

Asbury Theological Seminary

ePLACE: preserving, learning, and creative exchange

Correspondence

Hannah Whitall Smith

1983

Box 2_9 (Correspondence- Kaski, Mary to Krummacher, Eleonara-1883-1911)

ATS Special Collections and Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://place.asburyseminary.edu/hwscorrespondence>

Part of the Christianity Commons

IF NOT CALLED FOR IN TEN DAYS
POSTMASTER WILL PLEASE RETURN TO

UNITED STATES

ADAMUDR STODDEN

ENVELOPE.

Mrs. H. W. Smith

4653 Germantown Ave.

Ctn. Phila.

U. S. PATENT, JULY 1, 1879.

a lovely scene to a beautiful day

Mrs. Keen is blind of one eye
& the other is very weak. It seems as if she was breaking down

1209 Arch St. Phila.
2-19-81

My Dear Hannah S.L. Keen

The delightful intercourse with the lovely sisters at your home on Wednesday or something else must have been too much for me, for I came away entirely forgetting my india rubber shoes, which I had pushed under the sofa in the parlor.

Will it give you too much trouble to ask some of the servants to roll them up and send them to me by mail. Enclosed please find stamps for mailing.

On Thursday I went to the Doctor about my eyes, he took me to an oculist, who says I need much medical treatment, not what oculists? (is this an admissible word?) - He attributes the great weakness of the muscle to a faulty predisposition.

Have you any idea what a perfect delight my day with you was to me? God bless you for the many such you have given to numbers of His children. Give my love to Mrs. Lawrence & Mrs. Lyttle - I must not write any more even with one eye -

Very Lovingly Yours

A. L. Keen

I want to add how glad I am I remained to tea, to enjoy Mr. Smith's talk. It was just