or the student may elect to receive credit in the following areas of the M.A.W.M.E. curriculum:

World Mission and Evangelism (Core)
Electives	6 hours
General Electives	6 hours

M.A.C.L. and M.S.W.

For students seeking a combination of the M.A.C.L. and the M.S.W. degrees, 12 units may be transferred from the M.S.W. program at the University of Kentucky. All 12 units may be counted toward electives in the M.A.C.L., or the student may elect to receive credit in the following areas of the M.A.C.L. curriculum:

CL614 Leading Groups and Organizations	3 hours
MM514/MM614 Mentored Ministry	2 hours
General Electives	7 hours

University of Kentucky–Ph.D.

Asbury's E. Stanley Jones School of World Mission and Evangelism maintains a cooperative arrangement with the University of Kentucky, making possible strong Ph.D. programs in three of the University's most distinguished departments—Communication, Education and Sociology. Asbury's Th.M., depending on the program, may constitute the minor or cognate discipline in a University of Kentucky Ph.D.; and a member of Asbury's faculty may serve on the Ph.D. student's dissertation committee. The degree is conferred by the University of Kentucky, and is not a "joint" Ph.D. Applicants will go through the University's normal application and scholarship processes.

London School of Theology/University of Middlesex –Ph.D.

Asbury Theological Seminary (ATS) has developed a relationship with London School of Theology/University of Middlesex (LST), for the purpose of providing external supervision of postgraduate students enrolled at LST. The Ph.D. at LST is a research degree, which emphasizes the writing and successful defense of a dissertation; it typically includes minimal or no coursework. Students interested in taking advantage of this option for postgraduate study should contact LST (e-mail: research@lst.ac.uk; or write to the Research Administrator, London School of Theology, Green Lane, Northwood, Middlesex, England HA6 2UW [for further information, go to www.lst.ac.uk]).

When contacting LST and throughout the admissions process, prospective students should identify their interest in a research program of external supervision, as well as name the ATS faculty person under whose supervision they wish to conduct research. The admissions process will include a formal interview with Dr. Joel B. Green, professor of New Testament interpretation. LST bears final responsibility for student admissions and also approves research supervisors from among the ATS faculty. (A list of approved supervisors is available at ATS in the Office of Academic Affairs.) LST will also appoint a second supervisor from its own staff.

Upon admission, the student is responsible to meet all enrollment and tuition obligations at LST, as well as to enroll as a Visiting Ph.D. student (VPS status) each fall and spring semester at ATS, paying the equivalent of three hours of postgraduate tuition each semester, until they have successfully defended their dissertation. Students with VPS status are granted full library privileges, research supervision, an e-mail account, a seminary mailbox, access to student housing (Kentucky Campus) and student health insurance, and other benefits consistent with student status at ATS. In order to facilitate enrollment at ATS, students should provide a copy of their letter of admission to LST's externally supervised research program, and communicate their intent to enroll, to Dr. Joel B. Green, the Office of Admissions, and the Office of the Registrar.

The Appalachian Ministries Educational Resource Center

Asbury Seminary, with 42 other seminaries, is a charter member of the Appalachian Ministries Educational Resource Center (AMERC), located at Berea College in Berea, Ky. AMERC was established for training both seminarians and experienced pastors for rural ministry in general and for ministry in Appalachia in particular. AMERC is the largest consortium of denominations and seminaries in the history of theological education in America.

Through its member schools, AMERC funds both J-term and summer learning experiences with faculty members selected for their expertise in rural and Appalachian ministry. J-term courses are three- or four-week intensive experiences with on-site learning experiences in Appalachia and are considered as TEAM-A courses for registration purposes. Summer courses are similar to J-Term, but may include class sessions at the seminary sponsoring the course along with an immersion experience in Appalachia.

The Theological Education Association of Mid-America (TEAM-A)

Asbury has joined four other accredited seminaries located in the Ohio Valley in a cooperative effort called the Theological Education Association of Mid-America (TEAM-A). Each seminary in the association retains its own autonomy, confessional loyalties and unique style of life while at the same time cooperating with the others in certain matters of mutual concern.

One of the areas of cooperation is the January interterm, during which a limited number of students from each institution will be granted permission to take a three-hour course at one of the other member institutions. The program makes available a rich variety of more than 70 courses. Regularly enrolled students at Asbury may take a course at one of the other four TEAM-A schools as part of a full load during a semester of the school year. Contact the Office of the Registrar for more details.

Association for Clinical Pastoral Education

Asbury is a member of the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education. This enables students to take clinical training for credit both at Asbury Seminary and with the Association. This education is available in psychiatric and general medical settings and other types of institutions. (See the course descriptions section of this catalog.)

Seminary Consortium for Urban Pastoral Education (SCUPE)

The Seminary Consortium for Urban Pastoral Education (SCUPE) partners with churches, schools, denominations, and community agencies to provide theological and practical training for urban ministry. Students spend from January through May in Chicago (with a continuing summer option, June-August), involved in course work, a 20-hour per week internship and an ongoing peer group practicum.

Students live in the neighborhood in which they minister, usually receiving room, board and a small stipend from their placement site. Courses at SCUPE include: Dimensions and Dynamics of Urban Ministry, Urban Principalities and the Spirit of the City, Christology and Culture, and Restoring Urban Communities.

Students can earn a full semester of seminary credit in Chicago and additional hours if the summer program is added. For more information, contact Dr. Christine Pohl, professor of church in society.

Christian Center for Urban Studies

The Christian Center for Urban Studies is a cooperative endeavor between the Olive Branch Mission in Chicago and more than a dozen Christian colleges, universities and seminaries, to provide an urban living/learning program and center. Chicago provides a natural laboratory for studying diverse culture, classes and peoples which make up a society. The Center provides weekend programs for groups, interterm classes and internships (for academic credit) and semester-long programs.

In January, May or June miniterms, each student participates in an urban placement in some type of Christian ministry or with a social service, educational or community agency. Students live at the Olive Branch Mission and take classes dealing with urban issues and ministries topics. The interterm programs can count as MM 601 (Mentored Ministries) credit. A semester-long urban studies program is also available. For more information, contact Dr. Christine Pohl, professor of church in society.

National Capital Semester for Seminarians

This program, sponsored by Wesley Theological Seminary, offers Asbury students an opportunity to spend a semester in Washington, D.C., for full Asbury credit. Public policy issues are studied from a theological perspective, and students interact regularly with persons involved in the political process. For more information, contact Dr. Christine Pohl, professor of church in society.

The American Schools of Oriental Research

Asbury is a member of the Corporation of the American Schools of Oriental Research. Students are admitted to the Schools of the Corporation without tuition. Through the relationship with the American Schools of Oriental Research, the Seminary has the opportunity not only of extension work but also of conducting original research through excavation in cooperation with the School's facilities. It is hoped that patrons will be found who will enable the Seminary to do such research. Details are available through the Office of the Vice President of Academic Affairs.

Jerusalem University College

Asbury Theological Seminary is a member of the Associated Schools of the Institute of Holy Land Studies, a division of Jerusalem University College (JUC). The Graduate School of JUC offers specialized training in historical geography, archaeology, and history of the Holy Land. Credits earned in the Graduate School are accepted at Asbury Seminary upon review of transcripts and syllabi by the Office of the Registrar, with the grade submitted by the Graduate School entered onto the student's transcript at Asbury Seminary. A maximum of 12 hours can be complete in this fashion.

For the following JUC courses, the student registers for its equivalent at Asbury Seminary:

JUC	ATS
History of Ancient Israel	OT530 History of Israel
Biblical Hebrew 1-2	OT501 Survey of Biblical Hebrew and
	OT502 Grammar and Readings in Biblical Hebrew
Biblical Archaeology 1	OT752 Biblical Archaeology
Archaeological Field Excavation	OT753 Summer Archaeological Program

Students may register at Asbury Seminary for other biblical studies courses at JUC (e.g., Geographical and Historical Settings of the Bible, Jesus and His Times, Paul and the Hellenistic World, and Qumran: Discoveries in the Dead Sea Scrolls) through the appropriate tutorial number (e.g., OT650), upon the recommendation of Dr. Sandra Richter, JUC campus representative, and approval of Dr. David Bauer, Dean of the School of Scripture and Proclamation.

For further information, contact Dr. Sandra Richter, campus representative.

Navy, Army and Air Force Chaplaincy Courses

A student registered at Asbury may receive three semester hours of credit toward the M.Div. degree for completing the Chaplains Indoctrination Course required by the U.S. Navy, the U.S. Army, or U.S. Air Force.

Asbury Seminary is listed as a recommended seminary by the Civilian Institutions Programs, Naval Postgraduate School (CIVINS). Recommended degree programs: Master of Arts in Christian Leadership, Master of Arts in Christian Education, Master of Arts in Pastoral Counseling, and Master of Theology in World Mission and Evangelism. In the case of chaplains interested in one of the M.A. degrees, the prospective student should contact the Registrar to petition for one year of advanced standing to be granted by virtue of the chaplain's previous theological education.

ACADEMIC HONORS & AWARDS

Eta Beta Rho—Hebrew Honor Society

The International Society of Theta Phi

Theta Phi, a scholastic honor society in the field of religion, is open by election to a limited number of M.Div. middlers and seniors and M.A. II students on the basis of high academic standing. Faculty members are also eligible for election to the Society.

Programs of Study

> > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: MASTER OF DIVINITY

Oversight/Location of the Program within the Seminary: Plenary Faculty

The Master of Divinity (M.Div.) program consists of a 96-semester-hour program* of study designed primarily as preparation for congregational and congregation-based ministries. However, flexibility has been built into the program within its 10 year framework for a wide variety of areas of concentration. This is made possible by the large segment of core elective and elective hours provided in the program. By utilizing these elective hours, students who desire more intensive training in specialized forms of ministry, such as youth ministry, pastoral counseling, or Christian education, may acquire concentrations in these areas of preparation. The M.Div. program encourages student development following the guidelines described earlier in this catalog.

* BS400 does not apply toward graduation.

PRE-SEMINARY CURRICULUM

As an accredited member of The Association of Theological Schools, Asbury Seminary accepts the Association's standards for admission. The following statements of the Association are inserted as a guide for desirable undergraduate work in preparation for the M.Div. degree program:

It is no longer possible to prescribe one pattern as normative for all pre-seminary education. Religious bodies vary in their expectations. Individuals may seek to develop non-parochial ministries in which theological study will complement work in other professions. Different ministries demand a variety of patterns of pre-theological studies. The Association of Theological Schools therefore finds it increasingly difficult to prescribe or even advise a single pre-seminary curricular model as the ideal.

Although absolute guidelines cannot be prescribed, for a balanced preparation it is suggested that students take approximately three-fourths of their undergraduate work in the following areas:

English—literature, composition, and related studies. At least six semesters (nine quarters).

Speech Arts—at least two semesters (three quarters).

History—Ancient, modern European, and American. At least three semesters (four quarters).

Philosophy—orientation in history, content, and method. At least three semesters (four quarters).

Natural Sciences—preferably physics, chemistry, and biology. At least two semesters (three quarters).

Social Sciences—psychology, sociology, economics, political science, and education. At least six semesters (nine quarters), including a minimum of one semester (one quarter) of psychology.

Management—principles of administration and organization. At least two semesters (three quarters).

Fine Arts and Music—at least two semesters (three quarters).

Foreign Languages—one or more of the following linguistic tools of scholarly research: Latin, Greek, Hebrew, German, or French. Students who anticipate postgraduate studies are urged to undertake these disciplines as early in their training as possible. At least four semesters (six quarters).

The transition to the theological curriculum is easier for the student who gains a foundational knowledge of Greek during undergraduate studies.

Decisions about additional language skills should be related to their future utility for the individual. Thus, French or German should be included for a person contemplating possible graduate study in academic theology. Spanish or a language of the Developing World might be of value for another type of ministry.

The student should have the ability to write and speak clear and correct English prose. Asbury Seminary reserves the right to ask the applicant to correct any serious deficiencies.

CURRICULAR PHILOSOPHY

The larger context for the curricular philosophy at the Seminary is found in the Catalog statements on “Educational Mission,” “Educational Assumptions,” “Commitments to the Student,” and “Goals,” as well as the “Statement of Faith” and the institutional bylaws. These provide the general theological and educational framework within which the learning experience occurs.

Asbury Seminary is a graduate professional school dedicated to the mission of preparing men and women for congregational and other forms of ministries. Students who enroll at the Seminary may expect to find basic preparation adequate to begin their ministerial vocations. This preparation occurs in the variety of experiences—academic and non-academic, formal and non-formal—which make up the total life of the Seminary community. The formal curriculum represents the most obvious place where such preparation occurs, but very important learning and transformational experiences also occur in worship services, in lectureships, in special conferences, in small-group meetings, in voluntary service, and in social and recreational events. The Seminary intends to serve as a community of learning, worship, and spiritual growth.

The curriculum is designed to assist students in the development of a biblical and theological understanding of ministry that will undergird a lifelong commitment to serve Christ and his church. It is structured to insure that each student receives an exposure to the theological disciplines that are essential for contemporary ministry, and incorporates a flexibility that recognizes individual needs and specialized ministry callings. Methods of teaching and learning are stressed which actively engage students in the educational process so that they may assume responsibility for their learning, both during Seminary preparation and afterward.

The following basic concerns are included within the curriculum:

Biblical Authority: Since God has revealed himself above all in Christ through the written Word, the Scriptures serve at once as the foundation, controlling center, and formative context of the entire curriculum and of each course in particular. With the aid of the Holy Spirit, the careful interpretation of texts within their book and canonical contexts, coupled with an understanding of overarching biblical themes, allows Holy Scripture as final authority to form and inform all other disciplines in appropriate ways, and in turn to be illuminated by them. The Bible provides the integrative center for the various acts and skills of ministry and defines what it means to function under the authority of God’s Word. The Faculty assumes the responsibility for establishing the biblical basis and implications for each course.

Theological Commitments: The Seminary stands within the Wesleyan-evangelical theological tradition and helps to shape the evangelical perspective in contemporary theological education. Our understandings of biblical authority, the human situation, the nature and mission of the church, evangelism, Christian experience and nurture, and personal and social holiness are especially illumined by the thought of John Wesley. We rely on the principle that truth is discerned by the appropriate use of Scripture, reason, experience, and tradition, with Scripture as ultimately determinative. These commitments provide the framework for the theological integration and orientation of the curriculum and of each course.

Contextual Relevance: The classical sources for Christian faith are appropriated within a context of awareness of the contemporary pluralistic socio-cultural situation and the role of ministry within that framework. Affirmations and critiques of cultural values—our own and those of others—are carried out on the basis of reflective insights derived from Scripture and Christian doctrine. The primary concern is to facilitate a ministry that has contemporary relevance and, at the same time, is rooted in classical Christian tradition.

Educational Integration: The unifying theme of the curriculum is “The Minister of Christ as Servant to the Church in Its Mission to the World.” The curriculum is designed to be systemic in the sense that any of its parts not only contributes to a holistic goal, but also tends to contain, in embryonic form, the ingredients for the development of a minister in the Asbury Seminary context. Course formats and procedures are structured in ways that enhance their integrative connections with other disciplines and with field experiences. Within this design there are sequences and tiers of curricular offerings that provide the learner with a core of common curricular experiences and elective courses in the pursuit of personal and vocational preparation.

Personal Formation: A focal concern in the Seminary community is the development of every person toward maturity in Jesus Christ. The academic program and the Seminary environment are planned to overcome the fragmentation of human experience by fostering the unity of the whole person in the “image of God” and by integrating the physical, emotional, relational, intellectual, and spiritual formation of persons. Since all ministry is embodied ministry, the Seminary encourages attention to nutrition and to the use of exercise and recreation schedules and facilities. Good emotional health and the ability to develop meaningful relationships are necessary components for satisfactory and creative living and for effective ministry. Asbury Seminary encourages the development of healthy intrapersonal and interpersonal growth by providing academic offerings, experiential learning opportunities, supportive counsel, and corporate worship for such development. It is recognized that learning occurs both in the cognitive and affective domains and both are engaged, shaped, and integrated in the educational process. This involves the use of teaching and learning techniques that are intended to cultivate such cognitive skills as knowledge, comprehension, analysis, application, synthesis, and critical evaluation, as well as such affective internalizations as awareness, responding, commitment, value organization, and value generalization. Christian spirituality is that graced vision of human happiness which is grounded in the Fatherhood of God, modeled by Jesus Christ, energized by the Holy Spirit, and shaped by Scripture and tradition. Since it is essential to the personal formation of the minister of Christ, the Seminary structures opportunities and facilities for spiritual formation into its academic program and environment.

Introductory Statement of Program Goals: Recognizing the Wesleyan commitments of Asbury Theological Seminary, the faculty of the School of Theology have adopted four goals for the graduates of the Master of Divinity degree program:

- 1.1. Graduates will demonstrate enhanced understanding of and commitment to personal and social holiness through practices of moral, personal and spiritual formation, in a context of accountability to a community of faith, and dependence of the Spirit of Christ;
- 1.2. Graduates, as members of the Body of Christ, will demonstrate a clear sense of vocation as servants of the saving purpose and work of God and a commitment to ongoing formation of vocational competencies;
- 1.3. Graduates will demonstrate their ability to work integratively, critically, and creatively with the resources of the Christian faith as they interpret and engage the world within which they serve the mission of God; and
- 1.4. Graduates will demonstrate their capacity to lead and equip others for faithful witness to the initiating, justifying, and sanctifying grace of God in a world increasingly marked by diversity and secularity.

ADMISSION STANDARDS

For admission standards, see the section on Academic Information.

ACADEMIC ADVISING PROGRAM

The Academic Advising program assists students in the planning of their academic course work. New students are assigned an Academic Advisor after confirming admission and completing the FirstClass orientation process. Academic Advisors are housed in the Office of the Registrar.

The advisor serves as a guide through the curriculum at Asbury. They will help students interpret the curriculum and select courses that will enable students to fulfill their calls in ministry. They also clear students to register for new classes. Students must meet with their Academic Advisors at least once a semester. Students cannot register for classes until they have been cleared to do so by their Academic Advisors.

BIBLE CONTENT REQUIREMENT

The Bible Content Examination (BCE) tests the student's basic knowledge of the Bible's structure and content. It must be passed before the end of a student's first 32 hours in seminary. This is a timed, proctored exam, and is given periodically in the Information Commons on both the Florida and Kentucky campuses throughout the academic year, and for ExL students by special arrangement with the Director of Distributed Learning. Florida and Kentucky students may sign up to take the exam by calling or sending an email request to Ruth Clark, x2343. Students may attempt the proctored exam three times, with two months separating the sittings and with sign-up priority given to persons who are taking the exam for the first time. A passing score for the BCE is 80 percent or higher. If the proctored exam is failed three times, or if the student fails to pass the exam before the end of his or her first 32 hours of seminary work, the student is required to take BS400, which must be completed with a grade of "Pass." ExL students desiring to take the Bible Content Examination should contact the Director of Distributed Learning.

Students may prepare for the Bible Content Examination in a variety of ways:

- By accessing the Bible Tutor through a web browser: acts.luthersem.edu/asbury. User name: "asbury." As the password changes periodically, students will need to consult with the Information Commons attendant to obtain the current password;
- On the Florida campus, by borrowing the Florida Information Commons' copy of the Bible Tutor CD (two-hour maximum; see the circulation attendant);
- By purchasing a personal copy of the Bible Tutor Educational CD: <http://www.bibletutor.com>; and/or
- By engaging in personal or group study of the Bible's content and world, and its important persons, places, and events.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

Students must take either NT500 Concise Greek (3 hrs) or NT501/502 Comprehensive Greek (6 hrs). Those who opt for Comprehensive Greek will find that the first three hours of Comprehensive Greek will fulfill the Greek language requirement; the second three hours of the Comprehensive track will be considered elective hours. Students who pass the Greek Competency Exam will receive three hours of advanced standing, thus reducing by three the number of hours necessary to graduate.

Students must take at least three hours of Hebrew, beginning with OT501 Survey of Biblical Hebrew (3 hrs). After successfully completing OT501, they may also take OT502 Grammar and Readings in Biblical Hebrew (3 hrs.) as an elective. Students who pass the Hebrew Competency Exam will receive three hours of advanced standing, thus reducing by three the number of hours necessary to graduate.

DENOMINATIONAL REQUIREMENTS

Certain M.Div. students are asked to meet denominational requirements in order to fulfill conditions for ordination and/or scholarships. These include:

United Methodist—CL553, CH600, DO670, DO690

Free Methodist—CL551, selection of 3 hours of study in Holiness or Wesleyan theology.

Society of Friends—CL555

Persons seeking ordination in The Wesleyan Church may meet denominational requirements by including the following courses in their program: PR610 The Servant as Proclaimer [3], WO510 Worship Leadership in the Church [3], CD510 Foundations in Christian Discipleship [3], PC510 The Servant as Pastoral Care-Giver [3], MS610 The Ministry of Evangelism [3], CH660 A Survey of the History of the Holiness Movement [3], CL552 Wesleyan Polity and Discipline [3], and DO660 The Christian Doctrine of Holiness [3]. Among the electives in Mission, they should choose one of the following courses: MS652 Christian Ministry in a Multicultural Society [3], MS653 Cross-Cultural Leadership [3], MS671 Anthropology for Christian Mission [3], or MS675 Christian Mission and Global Culture [3]. Among the electives in Preaching, they should choose one of the following courses: PR652 Preaching from the Parables [3], PR653 Homiletical Study of Holiness [3], PR701 Inductive Preaching [3], or PR702 Expository Preaching [3].

Persons seeking ordination in The Wesleyan Church are advised not to opt for the Academic Vocation Studies track in the M.Div. degree program.

United Methodists seeking ordination as (permanent) Deacons may fulfill denominational requirements with the M.Div. degree and with most of the M.A. degrees (see the section on the Master of Arts Program, following). Requirements for the Order of Deacons in The United Methodist Church include the following courses: CL553 United Methodist Polity and Discipline [2], CH501 Church History I [3], CH502 Church History II [3], CH600 History of Methodism [2], DO501 Basic Christian Doctrine [3], DO670 United Methodist Theology [2], any worship course in the range WO510-549 [3], any evangelism course in the range MS610-649 [3], OT520 Old Testament Introduction [3], NT520 New Testament Introduction [3], and IS501 Kingdom, Church, and World [3]. (For full educational requirements for elders and deacons in The United Methodist Church, see The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2004 ¶324.4)

Students are encouraged to contact their denominational offices in order to ensure that denominational requirements are satisfied in the mapping of their degree programs.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Students may choose to complete the M.Div. in three, four, or more years (maximum of ten) depending upon their workload, financial, and other needs. For other general graduation requirements, see the section on Academic Information. In addition, the following specific requirements are necessary to receive the M.Div. degree:

1. Satisfactory completion of 96 semester hours, including required courses;
2. Attainment of a grade point average of at least 2.00/4.00;
3. Except for transfer and ExL students, completion of six full semesters or their equivalent in residence at either the Kentucky or Florida campuses of Asbury Seminary. Normally two full academic years plus three summers will be the minimum required to meet residence requirements;

4. Completion of the final 32 semester hours at either the Kentucky or Florida campuses of Asbury Seminary.
5. Satisfactory fulfillment of all degree requirements in not more than ten calendar years from time of matriculation.
6. Apply for graduation online.

Any exceptions to these requirements will come under automatic review by the Vice President of Academic Affairs and the Academic Committee.

Degree Program Requirements

The M.Div. curriculum is divided into four categories: (1) Core Formational Courses, (2) Core Courses, (3) Core Electives, and (4) Electives.

1. Core Formational Courses (6 hours)

Two core formational courses are required:

IS501 Christian Formation: Kingdom, Church, and World (3 hours)

IS502 Christian Formation: Vocation of Ministry (3 hours)

Students in the M.Div. degree program are required to enroll in both Core Formational Courses within the first 21 hours of study. Typically, IS501 Christian Formation: Kingdom, Church, and World is taken in one's first semester, IS502 Christian Formation: Vocation of Ministry in the second. Together, these courses require year-long participation in small-group, covenant discipleship experiences.

2. Core Courses (37 hours)

Irrespective of degree focus, all students in the M.Div. degree program must complete the following courses:

Formation for Ministry (4 hours)

MM601 Mentored Ministry—1 (2)

MM602 Mentored Ministry—2 (2)

Biblical Foundations (12 hours)

OT501 Survey of Biblical Hebrew (3)

(Students who pass the Hebrew Competency Exam will receive three hours of advanced standing, thus reducing by three the number of hours necessary for graduation.)

NT500 Concise Greek (3) or NT501/NT502 Comprehensive Greek (6)

(Students who pass the Greek Competency Exam will receive three hours of advanced standing, thus reducing by three the number of hours necessary for graduation.)

OT520 Old Testament Introduction (3)

NT520 New Testament Introduction (3)

Theological Orientation (17 hours)

ST501 Method and Praxis in Theology (3)

DO501 Basic Christian Doctrine (3)

CH501 Church History—1 (3)

CH502 Church History—2 (3)

PH501 Philosophy of Christian Religion (3)

DO690 John Wesley's Theology for Today (2)

Contextual Integration (2 hours)

CS601 Christian Ethics (2)

The Practice of Ministry (2 hours)

SP501 Communication as Christian Rhetoric (2)

3. Core Electives (35 hours)

The heading “core electives” refers to necessary areas of study, generally without specifying a single course that fulfills a core requirement. Core electives allow students to navigate the curriculum in ways consistent with their understanding of their call to ministry and vocational goals.

Biblical Foundations (12 hours)

Inductive Biblical Studies—1 (3)

(Choose any course with an IBS prefix within the range 510-549.)

Inductive Biblical Studies—2 (3)

(Choose any course with an IBS prefix within the range 610-649.)

Old Testament Exegesis (3)

(Choose any course with an OT prefix within the range 610-649 or 710-749.)

New Testament Exegesis (3)

(Choose any course with an NT prefix within the range 610-649 or 710-749.)

Contextual Integration (5 hours)

Ethical Studies (2)

(Choose any course within the ranges CS610-39, CS651-98.)

Understanding the World (3)

(Choose any course within the ranges CS610-49, MS651-89.)

The Practice of Ministry (18 hours)

Proclamation (6)

(Choose two courses from two of the following prefixes: MU, PR, WO. For PR courses, choose courses within the range PR610-49. For MU and WO courses, choose within the ranges MU510-549 and WO510-49.)

Leadership (3)

(Choose any course with a CL prefix within the range 610-649.)

Servant Ministry (6)

(For the first core elective in Servant Ministry, choose any course from the following ranges: CO510-549, PC510-549, CD510-549, YM510-549, and CM510-549. For the second core elective in Servant Ministry, choose any course from the following ranges: CO510-549, PC510-549, CD610-649, YM610-649, and CM610-649.)

Apostolic Ministry (3)

(Choose any course with an MS prefix within the range 610-49.)

4. Electives (18 hours)

In consultation with their advisors, students should choose elective courses designed to prepare them for their particular ministry paths.

ACADEMIC VOCATION STUDIES

Students enrolled in the M.Div. degree program who anticipate an academic vocation may elect out of as many as 12 hours of coursework in required areas in order to devote those hours to additional coursework in the area of their academic focus. Course requirements that students may elect not to fulfill include the following:

- Core Elective in Proclamation (3 hours)
- Core Electives in Servant Ministry (6 hours)
- Core Elective in Apostolic Ministry (3 hours)

A student may choose this route only in consultation with his or her academic advisor and with an additional faculty person in the Area of the student's proposed academic focus. Substitute courses available to students who choose this option are limited to 600 and 700 level courses and language courses. The process for receiving this exemption is as follows:

1. Using an Academic Petition, request permission to focus on Academic Vocation Studies.
2. In consultation with your academic advisor, specify on the Academic Petition the course requirement(s) for which an exemption is sought.
3. Receive approval on the Academic Petition from your academic advisor and an additional faculty person in the School of proposed academic focus.
4. Submit the completed Academic Petition for approval to the Vice President of Academic Affairs.

Course Sequencing

The M.Div. degree program has three sequencing paths that require the attention of all new students.

- Students must enroll in the two courses, IS501 Christian Formation: Kingdom, Church, and World and IS502 Christian Formation: Vocation of Ministry, within their first 21 units at Asbury Theological Seminary.
- The Bible Content Examination must be completed prior to completing one's first 32 units.
- Students must take their Greek exegesis requirement within six months of completing NT500 or NT502.
- Prior to enrolling for a course in preaching, students must have completed the following courses: NT500 Concise Greek and OT501 Survey of Biblical Hebrew, Inductive Biblical Studies—1 and Inductive Biblical Studies—2, and SP501 Communication as Christian Rhetoric. This means that students should begin their biblical language studies and work in Inductive Biblical Studies in their first semester at Asbury Seminary.

In addition, students will need to consult course descriptions in this Catalog for the prerequisites expected of courses offered at the Intermediate and Advanced levels. The course numbering system assumes the following breakdown:

- 500-level courses: Introductory, with no prerequisites
- 600-level courses: Introductory, with prerequisites; or Intermediate
- 700-level courses: Advanced, with prerequisites

The following sequences provide an orderly and integrative process for completing requirements in the M.Div. program. One of these sequences should be followed unless there are compelling reasons not to do so.

M.Div./M.A. Degree Sequencing

Students in the M.Div. degree program may be able to earn a Master of Arts degree with only an additional 30 hours beyond the 96 hours required for the M.Div. Students interested in this two-degree program option should consult with their academic advisor (and a faculty member in the School housing the desired M.A. degree) early in their academic career at Asbury Theological Seminary.

> > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: DISTRIBUTED & EXTENDED LEARNING

DISTRIBUTED LEARNING

Through Distributed Learning, Asbury Seminary is dedicated to John Wesley's claim that "the world is our parish." Distributed Learning offers opportunities for students around the globe to pursue degree programs and ministry training through our Virtual Campus and by taking classes at extension sites.

EXTENDED LEARNING (ExL)

Understanding the changing needs of students today, Asbury Seminary has built flexibility into its academic schedule. By taking ExL courses on the Virtual Campus, students may earn the certificate of Christian Studies, earn up to two-thirds of the Master of Divinity degree, or up to one-half of a Master of Arts degree online through three semesters each year. Students may choose from three campuses, multiple degree programs and various course-offering timetables to fulfill their academic goals. Working with an academic advisor, students move freely within the Asbury Seminary infrastructure to complete their traditional degrees in untraditional ways.

ExL courses may be described by two words: collaborative and asynchronous. As a collaborative learning environment, our faculty strive to develop a community of learners that work and share together in the learning experience. ExL is also asynchronous, which means students have access to the classroom anytime and anyplace. Students can read and post messages at hours convenient to them because our online classrooms are open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

The following are just a few ways that Asbury Seminary provides students flexibility in how they can complete their degree program:

Florida Campus

Block scheduling maximizes the calendar and minimizes the commute. Classes are available on Tuesdays and Thursdays, including evenings, and some on Saturdays, so that students can condense their seminary classroom commitment.

Intensives (classes lasting one week to one month) are available in January, June, July and August. Students can complete one course each month in this "compact-semester" format. Area housing information is available.

Kentucky Campus

Block scheduling is blended with a more traditional course schedule as classes are offered Monday nights through Friday mornings, and an occasional weekend.

Intensives (classes lasting one week to one month) are available in January, June, July and August. Students can complete one course each month in this "compact-semester" format. On-campus housing is available.

Virtual Campus

Attend class at your computer through the Virtual Campus.

Students can complete the Certificate of Christian Studies, one-half of a Master of Arts degree and up to two-thirds of the Master of Divinity degree through the Extended Learning Program (ExL).

The M.Div. can be earned by students' combining up to 64 hours on ExL and 32 hours on a geophysical campus. The 32 hours required on the geophysical campus can include intensives or one-year of residency. MACE, MACL and MAYM degrees are designed so that students can complete the degree by combining ExL course offerings with campus intensives.

THE IN-MINISTRY MASTER OF DIVINITY PROGRAM

Another option for completing an MDIV through ExL is the In-Ministry M.Div. program. The In-Ministry M.Div. provides an avenue for persons involved in full-time Christian ministry to complete the M.Div. while continuing their ministerial responsibilities. It is designed to account for the growing number of persons who (1) are in a ministry situation that does not allow for relocation to one of the Seminary's campuses in Kentucky or Florida, (2) serve in ministry settings and/or denominations that do not require the M.Div. degree as a prerequisite for full-time ministry, and (3) nonetheless desire an M.Div. degree. Residency requirements are met through five, two-week intensive courses held on the Kentucky or Florida campus in January.

Admissions Standards

For admissions standards, see the section on Academic Information. In addition to the normal requirements for admission to the M.Div. program, admission to the In-Ministry M.Div. requires that the applicant be at least 35 years old, and have served at least 5 years in Christian ministry. ("Christian ministry" is defined broadly to refer to those forms of congregation-based or congregation-related vocations for which the M.Div. may serve as preparation or enhancement.)

When applying to the M.Div. program, applicants will be allowed to specify whether they wish to be admitted to the In-Ministry M.Div. program and when they would be available to start the first on-campus segment of the program. Applicants will be pooled and cohorts will be selected. Students will proceed through the In-Ministry M.Div. in cohorts of 25-35 people. A cohort will not be formed until a sufficient number of In-Ministry M.Div. students has been accepted into the program.

Transfer

Transfer units from other theological institutions, for courses covered in the In-Ministry intensive Modules (see below), cannot be accepted into the In-Ministry M.Div.

The Program

The In-Ministry M.Div. program consists of an intermixture of coursework taken on the Virtual Campus and through short-term, intensive, on-campus modules. ExL courses may be supplemented by coursework completed at a Distance-Learning site established by the Seminary.

The learning objectives and curriculum are those of the M.Div. program.

Course requirements for the In-Ministry M.Div. program are to be completed as follows:

- 64 units through ExL, 12-15 units per year, over 5 years.
- 32 units through on-campus modules—5, 2-week modules; 6-7 units per module; 1 module per year over 5 years.

Should a person miss the first or second module, he or she will be dropped from the program and allowed to reapply for the next cohort. Should a person miss a module after the second, he or she may be allowed to participate in that module with another cohort.

Course Sequencing

Because the courses offered in modular form are set (see the schedule below), students should plan their ExL coursework around the on-campus modules. This means (1) not taking through ExL the courses that will be offered in on-campus modules and (2) ensuring that prerequisites for the on-campus modules are met in advance of the modules. Students are expected to have taken at least one ExL course before beginning the first on-campus module.

> > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: MASTER OF ARTS

Asbury Theological Seminary offers two basic master of arts programs, with options for concentration in each program. The Master of Arts with specialization in Biblical Studies or specialization in Theological Studies provides preparation for persons pursuing further post-graduate research; and the Master of Arts professional degree serves as a terminal degree for a ministry of teaching in congregations, parachurch organizations, and Christian institutes; pastors who perceive the need to update and enrich their theological education; and lay persons who desire to be more effective in their local churches through increased knowledge of theology and biblical studies.

The professional Master of Arts degrees are designed to prepare women and men for competent leadership in specialized ministries in their faith communities. The professional Master of Arts seeks to develop the general theological understanding required as a basis for specialized ministries and to nurture the practical abilities and skills needed for the special form of ministry expected.

With one exception, all M.A. programs require 60 semester hours of study and normally require a minimum of 30 hours of residency in the program. The M.A. in Counseling requires 64 semester hours of study and normally requires a minimum of 25 months of full-time study; a minimum of 32 hours of residency in the program is expected.

The Master of Arts degrees, which prepare the student in their area of specialized study and ministry, may be used to satisfy the academic requirements for ordination as Deacon in The United Methodist Church. This is particularly true of the Master of Arts specialization in Biblical Studies or Theological Studies and the professional Master of Arts degrees (other than the Master of Arts in Counseling). Students wishing to complete requirements for the permanent Order of Deacons in The United Methodist Church should include the following courses in their elective hours: CL553 United Methodist Polity and Discipline [2], CH500 Turning Points in Church History [3], CH600 History of Methodism [2], DO670 United Methodist Theology [2], DO501 Basic Christian Doctrine [3] OR ST501 Method and Praxis in Theology [3], any worship course in the range WO510-549, BS503 Inductive Bible Study Method [2], BS504 Old Testament Studies [2], BS504 New testament Studies [2], and IS501 Kingdom, Church and World. For the specific educational requirements required as preparation for the Order of Deacons, see The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2004 ¶324.4.

PRE-SEMINARY STUDIES

Students anticipating graduate work beyond the M.A. are urged to include in their undergraduate program a broad liberal arts background with major emphases on the humanities and the social sciences.

ADMISSION STANDARDS

For admission standards, see the section on Academic Information.

ACADEMIC ADVISORS

Professional Academic Advisors assist students in the planning of their academic course work. New students are assigned an Academic Advisor after confirming admission and completing the FirstClass computer orientation process. Academic Advisors are housed in the Office of the Registrar.

The advisor serves as a guide through the curriculum at Asbury. They will help students interpret the curriculum and select courses that will enable students to fulfill their calls in ministry. They also clear students to register for new classes. Students must meet with their Academic Advisors at least once a semester. Students cannot register for classes until they have been cleared to do so by their Academic Advisors.

BIBLE CONTENT REQUIREMENT

The Bible Content Examination (BCE) tests the student's basic knowledge of the Bible's structure and content. It must be passed before the end of a student's first 32 hours in seminary. This is a timed, proctored exam, and is given periodically in the Information Commons on both the Florida and Kentucky campuses throughout the academic year, and for ExL students by special arrangement with the Director of Distributed Learning. Florida and Kentucky students may sign up to take the exam by calling or sending an email request to Ruth Clark, x2343. Students may attempt the proctored exam three times, with two months separating the sittings and with sign-up priority given to persons who are taking the exam for the first time. A passing score for the BCE is 80 percent or higher. If the proctored exam is failed three times, or if the student fails to pass the exam before the end of his or her first 32 hours of seminary work, the student is required to take BS400, which must be completed with a grade of "Pass." ExL students desiring to take the Bible Content Examination should contact the Director of Distributed Learning.

Students may prepare for the Bible Content Examination in a variety of ways:

- By accessing the Bible Tutor through a web browser: acts.luthersem.edu/asbury. User name: "asbury." As the password changes periodically, students will need to consult with the Information Commons attendant to obtain the current password;
- On the Florida campus, by borrowing the Florida Information Commons' copy of the Bible Tutor CD (two-hour maximum; see the circulation attendant);
- By purchasing a personal copy of the Bible Tutor Educational CD: <http://www.bibletutor.com>; and/or
- By engaging in personal or group study of the Bible's content and world, and its important persons, places, and events.

GRADUATION

For students not transferring from other institutions, a minimum of four semesters or their equivalent is required for the M.A. degree. Students may choose to complete the M.A. in two, three, or more years (maximum of seven), depending upon their work load, financial, and other needs. For other general graduation requirements, see the section on Academic Information. In addition, the following specific requirements are necessary to receive the M.A. degree:

1. Satisfactory completion of 60 semester hours (64 for the M.A. in Counseling), including required courses.
2. Attainment of a grade point average of at least 2.00/4.00. Note: M.A. (Research) degrees require a G.P.A. of 3.00/4.00 as a prerequisite for writing the thesis.
3. The final year of study, including at least 30 semester hours (32 for the M.A. in Counseling), must be taken on the Kentucky or Florida campuses of Asbury Seminary. At least six semester hours of work should be taken within the 24 months preceding the date of graduation.
4. Satisfactory completion of all degree requirements in not more than seven calendar years from the time of matriculation.
5. Apply for graduation online.

Any exceptions to these requirements, such as missionaries on furlough, will come under automatic review by the Vice President of Academic Affairs and the Academic Committee.

Oversight/Location of the Program within the Seminary: School of Biblical Interpretation and Proclamation

Introductory Statement of Program Goal: The purpose of the Master of Arts (with Specialization in Biblical Studies) Degree is to provide preparation for persons desiring to pursue further, postgraduate work in biblical studies; and serves as a terminal degree for ministries of teaching Scripture in congregations, parachurch organizations, and Christian institutes. The Master of Arts (with Specialization in Biblical Studies) can be completed entirely through coursework. Students graduating with the MA (with Specialization in Biblical Studies) will participate in a final evaluation in their penultimate semester.

DEGREE PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

Having successfully completed the Master of Arts (with Specialization in Biblical Studies) Degree Program, graduates should be able to:

1. Acquire the linguistic, historical, and critical tools and skills for interpreting Scriptures.
2. Understand the content and meaning of the various portions of the biblical canon.
3. Learn the methodology and major themes of Biblical Theology.
4. Develop a biblical view of the inspiration and authority of the Scriptures.
5. Demonstrate enhanced understanding and commitment to personal and social holiness through practices of moral, personal, and spiritual formation, in a context of accountability to a community of faith, and dependence on the Spirit of Christ.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES:

1. Accredited Bachelor of Arts degree for graduate programs; accredited Masters of Arts degree as specified for postgraduate programs. Accreditation is required by an agency recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation or holding membership in the Association of Universities and Colleges in Canada. Applicants whose bachelor's degree is from a college not accredited by a recognized national or regional accrediting agency must have one complete year of work at an accredited institution before being considered for admission to Asbury Seminary.
2. Application for admission must be made on a form furnished by the Admissions Office.
3. In addition to the information required on the application form, the applicant must send or arrange for the following:
 - a. Official transcripts of all post-secondary credits. These documents must be sent directly to Asbury Seminary by all institutions attended.
 - b. A non-refundable application processing fee of $50 (U.S.).
 - c. Four references, on forms supplied by the Admissions Office.

- d. The MA (with Specialization in Biblical Studies) will normally require an undergraduate GPA of 3.00 / 4.00 for admission in good standing to the graduate degree program. Those applicants whose grade point average falls between 2.75 and 3.00 may be admitted on a “reduced load” basis. For applicants whose grade point average for all college work is below 2.75, a report of the score on the Miller Analogies Test (MAT) or the general aptitude section of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) is required. The Admissions Committee expects to see a minimum score of 500 on the verbal section of the GRE or a Scaled Score no lower than 410 on the MAT. The grade point average as calculated by the Admissions Office at Asbury Seminary shall be considered the official grade point average for admission. Oversight/Location of the Program within the Seminary:
School of Theology and Formation

Introductory Statement of Program Goal: The purpose of the Master of Arts (with Specialization in Theological Studies) is to serve those using the program as a first graduate degree. The program is designed for students who seek a terminal degree for a ministry of teaching theology in Bible institutes, local churches, or parachurch organizations; pastors who perceive the need to update and enrich their theological education to keep abreast of the ever-changing theological issues and movements in the contemporary world; and laypersons who desire to be more effective in their local churches through an increased understanding of theology. Students graduating with the M.A. (with Specialization in Theological Studies) will participate in a final evaluation in their penultimate semester.

DEGREE PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

Having successfully completed the Master of Arts (with Specialization in Theological Studies) Degree Program, graduates should be able to:

1. Understand the essential content, historical development, and philosophical, and ethical dimensions of Christian theology.
2. Understand the scriptural basis, historical development, and contemporary relevance of the Wesleyan theological perspective.
3. Relate Christian theology, history, philosophy, and ethics to contemporary issues and Christian ministry.
4. Demonstrate enhanced understanding of and commitment to personal and social holiness through practices of moral, personal and spiritual formation, in a context of accountability to a community of faith, and dependence of the Spirit of Christ.

> > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: M.A. CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

M.A.: PROFESSIONAL DEGREES

Oversight/Location of the Program within the Seminary: Plenary Faculty

Introductory Statement of Program Goal: The Master of Arts in Christian Ministries (MAXM) degree is a professional credential designed to prepare women and men for competent leadership in specialized ministries in their faith communities. This degree seeks to develop the general theological understanding required as a basis for specialized ministries and to nurture the practical abilities and skills needed for the special form of ministry expected. The program is built upon biblical, historical, theological, and contextual foundations and seeks to prepare both lay and clergy candidates for a vocation of specialized ministry in unique contextual settings in the life of the church.

DEGREE PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

Four primary learning objectives undergird the curriculum. Students graduating from this program shall:

1. Demonstrate a fundamental grounding in theological studies and be able to locate their specialized vocation in the larger context of the Christian heritage and calling;
2. Understand contextual and cultural dynamics related to human and ecclesial needs, modes and models of response, and relevant resources specific to settings in ministry;
3. Possess specific competencies related to their areas of ministry that enable them to contribute more effectively to their faith communities and institutions; and
4. Practice the values inherent to learning community in which critical and constructive insight is valued and the content and dynamic aspects of specialized ministries assessed in a collegial manner.
5. Demonstrate enhanced understanding of commitment to personal and social holiness through practices of moral, personal, and spiritual formation, in a context of accountability to a community of faith, and dependence of the Spirit of Christ.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES:

For admissions standards, see the section on Academic Information. However, for applicants to the MAXM whose GPA for all post-secondary education is below 2.50, and whose native language is other than English and/or whose education has been in non-English-speaking institutions, a proctored essay written in English may be submitted along with the application for admission, as a substitute for the MAT or GRE.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS:

1. Satisfactory completion of 60 semester hours, including all required courses;
2. Completion of at least 30 hours on a geophysical campus of Asbury Theological Seminary. At least 6 semester hours of work should be taken within the 24 months preceding the date of graduation;

3. Attainment of a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.00 / 4.00;
4. Satisfactory completion of all degree requirements in not more than seven academic years from the first term of matriculation.
5. Apply for graduation online.

GENERAL ELECTIVES (18)

M.A.X.M. Specialization (24 units)

The core requirements of the degree are augmented with outcomes specific to each track within the program. Four specific tracks enable the student to develop a ministry focus or specialization: A. Servant Leadership Ministries, B. Ministries in Hispanic Congregations; C. Congregational Care Ministries; and D. Mission/Evangelism Ministries.

A. Servant Leadership Ministries Track (24 units). This Track is specifically designed to satisfy the academic requirements for ordination as Permanent Deacon in The United Methodist Church, or other Christian denominations. This Track, available on both Florida and Kentucky campuses, prepares graduates to:

1. Understand and practice servant leadership ministry as a distinct vocation of compassion and justice within the mission of the church.
2. Contribute to a local congregation through worship leadership, discipleship ministries, and missional initiatives; and
3. Develop competencies in a specialization beyond the Basic Graduate Theological Studies course work required for the United Methodist Church.

This specific ministry focus or specialization (24 units) is arranged under the following headings:

- DO690 Theology of John Wesley (2)
- CH600 History of Methodism (2)
- CL553 United Methodist Polity and Discipline (2)
- DO670 United Methodist Theology (2)
- MS610-49 Core Elective in Evangelism (3)
- WO510-49 Core Elective in Worship (3)
- MM601-602 Mentored Ministry (4)

For non-United Methodist students, UM history, doctrine, and polity (6 hours) are substituted with appropriate denominational course work.

Six (6) units of additional course work are selected in consultation with the student's advisor in the contextual area of ministry.

B. Ministries in Hispanic Congregations Track (24 units): This Track is designed for persons engaged in ministries directly related to Hispanic congregations. Available only on the Florida campus, this Track prepares graduates to:

1. Understand and practice ministry in Hispanic congregations, with particular awareness of and sensitivity to the cultural dynamics that make these contexts of ministry unique;
2. Provide leadership in Hispanic congregations through pastoral oversight, worship leadership, discipleship ministries, caring and counseling service; and
3. Develop competencies in cross-cultural leadership and multi-cultural dynamics so as to be important resources to the community at large.

- CD510-49 Core Elective in Christian Discipleship (3)
- CL610-49 Core Elective in Christian Leadership (3)
- CS620 Hispanic Theological and Social Ethics or
CS621 Hispanic History, Theology, and Ministry (3)
- MS652 Christian Ministry in a Multicultural Society (3)
- PC/CO510-49 Core Elective in Pastoral Care & Counseling (3)
- CO650-99 Advanced Course in Counseling (3)
- SM601-602 Supervised Ministry (4)

Two (2) units of additional course work are selected in consultation with the student's advisor in a specific area of vocational concern. While only two courses in this constellation have an overtly and specifically Hispanic orientation, all course work undertaken by students in this track will involve assignments and practical learning activities that are attentive to and reflective of the peculiarities of Hispanic contextual ministries. Mentored ministry must take place in Hispanic congregational settings. Students in this track are strongly encouraged to take advantage of the resources of the Hispanic Summer Program which offers course work in both the Spanish and English languages in Hispanic contextual settings.

C. Congregational Care Ministries Track (24 units): The purpose of this Track is to provide a strong foundation in pastoral care and counseling for those students who feel called into caring ministries at the congregational level but do not seek professional credentialing in these areas. Counseling and pastoral care in this Track are viewed within the larger context of Christian worship, discipleship, and leadership. This Track, offered on both the Florida and Kentucky campuses, prepares graduates to:

1. Understand and practice caring ministries within the larger context of congregational life and mission;
2. Provide personal and educational resources to churches in the areas of pastoral care and counseling; and
3. Develop competencies in care-giving ministries, particularly pastoral care and counseling.

This specific ministry focus or specialization (24 units) is arranged under the following headings:

- CH510-49 Core Elective in Christian Discipleship (3)
- CL610-49 Core Elective in Christian Leadership (3)
- PC/CO510-49 Core Elective in Pastoral Care & Counseling (6)
- CO650-99 Advanced Course in Counseling (3)
- PC655 Clinical Pastoral Education (3)
- MM601-602 Mentored Ministry (4)

Two (2) units of additional course work are selected in consultation with the student's advisor in a specific area of vocational concern.

D. Mission/Evangelism Ministries Track (24 units): The purpose of this Track is to introduce students to critical foundations for the faithful and effective practice of mission and evangelism in the variegated cultures of contemporary society. This Track, available only on the Florida Campus, prepares graduates to:

1. Interface a biblical theology of mission and evangelism with an appreciation for the amazing variety of cultural contexts in the world today;
2. Articulate an informed perspective for engaging, planning, and leading effective mission activities and ministries of evangelism in the local church; and
3. Serve in ministries of mission and evangelism in a variety of cross-cultural contexts among God's people.

This specific ministry focus or specialization (24 units) is arranged under the following headings:

- MS610-49 Core Electives in Evangelism (6)
- MS652 Christian Ministry in a Multicultural Society (3)
- MS685 The Church Abroad (6)
- MM601-602 Mentored Ministry (4)

Five (5) units of additional course work in missions and evangelism are selected in consultation with the student's advisor in a specific area of vocational concern.

> > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: M.A. COUNSELING

M.A.: PROFESSIONAL DEGREES

Oversight/Location of the Program within the Seminary: School of Practical Theology

Introductory Statement of Program Goal: The purpose of the Master of Arts in Counseling (M.A.C.) program is to offer instruction in the theory and practice of professional counseling within a Christian worldview. The program is designed to prepare graduates to (1) integrate biblical and theological understanding with historical and contemporary counseling theory and practice and (2) to meet the academic and professional standards of relevant state licensure boards and national counseling accrediting organizations.

DEGREE PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

Having successfully completed the Master of Arts in Counseling Degree Program, graduates should be able to:

1. Demonstrate skills in assessment, diagnosis, and treatment of emotional and mental disorders with sensitivity to cross-cultural situations.
2. Comprehend ethical and legal obligations relative to professional counseling.
3. Apply relevant truths discovered through biblical and theological studies, psychological and other behavioral sciences so as to enhance their work with clients.
4. Utilize self-knowledge, personal faith, and moral reflection to facilitate their work with clients.
5. Demonstrate enhanced understanding and commitment to personal and social holiness through practices of moral, personal, and spiritual formation, in a context of accountability to a community of faith, and dependence of the Spirit of Christ.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES

General Admission Standards:

1. Accredited Bachelor of Arts degree for graduate programs. Accreditation is required by an agency recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation or holding membership in the Association of Universities and College in Canada. Applicants whose bachelor's degree is from a college not accredited by a recognized national or regional accrediting agency must have one complete year of work at an accredited institution before being considered for admission to Asbury Seminary.
2. Application for admission must be made on a form furnished by the Admissions Office.
3. In addition to the information required on the application form, the applicant must send or arrange for the following:
 - a. Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate credits. These documents must be sent directly to Asbury Seminary by all institutions attended.
 - b. A non-refundable application processing fee of $25 (U.S.).
 - c. Four references, on forms supplied by the Admissions Office.
 - d. (Note: A degree specific grade point average is required for admission to the Master of Arts in Counseling. See point 3 below.)
 - e. The Admissions Committee may request the applicant to submit additional materials and/or schedule an interview with a representative of the Seminary.

COUNSELING ADMISSIONS PROCEDURES:

1. Submitted materials that give evidence of a potential to develop the personal and professional skills necessary for counseling, and an intention to engage in counseling as a significant part of one's chosen vocation.
2. Completion of tests and inventories for evaluation by the Faculty of the Department of Counseling and Pastoral Care ($40 fee). GPA must be verified before tests and inventories can be scheduled.
3. A minimum Grade Point Average of 3.00/4.00 at graduate or undergraduate level. Entry requirement may also be met by completion of 9 hours at graduate level with G.P.A. of 3.0 or above.
4. A personal interview with a member of the Faculty of the Department of Counseling and Pastoral Care.
5. Due to limited enrollment, not all applicants can be accepted into the program. The screening process will be as follows:
 - a. Applications will normally be processed for both fall and spring semesters. The application deadline for fall admissions is February 1 and the deadline for spring or J-term is August 1. All application materials must be submitted and all supplementary required inventories must be completed by those dates prior to the academic year for which admission and enrollment is sought. Interviews will be given for applications in both fall and spring to those who meet the respective deadlines.
 - b. The Department of Counseling and Pastoral Care, in conjunction with the Office of Admissions, will develop a list (in proportion to the number of expected openings) of persons who are admitted to the program for the fall and January/spring semesters, or who are alternates. Applicants for the fall will be notified by April 1 of their admission, of alternate status, and/or of not being admitted. Applicants for the spring will be notified by November 1st of their admission, of alternate status, and/or of not being admitted.
 - c. Persons who have been admitted to the program for the fall must notify the office of their intent to enroll and send in a $100 matriculation fee by July 1. The matriculation fee for spring is due November 15. If, by those dates, an admitted student has not notified the seminary of his or her intent to enroll by sending the matriculation fee, that person's place in the fall class will be forfeited and an alternate will be admitted.
 - d. If an admitted student confirms his/her intent to enroll, but then is unable to attend, that person's place in the class will be given to the next alternate.
5. The M.A.C. is structured to begin in August of the year in which the student is admitted. Students admitted to the program are thus expected on campus in August in order to enroll in CO601 Counseling Theories and Techniques. (Contact the Office of the Registrar for specific dates and times. This course may also be available through the ExL program.) This course is a prerequisite for all other courses in the M.A.C. program.

Persons admitted to the M.A.C. program for spring semester enrollment are eligible to enroll for coursework only in the M.A. Core (see Course Requirements, below).

GRADUATION CLOSURE PROCEDURES

In order to exit the M.A.C. program, the following, two-part closure procedure is required:

1. A comprehensive objective exam covering the core courses comprising the M.A.C. degree program.
 - a. This exam is computer administered.
 - b. The exam shall ordinarily be completed in the last semester of the student's program.

- c. To pass the exam, students must achieve a minimum score on the exam of 70 percent. In cases where students do not achieve the minimum score, they shall complete a second exam (oral or written), a paper, or some other form of remediation as determined by the Faculty of the Department of Counseling and Pastoral Care.
2. A paper, 4–5 pages in length (typed, double-spaced, with a 12-point font like Times New Roman), that integrates biblical/theological issues with psychology and counseling.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS:

1. Satisfactory completion of 64 semester hours, including all required courses;
2. Completion of at least 30 hours on a geophysical campus of Asbury Theological Seminary. At least 6 semester hours of work should be taken within the 24 months preceding the date of graduation;
3. Attainment of a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.00 / 4.00;
4. Satisfactory completion of all degree requirements in not more than seven academic years from the first term of matriculation.
5. Apply for graduation online.

> > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: M.A. PASTORAL COUNSELING

M.A.: PROFESSIONAL DEGREES

Oversight/Location of the Program within the Seminary: School of Practical Theology

Introductory Statement of Program Goal: The purpose of the Master of Arts in Pastoral Counseling (M.A.P.C.) is to prepare students to pursue vocations which emphasize the ministry of pastoral care in the local church and other ministry settings (i.e., chaplaincy in hospitals or the military). It meets the academic requirements for recognition by the AAPC (American Association of Pastoral Counselors). Certification by the AAPC requires that one pass their standard exam. The M.A.P.C. is not designed to meet the academic standards necessary for certification and/or licensing as professional counselors. The M.A.P.C. degree meets the educational requirement for fee-based Pastoral Counseling certification in Kentucky.

DEGREE PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

Having successfully completed the Master of Arts in Pastoral Counseling Degree Program, graduates should be able to:

1. Understand and use scripture and theology as foundational for the practice of pastoral counseling.
2. Apply self-understanding, personal faith, and moral reflection to facilitate working with others.
3. Articulate an understanding of the foundational elements of the pastoral counseling process.
4. Demonstrate knowledge and skills appropriate for counseling in church and para-church settings.
5. Demonstrate enhanced understanding and commitment to personal and social holiness through practices of moral, personal, and spiritual formation, in a context of accountability to a community of faith, and dependence of the Spirit of Christ.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES:

1. Accredited Bachelor of Arts degree for graduate programs. Accreditation is required by an agency recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation or holding membership in the Association of Universities and College in Canada. Applicants whose bachelor's degree is from a college not accredited by a recognized national or regional accrediting agency must have one complete year of work at an accredited institution before being considered for admission to Asbury Seminary.
2. Application for admission must be made on a form furnished by the Admissions Office.
3. In addition to the information required on the application form, the applicant must send or arrange for the following:
 - a. Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate credits. These documents must be sent directly to Asbury Seminary by all institutions attended.
 - b. A non-refundable application processing fee of $25 (U.S.).
 - c. Four references, on forms supplied by the Admissions Office.
 - d. (Note: A degree specific grade point average is required for admission to the Master of Arts in Pastoral Counseling. See point 3 below under graduation requirements.)

- e. The Admissions Committee may request the applicant to submit additional materials and/or schedule an interview with a representative of the Seminary.

In additional students applying to the M.A.P.C. must:

1. Submitted materials that give evidence of a potential to develop the personal and professional skills necessary for counseling, and an intention to engage in counseling as a significant part of one's chosen vocation.
2. Completion of tests and inventories for evaluation by the Faculty of the Department of Counseling and Pastoral Care ($40 fee).
3. A minimum Grade Point Average of 3.00/4.00 at graduate or undergraduate level. Entry requirement may also be met by completion of 9 hours at graduate level with G.P.A. of 3.0 or above.
4. A personal interview with a member of the Faculty of the Department of Counseling and Pastoral Care.
5. Due to limited enrollment, not all applicants can be accepted into the program. The screening process will be as follows:
 - a. Applications will normally be processed for both fall and spring semesters following the application deadline of February 1 and the deadline for spring or J-term is August 1. Hence, all application materials must be submitted and all supplementary required inventories must be completed by February 1 prior to the academic year for which admission and enrollment is sought. Interviews will be given for applications whose materials are completed after the February 1 deadline at the discretion of the Faculty of the Department of Counseling and Pastoral Care and if space in the program is available.
 - b. The Department of Counseling and Pastoral Care, in conjunction with the Office of Admissions, will develop a list (in proportion to the number of expected openings) of persons who are admitted to the program for the fall and January/spring semesters, or who are alternates. Applicants for the fall will be notified by April 1 of their admission, alternate status, and/or not being admitted. Applicants for the spring will be notified by November 1 of their admission, alternate status, and/or not being admitted.
 - c. Persons who have been admitted to the program for the fall must notify the Office of Admissions of their intent to enroll and send in a $100 matriculation fee by July 1. The matriculation fee for spring is November 15. If by those dates, an admitted student has not notified the Seminary of his or her intent to enroll by sending the matriculation fee, that person's place in the fall class will be forfeited and an alternate will be admitted.
 - d. If an admitted student confirms his/her intent to enroll, but then is unable to attend, that person's place in the class will be given to the next alternate.

Students in the M.A.P.C. are encouraged, but not required, to enroll in the August course CO601 Counseling Theories and Techniques. (Contact the Office of the Registrar for specific dates and times. This course may also be available through the ExL program.)

Graduation Requirements:

1. Satisfactory completion of 60 semester hours, including all required courses;
2. Completion of at least 30 hours on a geophysical campus of Asbury Theological Seminary. At least 6 semester hours of work should be taken within the 24 months

- preceding the date of graduation;
3. Attainment of a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.00 / 4.00;
 4. Satisfactory completion of all degree requirements in not more than seven academic years from the first term of matriculation.
 5. Apply for graduation online.

GRADUATION CLOSURE PROCEDURES

In order to exit the M.A.P.C. program, the following, two-part closure procedure is required:

1. A comprehensive objective exam covering the core courses comprising the M.A.P.C. degree program.

> > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: M.A. WORLD MISSION & EVANGELISM

M.A.: PROFESSIONAL DEGREES

Oversight/Location of the Program within the Seminary: E. Stanley Jones School of World Mission and Evangelism

Introductory Statement of Program Goal: The Master of Arts in World Mission and Evangelism (M.A.W.M.E.), building upon an appropriate bachelor's degree, introduces students to biblical, historical, theological, and contextual foundations for the faithful, informed, and effective practice of mission across cultures, and for evangelism within the student's own culture.

DEGREE PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

1. Articulate a biblical theology of mission and evangelism and integrate it in ministry to the contemporary world in light of the historical development of the world Christian movement and a Wesleyan apostolic heritage.
2. Exegete a cultural context including an awareness of the role of religion in persons, communities, societies, and cultures, and be able to engage in appropriate and convincing ministries of Christian witness.
3. Value the receptor people and their culture and contextualize the expression of the gospel and the form the church takes in the respective society, culture and sub-culture in light of contemporary political economic, social justice, and globalization issues.
4. Integrate insights from various field experiences, interdisciplinary course materials, and a foundational kingdom-vocation orientation, and demonstrate leadership skills for strategic planning in ministries such as evangelism, church development, and missional witness.
5. Demonstrate enhanced understanding and commitment to personal and social holiness through practices of moral, personal, and spiritual formation, in a context of accountability to a community of faith, and dependence of the Spirit of Christ.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES:

1. Accredited Bachelor of Arts degree for graduate programs. Accreditation is required by an agency recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation or holding membership in the Association of Universities and College in Canada. Applicants whose bachelor's degree is from a college not accredited by a recognized national or regional accrediting agency must have one complete year of work at an accredited institution before being considered for admission to Asbury Seminary.

 - a. Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate credits. These documents must be sent directly to Asbury Seminary by all institutions attended.
 - b. A non-refundable application processing fee of $25 (U.S.).
 - c. Four references, on forms supplied by the Admissions Office.

- d. Normally, a cumulative grade point average of 2.75/4.00 is required for admission in good standing to graduate degree programs. Those applicants whose grade point average falls between 2.50 and 2.75 may be admitted on a “reduced load” basis. For applicants whose grade point average for all college work is below 2.50, a report of the score on the Miller Analogies Test (MAT) or the general aptitude section of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) is required. The Admissions Committee expects to see a minimum score of 500 on the verbal section of the GRE or a Scaled Score no lower than 410 on the MAT. The grade point average as calculated by the Admissions Office at Asbury Seminary shall be considered the official grade point average for admission. Therefore, applicants with marginal averages are urged to check with the Admissions Office. Students needing to complete the MAT or the GRE will not be considered until the official scores are received. Information concerning these examinations is available from the Admissions Office.
- e. The Admissions Committee may request the applicant to submit additional materials and/or schedule an interview with a representative of the Seminary.

> > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: M.A. YOUTH MINISTRY

M.A.: PROFESSIONAL DEGREES

Oversight/Location of the Program within the Seminary: School of Practical Theology

Introductory Statement of Program Goal: The purpose of the Master of Arts in Youth Ministry is to prepare students for a vocation of evangelizing, teaching, discipling, and counseling youth during a season of life characterized by pivotal developmental changes—physical, emotional, intellectual, social, moral, and spiritual. Students will be equipped to establish and develop ministries—for middle school through high school and the college years—that draw youth to Jesus, nurture them in Christian obedience and faith, and empower them in ministry for Christ.

DEGREE PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

Having successfully completed the Master of Arts in Youth Ministry Degree Program, graduates should be able to:

1. Articulate a practical theology of youth ministry that is grounded in the Biblical narrative and orthodox theology and informed by human sciences, historical insights, and life experience.
2. Demonstrate competency in practices of leadership, teaching, evangelism, and nurture to and with adolescents in order to equip congregations and organizations in the making of lifelong disciples.
3. Demonstrate an incarnational ministry that respects and engages the diversity of age, gender, race, traditions, culture, and context.
4. Demonstrate enhanced understanding and commitment to personal and social holiness through practices of moral, personal, and spiritual formation, in a context of accountability to a community of faith, and dependence of the Spirit of Christ.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES:

1. Accredited Bachelor of Arts degree for graduate programs. > > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: CERTIFICATE IN CHRISTIAN STUDIES

M.A.: PROFESSIONAL DEGREES

The Certificate in Christian Studies is intended to enable individuals “testing a call to ministry” to experience one year of seminary education; to provide continuing education (credit) who are committed to significant biblical and theological studies; and to make accessible means for studying at the seminary level in a structured, non-degree program.

Admission Requirements and Procedures

Requirements for admission into the Certificate in Christian Studies program are the same as those for the M.Div./M.A. (see Academic Information). Work from the Certificate in Christian Studies may be transferred into the M.A. or M.Div. degree programs upon petition.

Graduation Requirements:

1. Satisfactory completion of 32 semester hours, including all required courses;
2. Attainment of a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.00 / 4.00;
3. Satisfactory completion of all degree requirements in not more than seven academic years from the first term of matriculation.
4. Apply for graduation online.

Course Requirements

Core Courses (18 hours)

IS501 Christian Formation: Kingdom, Church, and World (3)
IS502 Christian Formation: Vocation of Ministry (3)
BS501/502 Introduction to Biblical Studies (6)
CH500 Turning Points in Church History (3)
DO501 Basic Christian Doctrine (3) or ST501 Method and Praxis in Theology (3)
Bible Content Examination

Elective Courses (14 hours)

> > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: DOUBLE DEGREES & MOVING BETWEEN PROGRAMS

Double Degrees

Up to 30 hours of work toward a master of arts or master of divinity degree at Asbury Seminary may be accepted as advanced standing toward a second degree at that level at Asbury Seminary. Up to 30 hours of work toward a theological masters degree earned at another accredited seminary may be accepted as advanced standing toward a master of divinity or a master of arts in counseling degree at Asbury Seminary. Up to 29 hours of work toward a theological masters degree earned at another accredited seminary may be accepted as advanced standing toward any other master of arts degree at Asbury Seminary. Thus it would require at least 30 additional hours to add a master of arts degree to another M.A. or to the M.Div. It would require at least 66 additional hours to add a master of divinity to a master of arts degree. All requirements for each degree must be met.

Movement Between Programs

Students admitted to a graduate degree program may petition to change degree plans between the various degree programs offered by the Seminary. However, movement between the M.Div. degree program and most of the Seminary's M.A. programs will usually require substitutions in core requirements in Biblical Studies and Church History.

M.A. students who have already taken BS501-502 Introduction to Biblical Studies 1-2, who wish to transfer to the M.Div. program, will be granted advanced standing in NT520 New Testament Introduction, OT520 Old Testament Introduction, and Inductive Biblical Studies—1, but will then be required to take an Inductive Biblical Studies—2 course as well as a 3-hour independent study crafted by the Biblical Studies faculty. M.Div. students wishing to transfer to an M.A. program should consult with the Dean of the School of Scripture and Proclamation to determine possible substitutions of core requirements.

M.A. students who have already taken CH500 Turning Points in Church History, who wish to transfer to the M.Div. program, will be allowed to count CH500 toward the core requirement of 6 units in Church History, and will be required to take an additional course in church history. This second course may be selected from any course with a CH prefix at the introductory (that is, 500) level. M.Div. students who have already taken CH501-502 Church History 1-2, who wish to transfer to an M.A. program, will already have fulfilled the core requirement in Church History for the M.A. program, and may count the additional 3 hours in Church History as elective hours. M.Div. students who have taken only CH501 or CH502, who wish to transfer to an M.A. program, should consult with the Dean of the School of Theology and Formation to determine how to fulfill their core requirement in Church History.

> > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: MASTER OF THEOLOGY WORLD MISSION & EVANGELISM

The master of theology program in mission and evangelism, building on the foundations of the master of divinity degree (or another master's degree with equivalent work in Scripture and theology), is designed to introduce students within community to theological, contextual, spiritual and strategic literatures of missiology, to prepare students for the faithful, informed and effective practice of mission across cultures and for ministry and evangelism within the student's own culture, and to facilitate some specialization and a beginning contribution, within the field.

The program prepares leaders for the Church, and teachers for the academy, whose service warrants missiological knowledge. The Th.M. stands alone as a recognized and respected teaching and research degree. Many Th.M. graduates subsequently take more advanced studies. More specifically, the program prepares its students to:

1. Demonstrate enhanced understanding of and commitment to personal and social holiness through practices of moral, personal, and spiritual formation, in a context of accountability to a community of faith, and dependence on the Spirit of Christ.
2. Articulate a theology of mission and evangelization, and be able to function within the biblical canon to inform their practice of mission and evangelism.
3. Articulate a comprehension of the historical development of the Christian movement, and of their place and role within that movement in the contemporary world.
4. Articulate an understanding of the cultural dimensions of effective mission and witness, and be able to exegete a cultural context, value the receptor people and their culture, contextualize the expression of the gospel and the form the Church takes in the respective society, and to value the Church that God raises up among them.
5. Articulate an awareness of the role of religion in persons, communities, societies and cultures, be knowledgeable of one or more other religious traditions, and able to engage in a convincing ministry of witness.
6. Articulate an informed interdisciplinary perspective for engaging, planning and leading effective ministries of evangelism, and for the growth of churches and Christian movements.
7. Demonstrate integrative competency, at an introductory level, in the core literatures of missiology.
8. Achieve some specialized knowledge within the literatures of mission and evangelization.
9. Engage in focused missiological research, with the goal of contributing to the literature and wider lore of mission or evangelism.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES

For general admission standards, see the section on Academic Information.

DEADLINES

Application Deadline: January 15

File Completion Deadline: February 1

Notification Date: April 1

In addition, the following specific requirements are necessary for admission to the Th.M. program:

1. Completion of an accredited master of divinity degree or an academic or professional (two year or 60 semester hours) master's degree in an appropriate theological or missiological discipline, with a minimum of 30 semester hours in biblical and theological studies.
2. Transcripts and references which indicate an ability to do academic work which is above average. A grade point average of 3.00/4.00 in previous work is required.
3. For applicants whose native language is other than English, a TOEFL score of 577 or an IELTS score of 7. TOEFL and IELTS will not be waived.
4. Writing sample of academic work completed within past three years and reflecting a research interest appropriate to the degree program.
5. References including a minimum of two professors or other scholars.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

For general graduation requirements, see the section on Academic Information. In addition, the following specific requirements are necessary to receive the Th.M.

1. Satisfactory completion of 27 semester hours of course work, including required core courses.
2. Attainment of a grade point average of at least 3.00/4.00.
3. Pass all three sections of a competency examination covering three of the five core courses.
4. Writing of a thesis or scholarly article appropriate for publication.
5. Satisfactory fulfillment of all degree requirements in not more than three calendar years from date of matriculation. Candidates not graduating after one year will pay a continuation fee each semester until the degree is completed. (See Fee Schedule)
6. Apply for graduation online.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS (30 HOURS)

The following list summarizes the course requirements for the master of theology program in mission and evangelism (The asterisk* indicates courses upon which the Competency Exam for Th.M. students is based):

- MI 730 Biblical Theology of Mission (3)
- MI 700 History of Christian Mission* (3)
- MB 700 Anthropology for Christian Mission* (3)
- ME 700 Principles of Church Growth (3)
- MW 725 Primal and Folk Religions* (3)
- MI 745 Seminar in Missiology (non-credit)
- Elective Courses (12)
- BB 800 or BB 850 Scholarly Article or Thesis (3)

> > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: DOCTOR OF MISSIOLOGY

The doctor of missiology program, building upon the foundations of an appropriate master's degree, is designed to advance the student's knowledge in the theological, contextual, spiritual and strategic literatures related to the field of missiology, to facilitate an advanced specialization within the field, and also the application of knowledge to a specific mission challenge, and thus prepare students for the faithful, informed and effective practice of mission within community and across cultures, for evangelism within the student's own culture, and for leadership in the field or the academy.

The D.Miss. program prepares knowledgeable leaders for the church and its institutions and movements whose service warrants advanced missiological knowledge and strengths in missiological field research. Modeled after the Ed.D. degree, the D.Miss. program prepares people for informed mission practice, for advanced field leadership and for teaching in the academy.

The D.Miss. program shares the five core courses and the competency examinations with the Th.M. program, but a Th.M. degree is not a phase of the D.Miss. program. Nevertheless, applicants for the D.Miss. program who hold a Th.M. (or its equivalent) in mission and evangelism, or in a related discipline, may request information concerning the awarding of some advanced standing toward the D.Miss.

More specifically, the D.Miss. program prepares students to:

1. Demonstrate enhanced understanding of and commitment to personal and social holiness through practices of moral, personal, and spiritual formation, in a context of accountability to a community of faith and dependence on the Spirit of Christ.
2. Articulate a theology of mission and evangelization, and be able to function within the biblical canon to inform their actual practice of mission and evangelism.
3. Articulate a comprehension of the historical development of the Christian movement, and of their place and role within that movement in the contemporary world.
4. Articulate an understanding of the cultural dimensions of effective mission and witness, and be able to exegete a cultural context, value the receptor people and their culture, contextualize the expression of the gospel and the form the Church takes in the respective society, and to value the Church that God raises up among them.
5. Articulate an awareness of the role of religion in persons, communities, societies and cultures, be knowledgeable of one or more other religious traditions and able to engage in a convincing ministry of witness.
6. Articulate an informed interdisciplinary perspective for engaging, planning and leading effective ministries of evangelism, and for the growth of churches and Christian movements.
7. Demonstrate integrative competency, at an introductory level, in the core literatures of missiology.
8. Achieve advanced specialized knowledge of the literature of one field within the several fields of missiology and evangelization.

9. Engage in appropriate field research and access, summarize, and apply the body of existing relevant knowledge, particularly the student's advanced specialized knowledge, to a specific problem or opportunity within mission or evangelism, with appropriate theoretical reflection, critique and recommendations, presented through effective academic writing.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES

For general admission standards, see the section on Academic Information.

DEADLINES

File Completion Deadline: February 1

Notification Date: April 1

In addition, the following specific requirements are necessary for admission to the doctor of missiology program.

1. Completion of an accredited master of divinity degree or an academic or professional (two year or 60 semester hours) master's degree in an appropriate theological or missiological discipline, with a minimum of 30 semester hours in biblical and theological studies.
2. Transcripts and references indicating an ability to do academic work quite above average. A grade point average of 3.30/4.00 in previous work is required.
3. Two years of ministry experience, normally in a culture or subculture different from the applicant's home culture.
4. Knowledge of the field language in which the applicant will serve and/or do research.
5. Submission of a satisfactory reflection paper and research paper in response to questions on Ministry and Culture.
6. Writing sample of academic work completed within past three years and reflecting a research interest appropriate to the degree program.
7. For applicants whose native language is other than English, a TOEFL score of 577 or an IELTS score of 7 is required for admission. TOEFL and IELTS will not be waived.
8. References including a minimum of two professors or other scholars.

To remain in the D.Miss. program in good standing, a student must achieve at least a 3.30/4.00 grade point average in the first 12 hours of study, and must pass all three competency exams with an appraisal of High Pass on at least two. At the end of all course work, the student will take a qualifying examination in one of these five majors: Evangelization (ME), History and Theology of Mission (MI), Mission in Cultural Context (MB), Mission in Religious Context (MW) or Missional Leadership (ML).

Upon passing the qualifying exam, and the development, submission and defense of a dissertation proposal, the student becomes a candidate for the doctor of missiology degree. The student then registers and pays a continuation fee (See Fee Schedule) each fall thereafter until the degree is completed.

UNCLASSIFIED POSTGRADUATE STUDENT

Persons who are not interested in pursuing a research doctoral degree may nevertheless take postgraduate courses as an "Unclassified Postgraduate Level Student." The process involves application which shall be submitted annually. The normal procedure concerning tuition would apply to these persons, and they would be expected to do the required course work. Enrollment in Doctoral Seminars will require permission by the professor.

Courses are usually limited to postgraduate students, however, under very controlled situations, D.Min. students and qualified seniors in Asbury's master's level programs may be allowed to enroll in a postgraduate course. Contact the Postgraduate Office for further information.

A person who has taken postgraduate courses as an "Unclassified Postgraduate Level Student" may petition to apply these courses to a postgraduate degree, once he or she has gained admission to the program. Contact the Postgraduate Office for further information.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

For general graduation requirements, see the section on Academic Information. In addition, the following specific requirements are necessary to receive the doctor of missiology degree:

1. Satisfactory completion of 45 semester hours of course work, including the required core courses and four or more courses within one of the majors.
2. Attainment of a grade point average of 3.30/4.00.
3. Passing of three competency examinations, with an appraisal of "High Pass" on at least two of the exams.
4. Passing of qualifying examinations of the four courses related to the student's major area of studies, plus a take-home examination. These examinations will be evaluated as "pass/fail"; "pass with distinction" may be awarded for superior work.
5. Submission and defense of a dissertation proposal. The student then becomes a candidate for the degree.
6. Successful completion and defense of a dissertation.
7. Satisfactory completion of all degree requirements in not more than eight years from date of matriculation, and in not more than five years after passing qualifying examinations.
8. Apply for graduation online.

> > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY INTERCULTURAL STUDIES

The doctor of philosophy program in intercultural studies, building upon the foundations of an appropriate master's degree, is designed to advance the student's knowledge in the theological, contextual, spiritual and strategic literatures related to the field of missiology, to facilitate two advanced specializations within the field, and also a contribution to the body of knowledge in regard to some issue, problem or opportunity within a field of missiology, and thus prepare students for leadership in the academy or the field, and also for the faithful, informed and effective practice of mission within community and across cultures, and for evangelism within the student's own culture.

The Ph.D. program shares the five core courses and the competency examinations with the Th.M. and the D.Miss. programs, but neither of those degrees constitute a phase of the Ph.D. program. Nevertheless, applicants for the Ph.D. program who hold a Th.M. or a D.Miss. may request information concerning the awarding of some advanced standing toward the Ph.D.

More specifically, the Ph.D. program prepares its students to:

1. Demonstrate enhanced understanding of and commitment to personal and social holiness through practices of moral, personal, and spiritual formation, in a context of accountability to a community of faith, and dependence on the Spirit of Christ.
2. Articulate a biblical theology of mission and evangelization, and be able to function within the biblical canon to inform their actual practice of mission and evangelism.
3. Articulate a comprehension of the historical development of the Christian movement, and of their place and role within that movement in the contemporary world.
4. Articulate an understanding of the cultural dimensions of effective mission and witness, and be able to exegete a cultural context, value the receptor people and their culture, contextualize the expression of the gospel and the form the Church takes in the respective society, and to value the Church that God raises up among them.
5. Articulate an awareness of the role of religion in persons, communities, societies and cultures, be knowledgeable of one or more other religious traditions and able to engage in a convincing ministry of witness.
6. Articulate an informed interdisciplinary perspective for engaging, planning and leading effective ministries of evangelism, and for the growth of churches and Christian movements.
7. Demonstrate integrative competency, at an advanced level, in the core literatures of missiology.
8. Achieve advanced specialized knowledge of the literature of two fields within the several fields of missiology and evangelization.
9. Engage in appropriate original research around a pioneering missiological issue, problem or opportunity, in which the student accesses and summarizes the body of existing relevant knowledge, particularly from one of the student's two major fields of knowledge, and engages in further field and/or library research that results in a contribution to the body of knowledge, with generalizable conclusions, presented through effective academic writing.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES

For general admission standards, see the section on Academic Information.

DEADLINES

File Completion Deadline: February 1

Notification Date: April 1

In addition, the following specific requirements are necessary for admission to the Doctor of Philosophy program in Intercultural Studies.

Prior Studies

1. Completion of an accredited baccalaureate degree or its equivalent.
2. Completion of an accredited master of divinity degree or an academic or professional (two year or 60 semester hours) master's degree in an appropriate theological or missiological discipline, with a minimum of 30 graduate semester hours in biblical and theological studies, and graduate semester hours in mission and evangelism are desirable.
3. Transcripts and references indicating an ability to do excellent academic work. A grade point average of 3.50/4.00 in previous work is required.
4. Knowledge of languages (biblical, research or field languages) other than English demonstrated by transcripts (college or graduate) of language study or by documented proficiency in any language(s) or other research tools necessary for the dissertation research.

Standardized Tests

5. A Graduate Record Examination (GRE) score of 600 verbal and 5 analytical.
6. For applicants whose native language is other than English, a TOEFL score of 600 or an IELTS score of 7.5 TOEFL and IELTS will not be waived.

Experience in Ministry, Language and Culture

7. Three years of ministry experience, normally in a culture or subculture different from the applicant's home culture.
8. Knowledge of the field language in which the applicant will serve and/or do research.
9. Submission of a satisfactory reflection paper in response to questions on Ministry and Culture.

Indicators of Interest, Competence and Character

10. Writing sample of academic work completed within past three years and reflecting a research interest appropriate to the degree program.

11. Submission of a purpose statement noting reason for Ph.D. pursuit, vocational understanding and research specialization.
12. References including a minimum of two professors or other scholars confirming the applicant's calling and reporting strength of intellect, character and clear capacity for significant missiological scholarship and mission leadership.
13. The seminary may require an interview with any applicant.

To remain in the Ph.D. program in good standing, a student must achieve at least a 3.50/4.00 grade point average in the first 12 hours of study and must pass all three competency exams with an appraisal of High Pass or better. At or near the end of all course work, the student will take a qualifying examination in two of these five majors within the missiology curriculum: Evangelization (ME), History and Theology of Mission (MI), Mission in Cultural Context (MB), Mission in Religious Context (MW) and/or Missional Leadership (ML).

Upon passing the qualifying examination, and the development, submission and defense of a dissertation proposal, the student becomes a candidate for the Doctor of Philosophy degree. The student then registers and pays a continuation fee (see Fee Schedule) each semester thereafter until the degree is completed by the successful defense of a dissertation.

 Studies in second major (12)
 Elective Courses (6)

POLICY ON DIRECTED STUDY FOR TH.M., D.MISS. AND PH.D.:

1. Normally, the five core courses and the research methods course (for D. Miss. and Ph.D.) should not be taken by directed study.
2. A grade point average of 3.00/4.00 is required to take directed studies in the Th.M., 3.30/4.00 in the D.Miss. and 3.50/4.00 in the Ph.D.
3. Students in the Th.M., D.Miss. and Ph.D. programs will receive a grade for contracted directed studies.
4. Some studies will normally be taken by directed study — like the “area study” of the church and population in a distinctive region of the world.
5. Except for the five core courses and the research methods course, Th.M., D.Miss. and Ph.D. students may take by directed study any ESJ course necessary to their major and/or research that is not offered as a scheduled course in the given academic year. With the advisor’s clearance, the student registers for the course as a directed study. The specific course will appear on the student’s transcript, with a grade.
6. In exceptional cases, D.Miss. and Ph.D. students may petition the Postgraduate Faculty for permission to increase the number of hours allowed for directed study; up to 24 hours for the D.Miss. and 30 hours for the Ph.D. Such petitions shall be submitted to the Director of Postgraduate Studies, shall include a letter from the student's advisor in support of the request, and a learning contract written by the student in consultation with his or her advisor. The Postgraduate Faculty will grant or deny the request in light of the student's scores on the Competency Examinations and GPA.

> > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: DOCTOR OF MINISTRY PROGRAM

The Doctor of Ministry Program is an advanced, professional theological degree for ministers and as such exists to serve the Church. It is an integral program within Asbury Theological Seminary. It offers specialized tracks that will equip pastors with a significantly higher level of competence than that achieved during their Master of Divinity studies.

The D.Min. Program contributes in a general way to the mission of the Seminary “to prepare and send forth a well-trained, sanctified, Spirit-filled, evangelistic ministry’ to spread scriptural holiness throughout the world.” Specifically, it supports our intention “to assist students to grow intellectually, emotionally, physically and spiritually in their lifetime quest of becoming and doing all that God intends.”

The curriculum of the D.Min. Program is undergirded by the primacy of Scripture, as interpreted by reason, experience and tradition, as well as a commitment that learning and growth take place in an atmosphere of love, faith and collegiality. An action-reflection educational model and principles of adult learning form the primary methodological orientation. We seek to serve clergy in such a way that they in turn may minister with excellence wherever they serve Jesus Christ in the Church.

AREAS OF STUDY

The Doctor of Ministry Program offers three program tracks:

In-Ministry Track (5 concentrations)

1. Spiritual Formation and Direction
2. Preaching and Worship
3. Christian Leadership (could include modules in conjunction with the Beeson Institute for Advanced Church Leadership)
4. Evangelism, Mission, and Church Growth
5. Family and Counseling Ministries

Beeson Pastor Track

One year (July 1-May 31) of residential intensive study in the areas of biblical preaching and leadership designed for leaders or persons who show particular promise for their skills in preaching, leadership, and spiritual depth. See page 95 for more information.

Beeson International Leaders Track

Targets international leaders who cannot leave their ministries for extended study but who still want to advance in leadership and preaching in order to multiply the Church in their home country.

Each entering cohort is comprised of persons whose interests relate to one of the five areas of major emphasis. The D.Min. course offerings vary from year to year, with at least one course from each area of study offered for each term. This structure affords participants a range of choices and enhances the possibility of their finding electives that relate to a particular interest. Participants develop their course of study by:

1. Completing required seminars, (1) Theology of Ministry, (2) Biblical Interpretation for Life and Ministry and (3) Dissertation Writing;

2. Completing six additional courses, a minimum of four of which must be from within their area of concentration; and,
3. Implementing a project that is the centerpiece of the dissertation in their area of concentration.

The program consists of a total of 30 semester credit hours. A minimum of nine units (3 semester hours each or a total of 27 semester hours) is required, representing one full year's work beyond the M.Div. degree, plus a dissertation-project for which 3 semester hours of credit are given. The program will normally be completed in three to five years, with a maximum of five years allowed.

All D.Min. seminars are offered as one-week intensives. When offered on campus (January and July), at least two units are offered back-to-back so that students might reduce the number of trips to campus. When offered at off-campus locations, units are usually offered singly. Required seminars are offered each July and January. Wherever possible, electives are also offered back-to-back so that a participant may take two units consecutively.

Asbury's D.Min. Program utilizes an action-reflection educational model and makes use of those components and methods that will provide maximum opportunity for the integration of theory and practice in one's own ministry.

DISTRIBUTED LEARNING

The D.Min. program partners with the Beeson Institute for Advanced Church Leadership modules and teaching congregations to expose participants to the lives and ministries of effective pastors, coach them to excellence, and help them become a leader of leaders. The modules are one-week intensives and usually meet in role-model churches across the country. Three sessions (modules) are offered each year (usually in February, May and October). Each features several nationally known, proven leaders as presenters. To receive D.Min. credit for these modules, one must be admitted to the D.Min. Program, register for and pay tuition for the class, participate in online discussions with the professor and learning peers, and successfully complete the additional work required by the professor. Up to six of these modules may be taken for D.Min. credit.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OF NEW D.MIN. PARTICIPANTS

New D.Min. participants will undergo extensive personal and professional assessment prior to a weekend orientation at the beginning of their course work. These events are held each January and July.

The mission of the Doctor of Ministry Program is to equip God-called, Christ-centered, Spirit-energized servant leaders to fulfill Christ's Great Commission. The vision is to renew Christ's Church globally through its leaders by providing catalytic learning and transforming experiences. These learnings and experiences during the program will increase the participants' ministry capacity, strengthen the sense of alignment with God's call, and fuel fresh spiritual passion. Through the multiple interactions with professors and peers, the participants build relationships and gain content that substantially adds value to their ministry.

One of the design facets of the Doctor of Ministry Program is the professional development component. Beyond academic stretching, the D.Min. Program begins with professional development assessment and coaching. What is God's unique claim on the participant's life, his or her opus gloria? How will the participant integrate the learning with every domain of experience—family, devotional life, social and emotional growth, and impact in the community? The participant will design a set of goals for his or her personal and professional development to which the participant will be held accountable by a mentor in the field as well as the dissertation committee.

UPGRADING COURSES FOR RESIDENT D.MIN. PARTICIPANTS

To accommodate the needs of participants (particularly international pastors) who come to campus for eighteen to twenty-four months to complete a D.Min. degree, master's level courses may be upgraded to provide opportunity for the completion of nine courses within the time frame of residency. D.Min. participants taking professor- and D.Min. Dean-approved master's level courses will be required to do additional reading and writing for the course being taken, and the number of upgrades will be limited according to the individual participant's situation. For more information on eligibility for this option, contact the D.Min. office.

CROSS-CULTURAL EXPERIENCE

An important aspect of growth in the D.Min. program will be an experience in cross-cultural learning. By immersion into another culture, whether domestic or international, the participant will begin to:

- Experience and explore different ways the church expresses its identity and mission,
- Identify cultural artifacts in a ministry context,
- Theologically and biblically identify the core of the gospel and how it is understood through cultural lenses.

Participants will use the experience to begin designing a ministry plan within their concentration that begins with the current realities of the participants' context and leads to a more inclusive biblical model. Example: if the ministry context is primarily a white constituency within a mixed ethnic community, what are the cultural issues involved and how would a leader seek to influence the organizational and ministry culture better to reflect Kingdom values?

The cross-cultural experience can take place in a number of settings. Important to a participants' decisions will be selecting a site that differs from their current ministry context, to expand their experience and creative capacity.

The experience can be taken for credit or not (limit to one cross-cultural experience per participant for course credit) and will have an accompanying professor of record. There will also be an online component for preparation before and processing after the experience. (Previous experience cannot be applied towards the requirement.)

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

1. Completion of the application for admission to Asbury Theological Seminary, including answers to the personal history questions.
2. Completion of a Master of Divinity or its educational equivalent from an accredited seminary. The educational equivalent is 75 hours of masters-level work with 30 hours in Bible, Theology and Church History, including at least one completed masters degree.
3. Official transcripts from postsecondary school attended. A grade point average of 3.00/4.00* in previous graduate degree work is required.
4. Four references.
5. Three years of full-time ministry experience subsequent to the masters degree.
6. For applicants whose native language is other than English, a TOEFL score of 550 (213 computer) or an IELTS score of 7.
7. A Miller Analogy Test score of 419 or higher.* For more information about the Miller Analogies Test, please visit www.milleranalogies.com.
8. A letter of congregational or institutional approval.
9. Access to the Internet—registration, course schedules, syllabi, and much of the program's communication is online.

- * A research paper is to be submitted by international applicants, and applicants whose grade point average in previous graduate degree work is less than 3.00 and/or MAT score is less than 419. The D.Min. Research Paper Guidelines are available through the Admissions Office.

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

1. Application deadlines: typically 2 months before the orientation with which the applicant intends to begin. Under extenuating circumstances these deadlines can be extended if a written request from the applicant is received by the Admissions Office. Applications may be submitted online.
2. Miller Analogies Test (M.A.T.) — normally a minimum score of 419 is required.
 - If the M.A.T. score is less than 419, assuming all other application factors are in order, submission of a research paper based upon one of a list of topics determined by the Admissions committee (contact Admissions office for paper guidelines). The applicant may also be advised to retake the M.A.T.
 - International applicants may choose to submit a research paper in lieu of the M.A.T.
3. The applicant should be willing to travel to campus for an interview if requested by the Admissions committee.
4. Prospective applicants may request a campus visit.
5. For applicants who do not hold a Master of Divinity degree, educational equivalency may be accepted upon completion of a minimum of 75 hours of master's-level courses, including one master's degree and a minimum of 30 hours course work in Bible, theology, and church history.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

Admission to candidacy for the D.Min. degree is an action taken by the Doctor of Ministry Committee after:

1. The student has completed the first five units with a 3.00/4.00 grade point average.
2. The participant submits a degree plan, including declaration of concentration. (Concentration = four seminars from within the concentration plus a project/dissertation proposal.)
3. The participant's dissertation proposal has been approved by his/her Dissertation Committee (faculty mentor, second reader, D.Min. representative).
4. The required journal work, spiritual direction/field mentor sessions and research reflection team reports are up-to-date.
5. The student submits an "Application for Candidacy" form, along with a $1314 mentoring fee.

THE DISSERTATION—PROJECT

The student must satisfactorily complete a dissertation-project based on a ministry project. The form of the dissertation follows the latest edition of Slade's Form and Style: Research Papers, Reports and Theses. It must reflect the student's ability to appropriate theoretical and theological resources in understanding the issues or problems and the ability to develop a method for the resolution of the issue or problem. Thus, the dissertation is an integrative experience with an interface of theory and practice in ministry.

The dissertation will also be submitted to the D.Min. office in electronic format so it can be prepared for posting on the D.Min. and/or library web site(s). The author will still own the copyright, and have the right to reproduce the work, modify it, distribute it, or put it on public performance or display.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

For general graduation requirements, see the section on Academic Information. In addition, the following requirements are necessary to receive the D.Min. degree:

1. Satisfactory completion of nine three-hour course units.
2. Attainment of a grade point average of 3.00/4.00.
3. Satisfactory completion of the professional development component of the D.Min. Program.
4. Successful completion and oral defense of a dissertation.
5. Satisfactory completion of all degree requirements in not more than five calendar years from date of matriculation.
6. An elapse of at least three years from date of matriculation, unless otherwise approved by the Academic Committee.
7. Apply for graduation online.

A more detailed document on Asbury's D.Min. program is available upon request from the Office of Admissions or by contacting the Doctor of Ministry Program at www.doctorofministry.org or 1-877-PRO-DMIN.

TUITION AND FEE PAYMENTS

Each course is considered a three-hour course (including the independent study options) and is paid for at the current tuition rate. Each July every student will be automatically registered for DM 800 and pay a $500 continuation fee in order to maintain active status in the program. The $500 functions as a deposit and may be applied toward any program course-related expenses that occur within the following 12 months. Students who fail to pay the fee by August 1 will have a hold placed on their account and will be unable to continue in the program. Extended payment and late fees will also be added to the balance. Students out of the program for over a year must apply for readmission. Every D.Min. participant will be registered for and pay tuition for DM 804 (dissertation registration) at the time of the defense hearing.

POST-DOCTORAL FELLOWS

Post-doctoral fellowship experience can be custom designed for pastors and leaders desiring additional work. Please contact the D.Min. office for details.

UNCLASSIFIED DOCTORAL

Non-degree, post-M.Div. persons who are not interested in pursuing a D.Min. degree may take D.Min. courses if they satisfy admission requirements for the D.Min. program and apply for "Unclassified Doctoral Level Student" status. The normal procedure concerning tuition would apply to these persons, and they would be expected to do the required course work.

Courses are usually limited to D.Min. students, however, under very controlled situations, D.Miss. and Ph.D. students and qualified seniors in Asbury's master's level programs may be allowed to enroll in a D.Min. course by permission of the D.Min. dean. Contact the D.Min. office for further information.

A person who has taken D.Min. courses as an "Unclassified Doctoral Level Student" may petition to move into full D.Min. student status. Contact the D.Min. office for further information.

> > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: BEESON PASTOR PROGRAM

THE DOCTOR OF MINISTRY PROGRAM

BEESON PASTOR

The Beeson Pastor Program is one year of intensive study functioning as a track of the Doctor of Ministry Degree program. This program is for pastors who show particular promise for their skills in preaching, leadership, and spiritual depth. Those selected for the program will demonstrate:

- Excellence in biblical preaching
- Notable promise of leadership exhibited in pastoral ministry
- Unconditional recommendations that stress the qualities of biblical preaching and pastoral leadership as well as personal integrity and spiritual maturity.

The Beeson Pastor grant will be awarded competitively to persons admitted into the D.Min. Program who best meet these qualifications and are committed to pastoral ministry.

As a track of the Doctor of Ministry degree Program, Beeson Pastors must complete 30 credit hours, including 27 hours of course work in the areas of leadership, preaching, and spiritual formation, and 3 hours credit for dissertation work.

Additional non-credit seminars and experiences provided by the Beeson program:

- Site visits to significant churches
- Consultation with outstanding pastors and scholars
- An off-site spiritual formation retreat

The Beeson Grant covers:

- All tuition for courses during the residential year
- Fees (other than application), and additional tuition (DM804) for the first three years
- Housing (two- or three-bedroom apartment, furnished with utilities paid)
- A laptop computer
- Living stipend
- Moving expenses

The Beeson Pastor Program is an on-site experience from July 1 through May 31 for all participants. During this time the course requirements and dissertation proposal for the Doctor of Ministry degree will be completed. The dissertation is to be written after the student's return to the pastorate. Criteria for the fulfillment of a Doctor of Ministry degree requires a participant to take two years in the dissertation process beyond the year on campus before completing the program.

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

Selection to the program is a two-step process. Each person interested in the Beeson Pastor Program must fulfill the criteria for admission into the Doctor of Ministry degree program. Following admission into the Doctor of Ministry Program, persons interested in the Beeson Pastor Program will be considered by the Selection Committee.

Step One—Criteria for admission into the Doctor of Ministry Program. (See Doctor of Ministry Program.)

1. File completion deadlines:
Application Deadline: September 15
Files must be completed by November 1
2. The applicant should be willing to travel to campus for an interview if requested by the Admissions Committee.
3. Notification of acceptance or rejection into the D.Min. program will be mailed to each Beeson Pastor applicant once the file is completed and acted upon by the Admissions Committee. NOTE: Admission to the Doctor of Ministry Program does not imply acceptance into the Beeson Pastor Program.

Step Two—Selection process for the Beeson Pastor Program following admission into the Doctor of Ministry Degree Program. This process of evaluation is completed by the Beeson Pastor Selection Committee.

1. Essays and references submitted for admission to the D.Min. program are examined for evidence of outstanding leadership and pastoral potential. This might include the creation of new programs for church or ministry, evidence of church growth or some other accomplishment in ministry or previous academic and work experience.
 - a. Evidence of excellent preaching potential is analyzed. Persons being considered for the Beeson Pastor grant must submit a videotaped sermon with their application. NOTE: The Beeson Center cannot return videotapes, due to the large number received.
 - b. Availability to come to Asbury (with families if married) for the year.
 - c. Commitment to pastoral ministry.
 - d. Willingness to undergo further evaluation through the use of assessment instruments if requested.
2. After review of the videotaped sermon, references, essays and research paper, the Selection Committee will choose a group of semi-finalists from the entire pool of applicants. A personal interview is required with the applicant (and spouse if married) at a location determined by the Beeson Pastor Selection Committee.
3. The grant awards will be made from the group of semi-finalists when all interviews are completed. Every semi-finalist will be mailed written notification of the decisions made by the Selection Committee by mid-January following the November 1 file completion deadline.

> > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: BEESON INTERNATIONAL LEADERS PROGRAM

BEESON INTERNATIONAL LEADERS

The Beeson International Leaders Program consists of four years of study completed in annual six-week intensive sessions functioning as a track of the Doctor of Ministry Degree program. This program is for young emerging leaders outside of North America who show particular promise in preaching, leadership, and spiritual depth. Those selected for the program will demonstrate:

- Excellence in biblical preaching
- Notable promise of leadership exhibited in pastoral ministry
- Unconditional recommendations that stress the qualities of biblical preaching and pastoral leadership as well as personal integrity and spiritual maturity.

The Beeson International Leaders grant will be awarded competitively to persons admitted into the D.Min. Program who best meet these qualifications and are committed to pastoral ministry.

As a track of the Doctor of Ministry degree Program, Beeson International Leaders must complete 30 credit hours, including 27 hours of course work in the areas of leadership, preaching, and spiritual formation, and 3 hours credit for dissertation work.

Additional non-credit seminars and experiences provided by the Beeson program:

- Site visits to significant churches
- Consultation with outstanding pastors and scholars
- An off-site spiritual formation retreat

The Beeson Grant covers:

- All tuition and fees; exception: student is responsible for the $500 Continuation Fee in July prior to years 2, 3, and 4.
- Housing (room in three-bedroom apartment shared with classmates)
- A laptop computer
- Meal stipend
- Fees for J-1 Student/Exchange visa
- Round-trip travel from home to the Kentucky campus each year
- International travel medical insurance for the on-campus sessions

The Beeson International Leaders Program is an on-site experience for six weeks per year for four consecutive academic years for all participants. During these sessions, intensive courses will be scheduled, with assignments to be completed between sessions. By the end of the third year, the dissertation proposal will be completed. The fourth year will complete required coursework and the dissertation for the Doctor of Ministry degree.

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

Selection to the program is a two-step process. Each person interested in the Beeson International Leaders Program must fulfill the criteria for admission into the Doctor of Ministry degree program. Following admission into the Doctor of Ministry Program, persons interested in the Beeson International Leaders Program will be considered by the Selection Committee.

Step One—Criteria for admission into the Doctor of Ministry Program. (See Doctor of Ministry Program.)

1. Application deadlines: Application for the D.Min. program must be completed by November 1 (differs from in-ministry tracks) for eventual consideration for the Beeson International Leaders class for September of the following year.
2. Notification of acceptance or rejection into the D.Min. program will be mailed to each Beeson International Leaders applicant once the file is completed and acted upon by the Admissions Committee. NOTE: Admission to the Doctor of Ministry Program does not imply acceptance into the Beeson International Leaders Program.

Step Two—Selection process for the Beeson International Leaders Program following admission into the Doctor of Ministry Degree Program. This process of evaluation is completed by the Beeson International Leader Selection Committee.

1. Essays and references submitted for admission to the D.Min. program are examined for evidence of outstanding leadership and pastoral potential. This might include the creation of new programs for church or ministry, evidence of church growth or some other accomplishment in ministry or previous academic and work experience.
 - a. Evidence of excellent preaching potential is analyzed. Persons being considered for the Beeson International Leaders grant must submit a videotaped sermon with their application. NOTE: The Beeson Center cannot return videotapes, due to the large number received.
 - b. Availability to come to Asbury (without family) for the four six-week sessions per year.
 - c. Commitment to continuing ministry within the home country.
 - d. Willingness to undergo further evaluation through the use of assessment instruments as requested.
2. After review of the videotaped sermon, references, essays and research paper, the grant awards will be made. Every applicant considered for the Beeson International Leaders Program will be mailed written notification of the decisions made by the Selection Committee by mid-March following the November 1 application deadline.
3. Those awarded the grant, must communicate confirmation of acceptance of the grant within 2 weeks, and obtain the J-1 Student/Exchange Visa for the September session by July 1.

> > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: BEESON INSTITUTE FOR ADVANCED CHURCH LEADERSHIP

This program is designed to teach participants the habits of effective pastors, coach them to excellence, and help them become a leader of leaders. The classes are one-week intensives and usually meet in role-model churches across the country. Three sessions (modules) are offered each year (usually in February, June and October). Each features several nationally known, proven leaders as presenters. These modules are offered as Continuing Education credits. To receive D.Min. credit for these modules, one must be admitted to the D.Min. Program, register for and pay tuition for the class, participate in online discussions with the professor and learning peers, and successfully complete the additional work required by the professor.

> > > PROGRAMS OF STUDY: CONTINUING EDUCATION

PURPOSE

The Continuing Education program at Asbury Seminary is the open door to life-long learning. It is designed to increase ministry effectiveness during and beyond the academic training years. Primarily it focuses on the theological disciplines, personal spiritual renewal, increased proficiency in skills related to the practice of ministry and motivation for personal and professional growth.

FORMAT

Continuing Education seminars, workshops and conferences are held both on and off campus. The many offerings include theological education, spiritual formation, preaching, pastoral care/counseling, small group ministries and other practical applications of Christianity to life.

Large conferences include the annual Ministry Conference held at Asbury Seminary every year. In addition to nationally known keynote speakers, between 20 and 30 seminars on various pertinent topics are offered. The Beeson Institute for Advanced Church Leadership is held three times a year in teaching churches and other locations. Topics are chosen to help train senior ministers of growing churches.

Online continuing education is also offered through The Asbury Online Institute of Pastoral Ministry, a web-based, skills-focused learning community providing Internet-delivered opportunities for professional development and personal growth. CEU credit is available and the topics covered are of interest to both clergy and laity. For more information visit the AOI site at www.aoi.edu email aoi@aoi.edu or call 1-888-AOI-0500 (888-264-0500).

Many annual conferences and denominations recommend and/or require continuing education and encourage pastors to attend seminars and workshops. Several annual conferences subsidize pastors who attend these events. Consult the chair of your organization's continuing education committee or a similar designate.

Multiple seminars will be offered on campus during the semester.

CREDIT

Credits are awarded on the basis of the Continuing Education Unit (CEU). Each CEU is based upon 10 contact hours and is recorded on the individual's permanent continuing education transcript in the Continuing Education Office at the Seminary. Copies of transcripts can be forwarded to a base institution of the student's choice, or retained at Asbury Seminary. (A small fee is charged for sending transcripts.) Academic credit toward a degree program cannot be earned in the Continuing Education program.

For additional information, contact the Continuing Education Director by e-mail: continuing_education@asburyseminary.edu

IS501 CHRISTIAN FORMATION: KINGDOM, CHURCH, AND WORLD (3)

Staff

What is the mission of the church? Behind this question is a cluster of related questions, the most important focused on the nature of God's creative and redemptive purpose (as this is expressed in the biblical story), its ongoing expression in the world, and its consummation in the eschaton. Participants in this course will explore how the church might discern, embrace, and participate in God's own mission.

IS502 CHRISTIAN FORMATION: VOCATION OF MINISTRY (3)

Staff

This course seeks to ask and address the question, How is our vocation as those called to Christian ministry discerned, shaped, and sustained? The purpose of this course is to explore from a Wesleyan perspective the biblical and theological foundations of Christian personhood and vocation by examining the nexus between call to ministry and formation of persons in ministry.

A culminating project for the M.Div. degree program, the M.Div. thesis is marked by its integrative quality, drawing together research and insight across the theological curriculum. For policies and procedures, See p. 24. Credit only.

> > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: SCHOOL OF BIBLICAL INTERPRETATION AND PROCLAMATION

The purpose of courses in the School of Biblical Interpretation and Proclamation is five-fold: to acquaint the student with the tools for Bible study; to enable the student to begin building a biblical foundation for theology and practice; to encourage the development of an integrated method for Bible study; and to foster a commitment to a lifelong study of the Bible and to its use in Christian ministry, to proclaim effectively and with biblical, theological, and historical integrity, the message of the Scriptures to the contemporary world.

Some courses in the School are general in nature, dealing with the entire Scriptures (BS). Other courses are related to specific portions of the Scriptures and Proclamation, i.e., OT, NT, or PR.

The entire School is committed to the realization of the five objectives listed below, but each Department has its own primary area of responsibility. The Department of Old Testament seeks to prepare students to interpret the Old Testament responsibly, which involves accurate understanding of Hebrew patterns of thought and expression, knowledge of the historical contexts in which Hebrew thought was formulated, and acquaintance with the history of Old Testament interpretation.

The Department of New Testament intends that students will exemplify capacity for, and appreciation of, the critical study of the New Testament, and particularly that they will demonstrate understanding of the New Testament in its historical contexts, that they will develop the ability to work with the Greek New Testament, making use of appropriate linguistic resources, and that they will evidence the ability to engage in the study of the New Testament in such a way that it will lead to personal and social transformation.

The Department of Inductive Biblical Studies introduces students to a systematic, comprehensive approach to Bible study within which they can integrate the rest of their study of Scripture and bridge to other areas of the curriculum. The hermeneutic embraced moves all the way from initial observation and interpretation of a text in its literary and historical contexts to the appropriation of that text's original meaning within the contemporary world, an appropriation performed in light of that text's function within the canon as a whole. There is thus a concern to correlate the meaning of individual passages to the whole of biblical revelation. Throughout, the emphasis is upon an inductive orientation, i.e., one that moves from rigorous examination of evidence to conclusions, over against a deductive one, characterized by an attempt to "read back" one's views into the text. Standing directly in the "English Bible" tradition identified initially with The Biblical Seminary in New York, this Department emphasizes the student's own direct work, and stresses the study of books as wholes in the vernacular, and the interpretation of passages within the book's contexts. Emphasis is placed on developing the student's own abilities to observe specifically, accurately, and thoroughly both the content and structure of scriptural units, to reason inferentially and validly from evidence gathered, and to conduct this independent, direct study of Scripture in informed conversation with the entire range of secondary sources available to students of Scripture. The use of biblical language resources is cultivated in this approach, which is finally applicable to the text in any language, ancient or modern. The Department of Biblical Theology seeks to engage the Bible specifically as Christian Scripture, with an emphasis on its integral theological character.

The Department of Preaching seeks to facilitate a critical understanding of and competency in preaching as witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ revealed in the entire canon of Scripture, rightly interpreted, and as both a gift of the Holy Spirit and a human vocation that serves the creation of the Church, a community called to worship the triune God.

Such preaching is founded upon the Scriptures, has as its essential content the practice, and is offered typically in the context of worship that is itself enhanced and shaped by the proclamation. Attention is given also to the broad issues of communication of the Christian message, with a view that students will cultivate necessary habits of Christian life and speech in light of the Christian rhetorical tradition, classic rhetoric, and contemporary communication studies that will equip them for Christian ministry in a multicultural society.

The M.Div. degree initiates students into a comprehensive approach to interpreting the Bible for life and ministry and proclaiming the message of the Bible to the church and to the world. This approach recognizes several interpenetrating contexts within which the meaning of Scripture is discerned. Students developing a comprehensive, integrated approach to biblical interpretation and proclamation in the church shall:

1. Employ the canonical and literary contexts as the normative framework defining the meaning of a passage;
2. Use the linguistic context, including the original languages in their respective linguistic worlds, as the primary resource for clarifying the meaning of the text;
3. Situate a scriptural passage in the various historical and cultural contexts that stimulated and conditioned it;
4. Identify and appropriate the biblical-theological contexts within which a passage discloses God's character and will for his people;
5. Relate the task and actual practice of biblical interpretation to the life of the church in the world;
6. Incorporate insights from every aspect of biblical study into the contexts of their lives, flowing from a devotion to the reading, study, application, and celebration of Scripture;
7. Articulate a theology of preaching for proclamation;
8. Demonstrate an ability to prepare biblical sermons;
9. Demonstrate an ability to deliver the sermon.

The M.Div. requires coursework in biblical studies in two categories, Core Courses and Core Electives:

Core Courses:

OT501 Survey of Biblical Hebrew (3)

(Students who pass the Hebrew competency exam will receive three hours of advanced standing, thus reducing by three the number of hours necessary for graduation.)

NT500 Concise Greek (3) or NT 501/502 Comprehensive Greek (6)

(Students who pass the Greek competency exam will receive three hours of advanced standing, thus reducing by three the number of hours necessary for graduation.)

OT520 Old Testament Introduction (3)

NT520 New Testament Introduction (3)

SP501 Communication for Christian Leaders (3)

Core Electives:

Inductive Biblical Studies—1 (3)

(Choose any course with an IBS prefix within the range 510-549).

Inductive Biblical Studies—2 (3)

(Choose any course with an IBS prefix within the range 610-649.)

Old Testament Exegesis (3)

(Choose any course with an OT prefix within the range 610-649 or 710-749.)

Preaching and Speech Courses – (3)

(Chose any course with a PR prefix within the range 610-649.)

New Testament Exegesis (3)

(Choose any course with an NT prefix within the range 610-649 or 710-749.)

Having successfully completed the core elective requirement in Inductive Biblical Studies—1, students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate basic skills in observing the text, including aspects that pertain to the original language, with a view toward using these observations in the interpretation of the text;
2. Demonstrate basic skills in interpreting the text by citing, describing, and drawing inferences from various types of evidence, including those that pertain to the original language;
3. Demonstrate ability to discuss some of the major hermeneutical issues surrounding observation and interpretation;
4. Demonstrate a preliminary and basic awareness of issues pertaining to the evaluation of passages for their contemporary possibilities for application and to the process of actually applying passages to specific contemporary situations; and
5. Demonstrate knowledge of the content of the book in its literary, theological, and historical contexts.

Having successfully completed the core elective requirement in Inductive Biblical Studies—2, students should be able to:

1. Identify those areas of method in the inductive study of the Bible where they were relatively weak at the beginning of the course and demonstrate growth toward an advanced level of competency in these areas;
2. Demonstrate skill in the interpretation of both small and larger units of material;
3. Articulate the bases, importance, and process of evaluating the message of individual passages for their contemporary possibilities for application, and demonstrate skill in actually evaluating the message of these passages with a view toward their application;
4. Demonstrate the ability actually to apply specifically and creatively the interpretation of a biblical passage to their contemporary contexts;
5. Demonstrate proficiency in moving from text to sermon;
6. Demonstrate knowledge of the content of the book(s) in its literary, theological, and historical contexts.

Having successfully completed the core elective requirement in New Testament Exegesis, students should be able to:

1. Employ a range of exegetical approaches relevant to the interpretation of the New Testament book(s) in question, and to apply those approaches to other New Testament books of similar genre;
2. Situate the New Testament book(s) in question within its socio-historical, literary, and canonical contexts;
3. Identify central issues in the critical study of the New Testament book(s) in question;
4. Articulate the importance of one's own pre-suppositions in the task of interpretation;
5. Articulate the primary theological and ethical concerns of the New Testament book(s) in question;
6. Demonstrate awareness of how the theological and ethical concerns of the New Testament book(s) in question contribute to those of the canon and of constructive theology and ethics;

7. Differentiate between critical and homiletical/devotional commentaries and studies of this and other New Testament books;
8. Evaluate critically the usefulness of secondary literature in the study of New Testament books;
9. Use Greek-based language tools to demonstrate proficiency in lexical semantics;
10. Use Greek-based language tools to identify grammatical constructions (i.e., with regard to sentence structure and use of clauses); and
11. Use Greek-based language tools to engage in syntactical analyses (i.e., with regard to verbal aspect, mood, and voice; use of the dative and genitive cases).

Additionally, persons successfully completing the core elective requirement in New Testament exegesis by taking a course or courses in the range NT710-749 should be able to:

12. Fulfill the learning objectives listed above as nos. 9-11 with only limited recourse to Greek-based language tools;
13. Diagram passages in the Greek New Testament;
14. Translate with minimal lexical assistance any passage from the New Testament book(s) in question; and
15. Perform rudimentary exercises in text criticism.

Having successfully completed the core elective requirement in Old Testament Exegesis, students should be able to:

1. Confirm and refine by recourse to the Hebrew text literary analysis of longer units of Scripture previously studied in translation;
2. Assess the textual integrity of shorter passages of Scripture employing the Hebrew text and apparatus and basic text-critical methodology;
3. Analyze the semantic import of the morphology, sentence structure, and prosodic form, where appropriate, of a brief passage of Scripture using the Hebrew text;
4. Present the significance of key terms in a given brief passage of Scripture by using basic, original-language word-study tools and techniques;
5. Identify the function of a given, brief passage of Scripture within the framework of its immediate context, its function in the literary flow of the book, and in the section of the canon within which it appears;
6. Situate the thematic emphases of a specific passage of Scripture within the context of the Old Testament's unfolding message and in the context of the Bible as a whole;
7. Demonstrate the impact of representative exegetical methods on the study of a passage of Scripture, employing relevant scholarly literature, and situating one's own interpretation within the ongoing discussion of biblical interpretation; and
8. Illustrate the contribution of exegetical study of the Hebrew text to biblical exposition, instruction, theological reflection, and spiritual formation in order to construct an appropriation of the passage that is integrative and coherent.

Having successfully completed the core elective requirement in Preaching, students should be able to:

1. Relate principles of exegesis to the effective communication of the faith;
2. Articulate a variety of means by which to communicate the gospel;
3. Demonstrate the ability to deliver sermons within the context of worship; and
4. Demonstrate awareness that preaching calls for imagination and clear communication in the context of personal, social, and cultural challenges.

Bauer, Dongell, Thompson

Guided, independent, introductory research in New Testament Inductive Biblical Studies. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

The core elective requirement in Inductive Biblical Studies—2 for the M.Div. is met by courses in the range, IBS610-649 (NT or OT).

OT(IBS)610 PENTATEUCH (3)

Dongell, Russell, Thompson

A study of Genesis through Deuteronomy which builds on the methodology of the first Inductive Bible Study course by further use of what has been previously learned and by emphasizing the study of books as wholes. Accordingly, there is a special focus on the initial survey of books as wholes, the interpretation of parts of books in the context of the book as a whole, and the synthesis of books. In addition, attention is given to thinking, valuing, and living biblically by learning how to apply Scripture to life and ministry. This course seeks intentionally to incorporate the grammatical analysis of the Hebrew language into the overall inductive process. Prerequisite: NT(IBS) 510 or 511; and OT501 or equivalent (completed or taken concurrently with this course). (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Hebrew by special arrangement with the professor.)

OT(IBS)611 HISTORICAL BOOKS (3)

Bauer

A series of book studies including Joshua through 2 Kings which builds on the methodology of the first Inductive Bible Study course by further use of what has been previously learned and by emphasizing the study of books as wholes. Accordingly, there is a special focus on the initial survey of books as wholes, the interpretation of parts of books in the context of the book as a whole, and the synthesis of books. In addition, attention is given to thinking, valuing, and living biblically by learning how to apply Scripture to life and ministry. This course seeks intentionally to incorporate the grammatical analysis of the Hebrew language into the overall inductive process. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; and OT501 or equivalent (completed or taken concurrently with this course). (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Hebrew by special arrangement with the professor.)

OT(IBS)612 PSALMS (3)

Russell, Thompson

A survey of the Psalter as a whole and a detailed, inductive study of examples of each of the major Psalm types, with special attention given to the interpretation of Hebrew poetic literature. The Old Testament community's theology and worship are studied as they are reflected in the Psalter. This course seeks intentionally to incorporate the grammatical analysis of the Hebrew language into the overall inductive process. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; and OT501 or equivalent (completed or taken concurrently with this course). (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Hebrew by special arrangement with the professor.)

OT(IBS)613 WISDOM LITERATURE (3)

Russell, Thompson

A series of book studies embracing Job, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Songs designed to refine method in the study of books as wholes and their significant parts in light of the whole. In the process, attention is given to the contributions of these works to significant biblical themes, such as the relationship between character and circumstance. This course seeks intentionally to incorporate the grammatical analysis of the Hebrew language into the overall inductive process. Prerequisite: NT(IBS) 510 or 511; and OT501 or equivalent (completed or taken concurrently with this course). (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Hebrew by special arrangement with the professor.)

OT(IBS)615 MINOR PROPHETS (3)Bauer, Russell, Thompson

Book studies of the Minor Prophets which build on the methodology of the first Inductive Bible Study course by further use of what has been previously learned and by emphasizing the study of books as wholes. Accordingly, there is a special focus on the initial survey of books as wholes, the interpretation of parts of books in the context of the book as a whole, and the synthesis of books. In addition, attention is given to thinking, valuing, and living biblically by learning how to apply Scripture to life and ministry. This course seeks intentionally to incorporate the grammatical analysis of the Hebrew language into the overall inductive process. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; and OT501 or equivalent (completed or taken concurrently with this course). (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Hebrew by special arrangement with the professor.)

OT(IBS)625 ISAIAH (3)Russell, Stone

An inductive study of the book as a whole and of each of the major divisions. Careful attention is given to structure and theological content. Emphasis is placed on the hermeneutical principles and procedures related to prophetic literature. This course seeks intentionally to incorporate the grammatical analysis of the Hebrew language into the overall inductive process. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; and OT501 or equivalent (completed or taken concurrently with this course). (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Hebrew by special arrangement with the professor.)

OT(IBS)626 JEREMIAH (3)Stone

An overview of the book as a whole followed by intensive analysis of selected portions. Alongside general principles bearing upon the interpretation of prophetic literature, students also consider how factors such as the divergent textual witnesses, literary types, theological emphases, and compositional processes apparent in Jeremiah affect the interpretation of the book. The theological significance of the “new covenant” and of the figure of Jeremiah for theology and preaching, particularly in the Wesleyan tradition, receives attention. This course seeks intentionally to incorporate the grammatical analysis of the Hebrew language into the overall inductive process. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; and OT501 or equivalent (completed or taken concurrently with this course). (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Hebrew by special arrangement with the professor.)

OT(IBS)627 EZEKIEL (3)Thompson

A study of the book as a whole and its most significant parts, with special attention to the historical and theological context of the prophet. Emphasis is placed on hermeneutical principles bearing on the interpretation of prophetic literature as illustrated specifically by this book and its treatment within the biblical tradition. Attention is also given to the place of Ezekiel in the thought of John Wesley. This course seeks intentionally to incorporate the grammatical analysis of the Hebrew language into the overall inductive process. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; and OT501 or equivalent (completed or taken concurrently with this course). (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Hebrew by special arrangement with the professor.)

OT(IBS)628 DANIEL (3)Arnold

An inductive study of the book as a whole and of each of the major divisions. Emphasis is placed on hermeneutical principles bearing on the interpretation of apocalyptic literature, as distinct from other forms of prophetic literature. Comparisons and contrasts are made with other examples of Jewish apocalyptic, tracing the development of selected themes throughout the history of apocalyptic literature, including the Book of Revelation. This course seeks intentionally to incorporate the grammatical analysis of the Hebrew language into the overall inductive process. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; and OT501 or equivalent (completed or taken concurrently with this course). (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Hebrew by special arrangement with the professor.)

NT(IBS)635 GOSPEL OF JOHN (3)

Dongell

A careful examination of the Gospel of John according to the inductive method of Bible study. Emphasis will be placed on the close examination of a series of key passages in light of the structure and major themes of the Gospel of John. This course seeks intentionally to incorporate the grammatical analysis of the Greek language into the overall inductive process. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; and NT500 or 501 or equivalent. (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Greek by special arrangement with the professor.)

NT(IBS)636 THE BOOK OF ACTS (3)

Bauer

A careful examination of the Book of Acts according to the inductive method of Bible study. Emphasis will be upon the structure and the major themes found in the Book of Acts, with the Gospel of Luke employed for background purposes. This course seeks intentionally to incorporate the grammatical analysis of the Greek language into the overall inductive process. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; and NT500 or 501 or equivalent. (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Greek by special arrangement with the professor.)

NT(IBS)637 PAULINE EPISTLES (3)

Bauer, Dongell

A study of Galatians, Ephesians, Philippians, and Colossians which builds on the methodology of the first inductive Bible study course by further use of what has been previously learned and by emphasizing the study of books as wholes. Accordingly, there is a special focus on the initial survey of books as wholes, the interpretation of parts of books in the context of the book as a whole, and the synthesis of books. In addition, attention is given to thinking, valuing, and living biblically by learning how to apply Scripture to life and ministry. This course seeks intentionally to incorporate the grammatical analysis of the Greek language into the overall inductive process. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; and NT500 or 501 or equivalent. (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Greek by special arrangement with the professor.)

NT(IBS)638 ROMANS (3)

Dongell

A detailed study of this epistle, with focus on the thought-development of the argument as it moves from chapters 1 to 11, with attention given to the instructions of chapters 12-16, and with an examination of the relationship between these two sections. This course seeks intentionally to incorporate the grammatical analysis of the Greek language into the overall inductive process. Prerequisite: NT (IBS) 510 or 511; and NT 500 or 501 or equivalent. (May be taken by students in the M.A. program not requiring Greek by special arrangement with the professor.)

NT(IBS)645 GENERAL EPISTLES (3)

Bauer

A study of 1 John, James, Jude, and 1 and 2 Peter which builds on the methodology of the first inductive Bible study course by further use of what has been previously learned and by emphasizing ing the study of books as wholes. Accordingly, there is a special focus on the initial survey of books as wholes, the interpretation of parts of books in the context of the book as a whole, and the synthesis of books. In addition, attention is given to thinking, valuing, and living biblically by learning how to apply Scripture to life and ministry. This course seeks intentionally to incorporate the grammatical analysis of the Greek language into the overall inductive process. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; and NT500 or 501 or equivalent. (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Greek by special arrangement with the professor.)

NT(IBS)646 Hebrews (3)

Bauer

A detailed study of the thought-development of this epistle with a focus on its structure, its teaching on the incarnation and high priesthood of Jesus, and its insights into the relation between the old and new covenants. Emphasis is placed on the methodology of studying discursive literature. In addition, attention is given to thinking, valuing, and living biblically by learning how to apply Scripture to life and ministry. This course seeks intentionally to incorporate the grammatical analysis of the Greek language into the overall inductive process. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; and NT500 or 501 or equivalent. (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Greek by special arrangement with the professor.)

Anderson, Mulholland

An exegetical study of the letter to the Colossians which focuses upon the application of basic exegetical principles of the Greek text and understanding the text within the literary, linguistic, historical, and cultural contexts in which it was originally circulated. Prerequisite: NT (IBS)510 or 511; NT520; and NT500 or 501/502 or equivalent. (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Greek by special arrangement with the professor.)

NT640 EXEGESIS OF THE GENERAL EPISTLES (3)

Reese

A close reading of the General Epistles with special attention given to literary, sociohistorical, and theological understandings of the epistles. May include readings from any or all of the General Epistles in a given semester. Prerequisite: NT (IBS)510 or 511; NT520; and NT500 or 501/502 or equivalent. (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Greek by special arrangement with the professor.)

NT641 EXEGESIS OF HEBREWS (3)

Reese

A close reading of Hebrews with special attention given to literary, socio-historical, and theological understandings of the epistle. Prerequisite: NT (IBS)510 or 511; NT520; and NT500 or 501/502 or equivalent. (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Greek by special arrangement with the professor.)

NT650 TUTORIAL IN THE NEW TESTAMENT (1-3)

Anderson, Green, Mulholland, Reese, Witherington

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of intermediate New Testament study. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

NT/CS655 FAITH AND WEALTH IN NEW TESTAMENT PERSPECTIVE (2-3)

Green

How closely the New Testament message is related to the realities of human existence at the turn of the third millennium is evident from a consideration of its contents against its socio-economic backdrop. By means of an exploration of the social, economic, and political environment in which the Christian movement took shape in the first century, students will understand better that issues of wealth are no more significant in this industrial-cum-information-cum-cyber era than in the first-century Roman world. This course examines how Jesus and various New Testament writers worked out the socio-economic implications of the gospel in their settings and how their witness might inform and shape our own. Prerequisites: NT520 and CS601.

NT666 THE BOOK OF REVELATION (3)

Mulholland

An exegetical study of the book of Revelation which focuses upon the background materials of Jewish prophecy and apocalyptic, the structure of the book, its relationship to the other New Testament writings, and an examination of the perceptual framework which forms its imagery. Prerequisite: NT (IBS)510 or 511; NT520; and NT500 or 501/502 or equivalent. (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Greek by special arrangement with the professor.)

NT670 NON-CANONICAL WRITINGS FOR THE NEW TESTAMENT STUDIES (3)

Dongell

This course will serve as a basic introduction to the wide range of literatures surrounding the New Testament and illuminating its interpretation. Students will read (in English translation) selected portions of those literatures which meaningfully relate to the New Testament, and will be exposed to the historical circumstances of each literature, while becoming familiar with tools available for further research. Prerequisite: NT520

NT699 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN THE NEW TESTAMENT (1-3)

Anderson, Green, Mulholland, Reese, Witherington

Guided, independent, intermediate research in New Testament studies. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

The core elective requirement for the M.Div. in New Testament exegesis is met by courses that appear in the ranges, NT610-649 and NT710-749. Courses in the range NT710-749 require NT501 and NT502 Comprehensive Greek 1-2.

NT720 EXEGETICAL STUDIES IN ACTS OF THE APOSTLES (3)

Witherington

A study of selected passages in Acts, this course will deal with the various textual, historical, rhetorical, exegetical, theological, and ethical concerns that the only canonical book about early Christian history raises. Literary and genre issues will also be addressed to try to determine the structure of the work and its literary type or kind. The focus in the course will be on familiarizing the student not only with the content of this book, but also with the exegetical and hermeneutical issues that it raised and raises. Prerequisite: NT (IBS)510 or 511; NT520; and NT501/502 or equivalent.

NT722 EXEGETICAL STUDIES IN ROMANS (3)

Witherington

A detailed exegesis of the entire book of Romans, examining the most commented on book in the New Testament in light of its historical, rhetorical, sociological, theological, and ethical contexts. Prerequisites: NT(IBS)510 or 511; NT520; or equivalent.

NT723 EXEGETICAL STUDIES IN 1 CORINTHIANS (3)

Staff

A detailed exegetical and theological study of Pauline thought as expressed in this letter. Prerequisite: NT (IBS)510 or 511; NT520; and NT501/502 or equivalent.

NT724 EXEGESIS OF THE CORINTHIAN CORRESPONDENCE (3)

Reese

A close reading of the Corinthian Correspondence with special attention given to literary, socio-historical, and theological understandings of the epistles. May include readings from either one or both of the Corinthian letters during any given semester. Prerequisite: NT (IBS)510 or 511; NT520; and NT501/502 or equivalent.

NT725 EXEGETICAL STUDIES IN GALATIANS (3)

Witherington

A study of selected passages in Galatians, this course will deal with the various textual, historical, rhetorical, exegetical, theological, and ethical concerns raised by this letter. Literary and genre issues will also be addressed to try to determine the structure of the work and its literary type or kind. The focus in the course will be on familiarizing the student not only with the content of this book, but also with the exegetical and hermeneutical issues that it raised and raises. Prerequisite: NT (IBS)510 or 511; NT520; and NT501/502 or equivalent.

NT740 EXEGETICAL STUDIES IN THE GENERAL EPISTLES (3)

Green, Reese

A close reading of the General Epistles (James, 1-2 Peter, 1-3 John, Jude) with special attention given to literary, socio-historical, and theological understandings of the epistles. May include readings from any or all of the General Epistles in a given semester. Prerequisite: NT (IBS)510 or 511; NT520; and NT501/502 or equivalent.

NT750 TUTORIAL IN THE NEW TESTAMENT (1-3)

Anderson, Green, Mulholland, Reese, Witherington

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of advanced New Testament study. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

NT751 TEXTUAL CRITICISM OF THE NEW TESTAMENT (3)

Mulholland

Elements of Greek paleography and a history of the textual tradition of the Greek New Testament, including sources of corruption and transmission. Primary emphasis is given to the principles and praxis of selected variants. Prerequisite: NT501/502 or equivalent.

NT753 RESEARCH METHODS IN NEW TESTAMENT INTERPRETATION (3)Green

An advanced seminar in which participants explore through readings, practice, and critical discussion the range of methods employed in New Testament study today. The entire research process — from "getting into a conversation" and specifying a "thesis" to the presentation of one's research — will be discussed, modeled, and practiced. Prerequisite: NT501/502 or equivalent, and at least one exegetical course.

NT/ST754 JAMES AND 1 PETER: NEW TESTAMENT EXEGESIS AND CONSTRUCTIVE THEOLOGY (3)Green

What is the relationship between biblical exegesis, on the one hand, and the disciplines of theology and ethics on the other? This seminar will employ these two New Testament letters, James and 1 Peter, as case studies in the relationships among these theological disciplines. Prerequisites: NT500 or 501, NT520, and either ST501 or CS601.

NT799 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN THE NEW TESTAMENT (1-3)Anderson, Green, Mulholland, Reese, Witherington

Guided, independent, advanced research in New Testament studies. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: OLD TESTAMENT

OT501 SURVEY OF BIBLICAL HEBREW (3)

Staff

This course introduces students to Biblical Hebrew for purposes of exegetical work in pastoral ministry. Particular emphasis is given to the fundamentals of Biblical Hebrew and basic exegetical tools, including types of parsing aids especially suited for pastoral use.

OT502 GRAMMAR AND READINGS IN BIBLICAL HEBREW (3)

Staff

This course builds upon OT501 in order to complete the student's introduction to Biblical Hebrew grammar and syntax. Prerequisite: OT501.

OT520 OLD TESTAMENT INTRODUCTION (3)

Arnold, Richter, Russell, Stone

An introduction to (1) the literature of the Old Testament in its socio-historical, literary, and canonical contexts; and (2) critical study of the Old Testament.

OT530 HISTORY OF ISRAEL (3)

Arnold, Stone

A consideration of the history of Israel from the conquest to the inter-testamental period. Data from both biblical and non-biblical sources are studied in an attempt to understand the Old Testament as a whole in terms of its political, social, and religious context. Prerequisite: OT520.

OT540 THE GEOGRAPHICAL AND HISTORICAL SETTINGS OF THE BIBLE (4)

Richter

This intensive three-week introduction to the geography, history, and archaeology of Israel combines academic study with extensive travel through the land of Israel (and Jordan when political conditions are favorable). The primary focus of this class is the geographical settings of Israel's history (i.e., the Old Testament), but much New Testament material is contextualized as well. This course is offered as an expression of Asbury's affiliate relationship with Jerusalem University College in Jerusalem. Students will be housed as JUC's campus just outside the Old City, will be evaluated by JUC and Asbury faculty, and in addition to an education in the history, geography, and archaeology of the Holy Land, will be immersed for this three-week period in the cross-cultural experience that is Jerusalem. Additional costs related to travel will apply.

OT550 TUTORIAL IN OLD TESTAMENT (1-3)

Arnold, Richter, Russell, Stone

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of introductory Old Testament study. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

OT599 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN THE OLD TESTAMENT (1-3)

Arnold, Richter, Russell, Stone

Guided, independent, introductory research in Old Testament study. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

The core elective in Old Testament exegesis for the M.Div. is fulfilled by courses in the ranges, OT610-649 and OT710-749. Courses in the range OT610-649 require only OT501 Survey of Biblical Hebrew.

OT610 EXEGESIS OF GENESIS (3)

Arnold

This course explores exegetical issues in the Book of Genesis, and provides students with opportunities to apply original-language tools to the book's strategic passages. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; OT520; and OT501 or equivalent (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Greek by special arrangement with the professor.)

OT611 EXEGESIS OF EXODUS (3)

Russell

This course explores selected exegetical issues in the book of Exodus and provides students with opportunities to apply original language tools to the book's strategic passages. The focus will be on developing appropriate interpretive skills for the pastoral ministry. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; OT520; and OT501 or equivalent (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Hebrew, by special arrangement with the professor.)

OT616 EXEGESIS OF JOSHUA (3)

Stone

This course explores selected exegetical issues in the book of Joshua and provides students with opportunities to apply original-language tools to the book's strategic passages. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; OT520; and OT501 or equivalent (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Hebrew, by special arrangement with the professor.)

OT617 EXEGESIS OF JUDGES (3)

Stone

This course explores selected exegetical issues in the book of Judges and provides students with opportunities to apply original language tools to the book's strategic passages. Particular attention is given to the literary analysis and theological themes related to power, leadership, and violence. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; OT520; and OT501 or equivalent (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Hebrew, by special arrangement with the professor.)

OT619 EXEGESIS OF 1-2 SAMUEL (3)

Arnold

This course explores selected exegetical issues in the Books of Samuel and provides students with opportunities to apply original-language tools to the books' strategic passages. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; OT520; and OT501 or equivalent (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Hebrew, by special arrangement with the professor.)

OT630 EXEGESIS OF ISAIAH (3)

Staff

This course explores selected exegetical issues in the book of Isaiah and provides students with opportunities to apply original language tools to the book's strategic passages. Particular attention is given to the literary and theological context created by the book of Isaiah as a whole and how this affects the interpretation of specific passages in the book. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511; OT520; and OT501 or equivalent (May be taken by students in M.A. programs not requiring Hebrew, by special arrangement with the professor.)

OT631 EXEGESIS OF JEREMIAH (3)Stone

This course explores selected exegetical issues in the book of Jeremiah and provides students with opportunities to apply original language tools to the book's strategic passages. Specific attention is given to the nature of prophecy in Israel and the Old Testament, the theological significance of calling and vocation in prophetic ministry, and how the prophetic calling finds expression in the contemporary church.

OT650 TUTORIAL IN THE OLD TESTAMENT (1-3)Arnold, Richter, Russell, Stone

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of intermediate Old Testament study. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

OT651 INTERMEDIATE HEBREW: READINGS IN NARRATIVE AND POETRY (3)Richter

Selected Old Testament passages are read to develop the student's mastery of biblical Hebrew. Emphasis is given to vocabulary, grammar, syntax, compositional methodology, rhetorical issues, and general poetics. Prerequisite: OT 501/502 or equivalent.

OT665/PR651 PREACHING THE OLD TESTAMENT (3)Staff

This course is devoted to the hermeneutical and homiletical problem of preaching from the Old Testament. In this course, this broader issue will be engaged via a focused treatment of a selected text-base. Various texts from that corpus will be covered in an attempt to lay bare their exegetical and theological resources that are well-suited for the homiletical and rhetorical task. Moreover, the problem of how to move from text to sermon, particularly from an Old Testament text to a sermon from the Old Testament (i.e., the question of developing a homiletical hermeneutic for preaching the Old Testament) will be addressed. Prerequisites: OT520 and PR610.

OT699 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN THE OLD TESTAMENT (1-3)Arnold, Richter, Russell, Stone

Guided, independent, intermediate research in Old Testament Study. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

OT 701-705 ANCIENT NEAR EASTERN LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES (3)Arnold, Richter, Stone

These courses introduce the student, who already has a working knowledge of Biblical Hebrew, to the language and literatures of the ancient Near East, primarily to provide a linguistic and cultural context for the interpretation of the Old Testament. All courses require OT 501/502 as prerequisite.

OT701 BIBLICAL ARAMAIC (3)OT702 UGARITIC (3)*OT704 AKKADIAN (3)*OT705 SYRIAC (3)

OT706 SEMITIC LANGUAGE SEMINAR (3)

Arnold, Richter, Stone

Analysis of texts from selected historical, cultural, linguistic, and literary near-neighbors of biblical Israel enriches students' grasp of biblical Hebrew. At the discretion of the instructor, the course focuses on texts in dialects traditionally designated "Canaanite" (Hebrew, Moabite, and Phoenician), or Aramaic texts, or comparative Semitic linguistics. Prerequisites: OT501/502; when Aramaic texts are studied, OT701.

The core elective in Old Testament exegesis for the M.Div. is fulfilled by courses in the ranges, OT610-649 and OT710-749. Courses in the range OT710-749 require OT501 and OT502.

OT710 EXEGETICAL STUDIES IN THE PENTATEUCH (3)

Arnold, Richter, Russell, Stone.

Exegetical studies of selected passages enable students to develop the linguistic and exegetical competence required for interpreting the Hebrew text. The distinctive exegetical questions arising in the study of this specific section of the OT canon are addressed as well. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511, OT520, and OT501/502 or equivalent

OT711 EXEGETICAL STUDIES IN THE HISTORICAL BOOKS (3)

Arnold, Richter, Russell, Stone.

Exegetical studies of selected passages enable students to develop the linguistic and exegetical competence required for interpreting the Hebrew text. The distinctive exegetical questions arising in the study of this specific section of the OT canon are addressed as well. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511, OT520, and OT501/502 or equivalent

OT712 EXEGETICAL STUDIES IN THE PSALMS (3)

Arnold, Richter, Russell, Stone.

Exegetical studies of selected passages enable students to develop the linguistic and exegetical competence required for interpreting the Hebrew text. The distinctive exegetical questions arising in the study of this specific section of the OT canon are addressed as well. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511, OT520, and OT501/502 or equivalent

OT713 EXEGETICAL STUDIES IN WISDOM LITERATURE (3)

Arnold, Richter, Russell, Stone.

Exegetical studies of selected passages enable students to develop the linguistic and exegetical competence required for interpreting the Hebrew text. The distinctive exegetical questions arising in the study of this specific section of the OT canon are addressed as well. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511, OT520, and OT501/502 or equivalent

OT714 EXEGETICAL STUDIES IN THE PROPHETS (3)

Arnold, Richter, Russell, Stone.

Exegetical studies of selected passages enable students to develop the linguistic and exegetical competence required for interpreting the Hebrew text. The distinctive exegetical questions arising in the study of this specific section of the OT canon are addressed as well. Prerequisite: NT(IBS)510 or 511, OT520, and OT501/502 or equivalent

OT750 TUTORIAL IN THE OLD TESTAMENT (1-3)Arnold, Richter, Russell, Stone

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of advanced Old Testament study. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

OT751 THE TEXT AND CANON OF THE OLD TESTAMENT (3)Arnold, Stone

An assessment of the manuscript evidence for the OT text and the process of evaluating variant textual traditions. Selected parallel readings from the Masoretic text, Septuagint, Qumran materials (Dead Sea Scrolls), and other ancient textual authorities are studied. Text-critical problems are considered in conjunction with the formation of the Old Testament canon. Prerequisite: Reading competence in biblical Greek and Hebrew; though not required, Aramaic, Syriac, and Latin can contribute.

OT752 BIBLICAL ARCHEOLOGY (3)Richter

Archeological discoveries in Palestine are correlated with what is known of the civilizations in neighboring regions of the ancient Near East, and with the witness of the Bible to the life and times of the Hebrew people. Methods of field work and ways of interpreting and preserving artifacts are examined. Stress is placed on the manner in which archeology has illumined and confirmed the historical rootage of the Bible. Prerequisite: OT520.

OT753 SUMMER ARCHEOLOGY PROGRAM (3)Richter

Students will spend three to six weeks living and digging in Israel under the supervision of seasoned archeologists. They will live in an international environment, interacting with archeological enthusiasts from many nations, as well as native Israelis. They will spend five days per week digging in the field, recording finds, washing and reading pottery, and attending lectures by experts on the intersection of recovered material culture and the biblical text. On weekends, students will tour important sites both with the larger group and with Asbury faculty. The educational objective of this experience is practical exposure to the discipline of archeology and its relationship to biblical studies. Costs associated with the course include standard tuition plus plane fare, accommodations, and touring expenses. Prerequisite: OT752.

OT799 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN THE OLD TESTAMENT (1-3)Arnold, Richter, Russell, Stone

Guided, independent, advanced research in Old Testament. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: PREACHING

One of the core elective requirements in Proclamation can be met by coursework in the range, PR610-649.

PR 610 THE THEOLOGY AND PRACTICE OF PREACHING (3)

Kalas, Minger, J. Moore, Pasquarello, Ruth

This course nurtures a vision of Christian preaching as a theological and pastoral activity of the church in service to the gospel. The core objectives of this course have been established to facilitate critical understanding of and competence in view of (1) preaching as witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ revealed in the Christian Scriptures and (2) preaching as both a gift of the Holy Spirit and a human vocation which serves the creation of a community called to worship the Triune God as revealed through the narrative of the whole biblical canon. This course approaches preaching as a theological practice and from a perspective shaped by the Wesleyan tradition; it is informed by a conscious integration of doctrinal and biblical exegesis and the practice of theological hermeneutics. Emphasis is placed on the life-long task of acquiring practical habits appropriate for cultivating judgment required for faithful communication of the biblical witness in service of the Word of God, as an act of Christian worship and within the context of personal, social, and cultural challenge and change. Prerequisites: SP501; Inductive Bible Studies-2.

PR620 THE COMPANY OF PREACHERS: AN INTRODUCTION TO THE THEOLOGY AND PRACTICE OF PREACHING (3)

Pasquarello

The purpose of this course is to introduce student to the theology and practice of preaching in service to the Word of God. The core objectives of this course have been established to facilitate a critical understanding of and competence in view of 1) preaching as a witness to the Gospel of Christ as revealed in the whole of Christian Scripture; and 2) preaching as both a gift of the Holy Spirit and pastoral vocation which serves the creation of a community called to worship the Triune God. This course approaches preaching as a historical practice of the church, and from within a particular perspective shaped by the Wesleyan tradition. In addition, it is informed by conscious integration of doctrinal and biblical exegesis, the practice of reading Scripture in a theological manner as demonstrated in the Christian tradition. Sermons will be preached and evaluated in order to provide an opportunity to cultivate a habit of integrating theological reflection and pastoral practice. Prerequisites: SP501, Inductive Bible Studies-2.

PR621 PREACHING THE CANON AS CHRISTIAN SCRIPTURE: AN INTRODUCTION TO THE THEOLOGY AND PRACTICE OF PREACHING (3)

Pasquarello

The purpose of this course is to provide an introduction to the theology and practice of preaching that will nurture a vision for reading Scripture theologically and crafting homiletic discourse in service to the Word of God. The core objectives of this course have been established to facilitate a critical understanding of and competence in view of 1) preaching as a witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ as revealed in the whole of Christian Scripture, and 2) preaching as both a gift of the Holy Spirit and pastoral vocation which serves the creation of a community called to worship the Triune God revealed through canonical narrative. This course will approach preaching as a theological and exegetical practice from a perspective shaped by the Wesleyan tradition. It will pay particular attention to the integration of doctrine and exegesis in the theological reading of Scripture for the life of the church.

Sermons will be preached and evaluated in order to guide students in cultivating a habit of theological reflection on pastoral practice. Prerequisites: SP501, Inductive Bible Studies-2.

PR622 TRINITY AND PROCLAMATION: AN INTRODUCTION TO THE THEOLOGY AND PRACTICE OF PREACHING (3)

Pasquarello

The purpose of this course is to provide an introduction to the theology and practice of preaching as situated with the life and activity of the Triune God, the economy of creation and redemption as confessed in the faith of the church. A primary aim is to facilitate a better understanding of the practice of preaching as theological in nature, of God from beginning to end, an activity in which we participate through the presence of Christ and the Holy Spirit by means of the Scripture within the liturgical life of the church. The core objectives of this course have been established to encourage a critical understanding of and competence in view of 1) preaching as a witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ as revealed in the whole of Christian Scripture; and 2) preaching as both a gift of the Holy Spirit and pastoral vocation which serves the formation of a community called to worship the Triune God. This course will approach this task from the perspective provided by the Trinitarian faith of the church, and its particular expression in the Wesleyan tradition. Sermons will be preached and evaluated in order to assist students in cultivating a habit of integrating theology and practice. Prerequisites: SP501, Inductive Bible Studies-2.

PR630 PREACHING FROM THE HISTORICAL BOOKS: INTRODUCTION TO THE THEOLOGY AND PRACTICE OF PREACHING (3)

Minger

The purpose of Preaching from the Historical Books is to approach the study and practice of Christian proclamation through hermeneutical and theological engagement with the Historical Books of the Old Testament. This course encourages students to wed their skills in biblical interpretation with pastorally responsive and theologically reflective proclamation from a perspective shaped by the Wesleyan tradition. Sermons will be preached and evaluated in order to guide students in cultivating a habit of theological reflection on pastoral practice and to assist students in identifying and developing skill in the practice of preaching. Prerequisites: SP501 and Inductive Bible Study-2.

PR631 PREACHING FROM THE PSALMS: INTRODUCTION TO THE THEOLOGY AND PRACTICE OF PREACHING (3)

Minger, Pasquarello

The purpose of this course is to approach the study and practice of Christian proclamation through hermeneutical and theological engagement with the Psalms. Attention will be given to preaching that reflects the dialogic character of the Psalms as well as the major themes of God's steadfast love and faithfulness, the wonders of God's activity, covenant identity, lament and praise, concern for justice, trust in and abandonment to God. This course encourages students to wed their skills in biblical interpretation with pastorally responsive and theologically reflective proclamation from a perspective shaped by the Wesleyan tradition. Sermons will be preached and evaluated in order to guide students in cultivating a habit of theological reflection on pastoral practice and to assist students in identifying and developing skill in the practice of preaching. Prerequisites: SP501 and Inductive Bible Study-2.

PR632 PREACHING FROM THE GOSPELS: INTRODUCTION THE THEOLOGY AND PRACTICE OF PREACHING (3)

Minger, Moore, Pasquarello

The purpose of Preaching from the Gospels is to approach the study and practice of Christian proclamation through hermeneutical and theological engagement with the Gospels: Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. Attention will be given to preaching from the teachings of Jesus, Jesus' parables and miracles, as well as Jesus' life (birth & infancy, baptism, temptation, transfiguration, passion, death and resurrection). This course encourages students to wed their skills in biblical interpretation with pastorally responsive and theologically reflective proclamation from a perspective shaped by the Wesleyan tradition. Sermons will be preached and evaluated in order to guide students in cultivating a habit of theological reflection on pastoral practice and to assist students in identifying and developing skill in the practice of preaching. Prerequisites: SP501 and Inductive Bible Study-2.

PR650 TUTORIAL IN PREACHING (1-3)

Kalas, Minger, J. Moore, Pasquarello, Ruth

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of intermediate study in Preaching. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

OT655/PR651 PREACHING THE OLD TESTAMENT (3)

Staff

This course is devoted to the hermeneutical and homiletical problem of preaching from the Old Testament. In this course, this broader issue will be engaged via a focused treatment of a selected text-base. Various texts from that corpus will be covered in an attempt to lay bare their exegetical and theological resources that are well-suited for the homiletical and rhetorical task. Moreover, the problem of how to move from text to sermon, particularly from an Old Testament text to a sermon from the Old Testament (i.e., the question of developing a homiletical-hermeneutic for preaching the Old Testament) will be addressed. Prerequisite: PR610; OT520.

PR652 PREACHING FROM THE PARABLES (3)

Staff

Designed to develop an understanding and appreciation of the parables of Jesus for sermon material, and to preach them in a vivid, modern, and challenging manner. Practicum experience included. Prerequisite: PR610.

PR653 HOMILETICAL STUDY OF HOLINESS (3)

Staff

Principles of doctrinal preaching through lectures, class discussion, and guided readings on the nature and theology of holiness. Sermon development will move through exposition of life, exegesis of Scripture and theology of the church, to delivery and evaluation by each member of the class. Prerequisite: PR 610.

PR/WO655 GETTING PREMODERN TO GO POSTMODERN: WISDOM FROM THE EARLY CHURCH FOR PREACHING AND WORSHIP TODAY (3)

Pasquarello, Ruth

This course seeks to facilitate a conversation between a Patristic vision of reality and the Postmodern world so as to provoke reflection and discussion about current possible practices of preaching and worship. It will seek to explore a third way for preaching and worship beyond the confines of so-called "contemporary" and "traditional" worship. Prerequisites: WO510, PR610.

PR660 COMMUNICATION: DEATH AND DYING (3)Staff

Examines resources available in literature, film, drama, and clinical settings pertaining to the theological and philosophical understandings of death. Through case studies, assigned readings, on-site experiences, and funeral sermon preparation, the student will learn to minister in the grief process. Prerequisite: PR610.

PR665 SENIOR PREACHING PRACTICUM (1)Staff

Students preach with evaluation by instructor and class. Sermons videotaped; each student preacher is required to review his/her playback. Credit only. Prerequisite: PR610; WO510.

PR/CH670 AN INTRODUCTION TO THE HISTORY OF PREACHING (3)Pasquarello

A study of preachers and preaching from the biblical period through the sixteenth-century Reformation. Preachers and sermons will be discussed in light of their primary role as pastors called by God to the practical tasks of forming and building up a Christian people, of nurturing and reinforcing Christian identity through the constant preaching of the Word of God to enable the church to discern and obey its scriptural pattern of faith and life.

PR699 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN PREACHING (1-3)Kalas, Minger, J. Moore, Pasquarello, Ruth

Guided, independent, intermediate research in Preaching. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

WO/PR700 CREATIVE PREACHING ON THE SACRAMENTS (3)Ruth

The focus of this course is on a specialized form of preaching on the sacraments known as mystagogy (that is, preaching that leads into the mystery of the church). This type of preaching will be explored in its liturgical context in the early church and in modern attempts to reclaim it. The goal will be to assist students in using historical models to develop a theoretical basis to support their practice of connecting Word and Sacrament. Student preaching will be included. This course will thus include these dimensions: historical, theoretical, and practical. Prerequisites: PR610 and a course in the range of WO510-549.

PR702 EXPOSITORY PREACHING (3)Staff

Techniques of expository preaching. Variety of approaches within the expository pattern. Development of sermons on assigned passages. The aim is to let the Bible speak to contemporary needs. Practicum included. Prerequisite: PR610.

PR703 STORYTELLING (3)Staff

This course explores the basics of storytelling. It acquaints the student with the storytelling tradition and attempts to discover the gospel as story. There will be an emphasis on oral narrative as creative exegesis. Students will discover, write, and tell stories from Scripture and literature. Storytelling will be viewed from the standpoint of helping the pastor in preaching, worship, and personal growth. Prerequisite: PR610.

PR750 TUTORIAL IN PREACHING (1-3)

SP501 COMMUNICATION AS CHRISTIAN RHETORIC (2)

Minger, J. Moore, Pasquarello

This course provides a context for instruction and practice that introduces the art of written and spoken communication within a clearly articulated Wesleyan theological framework for the purpose of Christian ministry. As a core course within the theological curriculum, its purpose does not simply replicate undergraduate speech and communication studies. Students will be provided with appropriate means for cultivating necessary habits of Christian life and speech in light of the Christian rhetorical tradition, classical rhetoric, and contemporary communication studies in preparation for Christian ministry in a multicultural society. This course is designed to integrate theological and scriptural knowledge, rhetorical and cultural understanding, for clear, coherent, and persuasive written and oral expressions of Christian speech in the practice of Christian leadership.

SP550 TUTORIAL IN SPEECH (1-3)

Minger, Pasquarello

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: SCHOOL OF PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

Through the School of Practical Theology, Asbury Seminary students are equipped for ministries of Christian discipleship (including youth and campus ministries), leadership, counseling, and pastoral care. Students, as servant leaders, learn to ground their ministry practices on biblical and theological principles, to gain wisdom from history, and access insights from the human sciences. This takes place in a supportive community of learners and through hands-on experience in the real-world of ministry.

The School of Practical Theology houses five specialized Master of Arts degrees: the Master of Arts in Christian Education, the Master of Arts in Christian Leadership, the Master of Arts in Counseling, the Master of Arts in Pastoral Counseling, and the Master of Arts in Youth Ministry. The school also supports a concentration in Campus Ministry for the M.Div. program.

Four departments make up the School of Practical Theology, the departments of Christian Leadership, Christian Education and Youth Ministry, Counseling and Pastoral Counseling, and the Mentored Ministry Program. These departments serve students in the M.Div. and MA programs.

The department of Christian Leadership is committed to the development of servant leaders for the church and other organizations. Leadership courses equip students to understand organizations and also the basic disciplines for personal Christian leadership development. They assist students as they grow in their abilities to lead organizations, to guide them in the process of change, and to develop other servant leaders.

The department of Christian Education and Youth Ministry focuses on the Christian discipleship of children, youth, and adults. Courses are designed to help students grow in their understanding of human development, learning, and spiritual formation across the life span. Students also develop skills in designing incarnational models for ministries of discipleship and grow in their commitment to servant leadership that equips and empowers others in ministry.

The Department of Counseling and Pastoral Care serves two main purposes. First, it serves students in the M.Div. degree program through providing courses designed to form their identity as pastoral care-givers and to foster the skills necessary for effective pastoral care. Second, it serves students in the Master of Arts in Counseling and Master of Arts in Pastoral Counseling degree programs. Ultimately, the Department aims to produce competent professional and pastoral counselors who are grounded biblically and theologically and who are able to integrate this data with sound psychological method.

The Mentored Ministry program provides an action/reflection approach to learning and leads students in the integration of the practice of ministry with theological and theoretical understandings from other courses. Through Mentored Ministry students learn vocational tasks in a church or other ministry setting as they do ministry and receive instructive feedback from a mentor. This experiential learning is combined with self reflection and theological integration in a group of peers and a faculty guide. Theologically grounded personal and vocational formation are the goals of Mentored Ministry.

The M.Div. requires coursework in Christian Leadership and Discipleship in two core elective areas: Leadership and Servant Ministry; and in Mentored Ministry (MM601, MM602).

At least one, 3-hour course must be completed in Christian Leadership, choosing courses in the range, CL610-649. Having successfully completed the core elective requirement in Christian Leadership, students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of the four classic organizational frames;
2. Demonstrate an understanding of the basic disciplines for personal Christian leadership development;
3. Demonstrate an understanding of key strategies for developing other servant leaders;
4. Demonstrate an understanding of organizational change processes;
5. Assess an organizational context;
6. Practice disciplines for personal and spiritual renewal;
7. Grow other servant leaders; and
8. Implement organizational change.

Students may choose to devote their 6 hours of required core elective units in Servant Ministry to coursework in Christian Discipleship or Counseling and Pastoral Care or both. The first three core elective hours in Christian Discipleship should be drawn from courses in the following ranges, CD510-549, CM510-549, YM510-549. If students should choose to use all six of the required hours in Servant Ministry in Christian Discipleship, the second core elective course should be drawn from courses in the following ranges, CD610-649, CM610-649, YM610-649. Having successfully completed the core elective requirement in Servant Ministry: Christian Discipleship, students should be able to:

1. Articulate biblical/theological principles that provide the foundations for disciple-making ministries;
2. Understand the creation design for psycho-social development and learning;
3. Design incarnational models of ministry that provide structures for discipleship (evangelism, teaching, and nurture);
4. Provide a contextual analysis of the church as institution and community;
5. Demonstrate a commitment to servant leadership that equips and empowers others according to their gifts and calling;
6. Exemplify a commitment to a life of personal integrity and spiritual growth; and
7. Orchestrate an ongoing pattern of planning-action-evaluation for ministry effectiveness.

Also, the M.Div. requires six hours of core electives in Servant Ministry, which may be devoted to coursework in Christian Discipleship or Counseling and Pastoral Care or both. Core elective hours in Counseling and Pastoral Care should be drawn from courses in the following ranges, CO510-549 or PC510-549. Courses that fulfill the core elective requirement(s) in Counseling and Pastoral Care are designed to form students' identities as pastoral care-givers. Hence, having successfully completed the core elective requirement in Servant Ministry: Counseling and Pastoral Care, students should be able to:

1. Bring biblical/theological perspectives and theoretical frameworks to bear on pastoral situations;
2. Reflect on how personal formation provides a foundation for pastoral work;
3. Develop a view of persons and their varied social systems that is biblically and theologically sound;
4. Integrate this view of persons with the best psychological principles;
5. Demonstrate acquaintance with a variety of theoretical models to help facilitate their pastoral work;
6. Demonstrate basic competence in skills necessary for providing pastoral care to persons in varied life situations, including personal, family, and crisis situations.

Students thus prepared for professions of counseling and pastoral care shall:

1. Utilize self-knowledge, personal faith, and moral reflection to facilitate their work with others.
2. Understand and use Scripture and theology as foundational for the practice of counseling.
3. Apply relevant truths discovered through the psychological and other behavioral sciences so as to enhance their future work.
4. Demonstrate specific skills in counseling and pastoral care.
5. Comprehend ethical and legal obligations relative to counseling and pastoral work.

In addition to the above goals, students in the M.A. in Counseling degree program shall:

1. Demonstrate skills in assessment and diagnosis and relate these to effective treatment planning.
2. Apply specialized counseling skills relative to working with career and cross-cultural situations.

MENTORED MINISTRIES PROGRAM

The assumptions for Mentored Ministry are most precisely stated as:

1. Fruitful Christian Leadership, including that which is part of the called vocation, requires a life that is increasingly formed in the image of Jesus Christ.
2. Vocational tasks are sometimes best learned through:
 - a. Modeling
 - b. Self-reporting and group accountability (action/reflection)
 - c. Practicing with instructive feedback (based on respectful and supportive peer relationships).

Therefore, the goals for Mentored Ministry are that each student will, by the end of Mentored Ministries, be able to demonstrate:

1. A doctrinally sound understanding of ministry in the Wesleyan/Holiness tradition (including the willingness to cross class, ethnic, national, et. al. boundaries for the sake of the Gospel);
2. A realistic evaluation of his/her capacity to serve in vocational ministry based on “testing” his/her gifts and graces (e.g., demonstrating a recognition of relational boundaries, consistently showing the capacity to deal with conflict, social & cultural analysis skills for understanding the local congregation or other organization);
3. Basic practices for vocational ministry (including the ability to work with others in local church settings and other settings as appropriate; appropriate spiritual disciplines needed, according to the Wesleyan/Holiness tradition for fruitful ministry).

It is important that students begin their Mentored Ministries courses early in their seminary careers, normally by the second year. IS501 and IS502 must be completed before beginning the M.Min. courses.

Students are assigned to two field experiences under an approved on-site mentor. Ordinarily, students will complete the required courses in Mentored Ministry, MM601 and MM602, in adjacent terms and in a single congregation—that is, through an entire academic or calendar year of Mentored Ministry in the same congregational setting. MM601 requires placement in a local church setting. MM602 extends the parish ministry outside the walls into a cross-cultural setting. In some cases, the second course may be completed in an approved setting other than a local church. The Mentored Ministry experience is concurrently coordinated with a Campus Reflection Group under the leadership of an assigned faculty facilitator. Case Studies are used as tools for integrating field experience and the Campus Reflection Group. The case study method is used as a tool for integrating field experience and the peer-group reflection seminar on campus. Student and faculty interaction is aimed toward effecting an adequate and comprehensive view of ministry.

It is standard policy that Mentored Ministry courses cannot be waived on the basis of previous ministry experience. However, MM603, MM604, MM701, MS660, MS661, MS662, MS663, or PC655 may be substituted for MM602. Only one of the required Mentored Ministries courses may have a substitution. All substitutions are subject to approval by the Director of Mentored Ministries. It is strongly recommended that students take all 500 and 600 level core course requirements prior to the last semester of their classes. The maximum limit of Mentored Ministry internship hours or other field internship courses that a student can take for credit is 12, including those taken in other areas.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP

CL510 FORMATION FOR UNITED METHODIST ORDAINED MINISTRY (2)

Staff

This course offers candidates for ordained ministry in The United Methodist Church an opportunity to be mentored in the candidacy process required for United Methodist ordination. Along with other candidates and under the leadership of a trained candidacy mentor, “exploring candidates” will share their spiritual lives and calls into ministry, practice spiritual disciplines, and identify areas for service as they work through the Candidacy Guidebook. Candidates will explore together the many facets of decisions required of those progressing toward licensed, ordained ministry. Satisfactory completion of the course fulfills United Methodist requirements necessary for application for “certification” with a District Committee on Ministry. The course will include mock interviews, consideration of pertinent issues, and input from relevant, visiting United Methodist leaders. Prerequisite: Current status as an exploring candidate in The United Methodist Church with two years membership in the same United Methodist church by January. This is a two-hour, credit/no credit course. Certain fees will apply depending on one’s annual conference.

CL550 TUTORIAL IN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP (1-3)

Andrews, Gray, S. Moore, Smith, Tumblin

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of beginning Leadership studies. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

CL551 THE MISSION OF THE FREE METHODIST CHURCH (2)

Staff

A study of the mission of the Free Methodist Church, giving special attention to its history, distinctive character, current issues, and local and international organization. Student involvement and consideration of the texture of the denomination will be encouraged through lectures, discussions, special speakers, surveys, and research projects. Offered alternate years.

CL552 WESLEYAN POLITY AND DISCIPLINE (2)

Staff

A study of the Discipline of the Wesleyan Church and parliamentary procedure. The course meets requirements for ordination. Offered alternate years.

CL553 UNITED METHODIST POLITY AND DISCIPLINE (2)

Staff

A thorough study of the polity and discipline of The United Methodist Church. The student is equipped to meet the requirements of the Discipline for admission-on-trial into the various conferences. Required of all candidates for the United Methodist ministry.

CL555 FRIENDS HISTORY AND DISCIPLINE (2)

Staff

A study of the origin, development, and spread of the Religious Society of Friends. Designed to meet the requirements of Yearly Meeting Committees on the Recording of Ministers. (By tutorial; on demand.)

CL556 NAZARENE POLITY AND DISCIPLINE (2)Staff

A survey of the historical and political development of the Church of the Nazarene, with particular emphasis on current issues, procedures, and patterns of decision-making within this holiness denomination. The course meets requirements in the ministerial course of study for ordination.

CL599 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP (1-3)Andrews, Gray, Smith, Tumblin

Guided, independent, introductory research in Christian Leadership. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

The core elective requirement in Christian Leadership for the M.Div. is met by courses in the range, CL610-649.

CL610 THEOLOGY OF SERVANT LEADERSHIP (3)Tumblin

The biblical narrative provides ample understanding of what makes leadership "Christian." Whether one follows the models of the kings and prophets or the kenosis of Christ and subsequent Christian followers, the Christian leader is called to a distinctive style of leadership. This course exposes Christian leaders to the principles and practices that nurture life-long servanthood. Participants will examine and seek to practice Christian community as the crucible for authentic Christian leadership.

CL611 FOUNDATIONS OF CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP (3)Gray

This course is designed to introduce students to the historical development of the leadership discipline. Special attention will be given to the theoretical constructs that undergird the major leadership paradigms, beginning with the "Great Man Era" and ending with the "Age of Complexity." This course will be sensitive to the interplay between management theory in the marketplace and its usefulness within a Christian context.

CL612 CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT (3)Gray

This course is designed to move students into deeper levels of understanding of the significant concepts and theories that shape our contemporary understanding of leadership development in a Christian context. From this base of understanding, students will be guided into discoveries of personal individual styles, strengths, and opportunities for growth in an effort to enhance personal leadership competencies with a deliberate servanthood focus.

CL613 EQUIPPING THE LAITY (3)Smith, Stonehouse, Tumblin

This course will lay the foundation for a lay revolution within and beyond the local church. Using Ephesians 4 as our base, we will flesh out the paradigm of pastor as equipper/coach and laity as unpaid servants engaged in the work of the ministry. In many ways the delineation between laity and clergy will be minimized in favor of a model emphasizing the ministry of the whole people of God. We will address such issues as assimilation, leadership development, and discipling disciplers.

CL614 LEADING GROUPS AND ORGANIZATIONS (3)Accornero, Tumblin, West

This course combines organizational psychology, ecclesiology, and Christian leadership studies to move the student to an understanding of organizational and group dynamics. Students will develop proficiency in the analysis and development of organizations. Meets with ML714..

CL615/MS653 CROSS-CULTURAL LEADERSHIP (3)Accornero, Gray, West

This course examines the role of culture and cultural dynamics in the selection, emergence, and functioning of leadership. Primary attention will be given to leadership dynamics within the multicultural North American context, but consideration will also be given to how American theories and models may be appropriated in other cultural contexts. Prerequisite: IS501. Meets with ML715.

CL616 LEADING CHANGE (3)Tumblin

Change inevitably comes, particularly when an organization experiences healthy growth. This course addresses dynamics, including first and second order change, transition, innovation, chaotic systems and conflict. Emphasis will be given to the leader's roles as catalyst, coach and counselor at the individual, group, organizational and enterprise levels.

CL617 URBAN LEADERSHIP (3)Accornero, Gray

This course focuses on the basic principles of Christian leadership in an urban context. The city is explored from a socio-cultural perspective while examining successful urban leadership/ministry models.

CL618 CHURCH MANAGEMENT AND FINANCE (3)Kilty

By providing practical how-to tools for the non-financial manager of a church or ministry organization, this course is designed to introduce students to the variety of business and administrative issues related to church management and finance. Special attention will be given to personal finance planning, as well as organizational budgeting, planning and execution.

CL620/MS654 DEVELOPING EMERGING LEADERS (3)West

An advanced perspective and skill enhancement course which provides a theoretical and practical orientation to leadership development studies through the implicational lens of missiological theory, research, and application. The class helps students accelerate their leadership development vision and ethic, and develop culturally appropriate strategies, perspectives, and principles for training leaders in their current or anticipated ministry settings. Prerequisite: IS501. Meets with ML700.

CL650 TUTORIAL IN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP (1-3)Andrews, Gray, Smith, Tumblin

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of intermediate Leadership studies. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

CL/MS651 WOMEN IN MINISTRY (3)Stonehouse

Acquaints students with matters relating to women in the ordained, diaconal, and lay ministries of the church. Consideration is given to both the impact of the church on women and the impact of women on the church from biblical times to the present. The course is interdisciplinary in its structure, investigating the topic of women in ministry from biblical, historical, theological, psychological, sociological, anthropological, and pastoral perspectives. Prerequisite: IS501.

CL/MS655 THE CHANGE AGENT IN MISSION (3)Accornero, Rynkiewicz

The underlying assumption of this course is that as cross-cultural witnesses we are by definition agents of change. So we better know something about how change occurs, how to introduce it effectively into organizations, how to evaluate when we should and should not be introducing change, and what is the theological foundation for our involvement. To speak to these issues we have divided the course into four parts: (1) Models of Culture Change, (2) Insights from Applied Anthropology, (3) Problems in Community Development, and (4) The Challenge of Integral Human Development. Prerequisite: IS501. Meets with MB730.

CL660 ADVANCED SEMINAR IN WESLEYAN LEADERSHIP(1)Gray

This one hour seminar for students in Christian Leadership will integrate learned theoretical constructs of leadership with basic Wesleyan theology and practice.

CD/CL/YM690 DISCIPLESHIP DEVELOPMENT THROUGH TRAIL CAMPING (3)Staff

Backpacking experience in Daniel Boone National Forest and/or Sheltowee Trace, with parish-based youth living and working in trail families of eight to ten persons in a summer backpacking trip. Course requires completing Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation and Red Cross first aid certification, readings, and immersion into Appalachian values and culture. Additional fee for students is required for first aid/CPR training and to help cover costs of food, fees and other expenses for the trail camping trip Prerequisite: CD610 or CD615. Crosslisted as CL690 and YM690.

CL699 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP (1-3)Andrews, Gray, Smith, Tumblin

Guided, independent, intermediate research in Christian Leadership. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

CL701 RESEARCH AND WRITING IN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP (1-3)Andrews

A capstone course in the Master of Arts in Christian Leadership degree program, this seminar introduces the structure and resources for engaging in quantitative and qualitative research methods and for developing publishable material in the field of Christian leadership. Credit only.

CL750 TUTORIAL IN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP (1-3)Andrews, Gray, Smith, Tumblin

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of advanced Leadership studies. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

CL799 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP (1-3)Andrews, Gray, Smith, Tumblin

Guided, independent, advanced research in Christian Leadership. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP

The core elective requirement for Servant Ministry: Christian Discipleship in the M.Div can be met by any course in the range, CD510-549.

CD 510 FOUNDATIONS IN CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP (3)

Johnson-Miller, Marmon, Stonehouse

This course explores the foundations of Christian Discipleship drawing from biblical insights, theological perspectives, and understanding of human development. Examines local church ministries for making disciples across the life span and how, as servant leaders, to empower lay volunteers for discipling. Designed for those preparing to serve as a minister of discipleship or Christian education.

CD511 THE PASTOR AND CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP (3)

Johnson-Miller, Marmon, Stonehouse

This course explores the foundations of Christian discipleship in Scripture, theology (including Wesleyan distinctives), and educational and human development theories. It examines the pastor's role in forming and transforming disciples across the lifespan, discerning and communicating a vision for Christian discipleship, and empowering laity to fulfill that vision.

CD550 TUTORIAL IN CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP (1-3)

Gray, Hampton, Johnson-Miller, Kiesling, Marmon, Smith, Stonehouse

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of introductory studies in Christian Discipleship. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

CD551, 552: CHRISTIAN EDUCATION SEMINARS (1-3)

Seminars available only in concentrated format. The content and focus of each seminar will address current urgent issues. Each seminar will build around one nationally known guest faculty person who is a practicing minister/professional in the content area. For each seminar, advanced reading/critique preparation and follow-up integrative reflection will supplement the contact hours with the resource person. Faculty serve as campus planners/conveners/professors of record. Each course may be repeated up to a total of three hours of credit. Credit only.

CD551 SEMINAR: MINISTRY WITH CHILDREN

CD552 SEMINAR: MINISTRY WITH ADULTS

CD560 THE MINISTRY OF TEACHING (3)

Johnson-Miller, Kiesling

Analytical study of the teaching act and of teaching-learning events, including examination of the teaching acts of Jesus. Coursework involves: (a) theological reflections and readings from Christian education and the human sciences; (b) consideration of the spiritual formation, skills and temperament of the teacher; and (c) the presentation and evaluation of a teaching module designed by the student.

CD599 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP (1-3)

Gray, Hampton, Johnson-Miller, Kiesling, Marmon, Smith, Stonehouse

Guided, independent, introductory research in Christian Discipleship. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

M.Div. students who choose to complete the core elective requirement in Servant Ministry by taking a second course in Christian Discipleship can meet this requirement by taking any course in the range, CD610-649.

CD610/CO620 MORAL DEVELOPMENT (3)

Kiesling

This course examines and calls the student to moral formation and judgment in relation to biological, cognitive and faith development, with special attention given to primary sources of Jean Piaget and Lawrence Kohlberg. Moral development perspectives are evaluated in relation to creation, sin, the nature of human beings, redemption, justice and nurture. Attention is given to correcting bias in developmental perspectives with respect toward better understanding diversity in gender and race. Cross-listed as CO620.

CD615/CO615 DISCIPLESHIP DEVELOPMENT IN THE FAMILY (3)

Kiesling

This class presents a practical theology for understanding the partnership of the church and the family in the joint enterprise of encouraging lifelong Christian discipleship. A Trinitarian perspective is offered to the origins of the family, family roles, personhood, sin, the disintegration of family life, and salvation. Special attention is given to broad sociological trends and contemporary threats that are changing the structure and function of families, and to practices that nurture discipleship and relational connection in the family. Cross-listed as CO615.

CD616 DISCIPLESHIP AND DEVELOPMENT IN YOUNG AND MIDDLE ADULTHOOD (3)

Kiesling

This class will explore a variety of theoretical models that have attempted to provide a conceptual itinerary for the young and middle adult years, focus on the prominent issues that surface and change during these decades of life (e.g. love and intimacy, the meaning of work, responsibility and care, mending and remaking of identity, and reconciliations in familial and marital contexts), and enjoin theological reflection on how life's curriculum can move us toward a deeper valuing of steadfast love; care for future generations, justice in our world and movement toward the shalom community. Focusing primarily on a North American context, this class considers how such dynamics as changing patterns in life expectancy, women in the work force, wealth and plasticity in adult roles, family structural changes, and increased psychological expectations, have led human scientists to reconceptualizations about what constitutes development in the adult years. Part of the class will entail critiquing how churches, authors and faith-based organizations are also offering a variety of new approaches to strengthen faith in young and middle aged adults.

CD650 TUTORIAL IN CHRISTIAN EDUCATION (1-3)

Gray, Hampton, Johnson-Miller, Kiesling, Marmon, Smith, Stonehouse

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of intermediate studies in Christian Discipleship. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

CD651 PROFESSIONAL FOUNDATIONS OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION (3)Johnson-Miller

Guides students in the process of envisioning the future of Christian education through an exploration of the major figures, issues, and trends throughout the history of Christian education.

CD655 MINISTRY TO CHILDREN THROUGH THE CHURCH (3)Stonehouse

Examines the potential and needs of children in contemporary society, biblical perspectives on children and how they are involved in the faith community, and characteristics of the child's physical, psychosocial, cognitive, moral, and faith development. Explores the ministries a church can provide to support families and involve children in the faith community, nurturing wholeness and faith.

CD656 DISCIPLING CHILDREN IN THE LARGE CHURCH (3)Stonehouse

Examines ministry with children in large churches to discover potentials, challenges, and approaches that provide effective Christian discipling for children and their families. This course involves traveling to visit large churches and learn from their children's ministry staff members followed by research and reflective processing of the experiential learning. Prerequisite: CD655 or additional background reading to be completed before the course begins. Cost in addition to tuition may apply.

CD/YM660 TEACHING THE BIBLE TO YOUTH AND ADULTS (3)Marmon

This course explores the "who, what, where, how, and why?" of teaching the whole Bible to youth and adults (12-112 years of age). Wesleyan theology; the biblical understanding of hospitality; pertinent social science theories of education (learning preferences, gender, age, generational, cultural differences); discipleship resources; and the personal practice of lectio divina all helps us effectively and faithfully communicate God's grand narrative revealed in both Old and New Testaments.

CD663 OLDER ADULT MINISTRY (3)Johnson-Miller

An exploration of the many facets of ministry with older adults. Consideration will be given to critical issues such as the myths and nature of aging, developmental needs and tasks, the spiritual needs of older adults, and care giving. The practical dimensions and models of ministry design and implementation will also be identified. Prerequisite: CD510 or CD511.

CD665 CURRICULUM THEORY, DEVELOPMENT, AND SELECTION (3)Stonehouse

Participants in this course will grow in their understanding of the church as curriculum, the process of curriculum development and design, and principles for selecting curriculum resources to meet the needs of learners and the church. They will develop skills in curriculum design, writing, and the criteria based evaluation and selection of resources for comprehensive Christian discipleship in the local church.

CD/CS670 DISCIPLING FOR EVANGELISM AND SOCIAL JUSTICE (2-3)Gray

An examination of the strategic role of the pastor, minister of discipleship, minister of youth, or other ministry leader in discipling a faith community for commitments to and ministries of evangelism, reconciliation, and social justice. Prerequisite: IS501.

CD/CL/YM690 DISCIPLESHIP DEVELOPMENT THROUGH TRAIL CAMPING (3)Staff

Backpacking experience in Daniel Boone National Forest and/or Sheltowee Trace, with parish-based youth living and working in trail families of eight to ten persons in a summer backpacking trip. Course requires completing Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation and Red Cross first aid certification, readings, and immersion into Appalachian values and culture. Additional fee for students is required for first aid/CPR training and to help cover costs of food, fees and other expenses for the trail camping trip. Prerequisite: CD610 or CD615. Crosslisted as CL690 and YM690.

CD691 DISCIPLESHIP DEVELOPMENT THROUGH RESIDENTIAL CAMPING (3)Kiesling

An experience/training course on site in a church-sponsored residential camp for families/children/youth (as available), in which the student has responsibilities for counseling and teaching tasks, under trained supervision. Includes lifesaving training, approximately 10 days of residential camping experience, and daily training/development seminars. Prerequisite CD510 or YM510.

CD695 DISCIPLESHIP DEVELOPMENT THROUGH PROGRAM PLANNING (3)Staff

A systems approach through the experience of planning and executing a trail camp backpacking trip (CD690). Includes theoretical examination of philosophical and management/administrative models. Utilizes PERT mapping of the trail camping responsibility, and offers opportunity for full leadership responsibilities under supervision. Prerequisites: Either CD510 or YM510, and CD690.

CD699 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP (1-3)Hampton, Johnson-Miller, Kiesling, Marmon, Smith, Stonehouse

Guided, independent, intermediate research in Christian Discipleship. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

CD750 TUTORIAL IN CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP (1-3)Hampton, Johnson-Miller, Kiesling, Marmon, Smith, Stonehouse

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of advanced studies in Christian Discipleship. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

CD799 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP (1-3)Hampton, Johnson-Miller, Kiesling, Marmon, Smith, Stonehouse

Guided, independent, advanced research in Christian Discipleship. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: YOUTH MINISTRY

The first core elective in Servant Ministry can be met by any course in the range, YM510-549.

YM510 FOUNDATIONS OF YOUTH MINISTRY (3)

Hampton

Explores roles and responsibilities of the career youth minister, grounded in the vocation of “ministry as change agency,” including grounding in a theology of youth ministry, studies in formative needs of youth, staff development, resource development and selection, with special attention to maximizing multiple-staff opportunities and responsibilities, ministry through facilitating and empowering staff, and coordinating a multidimensional youth development ministry.

YM550 TUTORIAL IN YOUTH MINISTRY (1-3)

YM551 SEMINAR: MINISTRY WITH YOUTH (1-3)

Staff

Seminar available only in concentrated format. The content and focus of this seminar will address current urgent issues. The seminar will build around nationally known guest faculty who are practicing ministry professionals in the content area. For the seminar, advanced reading/critique preparation and follow-up integrative reflection will supplement the contact hours with the resource person. Faculty serve as campus planners/conveners/professors of record. Credit only. May be repeated up to a total of three hours of credit.

YM599 Independent Research in Youth Ministry (1-3)

Hampton, Kiesling

Guided, independent, introductory research in Youth Ministry. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

M.Div. students who choose to complete the core elective requirement in Servant Ministry by taking a second course in Christian Discipleship can meet this requirement by taking any course in the range, YM610-649.

YM610 COMMUNICATING THE GOSPEL TO YOUTH (3)

Hampton

Communicating the gospel to youth is more than preaching a sermon to teenagers. Communicating the gospel is understanding that learning, change and growth occurs in small groups and large groups, through directive mediation and the spoken word. Effective communications requires that the leader knows their audience. Attention will be given to principles of youth education, learning and teaching style and faith development. You will learn to develop and present: small group studies, sermons and talks, thematic teaching, curriculum for retreats. This course will help you develop the skills and the tools necessary to let the Bible come alive when teaching and communicating with youth.

YM632 THE LIFE OF THE YOUTH PASTOR (2)Staff

This course will explore principles of organization for the Youth Pastor; the relationship of personality to leadership styles and practices that form the Youth Pastor. This course assumes that the practice of youth ministry and spirituality are intimately related.

YM650 TUTORIAL IN YOUTH MINISTRY (1-3)Hampton, Kiesling

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of intermediate studies in Youth Ministry. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

CD/YM660 TEACHING THE BIBLE TO YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULTS (3)Hampton

This course examines the specific question of how the educational ministry of the local church might be enhanced by the deliberate integration of a contemporary understanding of the teaching-learning process. The course will give careful attention first to the principles of adult and youth education and then to the practical issues of planning and implementing Bible study programs.

YM665 YOUTH CULTURE AND TRENDS (2)Hampton

This course explores the issues facing youth today including sex, drugs/alcohol, media, music, family pressures, and modern philosophies. Students will examine theories of adolescent development, observe teenagers in secular and church settings, and prepare to minister to youth as they struggle with the issues of their culture.

YM670 POSTMODERN ISSUES IN YOUTH MINISTRY (2)Hampton

This course explores the dynamics of living in a postmodern culture and its attendant impact on the church and its ministry to adolescents. The focus is on developing a theology of youth ministry, which takes seriously the unique needs of postmodern students, and then looks at how that theology should culminate in specific practices of ministry to youth. Special attention is given to the fact that we are living "between worlds" and how our ministries need to become bilingual, speaking both the language of faith and the language of culture.

CD/CL/YM690 DISCIPLESHIP DEVELOPMENT THROUGH TRAIL CAMPING(3)Staff

Backpacking experience in Daniel Boone National Forest and/or Shelton Trace, with parish-based youth living and working in trail families of eight to ten persons in a summer backpacking trip. Course requires completing Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation and Red Cross first aid certification, readings, and immersion into Appalachian values and culture. Additional fee for students is required for first aid/CPR training and to help cover costs of food, fees and other expenses for the trail camping trip Prerequisite: CD610 or CD615. Crosslisted as CL690 and YM690.

YM695 YOUTH MINISTRY DEVELOPMENT THROUGH PROGRAM PLANNING (3)Staff

A systems approach through the experience of planning and executing a trail camp backpacking trip (CD690). Includes theoretical examination of philosophical and management/administrative models. Utilizes PERT mapping of the trail camping responsibility, and offers opportunity for full leadership responsibilities under supervision. Prerequisites: Either CD510 or YM510, and CD690.

YM699 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN YOUTH MINISTRY (1-3)

Hampton, Kiesling

Guided, independent, intermediate research in Youth Ministry. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of advanced studies in Youth Ministry. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

YM799 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN YOUTH MINISTRY (1-3)

Hampton, Kiesling

Guided, independent, advanced research in Youth Ministry. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: CAMPUS MINISTRY

Option for Campus Ministry in the M.Div. Program

Persons who are creating cutting-edge campus ministries consistently report that to be effective they have needed both the formational training offered in the M.Div. program and specialized training aimed particularly at the campus ministry context. As a result, the School of Theology offers a concentration of campus-ministry classes and experiences (e.g., supervised internships, teleconferencing, seminars, peer- and professor-led mentoring programs) within the M.Div. Coursework is designed to form the campus minister to be theologically and biblically grounded, holy in heart and life, developmentally aware, contextually sensitive, morally and intellectually acute, and spiritually winsome. The following courses allow the student whose calling is to a ministry among youth adults the opportunity to design in consultation with his or her faculty advisor an educational pathway specific to a vision for campus ministry.

The first core elective requirement in Servant Ministry for the M.Div. can be met by any course in the range, CM510-549.

CM510 FOUNDATIONS OF CAMPUS MINISTRY (3)

Kiesling

Provides orientation and immersion into research-based understandings of young adult development and spiritual formation, and explores effective ministry approaches for the college/university student. Designed for the recent college/university graduate who is exploring career campus ministry. (When taught through the School's Extended Learning program, CM510 allows students who are in campus internships to participate.)

CM550 TUTORIAL IN CAMPUS MINISTRY (1-3)

Kiesling

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of introductory studies in Campus Ministry. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

CM551 RESEARCH AND EXPERIENCE IN CAMPUS SPIRITUAL DIRECTION (3)

Staff

This readings-and-research study is designed to be executed while the student serves as a campus ministry intern. Exploration of current research-based findings about intellectual, moral, and spiritual development potentials for the college years will establish a basis for the intern in campus ministry to complete observation and pilot exploration of urgent issues in enhancing campus ministry. Available on contract demand. Prerequisite: CM510.

CM552 RESEARCH AND EXPERIENCE IN CAMPUS DISCIPLESHIP AND MENTORING (3)

Staff

Campus-based interns, in consultation with the professor, will establish a basic understanding and develop a proposal for a semester-long experience in discipling and mentoring. The proposal is then implemented in the campus internship, augmented by mentoring from the Asbury faculty. Prerequisites: CM510 and CM551.

CM599 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN CAMPUS MINISTRY (1-3)Kiesling

Guided, independent, introductory research in Campus Ministry. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

CM601 CAMPUS MINISTRY SEMINAR (1-3)Staff

Seminar available only in concentrated format. The seminar integrates ministry experience with biblical, theological, and philosophical principles. Evangelism, discipleship, counseling, and programming ministry for college/university students is explored in light of campus culture and trends. Credit, no credit.

M.Div. students who choose to complete the core elective requirement in Servant Ministry by taking a second course in Christian Discipleship can meet this requirement by taking any course in the range, CM610-649.

CM650 TUTORIAL IN CAMPUS MINISTRY (1-3)Kiesling

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of intermediate studies in Campus Ministry. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

CM699 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN CAMPUS MINISTRY (1-3)Kiesling

Guided, independent, intermediate research in Campus Ministry. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

CM750 TUTORIAL IN CAMPUS MINISTRY (1-3)Kiesling

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of advanced studies in Campus Ministry. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

CM799 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN CAMPUS MINISTRY (1-3)Kiesling

Guided, independent, advanced research in Campus Ministry. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: TECHNOLOGY IN MINISTRY

IT501 TECHNOLOGY IN MINISTRY (3)

Boyd

An experience-based course focusing on the production of print materials, computer graphics, and video materials for use in ministry. Foundational skills will be developed in photographic composition, visual design/layout, and instructional design. Course culminates in the presentation of a worship service utilizing technology.

IT550 TUTORIAL IN TECHNOLOGY IN MINISTRY (1-3)

Staff

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of introductory studies in Technology in Ministry. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

IT599 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN TECHNOLOGY IN MINISTRY (1-3)

Staff

Guided, independent, introductory research in Technology in Ministry. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

IT601 ADVANCED VIDEO PRODUCTION (3)

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: PASTORAL CARE

PC501 STEPHEN MINISTRY TRAINING AND LEADERSHIP (1)

Staff

The Stephen Series is a system of lay caring ministry developed for use in the church setting. The program trains and supports lay people as they care for others in their communities who are in need or in crisis. We have adapted this program for our seminary setting. Students will learn care-giving skills such as listening and experience care-giving in one-on-one situations. There are four training/practicum options available, each for one hour credit. Course repeatable up to four hours total. An interview is required with the Director of Student Services. Credit only.

The core elective requirements in Servant Ministry for the M.Div can be met through coursework in the range, PC510-549.

PC510 THE SERVANT AS PASTORAL CARE-GIVER (3)

Headley, Mucherera

Undertakes the task of forming pastoral care givers who focus on the value of persons and their relationships, who know the history of pastoral care, the major therapeutic models, and the application of biblical principles to pastoral care and counseling, with the result that they can identify basic human problems and respond appropriately through pastoral care and counseling.

PC515 PASTORAL CRISIS INTERVENTION (3)

Mucherera

A study of the theory and practice of pastoral counseling crisis intervention based on the premise that crises are an essential aspect of any structured understanding of human life and development. The course will cover episodes of crisis in people's lives where the stakes are high for disintegration or for growth. Theoretical orientation to crisis and clinical intervention techniques for various types of crises will be taught and practiced. Theological and faith issues such as theodicy during crisis events will be examined.

PC550 TUTORIAL IN PASTORAL CARE (1-3)

Headley, Holeman, Mucherera

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of introductory study in Pastoral Counseling. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

PC599 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN PASTORAL CARE (1-3)

Headley, Holeman, Mucherera

Guided, independent, introductory research in Pastoral Care. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

PC610 THE PASTOR AND MARRIAGE (3)

Staff

A combined educational and enrichment experience for seminary students and their spouses. Focuses upon the pastor's own marriage and ministry related to marriage in the parish context. Prerequisite: PC510 or CO601.

PC650 TUTORIAL IN PASTORAL CARE (1-3)Headley, Holeman, Mucherera

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of intermediate study in Pastoral Care. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

PC655 CLINICAL PASTORAL EDUCATION (3, 6)Mucherera

The learning of pastoral care through participation in programs accredited by the Association of Clinical Pastoral Education. Emphasis is placed upon the interpersonal relationships of the student under the supervision of certified chaplains. Includes lectures, interviews, readings, and case presentations, along with individual and group discussions led by chaplains, pastors, and guest lecturers. Taught at approved Association of Clinical Pastoral Education (ACPE) or College of Supervision and Psychotherapy (CSP) Centers. Application needs to be made three months prior to the start of the unit. Prerequisite: PC510 or PC515 (M.Divs.) or CO601 and CO655 (MAs.); and interview by chaplain (cost borne by student). Recommended for middlers and seniors. Credit only.

CPE Tuition Payment Policy

When a student has been accepted for Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) training, the student will pay tuition to Asbury Theological Seminary according to the number of academic credit hours she or he has registered for CPE credits (3 or 6 credit hours). Asbury Theological Seminary will then pay the CPE training center where the student is receiving supervised training. Payment will be made in two installments: 2/3 at the beginning of the CPE training, 1/3 when the Seminary receives the student's final evaluation. The Seminary will pay the CPE tuition unit fees and regional fees, but it is not responsible for the application fee or for charges for workshops or conferences that might be attended by the student while doing CPE. In no case will the balance paid by the Seminary to the CPE training center exceed the amount of tuition paid to the Seminary by the student.

PC660 PRACTICUM IN PASTORAL CARE (3)Staff

Utilizes the resources of general hospitals, psychiatric settings, and other clinical settings to assist students in their development of an effective pastoral care methodology. Clinical assignments, interpersonal groups, and didactic seminars on relevant topics form the structure of this course. Limited by positions available in each setting. M.Div. students: middlers and seniors. Prerequisite: : PC510 or PC515 (M.Div.) or CO601 and CO655 (M.A.) Credit only.

PC699 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN PASTORAL CARE (1-3)Headley, Holeman, Mucherera

Guided, independent, intermediate research in Pastoral Care. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

PC750 TUTORIAL IN PASTORAL CARE (1-3)Headley, Holeman, Mucherera

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of advanced study in Pastoral Care. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

PC755 ADVANCED CLINICAL PASTORAL EDUCATION (3, 6)Mucherera

A continuation of PC655, with the student given greater responsibility for the development of a personal program and philosophy of pastoral care. See PC655 for CPE Tuition Payment Policy. Prerequisite: PC655; and interview by chaplain. Credit only.

PC799 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN PASTORAL CARE (1-3)Headley, Holeman, Mucherera

Guided, independent, advanced research in Pastoral Care. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

A mentoring group for students in Christian Leadership, designed to integrate a required field experience within an interactive, personal development model. Prerequisite: MM514. Credit only.

MM615 MENTORED MINISTRY IN WORLD MISSION AND EVANGELISM (2)Staff

M.A. students majoring in world mission and evangelism must complete a cross-cultural field experience through a mission study event; a field-based course such as MS661, MS662, MS663, or MS685, or a self-secured semester-long placement. Arrangements are made through ESJ Faculty Advisor prior to the third semester of studies. Credit only.

MM650 TUTORIAL IN MENTORED MINISTRY (1-3)Staff

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of intermediate study in Mentored Ministry. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

MM699 INDEPENDENT STUDY IN MENTORED MINISTRIES (1-3)Staff

Guided, independent, field experience in Mentored Ministry. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract, and with approval of the Director of Mentored Ministries. Prerequisite: MM601, MM602. Credit only. May be repeated.

MM701 INTERNSHIP (3, 6)Staff

Part or full-time intensive involvement in ministry (3 credits=200 hrs; 6 credits=400 hrs.), usually 15-30 hours per week, over the semester. Interns contact (including at least two meetings and submitting field-experience reports) with a trained ATS faculty member and meet weekly with a seminary approved on-site Supervisor/Mentor. Various reflective tools are incorporated. Student are responsible for securing a ministry position that must then be approved by the Mentored Ministry Office. Prerequisite: MM601. Credit only.

MM711/712 MENTORED MINISTRY IN CHRISTIAN EDUCATION/YOUTH MINISTRY-3 (2)Staff

A senior reflection group that considers continued ministry experiences; a series of provided case studies; and issues unique to the transition from seminary to full-time ministry (resume, interviews, finances, time management, accountability, conflict, etc.). "Theology of Ministry" paper serves as the main tool in pulling together seminary learning and ministry experience. Prerequisites: MM511/512, MM611/612. Credit only.

MM713 MENTORED CAMPUS MINISTRY (1-6)

Mentored ministry experience in an approved campus ministry setting. May be repeated for as many as 6 units of credit. Prerequisite: MM603. Credit only

MM714 S.H.A.R.E. MENTORING PROGRAM (1)

This one hour, credit/no credit mentoring initiative for students in Christian Leadership will integrate hands-on field experience learning in the context of intentional interpersonal interactions as they participate in Sharing Holiness Academic Relationships and Experiences. This mentoring initiative is a response to the request of senior leadership majors to “give themselves away” in relationship to those individuals new to Asbury Seminary and the Master of Arts in Christian Leadership degree program.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY AND FORMATION

Connecting students with the Church through the centuries, the School of Theology and Formation focuses on how Christians have formulated their faith, worship God, grow in grace and live in the world as responsible disciples of Jesus Christ.

Seven Academic disciplines are represented in the School of Theology and Formation: Theology, Philosophy, Church History, Worship, Church Music, Church and Society and Spiritual Formation.

The disciplines of Theology, Philosophy and Church History inquire into the basic aspects of Christian thought in order to enable persons to know the foundation for believing in God, to understand God's ways in the world, and to reflect theologically as they minister in the church and the world. Dimensions of faith are examined from methodological, doctrinal, critical, historical, biblical, philosophical, and ethical perspectives.

The disciplines of Spiritual Formation and Christian Ethics and Society focus on Wesleyan understandings of holiness which are distinctive in their emphasis on both the personal and the social dimensions of Christian Formation and responsibility. Courses in these areas contribute to the preparation of students for ministry through attention to practices, disciplines and theoretical underpinnings of spiritual and moral formation. In Christian Ethics and Society courses students receive training for analysis of, and ministry within, various cultural and institutional contexts. A number of courses provide experience in and reflection on specific ministry settings (e.g., pastoral, urban, institutional). In Spiritual Formation classes students receive guidance for integrating spirituality and ministry and for offering personal as well as corporate spiritual direction.

The disciplines of Worship and Church Music apply classical, historical, and systematic studies to the life of the church. Biblical, theological, historical and practical studies are brought to bear on the elements of prayer, Scripture and music for the whole congregation in corporate worship. Worship classes discuss theology and function. Church Music explores historical, contemporary, and theoretical appreciations. The focus of worship courses rests in showing the power and purpose of worship with a view to leadership, and the focus of music moves in the direction of viewing music as integral to the totality of Christian ministry.

The task of theology is an ongoing one that involves the whole person. Though the content of faith revealed by God is once-and-for-all given, its articulation must be made relevant to each generation and in ever-changing contexts. Special attention is given to the Wesleyan-Arminian understanding of Christian theology within the wider classical Christian tradition and contemporary thought.

The M.Div. degree initiates students into the basic aspects of Christian theology and the Christian tradition in order to enable them to know God, to understand God's ways in the world, to think theologically, and to practice ministry with theological insight and sensitivity.

Giving special attention to the Wesleyan-Arminian perspective, students shall develop an understanding of Christian theology that will enable them to:

1. Articulate its unfolding development in church history;
2. Understand the key issues in religious philosophy;
3. Develop an ability to understand the importance of theological method that underlies and informs the task of forming and articulating Christian doctrine;
4. Describe the basic categories and content of systematic theology;
5. Interpret the contemporary relevance of the Wesleyan doctrinal distinctives;
6. Develop the ability to integrate orthodoxy, spiritual formation, and orthopraxy.

The M.Div. requires coursework in Theology and Formation in two categories, Core Courses and Core Electives:

Core Courses:

- ST501 Method and Praxis in Theology (3)
- DO501 Basic Christian Doctrine (3)
- CH501 Church History—1 (3)
- CH502 Church History—2 (3)
- PH501 Philosophy of Christian Religion (3)
- CS601 Christian Ethics (2)

Core Electives:

- Christian Ethics and Society – 1(3)
(Choose any course within the range, CS610-639 and CS651-698).
- Understanding the World – 1(3)
(Choose any course within the range, CS610-649).
- Music and Worship – 1(3)
(Choose any course within the range, MU510-549 and WO510-549).

Having successfully completed the core elective requirement in Christian Ethics and Society, students should be able to:

1. Graduates will demonstrate enhanced understanding of and commitment to personal and social holiness through practices of moral, personal, and spiritual formation, in a context of accountability to a community of faith, and dependence on the Spirit of Christ.
2. Demonstrate competence with various biblical and Christian traditions used in responding to selected moral issues;
3. Demonstrate competence with various ethical categories and frameworks used in responding to specific contemporary moral issues;
4. Demonstrate competence in utilizing social, cultural, and/or historical analysis in response to contemporary moral issues;
5. Apply ethical analysis in developing responses to moral issues at a congregational and/or institutional level; and
6. Recognize the distinctive insights arising from particular social locations.

Having successfully completed the core elective requirement in Understanding the World, students should be able to:

1. Graduates will demonstrate enhanced understanding of and commitment to personal and social holiness through practices of moral, personal, and spiritual formation, in a context of accountability to a community of faith, and dependence on the Spirit of Christ.
2. Demonstrate a basic awareness of the cultural dimensions of effective ministry;
3. Utilize selected tools from socio-economic and political analysis for interpreting and addressing issues;
4. Describe examples of cross-cultural ministry and service; and
5. Explain how individual Christians and Christian communities can respond to the needs, contexts, and insights of various cultural groups and marginalized communities in society and in the church.

Having successfully completed the core elective requirement in Worship and Church Music, students should be able to:

1. Graduates will demonstrate enhanced understanding of and commitment to personal and social holiness through practices of moral, personal, and spiritual formation, in a context of accountability to a community of faith, and dependence on the Spirit of Christ.
2. Demonstrate an understanding of the diversity of ways of Christian worship, together with self-critical perspective on one's own preferences and commitments in worship;
3. Enrich congregational worship in prayer, word, and sacraments; and
4. Make sound worship decisions based on historical, theological, and pastoral concerns
5. Demonstrate appropriate behavior in all forms of worship.
6. Articulate a basic understanding of how music functions in Christian worship.
7. Articulate a theology and philosophy of music that orients one's practices in Christian worship.
8. Evidence familiarity with varied corporate worship styles and articulate how music functions fruitfully in each.
9. Demonstrate awareness of music and musical resources for worship, including special services of worship (e.g., funerals, weddings, baptisms)
10. Demonstrate an awareness and appreciation of the broad-based history of the use of music in Christian worship.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

Gutenson, Perez, Wood

An introductory course relating method to practice in theology. This course will involve an examination of different ways in which the Christian tradition has understood the sources, norms, and criteria for the development of church doctrine. Special attention is given to a critical analysis of contemporary theological methods and the influence of postmodern science. The connection between theological method and Christian doctrine, especially the doctrine of divine revelation, will serve as the centerpoint for developing an Evangelical/Wesleyan theology in the postmodern world. This class is designed for beginning students and serves as preparatory study for all course offerings in theology.

ST550 TUTORIAL IN SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY (1-3)

Staff

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of introductory study in Systematic Theology. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

ST551 THEOLOGY OF DISCIPLESHIP (2-3)

Coppedge

A seminar designed for understanding the biblical and theological bases of the theory and practice of discipleship. Includes a survey of current literature and the distinctive contributions of Wesleyan theology and practice to discipleship. 3 hours for grade; 2 hours for credit/no credit. Prerequisite: ST501.

ST599 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY (1-3)

Staff

Guided, independent, introductory research in Systematic Theology. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

ST620 THE EMOTIONS, FEELINGS, AND PASSION (3)

Wood

Focuses on the role of the emotions, feelings, and passions for one's religious beliefs. Although the design of this course is theological in method, it includes the psychological dimension since its purpose is to understand the relationship between believing and feeling.

ST640 THE THEOLOGY OF DIETRICH BONHOEFFER (3)

Seamands

An introduction to the theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer through the study of his major writings. Special attention is given to events in his life which influenced the development of his thought. Prerequisite: ST501.

ST645 THE THEOLOGY OF KARL BARTH (3)

Seamands

Traces Barth's development as a theologian and his critique of liberalism. Special attention is given to his own major theological emphases as found in his Church Dogmatics. Prerequisite: ST501.

ST650 TUTORIAL IN SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY (1-3)Staff

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of intermediate study in Systematic Theology. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

ST/MS680 CONTEMPORARY CULTS (3)Staff

A study of the historical and theological origins and development of cultic phenomena in contemporary American religion. Prerequisite: ST501 or DO501.

ST699 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY (1-3)Staff

Guided, independent, intermediate research in Systematic Theology. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

ST700 THEOLOGY OF HISTORY (2)Wood

A study of various philosophies and theologies of history, ancient and modern, with a view to delineating the Christian concept of history. Prerequisite: ST501.

ST750 TUTORIAL IN SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY (1-3)Staff

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of advanced study in Systematic Theology. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

ST/BS753 THE HUMAN PERSON: MULTIDISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES (3)Green

This seminar probes the relationship of recent findings in the neurosciences to traditional Christian understandings of the human person by pressing two questions: (1) How do the innovations in our understanding of the human person which derive from the neurosciences impinge on the sort of portraits of the human person we find in Christian Scripture and classical Christian faith? (2) In terms of a coherent Christian faith, ethics, and the practices generally associated with Christian life and ministry (e.g., spirituality, evangelism, pastoral care), what is at stake in the interaction of science and theology at this point? Prerequisites: OT520 and NT 520 (or BS501-502), ST501.

NT/ST754 JAMES AND 1 PETER: NEW TESTAMENT EXEGESIS AND CONSTRUCTIVE THEOLOGY (3)Green

What is the relationship between biblical exegesis, on the one hand, and the disciplines of theology and ethics on the other? This seminar will employ these two New Testament letters, James and 1 Peter, as case studies in the relationships among these theological disciplines. Prerequisites: NT500 or 501, NT 520, and either ST501 or CS601.

ST755 CONTEMPORARY CONTINENTAL THEOLOGY (2)Wood

Deals analytically with the various types of theology dominant in European theological thought. Special attention is given to the antecedents of today's movement in the early decades of this century. Prerequisite: ST501.

ST760 CONTEMPORARY AMERICAN THEOLOGY (2)Seamands

Examines the major types of theology which are prominent in North American theology today through the reading of representative primary texts. Prerequisite: ST501.

ST765 CONTEMPORARY THIRD-WORLD THEOLOGIES (2)Seamands, Wood

Examines the major perspectives, themes, and figures in contemporary Latin American, Asian, and African theology. Special attention is given to the relationship of theology to its cultural context and to the theology of liberation. Prerequisite: ST501.

ST799 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY (1-3)Staff

Guided, independent, advanced research in Systematic Theology. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

ST850 MASTER OF ARTS THESIS (6)Staff

A culminating project for the Master of Arts (Research) in Theological Studies. For policies and procedures, see p. 24. Credit only.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION

PH501 PHILOSOPHY OF CHRISTIAN RELIGION (3)

Gutenson, Walls, Wood

Pursues these objectives: a survey of philosophical method, a study of the mutual impact of the Christian faith and philosophical discourse upon each other, a reflection upon the overlap between Christian and philosophical ethics, and a critical assessment of the relationship between the Christian understanding of reality and other ways of perceiving it.

PH510 LOGIC (3)

Walls

A course in basic symbolic logic that also covers fallacies and induction. Students will be oriented to critical thinking and introduced to logic as a powerful tool to facilitate analysis and assessment of all literature, including theological literature.

PH550 TUTORIAL IN PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION (1-3)

Gutenson, Walls, Wood

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of introductory study in Philosophy of Religion. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

CH756 THE THEOLOGY OF JOHN CALVIN (3)

O'Malley, Seamands

An introduction to the theology and ministry of John Calvin through an intensive study of his Institutes of the Christian Religion. Prerequisite: CH501 (or CH500, for students in MA programs not requiring CH501-502).

CH799 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN CHURCH HISTORY (1-3)

Choi, Chilcote, Collins, O'Malley, Tuttle

Guided, independent, advanced research in Church History. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

CH850 MASTER OF ARTS THESIS (6)

Staff

A culminating project for the Master of Arts (Research) in Theological Studies. For policies and procedures, see p. 24. Credit only.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: CHRISTIAN ETHICS AND SOCIETY

CS550 TUTORIAL IN CHRISTIAN ETHICS AND SOCIETY (1-3)

Magallanes, Pohl, Thobaben

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of introductory study in Christian Ethics and Society. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

CS599 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN CHURCH IN SOCIETY (1-3)

Magallanes, Pohl, Thobaben

Guided, independent, introductory research in Christian Ethics and Society. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

CS601 CHRISTIAN ETHICS (2)

Magallanes, Pohl, Thobaben

Prepares students to analyze and address the moral life from a Christian perspective. Introduces students to historical and contemporary sources for Christian ethics. Explores how responses to moral problems and integrity shape the Christian community. Provides a foundation for further studies in Christian ethics and for congregational/institutional responses to social and moral concerns. Prerequisite: IS501.

The core elective requirement in Understanding the World and in Christian Ethics can be met by courses in the range, CS610-39.

CS610 WOMEN IN CHURCH AND SOCIETY (3)

Pohl

Drawing upon the insights of biblical theology, history, sociology, and anthropology, this course explores the places of women in society and in the church — both as they are and as they should be. Examines various views of how maleness and femaleness are instilled by society and nourished in the church. Critically analyzes feminist thought and the experience of women in the U.S. and other cultures for the insights they may provide. Develops a vision of redeemed community in which there is sensitive communication along with mutually edifying relationships. Prerequisite: CS601.

CS620 HISPANIC THEOLOGY AND SOCIAL ETHICS (3)

Magallanes

This course provides an introduction to the history, culture, economics, and politics of the Hispanic/Latino(a) presence in the U.S., through studying the main Hispanic/Latino(a), key themes, and methods of this recent theological articulation that emerges from the religious life, shared experiences, and struggles of Latinos and Latinas in the U.S. This course will assist students in developing practical applications and tentative responses in welcoming and reaching out to Hispanics in the U.S. in their places of ministry. Prerequisite: CS601.

CS621 HISPANIC HISTORY, THEOLOGY, AND MINISTRY (3)

Staff

An examination of the relationship between the dominant white majority and Hispanic groups within the United States, the Hispanic experience in America, and their contribution to what constitutes the American experiment. The role of the church as both perpetrator and reconciler will be considered. Prerequisite: CS 601.

CS625 BLACK HISTORY, THEOLOGY, AND MINISTRY (3)Gray

An examination of black history with a view toward better understanding of the black pilgrimage in the North American environment, and the black consciousness that has emerged. Explores theologies and approaches to ministry that have developed out of this consciousness. Prerequisite: CS601.

The core elective requirement in Understanding the World can be met by taking courses in the range, CS640-49.

CS632/MS652 CHRISTIAN MINISTRY IN A MULTICULTURAL SOCIETY (3)Magallanes

This course equips and prepares students for Christian ministry in a multicultural society. It is designed to provide historical, sociological, theological and ethical foundations for ministry in a diverse society; to provide relevant models for developing a multicultural approach to ministry; and to assist in developing practical applications and new ministry programs that are relevant and meaningful for a multicultural, pluralistic, and diverse society. Prerequisite: CS601.

CS637 RURAL COMMUNITY AND MORAL CONCERNS (3)Thobaben

Though the U.S. population has "urbanized" over the past century, substantial portions remain in rural areas. Many seminary students will take positions in such settings upon graduation. To properly serve, students should gain knowledge about the economic and social structure of rural communities. CS643 introduces students to appropriate secular literature and resources, and provides Christian models for responding to various moral problems and conflicts. Particular ethical foci for the course are the cultural interpretations of n/Nature, land, work, stewardship, and Christian service. Costs include tuition and travel. The course is to be offered in conjunction with AMERC. Prerequisite: CS601.

CS640 SOCIOLOGY OF RELIGION (3)Thobaben

This course is designed to prepare students for ministry by training them to analyze the structure, function, role, and interpretation of religion at the turn of the 21st century. Students are introduced to classical and contemporary sociological interpretations of religion, taught the vocabulary of the sociology of religion, and introduced to qualitative and quantitative research methods. The primary emphasis throughout the course will be on Christianity, specifically in the Northern Hemisphere. References to other religions and to non-Western expressions of Christianity are included to facilitate integration of the Sociology of Religion material with material from other courses. Prerequisite: CS601.

CS641 SOCIAL WORK AND THE CLERGY (3)Staff

A survey of public and private social service delivery systems and the profession of social work. Focuses on the minister's role in problem identification and referral for the purposeful utilization of community resources. Prerequisite: CS601.

CS642 MAJORITY-MINORITY RELATIONS (3)Gray

An examination of the relationship between the dominant white majority and ethnic minority groups within the United States, their experience in America, and their contribution to what constitutes the great American experiment. Additionally, the question of the role of the church as both perpetrator and reconciler will be considered. Prerequisite: CS601.

CS650 TUTORIAL IN CHRISTIAN ETHICS AND SOCIETY (1-3)Magallanes, Pohl, Thobaben

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of intermediate study in Christian Ethics and Society. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

The core elective requirement in Christian Ethics can be met by courses in the range, CS651-98.

CS651 CHRISTIANITY AND SOCIAL JUSTICE (3)Pohl

To enhance the Christian's understanding of justice, this course examines selected biblical materials, writings of Christian theologians (e.g., Augustine, Calvin, Wesley, R. Niebuhr) and secular writings (Utilitarian, Social Contract, and others) which are particularly instructive on the subject of social justice. Special attention will be given to the way that each perspective views the individual, society, equality vs. inequality, and justice vs. love. Applications to practical problems will be made. Prerequisite: CS601.

CS652 ETHICS OF HOSPITALITY AND CONTEMPORARY CHALLENGES (3)Pohl

This course introduces students to the Christian tradition of offering hospitality to strangers. Students will examine and interact with biblical texts on hospitality and with numerous historical and contemporary practices and writings on hospitality in the church. Students will learn to use hospitality as a moral framework in developing a pastoral response to issues of diversity and inclusion in church and society. Careful attention will be given to tensions and difficulties in welcoming strangers. Prerequisite: CS601.

CS653 THE POOR IN WESLEY'S SOCIAL ETHICS (3)Magallanes

This course is designed to develop ministers who are responsive to the needs of the poor and other marginalized groups in society and church; to provide Wesleyan foundations, ethical and theological, to equip ministers and their congregations for understanding their moral responsibility toward the poor and the oppressed; and to assist in developing practical applications and tentative responses to poverty related issues. Prerequisite: CS601.

CS654 MORALITY AT THE END OF MODERNITY (2-3)Thobaben

The course examines how "modern" culture has been interpreted for society by analyzing fictional portrayals of society, especially utopias and dystopias. The moral implications of various conceptualizations of freedom, free-will, personal identity, etc. are considered in light of changing technologies and forms of social organization. Among the Christian and non-Christian authors whose works are read are: C.S. Lewis, Dostoyevsky, Golding, Huxley, Kafka, MacDonald, and Orwell. Students develop methods for understanding narratives as moral presentations and examine how stories reinforce or challenge social views. Students consider how stories impact the understanding of Christianity in the broader society and how Christians can tell the Gospel story in light of significant social changes. One of the evaluation options includes writing a piece of fiction and, then, analyzing that work using tools developed in the class. Prerequisite: CS601.

NT/CS655 FAITH AND WEALTH IN NEW TESTAMENT PERSPECTIVE (2-3)Green

How closely the New Testament message is related to the realities of human existence at the turn of the third millennium is evident from a consideration of its contents against its socio-economic backdrop. By means of an exploration of the social, economic, and political environment in which the Christian movement took shape in the first century, students will understand better that issues of wealth are no more significant in this industrial-cum-information-cum-cyber era than in the first-century Roman world. This course examines how Jesus and various New Testament writers worked out the socio-economic implications of the gospel in their settings and how their witness might inform and shape our own. Prerequisites: NT520 and CS601.

CD/CS670 DISCIPLING FOR EVANGELISM AND SOCIAL JUSTICE (2-3)Gray

An examination of the strategic role of the pastor, minister of discipleship, minister of youth, or other ministry leader in discipling a faith community for commitments to and ministries of evangelism, reconciliation, and social justice. Prerequisite: CS601.

CS680 BIOETHICS: CHRISTIAN CARE AND CLINICAL ETHICS (2)Thobaben

This course focuses on the bioethical issues that most commonly arise for pastors, chaplains, and other caregivers in clinical settings. Specifically, the course examines the cultural and religious meanings of sickness, disability, and death. The course includes a field trip and consideration of how Christian rituals around death, specifically the funeral, shape moral responses. Prerequisite: CS601.

CS681 BIOETHICS: TECHNOLOGY, CULTURE, AND THE FUTURE (2)Thobaben

This course focuses on the moral concerns arising from the increased application of human biotechnologies. In particular, participants will examine genetic alteration, abortion, stem cell research, organ transplantation, etc. Special consideration will be given to the religious interpretation of humanness and whether Christians should or should not respond to the expanding use of these technologies in the broader society. The course includes, when possible, a field trip to an in vitro fertilization lab. Prerequisite: CS601.

CS682 BIOETHICS: CREATION, AND THE ENVIRONMENT (2)Thobaben

This course focuses on the bioethical issues that most commonly arise for Christians when considering threats/perceived threats to the environment. Specifically, the course examines the cultural and religious meanings of n/Nature, non-human biotechnology, and the evolution/creation debates. This course includes a field trip to an "agbiotech" or ecologically threatened site. Prerequisite: CS601.

CS699 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN CHRISTIAN ETHICS AND SOCIETY (1-3)Magallanes, Pohl, Thobaben

Guided, independent, intermediate research in Christian Ethics and Society. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

CS750 TUTORIAL IN CHRISTIAN ETHICS AND SOCIETY (1-3)Magallanes, Pohl, Thobaben

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of advanced study in Christian Ethics and Society. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

CS799 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN CHRISTIAN ETHICS AND SOCIETY (1-3)Magallanes, Pohl, Thobaben

Guided, independent, advanced research in Christian Ethics and Society. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

CS850 MASTER OF ARTS THESIS (6)Staff

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: SPIRITUAL FORMATION

SF501 INTRODUCTION TO SPIRITUAL FORMATION (3)

Harper, Johnson

A survey that examines the theological and practical dimensions of the spiritual life. Lectures, class discussions, and small-group disciplines are used. Students are encouraged to enrich their own personal spiritual life and are given guidelines for engaging in a ministry of spiritual formation in the local church.

SF502 THE SPIRITUAL LIFE OF THE MINISTER (3)

Staff

The relationship between spirituality and ministry is studied in light of contemporary society, gifts and graces, spiritual disciplines, and ministerial functions. The goal is to equip students to function in ministry with the strengths that a sound spirituality provides.

SF503 THE LIFE OF PRAYER (3)

Staff

The course interprets and applies the biblical principle of “praying without ceasing.” In addition to examining various dimensions of prayer, the course also explores ways that one’s whole life can be prayerful. The course exposes students to both theoretical and practical dimensions including a small-group practicum component.

SF504 PRAYER AND ACTION (3)

Johnson

This course is specifically designed for persons who are currently engaged in ministry (internships, pastorates, etc.) and are seeking ways of integrating prayer and the work of ministry. Students will examine integrative models, utilize reflective tools, and be involved in a “spiritual direction” process throughout this formative experience.

SF510 SPIRITUAL READING (1)

Harper

This course provides an introduction to the formative reading of Scripture and other texts. Working with John Wesley’s method to “read, mark, and inwardly digest” the Bible and other literature, students will learn how this practice has been part of classical spiritual formation since the period of the early church. They will also be guided in the actual practice of spiritual reading, both personally and in community. Credit only.

SF511 PRAYING ALL WAYS (1)

Harper

This course examines the biblical and historical foundations for an ongoing life of prayer, both personally and congregationally. Emphasis is given to the identification of a student’s prayer style, and also to the procedures for developing prayer ministry in the local church. The course aims to interpret the phrase “pray without ceasing” for individual and group prayer, moving prayer from an occasional act to a sustained attitude and environment. Credit only.

SF550 TUTORIAL IN SPIRITUAL FORMATION (1-3)Staff

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of introductory study in Spiritual Formation. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

SF551 CONTEMPORARY PRAYER MOVEMENTS (1)Johnson, Seamands

In 1991, Margaret M. Poloma and George H. Gallup Jr., published their book, Varieties of Prayer. It was a study of a Gallup survey on Religion in American Life. Specifically, it examined the importance of prayer in the lives of Americans. The authors observed: "It is ...accurate to say that most Americans, while believing in prayer, are desperately in need of help in understanding and practicing prayer." In the decade since those words were written, a "prayer movement" has emerged in North America with multifaceted expressions including: national prayer coalitions, united prayer events, churches with prayer coordinators or "prayer pastors," and a multitude of prayer ministries. Most are committed to helping people understand prayer. We believe that it is important for seminarians to have the opportunity to hear from national and international leaders in the prayer movement in order to discover what is happening "in the field," and experience intensive teaching on prayer, to reflect theologically on the ideas presented, and to respond to God's invitation to pray. Each year we invite a prayer leader to campus for a workshop and use this as an opportunity for this kind of creative engagement. May be repeated.

SF560 CHRISTIAN SPIRITUALITY: THOMAS MERTON (3)Staff

Thomas Merton, a Trappist monk, was one of the foremost Roman Catholic thinkers in the latter part of the 20th century. This course will study Merton's concepts of spirituality with special focus on prayer and solitude, contemplation and the cross, obedience and social responsibility.

SF599 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN SPIRITUAL FORMATION (1-3)Staff

Guided, independent, introductory research in Spiritual Formation. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

SF601 THE MINISTRY OF SPIRITUAL GUIDANCE (3)Staff

This course is designed to explore the meaning of spiritual guidance (direction) as well as some of the issues and themes that are often involved in such a ministry. Participants will be expected to meet together for mutual spiritual direction during the semester and, at the end of the semester, to reflect upon some of the issues and dynamics they have experienced through that process. Lectures, videotapes, discussions, and practical exercises will be utilized. The class is designed to be "formational" as well as "informational."

SF602 INTENTIONAL MINISTRY FOR SPIRITUAL FORMATION IN THE LOCAL CHURCH (3)Johnson

This course is built upon the premise that Christian spiritual formation takes place within the context of the church, the Body of Christ. Starting from the perspective of the pastor as a "living reminder" (Nouwen), participants will examine how aspects of our life together can be developed to foster intentional spiritual formation. Some areas for possible exploration include growing groups, designing retreats, discovering gifts, discerning God's guidance, encouraging spiritual friendship, and writing letters of spiritual counsel. The course will utilize lecture, discussion, video, and (when possible) field trips.

SF650 TUTORIAL IN SPIRITUAL FORMATION (1-3)

Staff

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of intermediate study in Spiritual Formation. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

SF699 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN SPIRITUAL FORMATION (1-3)

Staff

Guided, independent, intermediate research in Spiritual Formation. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

CH/SF720 READINGS IN WESTERN SPIRITUALITY (3)

Collins

This course will explore the nature of spirituality and its relevance to contemporary life and ministry by means of critical examination of classic Western spiritual literature, ranging from the work of Plato in the fourth century B.C. to that of Thérèse of Lisieux in the 19th century A.D. Special attention will be given to the work of John Wesley as that which exemplifies the leading themes of both spiritual literature and spiritual formation. Prerequisite: CH501.

SF750 TUTORIAL IN SPIRITUAL FORMATION (1-3)

Staff

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of advanced study in Spiritual Formation. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

SF799 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN SPIRITUAL FORMATION (1-3)

Staff

Guided, independent, advanced research in Spiritual Formation. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: WORSHIP

A core elective requirement in Proclamation can be met by coursework in the range, WO510-549.

WO510 WORSHIP LEADERSHIP IN THE CHURCH (3)

Goold, Ruth

This course lays the foundation for the ministry of the whole congregation in corporate worship. Biblical, theological, historical, and practical focus is brought to bear on the elements of prayer, Scripture, music, and proclamation in terms of the design of services, the keeping of time, and worship space. Attention is given to interpreting, planning, and presiding at the church's principal worship services, sacraments, weddings, and funerals.

WO515 SACRAMENTAL THEOLOGY: CHRIST IN THE CHURCH (3)

Ruth

This course is a basic worship course designed to prepare people in initial skills needed to lead worship in local congregations today. The underlying presumption is this theological notion: fundamentally there is only one sacrament now (the church as the tangible sphere for Christ's ongoing presence in the world). The essential question directing the class will be this: how is Christ's presence manifested in a church's worship? We will answer this question by looking at how Christ is present in the individual elements of worship as well as considering how these individual elements work together as a holistic manifestation of Christ's presence.

WO520 THE HISTORY OF CHRISTIAN WORSHIP (3)

Ruth

A historical survey of different practices and understandings of Christian worship over the past two millennia. This course is designed to come to grips with basic issues in worship, recurring themes and understandings about worship as represented by different traditions, and knowledge of the options for approaching worship renewal today. Care will be given to exploring, in light of liturgical history, whether there are "basics," "essentials," or "non-negotiables" for worship. The course will also attend to developing a legitimate method for historical appropriation to answer this question: how might we borrow with integrity from our Christian past to renew worship today?

WO525 TIME AND REMEMBRANCE IN CHRISTIAN WORSHIP (3)

Ruth

Exploring the importance of time in Christian Scripture and theology, this course investigates the role of remembrance and eschatological hope in Christian worship, and thus how worship participates in the kingdom of God, present and coming. Reviewing different ways Christians have organized time in worship, it will also explore how these insights impact the selection of Scripture for worship and the content of worship's song, sacrament, prayer, and preaching.

WO550 TUTORIAL IN WORSHIP (1-3)

Ruth

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of introductory study in Worship. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

WO599 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN WORSHIP (1-3)Ruth

Guided, independent, introductory research in Worship. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

WO601 PUBLIC WORSHIP: DISCUSSION (2)Ruth

Provides a study-discussion format for interaction with and application of the material of WO510. The primary work of the class will be the planning and designing of worship services to be used on campus and beyond, providing resources to the local church. Students will construct a biblical, theological, and historical matrix within which to evaluate worship services as well as develop a series of worship values to inform sound worship planning. Prerequisite: a course in the range of WO510-549. Credit only.

WO602 PUBLIC WORSHIP: PRACTICUM (3)Ruth

Creates opportunities for primary services of parish worship, in order to evaluate and enhance the student's ability to interpret, plan, and preside at these acts of worship (baptism, Eucharist, prayers, principal service, weddings, funerals). The course is a learning investment in which the criterion for performance is the psychomotor domain, more than the cognitive or affective domains. Prerequisite: a course in the range of WO510-549. Credit only.

WO611 MODELS OF WORSHIP EVANGELISM: BAPTISM WITH INTEGRITY (1)Ruth

Most baptismal services ask candidates for baptism some of the most essential questions in our faith. What would it mean if we took these questions seriously? What would it mean to baptize with integrity? To answer these questions, this course will look at an ancient model of relating worship and evangelism known as the catechumenate, seeing how this model relates to conversion, baptism, and incorporation into a church's worship life. The catechumenate will be explored in both its past historical setting and contemporary attempts to recover it in North America. Of particular interest will be a historical comparison of how certain understandings of God, salvation, and the church find expression in this mode of relating worship and evangelism.

WO612 MODELS OF WORSHIP EVANGELISM: SOCIETAL FELLOWSHIP (1)Ruth

The course will look at a model of relating worship and evangelism as seen in the societal fellowship of early Methodism and in current expressions. Of particular interest will be a historical comparison of how certain understandings of God, salvation, and the church find expression in this mode of relating worship and evangelism.

WO613 MODELS OF EVANGELISTIC WORSHIP: WORSHIP PRAGMATISM (1)Ruth

The course will look at a pragmatic model of relating worship and evangelism. What does the relationship look like when worship is seen as the pragmatic tool of evangelism? This question will be explored in both historic and current expressions. Of particular interest will be a historical comparison of how different understandings of God, salvation, and the church find expression in this mode of relating worship and evangelism.

WO/CA614 WORSHIP AND THE ARTS (3)Torgerson

Humanity is created in the image of God. A part of what this means is that the creativity and imagination that God uses in creation is rooted in our nature and being. We will examine many ways that people have sought (and continue to seek) to celebrate the Holy God, through Christ, by the Holy Spirit, through expressions of the arts in worship. Topics we will explore include creative writing, music (particularly popular and world music), the visual arts, the environment for worship, drama, and movement and postures for worship. We will develop criteria for guiding us as we select expressions to include in corporate worship events and explore practical ways of incorporating artistic offerings in worship.

WO/CH620 WORSHIP, PRAYER, AND COMMUNITY IN THE ANGLICAN TRADITION (3)Staff

The course will survey worship, prayers, and community in the context of the Book of Common Prayer from the sixteenth century reformation through the ecumenical liturgical movement of the twentieth century. The British churches will provide the major focus up to the latter years of the eighteenth century when, with special attention to North America, foreign "Anglican" churches begin to modify the exclusively English setting and character of the Prayer Book. Throughout the course students will be encouraged to relate to the developments of this distinctive tradition with those in other parts of the larger Christian community. Prerequisites: CH501 and CH502. Also listed as CH620.

WO650 TUTORIAL IN WORSHIP (1-3)Ruth

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of intermediate study in Worship. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

WO651 THE ROAD TO REVIVAL: THE ORIGINS OF THE SECOND GREAT AWAKENING AND CAMP MEETINGS (3)Ruth

An exploration of the emergence of revivalism in the early nineteenth century. The role of camp meetings as settings for worship and evangelism in the Second Great Awakening will be of particular interest. The nature of the revival in Kentucky and Tennessee will be highlighted. The course's emphasis will first be upon an historical understanding of the revival and camp meetings, which will provide a springboard for discussion about how worship relates to ecclesiology and soteriology.

WO/PR655 GETTING PREMODERN TO GO POSTMODERN: WISDOM FROM THE EARLY CHURCH FOR PREACHING AND WORSHIP TODAY (3)Pasquarello, Ruth

This course seeks to facilitate a conversation between a Patristic vision of reality and the Postmodern world so as to provoke reflection and discussion about current possible practices of preaching and worship. It will seek to explore a third way for preaching and worship beyond the confines of so-called "contemporary" and "traditional" worship. Prerequisites: WO510, PR610

WO/CA660 SONG LYRICS AND THEOLOGY (3)Ruth

From old song to new song. That will be the method and aim of this course. In it students will follow the footsteps of John and Charles Wesley in using theological training to develop songs for worship. This seminar-type course will explore various collections of classic worship materials, including Wesleyan hymnody, to uncover profound theological themes and motifs. Students will be expected to show theological enrichment by composing lyrics for new worship songs to be shared with the class. Other poetic or liturgical expressions (i.e., a consecratory prayer for the Lord's Supper) are negotiable with the professor. Students' compositions will be evaluated not on the basis of musical quality but on their theological profoundness and suitability for the church's worship of the God revealed in Jesus Christ. Prerequisite: DO501 or ST501.

WO699 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN WORSHIP (1-3)Ruth

Guided, independent, intermediate research in Worship. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

WO/PR700 CREATIVE PREACHING ON THE SACRAMENTS (3)Ruth

The focus of this course is on a specialized form of preaching on the sacraments known as mystagogy (that is, preaching that leads into the mystery of the church). This type of preaching will be explored in its liturgical context in the early church and in modern attempts to reclaim it. The goal will be to assist students in using historical models to develop a theoretical basis to support their practice of connecting Word and Sacrament. Student preaching will be included. This course will thus include these dimensions: historical, theoretical, and practical. Prerequisites: PR610 and a course in the range of WO510-549.

WO750 TUTORIAL IN WORSHIP (1-3)Ruth

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of advanced study in Worship. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

WO799 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN WORSHIP (1-3)Ruth

Guided, independent, advanced research in Worship. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: CHURCH MUSIC

Up to six hours of applied music (private lessons) and/or music ensembles may be applied toward the M.Div. degree or toward any M.A. degree. Non-majors receive credit only for applied music. Auditors may not register for private lessons.

Each student receiving private instruction must rent a practice room for the semester unless other adequate facilities are available. If this is the case, permission for use must be granted by the music faculty. Consult the schedule of charges for private lessons and practice rooms.

In it students will follow the footsteps of John and Charles Wesley in using theological training to develop songs for worship. This seminar-type course will explore various collections of classic worship materials, including Wesleyan hymnody, to uncover profound theological themes and motifs. Students will be expected to show theological enrichment by composing lyrics for new worship songs to be shared with the class. Other poetic or liturgical expressions (i.e., a consecratory prayer for the Lord's Supper) are negotiable with the professor. Students' compositions will be evaluated not on the basis of musical quality but on their theological profoundness and suitability for the church's worship of the God revealed in Jesus Christ. Prerequisite: DO501 or ST501.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: E. STANLEY JONES SCHOOL OF WORLD MISSION AND EVANGELISM

In the fall of 1983, Asbury Theological Seminary began classes in the E. Stanley Jones School of World Mission and Evangelism. Today, the ESJ School serves the World Christian Movement as a graduate school with an intercultural approach to teaching missiology and evangelization.

Like any graduate school of mission, the E. Stanley Jones School of World Mission and Evangelism prepares people for mission in the Two-Thirds World. Furthermore, the School offers courses in the several standard fields within the study of mission — such as mission theology, mission history, cultural anthropology, missional leadership, religious studies and mission strategy.

The School, however, is also intentionally distinctive in several respects. The curriculum's focus includes the “new” mission fields of North America and Europe which have emerged with the secularization of the West. The curriculum prepares students to evangelize, as well as serve, the peoples of the earth in their cultural and religious contexts. The curriculum prepares students for culturally relevant service and witness in other cultures, as well as their own. The curriculum includes a range of courses in communication, evangelism, church growth, church development, church renewal, religious studies, mission history and theology, cross-cultural discipling, leadership and change agent.

In preparing graduates for faithful and effective mission, the students learn to approach mission amidst the distinctive regions, cultures, religious traditions, worldviews, and the social, political and economic struggles of today's shrinking planet. The curriculum features insights from all the major regions and traditions of the World Church.

The School's purpose is to prepare evangelists, church planters, missionaries, national leaders, pastors, mission leaders, mission teachers, evangelism leaders, evangelism teachers, communicators, executives and scholars for the apostolic mission of the Church.

Coursework in the school of world mission and evangelism is driven by several objectives: to prepare persons for cross-cultural ministry and service; to prepare persons for the effective practice of evangelistic ministries; to prepare persons for advanced leadership in mission and evangelism; to advance the literature and lore of missiology and evangelization; and to develop knowledgeable leaders and scholars for the academy and the church. the larger mission behind these objectives is apostolic, involving the intention to advance the Christian movement in the “two-thirds” world and in North America and Europe, including both reached and unreached peoples, believing that the church's mission is entrusted with the word of life, the compassionate lifestyle and the hope of the entire human race.

The curricular resources are deployed through six areas: Behavioral Sciences; Evangelization and Church Growth; Mission Theology, History and Practice; Missional Leadership; Christian Mission; and World Religions and Area Studies.

Where courses are listed both at the 600 and 700 level, the content of the 700 level includes the basic materials of the 600-level course plus additional research and/or writing required to fulfill 700-level course requirements for postgraduate students.

The School of World Mission and Evangelism prepares students for the informed, responsible and effective practice of mission across cultures, and for evangelism within the Christian advocate's respective culture.

Students developing an understanding of the historical, cultural and religious contexts in which informed mission takes place, shall:

1. Articulate a biblical understanding of mission and evangelism in order to inform its practice;
2. Set forth a salient theology of mission that is effectively integrated with their wider biblical and theological studies;
3. Outline from a missiological perspective the historical development of the Christian movement, including their own place within that movement in the contemporary world;
4. Show awareness of the cultural dimensions of effective mission and witness;
5. Contextualize the expression of the Gospel, sensitive to the forms the Church takes in different cultures and subcultures;
6. Engage in and lead effective ministries of evangelism; and
7. Plan and strategize for church growth, including church planting.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

MB 610 LEARNING A LANGUAGE AND CULTURE (3)

Staff

The developed generic methods of applied linguistics which equip the cross-cultural worker with methods of acquiring a field language with maximum efficiency. Meets with MB 710.

MB 700 ANTHROPOLOGY FOR CHRISTIAN MISSION (3)

Rynkiewicz, Ybarrola

An introduction to cultural anthropology, with application to Christian evangelization and mission. Core course for Th.M. D. Miss., and Ph.D. Meets with MS671 on the Wilmore Campus.

MB 710 LANGUAGE AND CULTURE LEARNING (3)

Staff

The developed generic methods of applied linguistics which equip the cross-cultural worker with methods of acquiring a field language with maximum efficiency. Meets with MB610 on the Wilmore Campus.

MB 720 CROSS-CULTURAL COMMUNICATION OF CHRISTIANITY (3)

Accornero, Hunter, Irwin

Studies in the literature of inter-cultural communication, with attention to understanding cultural contexts and barriers, with applications to Christian witness across and within cultures. Cross-listed as MS645.

MB 730 THE CHANGE AGENT IN MISSION (3)

Accornero, Rynkiewicz, Ybarrola

A course in applied anthropology and cultural dynamics with special attention to how culture change occurs, the dynamics and variables that effect change, and appropriate strategies for the Church. The course also deals with contemporary areas of social responsibility for those in mission. Meets with CL/MS 655 on the Wilmore Campus.

MB 735 URBAN ANTHROPOLOGY (3)

Accornero, Rynkiewicz

Studies in the insights of anthropological research to understand the dynamics, problems and opportunities in cities, with implications for evangelism, church growth and church planting. Meets with MS670 on the Wilmore Campus.

MB 740 TUTORIAL IN BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES (1-3)

Staff

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of study. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

MB 750 VALUES AND ETHICS IN CROSS-CULTURAL PERSPECTIVE (3)

Rynkiewicz, Ybarrola

An anthropological approach to the nature and functions of values and ethics in various societies, with special attention to their encounter with Christianity. Meets with MS672 on the Wilmore Campus.

MB 755 HOLISTIC MISSION AND THE USE OF BUSINESS IN GLOBAL OUTREACH (3)Yamamori

Examines the biblical and historical bases of holistic mission and further explores the strategic and effective use of business in global outreach through case studies and the analysis of emerging models.

MB 760 SOCIOLOGY OF RELIGION (3)Thobaben

This course is designed to prepare students for ministry by training them to analyze the structure, function, role, and interpretation of religion at the turn of the 21st century. Students are introduced to classical and contemporary sociological interpretations of religion, taught the vocabulary of the sociology of religion, and introduced to qualitative and quantitative research methods. The primary emphasis throughout the course will be on Christianity, specifically in the Northern Hemisphere. References to other religions and to non-Western expressions of Christianity are included to facilitate integration of the Sociology of Religion material with material from other courses. Students taking this under MB 760 are required to include the consideration of non-Western material. Meets with CS 640.

MB765 COLONIALISM AND NEW-COLONIALISM (3)Rynkiewicz

A study using an anthropological perspective to analyze the economic and political situation of the people with whom we are in mission. Just as 'market forces' affect our lives here, and the violence of world processes comes close to home, so the people with whom we are in mission live daily with the influences of Colonial, Neo-colonial, Postcolonial and Globalizing forces that often disable their economic efforts and discourage their spirits. What does it mean to be in mission with the whole gospel for the whole people of God?

MB 770 THE INDIGENOUS CHURCH (3)Rynkiewicz, Ybarrola

Insights into the development of indigenous churches and forms of witness, with evaluation of church practices in the past and present.

MB 780 CROSS-CULTURAL DISCIPLING (3)Moon

A study of the role of ritual process in the shaping of believers. Rites and ceremonies, especially initiatory rites, from a variety of religious traditions provide both models of the role of ritual in the formation and nurture of persons and models for discipling Christian converts, especially those from traditional religious backgrounds. Students will construct their own structures for the discipling task based upon the insights and models provided by the course. Presupposes MS 674 or MW 708, or permission of the instructor.

MB 790 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES (1-3)Staff

Guided independent research for advanced students. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

MB 800 RESEARCH METHODS IN MISSIOLOGY (3)West, Rynkiewicz

An introduction to the approaches to research design and the research methods typically employed in missiological research. Doctoral students only. Credit only.

MB 810 ADVANCED MISSIOLOGICAL ANTHROPOLOGY (3)Rynkiewicz, Ybarrola

Historical development of anthropological theory as it relates to missiological principles and techniques in cross-cultural religious processes, natural and directed.

MB 820 THE LITERATURE OF MISSIONARY ANTHROPOLOGY (3)Staff

Readings in the normative literature of mission anthropology and closely related research. An advanced seminar or tutorial.

ME 612 CHRISTIAN CONVERSION (3)

Baucum

This course prepares students to analyze and understand the centrality of conversion in the Christian tradition. Students are introduced to classic Christian conversion narratives and reading strategies in order to leverage the wisdom of this tradition for their own spiritual formation and ministry, especially that of evangelization. Meets with MS612 on the Wilmore Campus. Prerequisite: IS501.

ME 630 PLANTING NEW CHURCHES (3)

Crandall, McPhee

An orientation to the theological, sociological and practical dimensions of starting new churches in the United States and other lands. Includes one or more field experiences. Meets with ME 730. on the Wilmore Campus.

ME 700 PRINCIPLES OF CHURCH GROWTH (3)

Hunter, Crandall, McPhee

The foundational principles and strategies of the Church Growth Movement seen as one approach to the issues in mission strategy and evangelization and as a means to inform congregational outreach and expansion. Draws from the apostolic vision and legacy of Donald McGavran. Focuses on both Western and Two-Thirds World Case Studies. Meets with MS 615. on the Wilmore Campus.

ME 710 DYNAMICS PRINCIPLES OF INTERPERSONAL EVANGELISM (3)

Crandall, McPhee

A survey of concepts, models, techniques and training methods employed in interpersonal evangelism. Some cross-cultural considerations. May include field experiences. Meets with Meets with MS625. on the Wilmore Campus.

ME 725 ISSUES OF LITERACY, WORLD ENGLISH, AND COMMUNICATION OF THE GOSPEL WORLDWIDE (3)

Staff

An examination of the relevant history and selected theories of current discussions about the state of literacy (or illiteracy) and economic, social, political, and other implications for practicing the mission of the church in the spirit of John Wesley's theology, both in North American and global contexts. Discussions will also address ways in which the explosion of World English further enhances as well as complicates the situation.

ME 730 PLANTING NEW CHURCHES (3)

Crandall, McPhee

An orientation to the theological, sociological and practical dimensions of starting new churches in both the United States and other lands. Includes one or more field experiences. Meets with ME 630. on the Wilmore Campus.

ME 735 THEOLOGY OF EVANGELISM (3)

Staff McPhee

Various theologies of evangelism will be examined in light of both their historical and contemporary expressions. The course seeks to clarify the basic gospel message and aid students in their design of theologically appropriate methods and motivations for its communication. Meets with MS692. on the Wilmore Campus.

ME 740 TUTORIAL IN EVANGELIZATION AND CHURCH GROWTH (1-3)

Staff

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of study. Consult syllabus for pre-requisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

ME 745 LEADERSHIP OF THE CHURCH FOR THE UNCHURCHED (3)

Hunter

Studies in organization leadership, especially the leadership of change, applied to the contemporary challenge of helping local churches move from tradition to mission and become effective "apostolic" churches. Draws from the writings and legacy of Lyle Schaller. Meets with MS620. on the Wilmore Campus.

ME 750 ADVANCED CHURCH GROWTH (3)

Hunter

A seminar exploring advanced themes, issues, research principles, historical models, regional case studies and recent developments in the Church Growth School of missiology, including some attention to the strategies of Christian movements.

ME 760 MISSION MINISTRY AND EVANGELISM IN THE SMALL CHURCH (3)

Crandall, McPhee

An intensive examination of the special historical, sociological and interpersonal dynamics of smaller congregations, with attention to the challenges and opportunities for evangelism effectiveness in such settings. Meets with MS630. on the Wilmore Campus.

ME 770 RENEWING THE CHURCH FOR MISSION (3)

Snyder, Pachuan

This course focuses on the recurring phenomenon of renewal in the Church as a key aspect of a biblical and contemporary ecclesiology. It seeks an understanding of the work of the Holy Spirit in renewing the Church, drawing from biblical foundations, historical models and contemporary examples of congregational renewal and renewal movements. Application is made especially to the life of the local congregation. Meets with MS635. on the Wilmore Campus.

ME 780 SPIRITUAL WARFARE IN MISSION AND MINISTRY (3)

Staff

This course introduces students to the place of spiritual warfare in mission and ministry. During class topics such as the warfare perspective in scripture; the role of spiritual warfare in Christian history; warfare, worldview, and world religions; spiritual warfare in contemporary world mission; and the practice of ground level and strategic level spiritual warfare will be discussed. A wide variety of teaching methods (lectures, group discussion, videos, guest speakers, etc.) will be used during class sessions.

ME 790 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN EVANGELIZATION AND CHURCH GROWTH (1-3)

Staff

ME 820 EVANGELISM SEMINAR: HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES APPLIED HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES (3)Crandall, Hunter

Readings in influential literatures in the history of Christian evangelism, and in authoritative literatures that interpret the history of the practice of evangelism, including one derivative approach to reaching people in the Recovery Movement. Students will contribute to most of the class sessions from their reading, research, and reflection. The seminar is offered for Th.M., D.Miss., and Ph.D. students, others by consent of the instructor.

ME 830 EVANGELISM SEMINAR: APPLIED RHETORICAL THEORY PERSPECTIVES (3)Hunter, Pasquarello

Readings in influential literatures, from the classical rhetoricians to more contemporary rhetorical theorists, on approaches to the planning and delivery of persuasive discourse, with application to rethinking the rationale, purposes, approaches, and dynamics in evangelistic preaching and other approaches to the public communication of Christianity's message. Students will contribute to most of the class sessions from their reading, research, and reflection.

ME840 EVANGELISM SEMINAR: APPLIED CONVERSION PERSPECTIVES (3)Crandall, Hunter, Staff

Readings in influential literatures, both historic and modern and representing various cultures, that address the essence of Christianity and what it means to be "Christian." Attention will be given to how persons become Christians and the nature of Christian conversion and related topics. Students will contribute to most of the class sessions from their reading, research, and reflection.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: MISSION THEOLOGY, HISTORY AND PRACTICE

MI 600 HISTORY OF THE CHRISTIAN MOVEMENT (3)

Pachuanu

A survey of the expansion of the Christian faith from its beginnings to the present time. Gives attention to emerging factors and themes contributing to advance or decline at key historical junctures and assesses the present state of Christianity in its world-wide spread. Core course for MAWME program. Meets with MI 700 on the Wilmore Campus.

MI 605 THE MAKING OF A MISSIONARY IN THE POST-COLONIAL ERA (3)

Staff

A study of various aspects of the missionary calling with special focus on spiritual formation, cross-cultural living, mission/church relations, language learning and the missionary's family. Appropriate for prospective missionaries and/or those responsible for leading missionary teams.

MI 610 INTRODUCTION TO CHRISTIAN MISSION (3)

Staff

An overview of the biblical, historical, cultural and strategic perspectives of the Christian World Mission seeking to highlight significant issues and dynamics in mission today.

MI 630 BIBLICAL THEOLOGY OF MISSION (3)

Pachuanu

A study of principle texts in the Old and New Testaments dealing with mission, evangelism, discipling and renewal, with attention to relevant scholarly debate regarding their significance. Meets with MI 730. on the Wilmore Campus.

MI 700 HISTORY OF THE CHRISTIAN MOVEMENT (3)

Pachuanu

A survey of the expansion of the Christian faith from its beginnings to the present time. Gives attention to emerging factors and themes contributing to the advance or decline at key historical junctures and assesses the present state of Christianity in its world-wide spread. Core course for Th.M., D. Miss., and Ph.D. Meets with MI 600 on the Wilmore Campus.

MI 715 CONTEXTUAL THEOLOGY (3)

Irwin

A study of the way in which local communities receive the Christian faith and apply it to their writings and traditions. Uses case-study method.

MI 720 MISSION BIOGRAPHIES (3)

Staff

A biographical approach to mission history in which the lives, ministries and theologies of representative figures are studied. While the scope includes the whole range of mission history, the course is conducted as a seminar in which students research and report on persons of particular relevance to their own interests or ministries.

MI 725 SURVEY OF RENEWAL MOVEMENTS (3)Pachau

A survey of renewal movements in the history of the church, ranging from early monasticism and Montanism to contemporary movements. Both unique features and common elements of renewal movements are examined. Particular attention is given to learnings that may be applicable to church life today. ME 770 or MI 600/700 are useful foundations for this course, but not required as prerequisites.

MI 728 MISSION AND GENDER (3)Irwin

A study of the ways women have reconciled their gender identity, role(s) and activities in Christian mission. Investigation of the social, theological and practical influences that shape gendered mission in different eras will be made, with special consideration of cultural and sub-cultural ideas of women missionaries. These will be contrasted with the views of women held by their male colleagues, national workers and mission administrators.

MI 730 BIBLICAL THEOLOGY OF MISSION (3)Pachau

A study of principal texts in the Old and New Testaments dealing with mission, evangelism, discipling and renewal, with attention to relevant scholarly debate regarding their significance. Core course for Th.M. and D.Miss., and Ph. D. Meets with MI 630 on the Wilmore Campus.

MI 735 WESLEYAN THEOLOGY OF MISSION (3)Staff

This course examines the life and theology of John Wesley (1703-91), focusing especially on his understanding and practice of mission. Through a study primarily of Wesley's sermons and other writings, students will seek to discern a Wesleyan theology of mission.

MI 740 TUTORIAL IN MISSION THEOLOGY, HISTORY AND PRACTICE (1-3)Staff

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of study. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

MI 745 SEMINAR IN MISSIOLOGY (0-1 HOUR CREDIT FOR TH.M., D.MISS., PH.D.)Staff

A seminar for Th.M., D.Miss. and Ph.D. students, focusing on the tools of scholarly writing and the perennial and emerging issues in missiology. The seminar meets one and a quarter hours weekly for the fall and spring semesters, and serves as a forum for interaction with visiting leaders in mission and evangelism and as an arena for spiritual formation. Credit only (if applicable).

MI 750 THEORIES AND MODELS OF MISSION (3)Pachau

An examination of the ways Christian mission has been understood historically, with particular focus on Evangelical, ecumenical and Roman Catholic approaches to mission during the 20th century. Attention is given especially to the interrelationships of Gospel, church and culture in theologies of mission.

MI 760 SEMINAR IN MISSION HISTORY (3)Pachuan

A seminar in which students conduct and share research in selected topics in mission history. Typically a particular issue forms the integrating focus of the course (such as mission structures, concepts of the Church, theologies of mission, or leadership development). Assigned readings which explore this issue historically supplement the students' particular research.

MI 770 CHRISTIAN MISSION AND GLOBAL CULTURE (3)Pachuan

An examination of trends and currents which are shaping emerging global culture and an exploration of the challenges and opportunities these provide for authentic Christian witness. Developments in science, technology, economics, philosophy and popular culture are examined for their worldview implications, and the positive and negative aspects of postmodernity are assessed. Meets with MS675 on the Wilmore Campus.

MI 780 POSTMODERN MISSION (3)Rynkiewicz

This course carries on the Asbury tradition that was foundational in 1923; that is, the critique of modernism. The postmodern critique invites us to examine modern mission from a variety of perspectives, especially the concerns for modernity's entanglement with power, materialism and individualism. This course also asks how mission must change to reach postmodern people.

MI 790 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN HISTORY AND THEOLOGY OF MISSION (1-3)Staff

Guided independent research for advanced students. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

MI 880 DOCTORAL SEMINAR IN MISSION (3)Irwin, Staff

Readings in the normative literature of mission theory that all advanced leaders in mission should know. Primarily student led, the professor will direct and encourage the students to assimilate both classic and current literature related to the Christian World Mission.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: MISSIONAL LEADERSHIP

ML 700 DEVELOPING EMERGING LEADERS (3)

West

This course, using the lens of missiological theory, seeks to accelerate the leadership development vision and ethic, to help participants develop culturally appropriate strategies, perspectives, and principles of leadership training for current or anticipated ministry settings.

ML 705 TRANSFORMATIVE LEADERSHIP THEORY (3)

West

This course enhances the leadership reflexes of missional leaders by exploring the contextual nature and transformative implications of leadership. Using a post-modern approach to teaching and learning, case studies of leaders are engaged through various media - film, biography and literature.

ML 720 LEADING THE NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION (3)

West

This course focuses on capacities sought after by executive leaders of nonprofit ministry organizations (NPOs), non-governmental organizations (NGOs), and ministry start-ups, especially those within intercultural contexts. Key priorities of strategic leaders - vision, organizational development, strategic planning, human and financial resources, systems management - make up the focus of the course. Taught as a simulated ministry launch process, the participants explore faith and faithfulness while navigating contingencies within the organizational life cycle of a resource-dependent organization. Meets with CL614.

ML 725 CONTEXTUALIZED LEADERSHIP TRAINING (3)

West

Exploring culturally comparative leadership perspectives, course participants are oriented towards strategic concerns such as: indigenous leadership, campaign evangelism follow-up, dependency and sufficiency models, culturally-determined leadership studies, church-based theological education, contextualization in theological education and specific international examples of the leadership training strategies. Special emphasis is on designing resources and strategies for long-term reproducible models.

ML 755 LEADERSHIP TRAINING: FIELD PRACTICUM (3)

West

Planned as a field-based course, participants will develop missional teams to facilitate contextualized training in selected intercultural contexts. Participants, depending on gifting, preparation and ministry/research interests, will practice theoretical perspectives by developing conferences/seminars, contextualized curricula, and teaching in ministry institutes/schools in international field settings. Prerequisite: ML 725.

ML 760 MISSIONAL LEADERSHIP RESEARCH DESIGN (3)

West

The course provides a historical, theoretical and heuristic orientation to leadership studies for the purposes of conducting doctoral-level research and theory-building in church life, missiology, intercultural studies and evangelism. Participants will design publishable research projects in theory-grounded missional leadership.

ML 780 TEACHING ADULT LEARNERS: DOCTORAL SEMINAR (3)West

Participants are oriented theoretically and technically for careers in teaching and learning. The course addresses androgogical theory and practice, experiential learning, developmental perspectives, and post-modern and multicultural concerns in classroom and campus settings. Learners will also critically develop syllabi, course plans, instructional design, bibliographic materials and instructional technologies. Special emphasis is given to the intercultural teaching of subjects such as: Mission/missiology, ministry, Biblical studies, church/church history, comparative religion, culture and leadership.

ML 790 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN LEADERSHIP (3)Staff

Guided independent research for advanced students. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: CHRISTIAN MISSION

MS550 TUTORIAL IN CHRISTIAN MISSION (1-3)

Staff

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of introductory study in Christian Mission. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

MS599 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN CHRISTIAN MISSION (1-3)

Staff

Guided, independent, introductory research in Christian Mission. See p. 24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May be repeated.

The core elective requirement in Apostolic Ministry for the M.Div. can be met by any course in the range, MS610-649.

MS610 THE MINISTRY OF EVANGELISM (3)

Staff

Drawing on biblical, historical, and cultural foundations, this course enables students to clarify their understanding of and strengthen their commitment to the ministry of evangelism. Contemporary models and resources help students formulate a wholistic plan for personal, congregational, and world evangelization. Fulfills the United Methodist ordination requirement in evangelism. Prerequisite: IS501.

MS612 CHRISTIAN CONVERSION (3)

Baucum

This course prepares students to analyze and understand the centrality of conversion in the Christian tradition. Students are introduced to classic Christian conversion narratives and reading strategies in order to leverage the wisdom of this tradition for their own spiritual formation and ministry, especially that of evangelization. Prerequisite: IS501. Meets with ME612 on the Kentucky Campus.

MS615 PRICIPLES OF CHURCH GROWTH (3)

Crandall, Hunter

The foundational principles and strategies of the Church Growth Movement seen as one approach to the issues in mission strategy and evangelization and as a means to inform congregational outreach and expansion. Draws from the apostolic vision and legacy of Donald McGavran. Focuses on both Western and Two-Thirds World Case Studies. (Meets with ME700 on the Wilmore Campus.) Fulfills the United Methodist ordination requirement in evangelism. Prerequisite: IS501. Meets with ME700 on the Wilmore Campus.

MS620 LEADERSHIP OF THE CHURCH FOR THE UNCHURCHED (3)

Hunter

Studies in organization leadership, especially the leadership of change, applied to the contemporary challenge of helping local churches move from tradition to mission and become effective "apostolic" churches. Draws from the writings and legacy of Lyle Schaller. (Meets with ME745 on the Wilmore Campus.) Fulfills the United Methodist ordination requirement in evangelism. Prerequisite: IS501. Meets with ME745 on the Wilmore Campus.

MS625 PRINCIPLES OF INTERPERSONAL EVANGELISM (3)Crandall, McPhee, Tuttle

A survey of concepts, models, techniques, and training methods employed in interpersonal evangelism. Some cross-cultural considerations. May include visitation-evangelism field experiences. Fulfills the United Methodist ordination requirement in evangelism. Prerequisite: IS501. Meets with ME710 on the Wilmore Campus.

MS630 MINISTRY AND EVANGELISM IN THE SMALL CHURCH (3)Crandall, McPhee

An intensive examination of the special historical, sociological, and interpersonal dynamics of smaller congregations, with attention to the challenges and opportunities for evangelism effectiveness in such settings. (Meets with ME760 on the Wilmore Campus.) Fulfills the United Methodist ordination requirement in evangelism. Prerequisite: IS501. Meets with ME760 on the Wilmore Campus.

MS635 RENEWING THE CHURCH FOR MISSION (3)Pachau

This course focuses on the recurring phenomenon of renewal in the church as a key aspect of a biblical and contemporary ecclesiology. It seeks an understanding of the work of the Holy Spirit in renewing the church, drawing from biblical foundations, historical models, and contemporary examples of congregational renewal and renewal movements. Application is made especially to the life of the local congregation. Fulfills the United Methodist ordination requirement in evangelism. Prerequisite: IS501. Meets with ME770 on the Wilmore Campus.

MS640 WORLD (TRANSCULTURAL) EVANGELISM (3)Tuttle

In an age of increasing mobility across cultural boundaries it becomes more necessary to understand the Christian faith from a global perspective. Several issues, therefore, will be addressed in this course: What is essential for Christian commitment across cultural lines? What parts of our gospel understanding may be culturally bound? What issues transcend cultural boundaries that might assist our communication of the gospel in any culture? Prerequisite: IS501.

MS645 CROSS-CULTURAL COMMUNICATION OF CHRISTIANITY (3)Accornero, Hunter

Studies in the literature of inter-cultural communication, with attention to understanding cultural contexts and barriers, with applications to Christian witness across and within cultures. Prerequisite: IS501. Meets with MB720 on the Wilmore Campus.

MS650 TUTORIAL IN CHRISTIAN MISSION (1-3)Staff

For students with specialized interests/needs in selected areas of intermediate study in Christian Mission. Consult syllabus for prerequisites and course requirements. See p. 24 for academic policy. May be repeated.

The core elective requirement in Understanding the World can be met by courses in the range, MS651-689.

MS/CL651 WOMEN IN MINISTRY (3)Stonehouse, Minger

Acquaints students with matters relating to women in the ordained, diaconal and lay ministries of the church. Consideration is given to both the impact of the church on women and the impact of women on the church from biblical times to the present. The course is interdisciplinary in its structure, investigating the topic of women in ministry from biblical, historical, theological, psychological, sociological, anthropological, and pastoral perspectives. Prerequisite: IS501.

MS652/CS632 CHRISTIAN MINISTRY IN A MULTICULTURAL SOCIETY (3)

Magallanes

This course equips and prepares students for Christian ministry in a multicultural society. It is designed to provide historical, sociological, theological and ethical foundations for ministry in a diverse society; to provide relevant models for developing a multicultural approach to ministry; and to assist in developing practical applications and new ministry programs that are relevant and meaningful for a multicultural, pluralistic, and diverse society. Prerequisite: IS501.

MS653/CL615 CROSS-CULTURAL LEADERSHIP (3)

Accornero, Gray, West

This course examines the role of culture and cultural dynamics in the selection, emergence, and functioning of leadership. Primary attention will be given to leadership dynamics within the multicultural North American context, but consideration will also be given to how American theories and models are appropriated in other cultural contexts. Prerequisite: IS501. Meets with ML715 on the Wilmore Campus.

MS654/CL620 DEVELOPING EMERGING LEADERS (3)

West

An advanced perspective and skill enhancement course which provides a theoretical and practical orientation to leadership development studies through the implicational lens of missiological theory, research, and application. The class helps students accelerate their leadership development vision and ethic, and develop culturally appropriate strategies, perspectives, and principles for training leaders in their current or anticipated ministry settings. Meets with ML700. Prerequisite: IS501. Meets with ML700 on the Wilmore Campus.

MS/CL655 THE CHANGE AGENT IN MISSION (3)

Rynkiewicz, Ybarrola

The underlying assumption of this course is that as cross-cultural witnesses we are by definition agents of change. So we better know something about how change occurs, how to introduce it effectively into organizations, how to evaluate when we should and should not be introducing change, and what is the theological foundation for our involvement. To speak to these issues we have divided the course into four parts: (1) Models of Culture Change, (2) Insights from Applied Anthropology, (3) Problems in Community Development, and (4) The Challenge of Integral Human Development. Prerequisite: IS501. Meets with MB730 on the Wilmore Campus.

MS660 APPALACHIAN/RURAL MINISTRY (3, 6)

Staff

For students planning on ministry in small town or rural churches. The Appalachian Ministries Educational Resource Center (AMERC) offers summer courses which are similar to J-Term, but may include class sessions at the seminary sponsoring the course along with an immersion experience in Appalachia. Includes a systematic study of the religious history of the region, the development of rural Appalachian culture, and social issues currently being faced by churches and people of the region – with research on future trends. Two of the six hours may substitute for MM 602. Financial assistance available. Recommended for middlers and seniors. Offered also in January for three hours (not credited toward Mentored Ministries requirements, however). Credit only. Prerequisite: IS501.

MS661, 662, 663 URBAN MINISTRIES COURSES*Pohl*

These courses are taught in Chicago for credit in the Seminary. MS661 Urban Issues is offered as a three-week course each January and June, and is an acceptable substitute for MM602. Students may also spend a full semester in Chicago and earn from six to 14 hours of Asbury credit. This semester is an acceptable substitute for MM602. See Professor Pohl for details and application materials regarding any of the Chicago opportunities.

MS661 URBAN ISSUES (3)Staff

An investigation of major issues, forces, and changes in the city and churches of Chicago today. Features academic seminars, living in community, and participation in ministry. Mentored Ministries credit and financial assistance available. Credit only. Prerequisite: IS501.

MS662 URBAN MINISTRIES PROGRAM (6-8)Staff

Students will spend an entire semester in Chicago. The program involves academic seminars, living in community, and participation in ministry. Type of ministry and topics addressed in academic seminars will be tailored to the interests of the student. Offered through the Seminary Consortium on Urban Pastoral Education. Financial assistance available. May be combined with MS661, 663, and/or independent study to achieve additional credit hours (up to 14). Prerequisite: IS501.

MS663 CONGREGATION AND COMMUNITY RELATIONS (3)Staff

An introduction to methods of developing congregational involvement, students are trained to prepare laypersons in the development and use of elementary social research tools to assess social and personal needs in the community. Skills are developed to inventory material and personal resources in the congregation to be directed toward community action. Prerequisite: IS501.

MS665 POLITICS AND PUBLIC POLICY PROGRAM (12-15)Staff

Students will spend the entire fall semester in Washington, D.C., as part of the National Capital Semester for Seminarians offered by Wesley Theological Seminary. The program provides an opportunity to learn from persons involved in the political process. The program involves supervised study, direct political interaction, and disciplined reflection. Prerequisite: IS501.

MS670 URBAN ANTHROPOLOGY (3)Accornero, Rynkiewicz,

Study the insights of anthropological research to help understand the dynamics, problems, and opportunities in cities, with implications for evangelism, church growth, and church planting. Prerequisite: IS501. Meets with MB735 on the Wilmore Campus.

MS671 ANTHROPOLOGY FOR MISSION PRACTICE (3)Rynkiewicz, Ybarrola

An introduction to cultural anthropology, with application to Christian evangelization and mission. Core course for MAWME program. Meets with MB700 on the Wilmore Campus.

MS672 VALUES AND ETHICS IN CROSS-CULTURAL PERSPECTIVE (3)Ybarrola

MS691 EVANGELISM IN HISTORICAL AND THEOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVE (3)Tuttle

Traces the history and theology of evangelism from the promise to Abraham to the present. The covenant with Israel, the Great Commission, the Apostolic Fathers and early apologists, the ecumenical councils, the monastic movement, the Reformation (Catholic and Protestant), the revivals of the 18th and 19th centuries, as well as the contemporary scene provide some of the backdrop for the study of evangelism. Prerequisite: IS501.

MS692 THEOLOGY OF EVANGELISM (3)Crandall, McPhee, Tuttle

Various theologies of evangelism will be examined in light of both their historical and contemporary expressions. The course seeks to clarify the basic gospel message and aid students in their design of theologically appropriate methods and motivations for its communication. Prerequisite: IS501. Meets with ME735 on the Wilmore Campus.

MS693 CHURCH RENEWAL IN HISTORICAL AND THEOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVE (3)Tuttle

Throughout the history of the church there have been movements of the Spirit that have sought to maintain balance between the church's organizational structure and the church's spirituality. The history and theology of the church in renewal must necessarily relate to those movements. After a thorough description of the powerful precedent set in the apostolic churches, this course will trace an unbroken line of renewal movements down to the present day. Prerequisite: IS501.

> > > COURSE DESCRIPTIONS: DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

Ministry in our culture is constantly changing. Because of this continued fluctuation, we will regularly rotate existing courses and design new courses to respond to the emerging demands on servant leaders. Therefore, some courses listed here may be offered periodically. For the most current listing of upcoming courses, go to www.doctorofministry.org.

DM800 ACTIVE STATUS REGISTRATION (0)

This annual fee of $500 maintains D.Min. students in “active standing” status in the program. This fee can be applied to any other academic charges incurred during the following 12 months. Students will automatically be registered July 1 each year and their accounts charged.

DM 801 THEOLOGY OF MINISTRY (3)

Seamands

Considers the biblical basis for a special-called ministry within the larger context of the ministry of all Christians and the nature and mission of the Church. Reflection continues on scriptural insights which may inform such specific functions of ministry as preaching, worship leading, counseling and administration. This course is intended to assist participants in formulating and clarifying a distinctly theological basis for their vocation.

DM 802 BIBLICAL INTERPRETATION FOR LIFE AND MINISTRY (3)

Arnold, Dongell, Thompson

Seeks to upgrade the students’ use of Scripture in personal spiritual formation, in their D.Min. project/dissertation and in ministry, by focused attention on the several critical tasks involved in biblical interpretation. The course will emphasize inductive interpretation of Scripture in its several contexts. In light of the Church’s experience at interpreting the text and benefiting from advances in critical study of Scripture, students will increase their interpretive skills by doing interpretive work on passages important to their ministry and/or project/dissertation.

DM 803 DISSERTATION WRITING AND RESEARCH METHODS (3)

Andrews

Designed to give knowledge of a library research methodology in preparation for writing a project/dissertation. Instruction will focus on writing the proposal, which includes a statement of the problem, the review of related literature, the theoretical framework, an extensive outline and a justification for the study. The course requirements assume that there will be active interaction with the student’s mentor in developing the proposal. Credit only.

NOTE: Students not completing a successful proposal bearing within 12 months of taking DM803 will be required to re-take the class for no credit at a cost of one (1) credit hour at the current tuition rate.

DM 804 DISSERTATION (3)

Candidates for the Doctor of Ministry degree will be registered for DM 804 at the time of the dissertation defense hearing and charged for 3 credit hours at the current tuition rate.

DM811 LEADING CHANGE (3)

Change inevitably comes, particularly when an organization experiences healthy growth. This course addresses dynamics including first or second order change, transition, innovation, chaordic systems and conflict. Emphasis will be given to the leader’s roles as catalyst, coach and counselor at the individual, group, organizational and enterprise levels.

DM 813 NARRATIVE PASTORAL COUSELING (3)Dinkins

This course is designed as an examination of the theory and practice of pastoral counseling from a postmodern paradigm. Attention will be given to the philosophy, methodologies, and practice of counseling based upon stories. Participants will discover how narratives author persons and develop skills to help re-author the lives of those being counseled.

DM814 ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP FOR THE LOCAL CHURCH (3)Connell

This course focuses on the pastor as organizational leader and will delve into some of the unique dynamics and strategies that lead to effective organizational leadership in the kingdom work of the local church. Areas to be explored include strategic planning, staff development, and mobilizing financial resources. Central to the learning experience in this class will be a church case study that each student will prepare and present.

DM 815 PASTOR AND PEOPLE (3)Dinkins

This Doctor of Ministry course is designed to help examine interpersonal relationships in a parish context. It is an integration of practical reason (phronesis), theoretical reason (theoria) and the craft of pastoring (techne).

DM 816 DEVELOPING LEADERSHIP IN THE LOCAL CHURCH (3)Staff

This course is designed to help pastoral leaders to intentionally develop leadership in the local church. This course will go a step beyond the pastor as leader. A major focus of the course will be learning how to do small groups effectively.

DM 817 ADVANCED CHURCH LEADERSHIP FOR THE 21ST CENTURY (3)Staff

An advanced church leadership course designed to prepare the pastor to become the master architect in designing and creating an effective church from the inside out, which includes reaching the unchurched. The content of the course will include the latest and best literature and material in leadership, church growth and the life of a pastor.

DM 818 SPIRITUALITY OF LEADING (3)Martyn

Within the context of defining cultural pressure toward “institutional chaplaincy” placed upon most pastors today, this course will seek to enable doctoral students to: 1) Appraise how their own vocational calling can best assist the local church in fulfilling its mission; 2) Clearly grasp and understand the concept of Fourth Servant Leadership (enabling others to fulfill their ministry calling in Christ); 3) Implement “Radical Time Management” which emphasizes “First Things First” in their everyday lives; 4) Have a beginning overview of the dynamics of resistance, change and transformation of an entire congregational system; and 5) To articulate the primary values the student desires to hold in leadership.

DM 819 ISSUES IN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP (3)

This seminar addresses a variety of topics in pastoral leadership through the use of resident and visiting faculty. It focuses on contemporary and emerging issues, and draws upon the expertise of noted experts in the field of church leadership and management in order to optimize flexibility and relevance for the doctoral student. Occasional and experimental. Instructor to be assigned. Previous topics include, "Managing Stress in Ministry," "Forgiveness in Counseling," "Strategic Leadership," and "Transforming Organizations."

DM822 FAMILY MINISTRY IN THE FAITH COMMUNITY (3)

Joy

Students, in an intensive seminar setting, will explore biblical and theological resources for ministry with families. They will identify agendas and develop curricula by which they may recruit and train leaders and the congregation on issues of roles, relationships, status, and value needs of family members in traditional, single-parent, intergenerational, and blended households.

DM823 FAMILY FAITH DEVELOPMENT STRATEGIES (3)

Joy

Participants will define "faith development" consistent with biblical understandings of Christian discipleship and utilizing, reconciling, or refining constructs and language emerging from human development/social science findings about moral, ethical, and faith development, (b) spiritual formation, Christian conversion experience, and (d) Christian growth in grace. Participants will complete a self-profile on both "seasons of my life" and on "trajectory of personal faith development, especially noting the generation to generation legacy that is yours." Participants will articulate a "program-curriculum project or research proposal on faith development from generation to generation in ministry," documenting from personal observation what seem to be connections between profound intergenerational faith patterns and family systems/structures from generation to generation.

DM824 TRINITARIAN IMAGES IN SEXUALITY, FAMILY, AND CONGREGATION (3)

Joy

Participants completing the course will be able to: identify and articulate "Creation sex-positive" foundations for sexual well-being; initiate a life-long pursuit of a theology of God's image refracted through creating humans as "male and female; initiate a healthy staff culture which enhances both individual and family relationships for the ministry team; define and articulate congregational program elements which develop a mature congregational environment which will both enhance constituent well-being and establish a magnetic door of hope for the wider community."

DM 825 MINISTRY WITH CHILDREN AND THEIR FAMILIES IN THE FAITH COMMUNITY (3)

Stonehouse

Explores biblical and theological understandings of the child's spirituality and place in the faith community. These understandings will be integrated with insights from child development studies to formulate principles pastors can use to mold their personal ministry with children and in leading their congregations and families to become communities in which the faith of children grows.

DM 829 ISSUES IN FAMILY AND COUNSELING MINISTRY (3)

Staff

This course addresses a variety of topics in family ministry through the use of resident and visiting faculty. It focuses on contemporary and emerging issues, and draws upon the expertise of noted experts in the field of family ministry in order to optimize flexibility and relevance for the doctoral student. Occasional and experimental. Instructor to be assigned. Previous topics include "Ministry with the Aging," "Cross Cultural Counseling," and "Forgiveness in Counseling."

DM 831 CHURCH GROWTH FOR LOCAL CHURCHES (3)Hunter

A course that focuses upon the "expansion growth" of local churches from the insights of Church Growth literature, with attention to planning and implementing the changes in churches that free them to achieve Great Commission objectives.

DM 832 BUILDING A CHURCH FOR THE UNCHURCHED (3)Hunter

Studies in organization leadership, especially the leadership of change, applied to the contemporary challenge of helping local churches move from tradition to mission and become effective "apostolic" churches. Draws from the writings and legacy of Lyle Schaller.

DM 834 NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT (3)Crandall

This course gives an orientation to the theological, sociological, and practical dimensions of starting new churches in the USA.

DM 835 THEOLOGY OF CHRISTIAN EVANGELISM (3)Crandall, Tuttle

Presents evangelism as the controlling purpose of divine revelation and clarifies the doctrines immediately related to the propagation of the gospel. Various theologies of evangelism will be examined in light of both their historical and contemporary expressions. The course seeks to clarify, from a Wesleyan perspective, the basic gospel message and aid students in their design of theologically appropriate methods and motivations for its communication in order that we may be better equipped as "ambassadors for Christ, God making His appeal through us" (2 Cor. 5:20).

DM 836 REVITALIZING SMALLER CHURCHES (3)Staff

Designed to give an intensive examination of the special historical, theological, sociological and pragmatic dynamics of smaller congregations with attention to the challenges and opportunities for evangelism effectiveness in such settings.

DM 837 ANTHROPOLOGY FOR AMERICAN CHURCH MINISTRY (3)Staff

Designed to give a delineation of the shape, origins and major components and traits of American cultures and subcultures; enables ministers to see their own culture more objectively, understand its people and communicate and lead more indigenously and effectively.

DM838 CHRISTIAN WITNESS AND OTHER FAITHS (3)Staff

This course offers a survey of key issues in the encounter between Christianity and other religions. Looks at some historical precedents as well as contemporary trends including pluralism. Participants are encouraged to develop a theology of religious encounter.

DM 839 ISSUES IN EVANGELISM, MISSION & CHURCH GROWTH (3)Staff

This course addresses a variety of topics in evangelism, mission and church growth through the use of resident and visiting faculty. It focuses on contemporary and emerging issues, and draws upon the expertise of noted experts in the field of evangelism, mission and church growth in order to optimize flexibility and relevance for the doctoral student. Occasional and experimental. Instructor to be assigned. Previous topics include “Transcultural Evangelism,” “Cross-Cultural Discipling,” and “Cross-Cultural Counseling”.

DM841 INDUCTIVE PREACHING (3)Staff

This allows you to study sermons – their content, structure and style – to capture the attention and interest of our secular society. Study Jesus, the Bible, and the contemporary scene to sharpen preaching skills to cope with the culture of today’s church.

DM 843 BIBLICAL PREACHING (3)Kalas

A Doctor of Ministry course designed to help the minister who has preached for a number of years to update his/her preparation and delivery skills. Emphases include tools, integrity to the text and contemporary communication.

DM 844 BIBLICAL PREACHING PRACTICUM (3)Staff

The course provides an intensive lab and classroom setting for the development of preaching skills. Participants will work on sermon development and delivery and will be introduced to various types of sermon structures, all within the context of emphasizing sound biblical content. Doctor of Ministry Beeson Pastors only.

DM 845 STORYTELLING AND PREACHING (3)Killian

Designed to help the student discover and appreciate the oldest art form in communication – story. Since narrative discourse (story) is the connector of our histories, storytelling will be looked at as the heart of the human experience, enabling us to make sense of our lives. The course is an attempt to understand the capacity of story as a basic humanizing intellectual and social skill, the primary developing tool of culture.

DM 846 PREACHING, WORSHIP & MINISTRY (3)Staff

This course seeks to set preaching and worship in an overall ecclesiology and theology of ministry. Participants will look at theological and biblical concepts which form our preaching and worship, and then examine models of churches which seek to express their theology in concrete fashion. The course seeks to help the pastor identify his or her own theology and goals in worship and church ministry.

DM 848 PREACHING AND THE MINISTRY OF CHRISTIAN HEALING (3)Demaray

This course is designed to assist participants in understanding biblical and psychosomatic perspectives on disease and healing, suffering and wholeness, and to translate that information into material forms communicable from the pulpit, with the view of implementing healing ministry.

DM 849 ISSUES IN PREACHING (3)Staff

This course addresses a variety of topics in preaching through the use of resident and visiting faculty. It focuses on contemporary and emerging issues, and draws upon the expertise of noted experts in the field of preaching in order to optimize flexibility and relevance for the doctoral student. Occasional and experimental. Instructor to be assigned. Previous topics have included “Clergy Burnout”, “Preaching the Text in a Postmodern World”, and “Issues in Preaching” with Dr. Haddon Robinson.

DM 851 READINGS IN WESTERN SPIRITUALITY (3)

Collins

Explores the nature of spirituality and its relevance to contemporary life and ministry by means of a critical examination of classic Western spiritual literature, ranging from the work of Plato in the fourth century B.C. to that of Thérèse of Lisieux in the 19th century A.D. Special attention will be given to the work of John Wesley as that which exemplifies the leading themes of both spiritual literature and spiritual formation.

DM 853 SEMINAR ON SPIRITUALITY AND MINISTRY (3)

Staff

This is a course designed to give a small-group, intensive experience in which the relationship between spiritual formation and ordained ministry is considered. It includes examination of the minister as person, professional, and practitioner.

DM 855 THE PASTOR AS SPIRITUAL GUIDE (3)

Johnson/Martyn

This Doctor of Ministry course explores the meaning and place, as well as some of the models and dynamics, of the ministry of spiritual guidance (or spiritual direction) through an intensive, doctoral-level experience. Participants will be encouraged to experience spiritual direction, to receive feedback on their own ministry of offering direction and to consider the place of spiritual direction within their own ministries. The class utilizes lectures, videotapes, discussions, book reviews and practicums, and will be both “informational” as well as “formational.”

DM 856 INCARNATING THE WORD (3)

Mulholland

In the context of a retreat, this course explores issues of incarnational living and the development of disciplines to facilitate such living in the world. It examines the nature of incarnational living in the context of Christian history, provides skills to facilitate incarnational interpretation of Scripture, and daily practices to inculcate incarnational life and ministry. The seminar time is held at a retreat center.

DM858 INTERCESSORY PRAYER (3)

Staff

The purpose of this course is to introduce participants to the dynamics and practice of intercessory prayer for both the individual and the Church. During the course topics, such as the place of intercession, the role of intercession in revival and evangelism, intercession and spiritual warfare, fasting and intercession, and mobilizing the local church for intercession, will be discussed.

DM 859 ISSUES IN SPIRITUAL FORMATION AND DIRECTION (3)

Staff

This seminar addresses a variety of topics in spiritual formation through the use of resident and visiting faculty. It focuses on a variety of historical and contemporary issues in spirituality, in order to optimize flexibility and relevance for the doctoral student. Occasional and experimental. Instructor to be assigned. Previous topics include “Christian Spirituality: Thomas Merton”, “Issues in Spiritual Formation” with Susan Muto, and “Foundations of Spiritual Direction.”

DM 861 VISIONARY LEADERSHIP (3)Barton

Offered in conjunction with module one of the Beeson Institute for Advanced Church Leadership, this seminar examines issues of defining, communicating and casting vision. The participant will identify characteristics of visionary leaders, explore leadership habits and spiritual disciplines of effective visionaries, and develop strategies for conceiving vision and implementing tools for visionary leadership.

DM 862 PURPOSE DRIVEN CHURCHES (3)Staff

Offered in conjunction with module two of the Beeson Institute for Advanced Church Leadership at Saddleback Church, this course examines applied ecclesiology, looking at issues of church health within a systematic theology of the church. Comparing Rick Warren's "Purpose Driven" model with other viable options, participants will develop a change plan that has greater depth in theological understanding and breath in systematic impact within the ministry context, more purposefully living out the mission of Christ's church.

DM 863 CHURCH FOR THE UNCHURCHED (3)Collier

Offered in conjunction with module three of the Beeson Institute for Advanced Church Leadership, this course helps articulate a biblical and theological understanding of evangelism and assimilation. It gives strategies for leading a congregation to become an outward-focused church, helps create bridge-event strategies for need-meeting and interest-centered ministries, and helps articulate a strategy and theological underpinnings for dealing with transfer membership.

DM 864 THEOLOGY OF LAITY (3)Seamands/West

Offered in conjunction with module four of the Beeson Institute for Advanced Church Leadership, this course seeks to develop practical competencies in equipping laity for ministry. Participants will be challenged to develop their biblical and theological rationale for a ministry of the laity upon which such competencies should be based.

DM 865 HEALTHY, WINNING STAFF TEAMS (3)Andrews

Offered in conjunction with module five of the Beeson Institute for Advanced Church Leadership, this course will explore principles underlying the formation of the church staff, dynamics of staff relationships, impact of organizational structure on team relationships, cross-functional team development, and management within the church.

DM 866 THE QUEST FOR COMMUNITY: MODELS, FOUNDATIONS, PRACTICES (3)Smith

Offered in conjunction with module six of the Beeson Institute for Advanced Church Leadership, this course provides opportunity for interdisciplinary interaction on the nature of the church and the experience of "being church." Biblical, historical, theological and contextual resources guide discussion in the seminar, culminating in a final project in which participants examine their present ministry contexts with reference to resources, obstacles and strategies for the shaping of Christian community(ies).

DM 867 WORSHIP AND PREACHING IN A POSTMODERN CONTEXT (3)Staff

Offered in conjunction with module seven of the Beeson Institute for Advanced Church Leadership, this course will address the challenges of leading worship and preaching in a postmodern world where tolerance and pluralism are valued and absolutes are no longer in fashion.

DM 868 CLERGY SELF-CARE: MAINTAINING BALANCE IN PASTORAL MINISTRY (3)Powers

Offered in conjunction with module eight of the Beeson Institute for Advanced Church Leadership, this course seeks to equip participants to establish a balanced lifestyle of work and play, duty and grace, in both written and practical expression that systematically enhances the physical, social and emotional health of pastors and their families and incorporates the spiritual disciplines necessary to be a spiritual leader at home and ongoing arenas of ministry.

DM 869 ORGANIZATIONAL MANAGEMENT FOR THE LOCAL CHURCH (3)Connell

Offered in conjunction with module nine of the Beeson Institute for Advanced Church Leadership, this course investigates issues of managing and maximizing the impact of resources within the church. Covering issues from paid/unpaid staff to facilities and finances to time and vision, participants will gain understanding and tools to steward resources with integrity and impact.

DM 871 URBAN LEADERSHIP (3)Gray

A course that focuses on the basic principles of Christian leadership in the urban context, the city is explored from a socio-cultural perspective while examining successful urban leadership/ministry models.

DM 872 URBAN ANTHROPOLOGY (3)Rynkeiwich

A course explores some of the critical issues arising from two powerful forces at work in the world today: urbanization and globalization. At the intersection of these forces there is life and death, growth and decay, virtue and decadence, security and danger. Cities define civilization and the irony is that cities also symbolize savagery. Either way, cities are where the people are, and thus cities are where our Triune God wants to live and minister. We are called to the city.

DM888 PEAK PERFORMANCE LEADERSHIP (3)Griffin

Based on global research, eight core values for effective Christian leadership will be explored with a special focus upon multiplication of leaders. The eight core values are: Intimacy with God, Passion for the Harvest, Visionary Leadership, Culturally Relevant Evangelism, Multiplication of Leaders, Stewardship, Family Priority, and Integrity.

DM 890 INDEPENDENT RESEARCH IN DOCTOR OF MINISTRY STUDIES (1-3)Staff

Guided independent research for Doctor of Ministry students. Subject matter varies based upon participant's program concentration and course requirement needs. See p.24 for academic policy and procedure. By contract. Credit only. May not be repeated.

Some courses in the Doctor of Ministry program can overlap as core courses for multiple concentrations. In addition to DM851, DM855, DM856, and DM859, students in the Doctor of Ministry Program may also take the following courses as part of their specialization in spiritual formation: DM818 and DM868. See respective course listings for more information regarding these courses. Other courses which relate to the Doctor of Ministry in spiritual formation are offered on an occasional basis. The office of Doctor of Ministry studies can supply this information on a year-by-year basis. Some DM860 courses can be applied to both the Christian Leadership concentration and another. DM863 can be applied to the Missions and Evangelism concentration. DM867 can also be applied to the Preaching/Worship concentration. Any other application of courses to other concentrations (including transferred courses) must be approved by petition to the Dean of the Doctor of Ministry Program..

COMMUNITY LIFE AT

ASBURY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY – VIRTUAL (ExL) CAMPUS

SPIRITUAL FORMATION ON THE VIRTUAL CAMPUS

Because we believe spiritual formation is a vital part of the Asbury experience, each virtual classroom is equipped with a Prayer icon. Students are encouraged to send prayer requests and concerns to this conference so that their fellow students and faculty person support, pray, and care for the individual as a tangible expression of the Body of Christ. Community is established and maintained when we extend the hands of Christ through these expressions of Christ's love.

THE CHAPEL

Spiritual nourishment is important to our ExL students. ExL students are encouraged to connect with a local congregation in meaningful ways as well as to take advantage of the “virtual” chapel. The Kentucky Chapel meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 11 am in Estes Chapel and the Florida Chapel meets Tuesdays and Thursdays at 1 pm. Both campuses make chapel services available as downloadable podcasts. You can find them by going to the Asbury Theological Seminary web page (www.asburseminary.edu). Preachers, teachers and church leaders from around the world add a variety of learning and worshiping experiences.

OFFICE OF COMMUNITY LIFE: STUDENT SERVICES

PUBLICATIONS

The Office of Community Life - Student Services regularly publishes a Campus Calendar (This Week @ Asbury) that is available on FirstClass as well as the ATS web page.

COUNSELING, SUPPORT & CARE RESOURCES

Email the Director of Community Life for information concerning referral and support options.

STUDENT ASSISTANCE

In addition to financial aid, students receive additional help. Counseling and Care resources are available. The Philippiian Fund assists students who face unforeseen financial emergencies. And the faculty provides mentoring and formation guidance to those who connect with them in the Christian Formation Program

ECUMENICAL & MULTI-CULTURAL ENVIRONMENT

Asbury Theological Seminary has provided all students with an ecumenical and multi-cultural experience. The virtual campus provides the ExL student with a wider array of both in their actual settings. Because the virtual campus subscribes to “anytime, anywhere” learning, students on the virtual campus learn from each other in their own home and cultural settings.

CAMPUS COMMUNICATION

Asbury Theological Seminary's main communication tool is the FirstClass email system. Information is shared for Community Life events through the Community Life icon in the ATS Info icon on FirstClass. The Asbury Community, Florida Rooms and Rides, Kentucky Rooms and Rides icons also provide many opportunities for communication and community building opportunities.

STUDENT LEADERSHIP TEAM

The Asbury Theological Seminary Student Leadership Team (SLT) exists to serve the student body in Kentucky and on the Virtual Campus (ExL). Our mission is:

To serve as representatives of the student body through being advocates, providing social, service, and recreational opportunities, and fostering spiritual growth in order to make a lasting impact on the ATS community and the world.

For more information on Community Life: visit the ATS website and view the Student Guidebook.

COMMUNITY LIFE ATASBURY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY – FLORIDA CAMPUS

The Dunnam-Florida campus of Asbury Theological Seminary is committed to the faithful expression of "the Asbury experience," which includes a community of worship, prayer, spiritual formation, chapel, small groups, student services, international students, tutorial assistance, publications, counseling resources, the Philippiian fund, and student government.

OFFICE OF COMMUNITY LIFE: STUDENT SERVICES

As a symbol of our commitment to the importance of life together, Community Life is housed in the office of the Vice President. A full-time Director of Community Life provides ongoing ministry to all aspects of community formation, with special attention to the Christian Formation Program, Chapel, Missions, and the Student Conference. The Associate Provost and Enrollment Manager also provide assistance with academic and financial dimensions to community life. The Executive Director of Operations oversees the Office of Student Services, which is open Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and on selected evenings and Saturdays, offering assistance with business matters, health insurance, and the Philippiian Fund. Beyond these particulars, every staff and faculty person is involved in the development of a formative environment where community life can flourish.

THE STUDENT CONFERENCE

Living out the vision of Christian Conferencing as a means of grace, the Student Conference functions as the student leadership team. Team members provide a special service called the "New Student Welcome Team." Additionally, they represent various aspects of community life, and also serve on designated trustee, faculty, and staff committees to keep the seminary apprised of student views and needs.

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

On a Saturday in August, determined from year to year, new students and spouses gather for orientation—a day which includes getting acquainted, worship, and guidance into the Christian Formation Program. From that experience a variety of options emerge for becoming involved in the community.

THE CHAPEL

Harold Best, in his book Unceasing Worship, suggests that the life of a disciple of Jesus Christ is one that is steeped in worship and praise. Corporate worship then, is simply a continuation of this ongoing activity in the company of our brothers and sisters, where the power of community and mutual expressions of worship combine into a transformational experience. In Orlando, chapel services held on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 1:00 p.m. provide the opportunity for the larger community to gather for creative and inspiring worship. Students, faculty and staff, along with guest speakers from the larger faith community provide substance and shape to worship, which engages and honors a variety of traditions and styles. Other worship services are held on selected Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings and on Saturday mornings. In addition, an Episcopalian service of Morning Prayer and Eucharist is held weekly. All students, faculty, staff and guests are encouraged and invited to participate in the Asbury worship experience in Orlando.

MISSIONS

Theological education as a missiological environment has been part of the vision for the Florida campus from the beginning. Expressions of this commitment include the annual Kingdom Conference, a connection between worship and missions, and short-term mission trips. The campus also emphasizes missiology through the Christian Formation Program, as well as through mission-related components found in a number of courses.

ECUMENICAL & MULTI-CULTURAL ENVIRONMENT

Orlando is a major gateway city to the world and an exploding growth place for people from many countries outside the United States. It is also one of the fastest growing areas of the nation for the Hispanic and African-American communities. Connected to that growth is an amazing array of denominational and parachurch organizations. The faculty, staff, and student body reflects the diversity that is all around us, making the Florida campus “a microcosm of the Kingdom of God.” At the present time, the Latino-Latina Studies Program is the primary, formal expression of this environment outside the regular degree programs offered on campus.

STUDENT ASSISTANCE

In addition to financial aid, students receive additional help. Counseling and Care resources are available. The Philipppian Fund assists students who face unforeseen financial emergencies. And the faculty provides mentoring and spiritual direction to those who connect with them in the Christian Formation Program

CAMPUS COMMUNICATION

The First Class network provides the core communication medium. Additional information is shared through the weekly Campus Calendar, chapel bulletins, and information placed in student post office boxes. Bulletin boards are also used to post other kinds of information. The Office of Student Services oversees the communication process.

COMMUNITY LIFE AT ASBURY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY – KENTUCKY CAMPUSWELCOME TO THE ASBURY EXPERIENCE

We are working to shape a TRANSFORMATION LEARNING COMMUNITY where

- sound learning and vital piety are conjoined in holy union,
- the pursuit of knowledge and the practice of spiritual formation live in thoughtful integration,
- Christian disciples participate in intentional community,
 - sharing a lifestyle of worship and prayer and
 - shaping life patterns of health and wholeness

... in preparation to the end of being sent forth as a well-trained, sanctified, spirit-filled, evangelistic ministry to spread Scriptural holiness throughout the World.

Since its inception in 1923, Asbury has exhibited a distinctive identity and unique spirit. Our rich Wesleyan heritage, evangelical commitments and strong academic pursuit all make for a solid seminary foundation. There is a powerful intangible dynamic at work here as well. It has come to be known as the Asbury Experience. And what is the Asbury Experience? We are glad you asked. In short, it is a way of learning, worshipping, praying and sharing life together in community.

Community is a word you'll hear often at Asbury. We believe that a group of people living together, sharing, and holding each other accountable is the best place for growth to occur. This place is the seedbed for the growth that will nurture you throughout a ministry career, and life with other believers fertilizes and nurtures that growth.

The Office of Community Life works to catalyze and steward the learning experience of students—in short, we exist to help water our “seeds” and take good care of them while they grow. We encourage students and families, shaping the context for a transformational learning experience through providing connections, encouragement and resources.

A COMMUNITY OF WORSHIP, PRAYER AND SPIRITUAL FORMATION

What life have you if you have not life together? There is no life that is not in community, and no community not lived in praise of God. — T.S. Elliot

We believe that a worshipping community makes theological reflection and spiritual formation happen. Therefore, chapel is a hallmark of our life together at Asbury.

THE CHAPEL

Chapel meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 11am in Estes Chapel. Preachers, teachers and church leaders from across the world add to the richness of these experiences. It is customary for the entire Seminary community to meet together at these times. In addition, midweek Eucharist meets each Wednesday from 11:30 to Noon in The Fletcher Prayer Chapel.

GETTING INVOLVED

The most significant counsel we can offer as it relates to community life is also the most simple: participate in chapel. It is central to the covenant-making way for our life together before God. In order to recognize chapel's importance, the various public facilities such as Cafeteria, Office of Community Life, Business Office and Library are closed during chapel hours.

There are a variety of opportunities for students to be meaningfully engaged in the chapel worship at the seminary. Please fill out a response card from the Chapel Office indicating your interest in helping serve the worship of the community. Our seminary choir, “The Singing Seminarians,” is another great opportunity to serve. Also, a team of students serves each year as Spiritual Life Assistants the seminary community.

OFFICE OF COMMUNITY LIFE: STUDENT SERVICES

New Student Orientation

New students are assimilated into the Seminary experience through a comprehensive orientation before each semester. Students are placed into Transition and Guidance (TAG) groups where new relationships can begin to form and information is disseminated in a variety of ways. Spouses are strongly encouraged to attend.

Publications

The Office of Community Life - Student Services regularly publishes a Campus Calendar (This Week @ Asbury) that is distributed through the Seminary Post Office and is also available on-line.

Counseling, Support & Care Resources

- Counseling is available. Students meet with the Director of Community Life, the Vice President of Community Life, or the VP's assistant to discuss referral options and financial arrangements. Referrals include Asbury Seminary Counseling faculty and local professional counselors.
- Renewal Groups are small group opportunities designed to assist students in their recovery from life-destructive patterns. To protect the integrity of the group process, confidentiality and anonymity are a requirement of participation. Groups are formed on an on-going basis as needs arise.
- Stephen Ministry is also available for prayer and to provide a listening ear while maintaining strict confidentiality. Stephen Ministers are compassionate members of the Asbury Seminary community who are trained to provide one-on-one care for individuals experiencing life's stresses and difficulties.

See the Director of Community Life for information concerning referral and support options.

Philippian Fund

Students who experience unusual or unexpected financial hardship may request assistance from the Office of Community Life - Student Services. Information concerning needs should be expressed by personal interview with the Coordinator of Student Services.

OFFICE OF COMMUNITY LIFE: INTERNATIONAL

The Office of International Ministry was established in 1997 to address the needs of international students. The office, now called Office of Community Life--International is located in the Sherman Thomas Student Center and exists to provide hospitality, care and support for the specialized needs of international students and to foster the growth of intercultural community on campus.

The office has four major ministry programs establish to meet this mission:

1. The International Hospitality Ministry, along with a team of volunteers, sets up international homes with furniture, appliances, dishes, and linens. Most international students arrive in the United States with very few personal belongings and items needed to set up their homes. When an international family arrives they walk into a furnished home that has already-made beds, a kitchen supplied with items needed to cook a meal, and a dining table at which to sit.
2. International Community Care gives care to international students during times of special need and/or crisis.
3. The Intercultural Ministries strives to encourage ALL students and their families to foster relationships with someone from another culture. This is done in three ways: Priscilla Aquila program, Small World events and international fellowships.

4. The Koinonia House, located on the intersection of N. Maple and Spring Street, is a home of hospitality and welcome to hundreds of students, their friends, and guests. The house serves Asbury Seminary's community as a center for prayer, Bible study, meals, fellowship, spiritual development activities, vision casting, planning, and as guest quarters for international visitors and arriving international students and families.

OFFICE OF COMMUNITY LIFE: 328

Community Life—328 is a diverse group of administrators, trustees, faculty, staff, and students serving to inform, equip and inspire the Asbury community to a praxis of equality and justice among all in our global community. This collaborative effort focuses on gender, socio-economic and racial reconciliation inspired by the reality that we are all one in Christ Jesus and mutual heirs to the kingdom as we see in Galatians 3:28. The intention is to address the particular needs of students preparing for ministry and the broader needs of the community for learning how all believers can partner together to fully step into their calls to ministry and mission.

The mission of CL328 is to shape a campus environment of mutually honoring relationships characterized by biblical equality between genders, classes, and cultures.

OFFICE OF COMMUNITY LIFE: SPOUSE AND FAMILY MINISTRIES

Spouse and Family Ministries serves seminary spouses and families. Our priority is the total integration of spouses into the Asbury community, and the provision of formational learning and healing opportunities.

Monday night is "Spouse Night" at Asbury. On three Mondays a month we offer classes and small group opportunities. Child care is offered for all spouse events as well as Tuesday and Thursday chapel services. We hope parents will take advantage of this service and engage in formational experiences.

Besides classes, this ministry also offers retreats, celebrations, and family events. All spouses are encouraged to participate as they are able. For more information contact the Spouse and Family office at 859.858.2315 or 859.858.2033.

STUDENT LEADERSHIP TEAM

The Asbury Theological Seminary Student Leadership Team (SLT) exists to serve the student body in Kentucky and on the Virtual Campus (ExL). Our mission is: to serve as representatives of the student body through being advocates: providing social, service and recreational opportunities; and fostering spiritual growth in order to make a lasting impact on the ATS community and the world.

All students and families are encouraged to participate in SLT events, programs, and ministries. The funding of these projects and programs are provided through student activity fees. The SLT also represents the interest and concerns of students by participating on various committees of the Administration, the Office of Community Life, the Faculty and the Board of Trustees.

For more information on Community Life visit the ATS website and view the Student Guidebook.

Financial Information

FEES AND EXPENSES

Students attending Asbury Theological Seminary pay only a part of the actual cost of their education. All students receive an educational subsidy. The amount they are billed is less than the institution's cost of providing the educational experience. Income from contributions, earnings on the endowment, grants and other sources help fund approximately 60 percent of the total educational costs.

Students who intend to enter Asbury should give careful consideration to planning their finances. They should come prepared to meet all expenses for the first semester.

SCHEDULE OF CHARGES

M.Div. and M.A. Programs

A ministry scholarship subsidy of $45.00 per credit hour will be awarded to all full-time students (taking a minimum of nine hours per semester) who are pursuing an M.Div. or M.A. degree for ministry and meet scholarship and academic requirements. (Students carrying less than nine hours per semester may receive 50 percent of the grant.)

M.Div. and M.A. students may also apply for special scholarships for excellence and need-based scholarships. (See Scholarships for Excellence and Special Scholarships in the Financial Aid section.)

Unclassified students will be charged regular tuition and will receive the ATS ministry scholarship.

STUDENT ACCOUNTS PAYMENT POLICY

Matriculation Deposit

Upon notification of admission, new students must pay an advance matriculation fee of $100 upon acceptance to Asbury Seminary. The fee can be applied to tuition payments upon matriculation. For students who do not matriculate, the fee will be non-refundable.

Payment of Fees

Charges for all fees, room and board on your account are due and payable two weeks after the last day to drop or add a class. (For specific due date, please refer to the Academic Calendar in the front of the catalog.)

During the Fall and Spring semesters, student account may be paid in four equal installments. The fee for the extended payment plan is $25. All accounts not paid in full when the first installment is due will automatically be placed on the extended payment plan.

Payments are due in the business office by 4 p.m. of the due date. A late fee will be charged for all past due payments. If payment has been made but is less than the amount due, a late fee will be assessed on the amount unpaid.

Overdue Account Policy

1. Any student delinquent after the final payment is due in a semester will not have grades for courses taken in that semester placed on their transcript, and will be removed from any pre-registration they may have for the next semester and will not be allowed to register for additional classes until their account is cleared. Once the account is cleared, the grades submitted for the courses taken during the semester of delinquency will be placed on the transcript and registration for the next semester will be permitted. Please note that once a delinquent balance is paid that registration must be completed within the normal registration schedule (before the drop/add period ends), and that student enrollment will be subject to class availability.
2. Students with past due Asbury Seminary Short Term Student Loans will not be allowed to finalize registration for the following semester until their account is cleared.
3. Students owing a balance on their account at the end of a semester will be dropped from any subsequent classes in which they have preregistered. Upon payment in full, students may register within the normal registration schedule. At that time, student enrollment will be subject to class availability.
4. Students who have a balance due after final payments are due will have a "hold" put on their transcripts and diplomas, and will not be allowed to register for the next semester. A phone call will be made or a letter will be sent after 60 days advising the student that payments must be made on their student account. 90 days after the semester ends, a letter will be sent advising students that they will be turned over to a collection agency. 180 days after the semester ends, the past due accounts of students who have not made satisfactory re-payment arrangements will be turned over to a professional collection agency where their past due amounts will be reported to the national reporting agencies. After the collection agency has exhausted their efforts, Asbury will authorize the collection agency to litigate against the student, and the receivable will be written off as a bad debt.

DROPPING COURSES

Students who drop individual courses will be refunded tuition and fees according to the following refund schedule:

Fall and Spring Semesters:

Through the 1st week of classes (drop/add period).....	100%
After the 1st week of classes	0%

ExL Summer Semester

Through the 1st week of classes (drop/add period).....	100%
After the 1st week of classes	0%

Intensive Terms

One-week courses

Through the end of the first day of class	100%
After the first day of class	0%

Other intensive courses

Through the end of the second day of class.....	100%
After the second day of class	0%

WITHDRAWAL FROM SEMESTER OR SEMINARY

Subject to the date of an official withdrawal from the current semester or complete withdrawal from the Seminary, tuition, Asbury Seminary ministry scholarship, and room & board will be prorated according to the following schedule:

1st of classes (within the drop/add period)	100%
2nd week of classes	80%
3rd week of classes.....	60%
4th week of classes.....	40%
5th week of classes.....	30%
6th week of classes.....	20%

No refund after sixth week for Fall and Spring Semesters, and for the ExL Summer Semester; the sixth week is the last week to withdraw without receiving a grade of F. For one-week courses, one day equals three weeks in a semester. For other intensive courses, one day equals two weeks in a semester.

FEDERAL STUDENT AID—FULL WITHDRAWAL/RETURN OF FEDERAL FUNDS POLICY

The financial aid office recalculates federal* financial aid eligibility for students who withdraw or drop out prior to completing 60 percent of a semester. Recalculation is based on the percent of earned aid using the following formula: Percent earned = Number of days completed up to the withdrawal date  divided by the total days in the semester.

Federal financial aid is returned to the federal government based on the percent of unearned aid using the following formula: Aid to be returned = (100% of aid minus percent earned) multiplied by amount of aid disbursed toward institutional charges.

When aid is returned, the student may owe a debit balance to the Seminary. The student should contact the Business Office to make arrangements to pay the balance.

*Federal financial aid includes Federal Perkins Loans and Federal Stafford Loans.

Withdrawal Date with official notification is defined as the date that the student begins the school's withdrawal process, or the date that the student otherwise provides notification. If both circumstances occur, the earlier date is used. Withdrawal Date with no official notification is defined as the date determined by the school that is related to a circumstance beyond the student's control. The midpoint of the payment period or period of enrollment is used in all other instances where a student withdraws without providing official notification.

TRANSCRIPTS

Transcripts are released for students by the Registrar only when all accounts with the Seminary are paid. The first transcript is free for each student and those issued subsequently are $3 each, payable at the time of request.

STUDENT HEALTH INSURANCE

All students who have Florida or Kentucky as their primary campus* and who are enrolled at half-time status or greater in any fall or spring session are required to have health insurance coverage. Students who do not have proof of other, comparable insurance must enroll in the student health insurance plan each semester they are enrolled in course work. Students who have other insurance that is comparable with the student plan – i.e. of equal or greater coverage – must complete the waiver process each semester they are enrolled in course work. The student must complete the enrollment or waiver process through their “Student Web Information System” account at <https://student.asburyseminary.edu> by the add/drop date each semester or the student will automatically be enrolled in the student plan for that semester. This is non-refundable.

All students with citizenship other than the United States (“International Students”) are required to have health insurance for themselves and all family members residing with them in the U.S. If an International Student purchases other, comparable insurance and waives the student plan, they must provide a hard copy of their plan coverage to the Business Office, for verification of comparability, by no later than the add/drop date each semester. Detailed information regarding the student health insurance plan is available by contacting the Business Office on the Kentucky Campus at (859) 858-2251 or the Administrative Support Office on the Florida Campus at (407) 482-7585, by email at student_insurance@asburyseminary.edu, or on the internet at www.specrisk.com/asbury. Any student who is enrolled in at least three (3) credit hours and paying regular tuition (i.e. not auditing) may also elect to enroll in the student health insurance plan.

*ExL students may elect to enroll in the student health insurance plan when they are actively taking classes.

MEAL PLAN POLICY – KENTUCKY CAMPUS ONLY

Asbury Seminary Dining Services operates from its facilities in the Sherman Thomas Student Center, which include the Stevens-Pike Dining Room and the Cordelia Thomas A & B Dining Rooms. Dining Services exists to serve the students and their families and guests as well as the faculty and staff.

All full-time students who live in the residence halls are required to purchase one of the meal plans every session they are there (this does not include commuter students who stay 4 nights/week or less), including any weeks they are present during January. Several meal plans are available to choose from, and plans and pricing information are available on the Seminary's website under the “Current Student” section. Students must select or make changes to their meal plan by the add/drop date each session. Students must select a plan on their <https://student.asburyseminary.edu> account. If a student does not select a plan by the add/drop date each session, they will automatically be assigned the top plan. The student may not make changes after the add/drop date.

The Seminary does not permit cooking in the residence hall rooms. Small kitchens are provided in each residence hall for limited cooking, but students may not use these as a substitute for purchasing a meal plan.

This is a discounted charge and is in lieu of the regular, full monthly rate for a January session only resident. A student who attends January only will be charged the Summer Term rate for the month of January. A student who lives in the residence hall for both the fall and spring sessions of an academic year will not have to pay this charge for living in the dorm during the month of January.

Commuter Housing — Men & Women

Commuter housing is available for students who travel to the Kentucky Campus to attend classes regularly but who stay four (4) nights or less per week. The charges for commuter housing are 60% of the “Semester” charges above, as long as the student stays four (4) nights or less per week (the price is the same whether the student stays 4, 3, 2, or 1 night(s) per week). If the commuter student stays more than four (4) nights per week, they will pay the full “Semester” rate. “Summer Term” rates apply for any summer session or January-only session. Weekly rates are available for intensive courses in summer and January.

STUDENT FINANCIAL AID

Our Mission Statement

The mission of the Financial Aid Office is to deliver institution and government financial aid in the most effective manner possible to meet the financial need of students who are being equipped to go forth to a “well-trained, Spirit-filled ministry” to spread scriptural holiness throughout the world. This will be accomplished in compliance with policies and goals of the Seminary and regulations of the Department of Education.

Purpose and General Information

Asbury Theological Seminary is dedicated to aiding students in completing their seminary education. This is why our Financial Aid Office will make every effort to help students identify sources of financial assistance. Most students will find they need multiple sources of income to finance their education: personal savings, scholarships, church/conference funds, foundations, federal student loans and part-time employment. Working with students, we endeavor to make their seminary education attainable.

Each student should formulate a tentative plan for financing his/her seminary education. Although the exact plan may not be assured at the beginning, the student should have a clear understanding of the expenses involved and the available sources of income for the first year, and a reasonable plan for financing subsequent years.

Financial aid packets are mailed to applicants, newly admitted and returning students in January, and on a continuing basis to new applicants. The Asbury Theological Seminary Financial Aid Application serves as the application for all institutional scholarships. Scholarships are awarded on a one-year basis based on the guidelines of each scholarship. A new Asbury Theological Seminary Financial Aid Application must be filed each year.

Institutional Sources of Financial Aid

1. Scholarships
 - a. The Ministry Scholarship for MA/MDiv Students
 - b. Special Scholarships for MA/MDiv Students
 - c. International Scholarships for MA/MDiv Students
 - d. Presidential Scholarships for MA/MDiv Students
 - e. ESJ Scholarships for Post Graduate Students
 - f. The Beeson Pastor Scholarship for DMin Students
2. Loans
 - a. Asbury Seminary has internal limited funds for loans

Federal Sources of Financial Aid

1. Federal Perkins Loan
2. Federal Stafford Loan
3. Federal Work Study

HOW and WHEN to Apply

1. File the required forms
 - a. A Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) should be filed as soon as possible once the government makes it available.
 - b. An Asbury Financial Aid Application should be completed and returned to us when once it is sent to you in late January.
2. The Ministry Scholarship will be given to all MA/MDiv candidates.
3. Preference for Special Scholarships is given to early filers, with a recommended date of no later than April 15.
4. International Scholarships will be reviewed for all international candidates who have been admitted by March 1.
5. All Presidential Scholarship candidates must apply for the scholarship no later than March 1.
6. All ESJ postgraduate degree candidates admitted by February 1 will be reviewed.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR M.DIV AND M.A.The Ministry Scholarship

The Ministry Scholarship is awarded to all students taking hours toward an M.Div. or M.A. degree. The amount of the award is $45 per credit hour for students taking nine or more credit hours. Students taking less than nine hours will receive a scholarship of $22 per credit hour. Students receiving a Ministry Scholarship are expected to file the required financial aid forms by April 15 each year to renew scholarship for the following year, which begins July 1.

Special Scholarships for MA/MDiv Students

Recipients of Special Scholarships must represent strong promise for Christian ministry and demonstrate need, as determined by the Financial Aid Committee.

This series of scholarships also includes scholarships for academic excellence. To be considered a student must have a cumulative G.P.A. of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale. The Asbury Theological Seminary Financial Aid Application serves as the application for all institutional scholarships.

Interest in a Special Scholarship should be indicated in the Financial Aid Request area of the Asbury Financial Aid Application, which serves as the student's application for all institutional scholarship. Awards are made by the Financial Aid Committee. Each year a student may request renewal of a Special Scholarship by filing a new Asbury Financial Aid Application by April 15.

International Tuition Scholarships for MA/MDiv Students

Asbury Seminary provides a limited number of scholarships, which cover full tuition for international students, admitted to a Master of Arts or Master of Divinity degree program. The International Tuition Scholarship Committee meets the first week of March to award scholarships for the following academic year. An applicant seeking consideration for an International Tuition Scholarship should:

1. Complete all requirements for admission by March 1 of the calendar year prior to the student's first enrollment;
2. Sign a Letter of Intent and/or the International Student Scholarship Agreement indicating commitment to return to their country to serve in Christian ministry following completion of studies at Asbury Seminary.

3. Provide proof that personal funds or funds from a certified Sponsor are available to meet all travel and living expenses for the length of the degree program; funds to cover one-half year's expenses may be required in advance. Note, that under many circumstances funds provided by donors in the United States may be subject to a 14% tax rate.

All admitted applicants will automatically be considered for the available scholarships. At their desire, all applicants are welcome to outline their need for a scholarship by writing to the Director of Financial Aid. Such documents should be received no later than March 1.

Presidential Scholarships for MA/MDiv Students

The Presidential Scholarship is given annually to select new incoming students considering the following criteria:

- an accumulative total GPA of 3.5 or better,
- an ability to demonstrate solid moral character and good leadership skills,
- a commitment to world evangelism and missions as indicated in our Seminary motto, "the World is our Parrish,"
- a willingness to commit to taking a minimum of 24 credit hours per academic year, and
- a commitment to continuous enrollment throughout the degree.

The scholarship will cover full tuition throughout the pursuit of the chosen MA or MDiv as long as above criteria continue to be met by the student. In accepting the scholarship, the recipient must be aware that there will be certain additional requirements and obligations that the recipient must perform as a Presidential Scholar and is willing to participate in these requirements and obligations.

Application for the scholarship requires the applicant to complete the annual Asbury Theological Seminary financial aid application and attach a 1,000 word essay on their call into full time ministry and how God has prepared them to date for that call. References submitted for your admittance application will also be reviewed in the selection process.

Scholarships for Ph.D., D.Miss., Th.M. Students

Special endowments and other funds make it possible for some Ph.D., D.Miss. and Th.M. students to receive financial assistance, depending on the number of applicants, academic qualifications and available resources. All applicants admitted for these degree programs by March 1 will be reviewed for the available scholarships.

Scholarships for DMin Students

Asbury Theological Seminary offers no scholarship to nonresidential Doctor of Ministry students.

The Beeson Pastor Doctor of Ministry Scholarship program is restricted to students in Biblical Preaching. An applicant must be admitted to the Doctor of Ministry degree program and recommended to the Financial Aid Committee by the Dean of the Beeson Center to be approved for a Beeson Pastor Doctor of Ministry Scholarship.

The Beeson International Leaders Doctoral Fellowship is uniquely designed for the accelerated development of international leaders. An applicant must be admitted to the Doctor of Ministry degree program. All documents are required no later than November 1.

FEDERAL STUDENT AID — SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS POLICY

All students receiving federal student aid must maintain satisfactory academic progress as defined by Asbury Theological Seminary and the Financial Aid Office. Satisfactory academic progress is measured qualitatively and quantitatively.

Qualitatively, to maintain satisfactory academic progress a cumulative grade point average of 2.00/4.00 or higher is required. (See Grading and Evaluation and Academic Probation)

Quantitatively, satisfactory academic progress is measured as follows:

1. Students in the Master of Arts and Master of Divinity degree programs must complete a minimum of 15 hours per year, July 1 through June 30, in order to be eligible to apply for federal student loans for the following year.
2. Master of divinity students are eligible for federal student aid for seven calendar years from the time of matriculation; Master of Arts students are eligible for federal student aid for five calendar years from the time of matriculation.
3. Incompletes and withdrawals will not be counted as credit toward the 15 hour minimum requirement. Repetitions will be counted only if total credits earned for the year equal a minimum of 15 credit hours.
4. Greek courses taken under the conditions that require payment will be counted toward the 15-hour requirement.
5. Students may make a written appeal to the Financial Aid Committee of a determination that the student is not making satisfactory academic progress. Appeals forms are available in the Financial Aid Office.
6. To re-establish satisfactory academic progress, a student is required to complete a 12-month period, meeting the minimum requirement of completing 15 credit hours with a 2.00/4.00 g.p.a. The student will not be eligible for federal student aid during the 12-month period eligibility is being re-established.

Note: July 1 through June 30 is the federal year for federal financial aid and for Asbury Theological Seminary's fiscal year.

Federal Perkins Loan

The Federal Perkins Loan is administered by the Seminary for U.S. citizens who demonstrate need as determined by the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The interest rate is five percent. The total amount for the year is divided between sessions. The student must sign a Promissory Note in the financial aid office so the business office can credit the loan funds to the student's account.

No payments are due and no interest is accrued as long as the student maintains at least half-time status and is making satisfactory academic progress in an approved program.

Federal Subsidized Stafford Loan

The Federal Stafford Loan is secured through a bank or credit agency. Asbury's Financial Aid Office must determine need and approve amount borrowed based on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

The interest rate of Federal Stafford Loans is variable, with a cap of 8.25%. The bank charges approximately three percent origination fee and a one percent insurance fee. The bank deducts these fees at the time of disbursement. Loans are disbursed in multiple installments as per federal regulations. Allow at least four to six weeks for processing.

No payments are due and no interest accrues as long as the student maintains at least half-time status and is making satisfactory academic progress in an approved program. (If a student had a Stafford Loan prior to July 1, 1987, and had begun payments, a full-time enrollment status must be maintained to defer payments.)

Federal Work-Study

The Federal Work-Study Program provides part-time jobs for students with financial need as determined by the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Students work up to 15 hours per week during periods of enrollment or up to 40 hours when not attending classes. Most work-study positions start at minimum wage. Pay checks are issued bi-weekly. An institutional employment application must be filed with Human Resources in the Office of the Vice President of Finance.

DENOMINATIONAL FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Free Methodist Students

Free Methodist Loan Grant: Please contact the Free Methodist Headquarters, P.O. Box 535002, Indianapolis, IN 46253-5002.

Free Methodist Conference Scholarship: Please contact the church officials of your specific conference.

Free Methodist International Student Scholarship: Qualified candidates of the Free Methodist Church from overseas areas and conferences of mission origin pursuing an advanced graduate education may apply to the Free Methodists World Fellowship for this scholarship. The scholarship was established by the World Fellowship, the Department of World Missions and the Commission on Christian Education.

Wesleyans

Wesleyan Loan Grant: Please write to the Wesleyan Foundation, 215 East College Street, Wilmore, KY 40390.

Wesleyan Conference Scholarship: Please contact the church officials of your specific conference.

United Methodists

United Methodist Conference Service Loans (Ministerial Education Funds): Please contact your District Superintendent, or the person in charge of educational funds for your conference. Procedures, qualifications, amount of award and deadlines are determined by each individual conference.

United Methodist Student Loans: The Board of Higher Education provides loans for full-time United Methodist students who demonstrate need. Applications are obtained from and processed by the Asbury Financial Aid Office. The maximum loan per calendar year is $1,200, and the interest rate is six percent. Interest accrues from the date of disbursement.

Foundation for United Methodists: United Methodist students entering the pastoral ministry are eligible to apply to the Foundation for United Methodists, a private foundation established by some of Asbury Theological Seminary's United Methodist faculty members. For information write to Foundation for United Methodists, Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, KY 40390. Applications are included in the Financial Aid Packet of United Methodist Master of Divinity applicants. Applications may also be obtained from the Financial Aid or Admissions Offices.

OTHER FINANCIAL AID PROGRAMS

Asbury Theological Seminary Short-Term Loan

This fund is designed to provide emergency short-term loans to help with educational expenses and/or emergency needs. Details are available from the Financial Aid Office.

Off-Campus Employment

Notices of off-campus job openings received by the Seminary are posted at the Student Center. Student pastorates and ministerial assistantships are available to a number of seminarians. A list of contacts in the area is available from the Office of Mentored Ministry.

Partnering Churches

Local churches can become a Partnering Church with students by establishing a scholarship fund to assist students with their tuition and seminary expenses in their preparation for Christian service. This is a scholarship fund set up by any local church willing to participate in this program and is tax-deductible due to the church's non-profit status. All students, both full and part-time, in any degree program, are eligible for this program as long as they have a church to partner with them. This program can be implemented any time during the course of your seminary training. For additional information, please contact the Alumni and Church Relations Office.

The Philippian Fund

Students who experience unusual or unexpected hardship during a school term may request assistance. Information concerning needs should be expressed by personal interview with the Director of Student Life.

Veterans Benefits

Students receiving Veterans Administration Educational Assistance Allowance must meet certain minimum standards in attendance and academic progress toward graduation. The Registrar's Office is responsible for coordinating the program. Students eligible to receive veterans benefits should contact that office.

RENEWAL OF AID

Financial aid is not automatically renewed from year to year. A new Asbury Financial Aid application and a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) are required each year. Filing of these forms by April 15 is encouraged. After April 15, the amount of aid awarded is determined by remaining funds available.

NOTIFICATION OF NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Asbury Theological Seminary does not within the context of its religious principles, its heritage, its mission and its goals, discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, physical impairment or gender in its admissions and student-related policies and procedures as required by Title VI and Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act, as amended; Title IX of the 1972 Education Amendments; Section 504 of the 1973 Rehabilitation Act, as amended; and other regulated Acts of Congress and Federal Regulations.

Asbury Theological Seminary was founded “to prepare and send forth a well-trained, sanctified, Spirit-filled, evangelistic ministry to spread scriptural holiness throughout the world.”

We still live by this today.

And you're welcome to join us.
