

Asbury Theological Seminary

ePLACE: preserving, learning, and creative exchange

Correspondence

Hannah Whital Smith

1983

Box 3_3 (Correspondence Russell, Jane to Seward, Olive.
1885-1901)

ATS Special Collections and Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://place.asburyseminary.edu/hwscorrespondence>

Part of the Christianity Commons would have written before, but am so busy with lessons.

Hoping you are quite well, with love from all.

I remain

yr^s lovingly.

Kathleen Saunders

7. Park Terrace
Waterloo
Nov 2nd /88.

My dear Mrs. Smith

I am writing to thank you for those nice Readings you sent I liked them very much
they were so interesting.
We are all very happy in the dear Lord, He has been & is very good to us. We all have a "Christian Secret" &
read it night & morning

& find it very helpfull
Our brother is coming from Richmond to stay with us for ~~us~~ his birthday, he is one of the Lords, &
we are all anxious to see him. My little brother who was so ill is nearly abright now but still very weak, though he has regained his eyesight & can talk
quite distinctly. I