

Asbury Theological Seminary

ePLACE: preserving, learning, and creative exchange

Correspondence

Hannah Whitall Smith

1983

Box 2_9 (Correspondence- Kaski, Mary to Krummacher, Eleonara-1883-1911)

ATS Special Collections and Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://place.asburyseminary.edu/hwscorrespondence>

Part of the Christianity Commons

7 Park Terrace
July 18th

X

My dear Mrs Smith,

I cannot let the children's letters go without writing myself to let you know what comfort your little book has also brought to me
It is so simple to trust Jesus & to give up everything to him knowing that He does all things well

When I first began to have this beautiful trust in my Saviour the devil kept whispering "ah it won't last" but I just told him to go away, and then Jesus came and it was all right. How sweet it is to know and love Jesus & how He does answer prayer. I live with my sister in law, my dear mother having fallen asleep in Jesus I was left without a home and am so thankful I settled to come to my eldest brother Aleck. so you see your book has done much for us all and taught us to understand & love to read Gods Holy Word more than we ever did before. Now with much Christian love

I remain

Yours sincerely

Alice Finlock