

Asbury Theological Seminary

ePLACE: preserving, learning, and creative exchange

Correspondence

Hannah Whitall Smith

1983

Box 3_12 (Correspondence-Whittemore, Mrs. T.C to Wilde, Mrs. Oscar (changed name to Holland, Constance) 1895-1908)

ATS Special Collections and Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://place.asburyseminary.edu/hwscorrespondence>

Part of the Christianity Commons

3.12
ADDISCOMBE FARM, CROYDON.

Wimbledon Park House
Wimbledon

Sept 10

My dear Hannah

alas! I have no

power to do as you ask me - call at the

Embassy, 123 Victoria St,

and ask for order -

As American gov
are sure to get us —

Dear Lady Mount Temple
has had a stroke —

I flew to Babbacombe alone and all
was being done for her

That was possible —
the immediate danger is now passed but it is the beginning of the end —

She knew me once
and said "that Basil how good of you to come" but she was lost immediately after —

Hope she may be released

Yours affec^t
Basil Milbourne