

Asbury Theological Seminary

ePLACE: preserving, learning, and creative exchange

Correspondence

Hannah Whitall Smith

1983

Box 2_15 (Correspondence- Mount Temple, Ledy- 1877-1890_s [many undated])

ATS Special Collections and Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://place.asburyseminary.edu/hwscorrespondence>

Part of the Christianity Commons

Broadlands,
Romsey.

Friday -

Thank you beloved Sister:
your little Pamphlets have given me a very happy morning altho' I am still under the delusion that my ankle is very painful. My altogether a poor old wreck - but ever yours

My most affectionate love to all yours
J. A. A. A.

I am really perfect in food -
This will I trust help you - Your beautiful Mary - G. Laura the bringing forth of fresh children of God - with all joy -
- the parents are a foolish prejudice. If thro' weakness, you get nervous - or see. Mr. Wallace Oxford anxious. Oxford times - What a charming letter. How thy gifts of Grace