My dear Hannah

Here is what

Mr. John Gubb Richardson says, which is encouraging.

I would go over but for just one thing - my Mother's great age & growing dependence upon me. This is the one barrier.
If thou will come over &

*So sorry my Mary is got well - all
all right.
and family
all right.
my*

see us, maybe she would let me go back for a few months, though I have not the heart to even hint it.

My letter of Caution is wise olike thee. "Red rock in God" is the watchword - God as revealed in Christ. But if thee knew this wonderful soul
- so illumined, so utterly
"dead to the world, alive to God" You would see that she is safe & skatfast
- so sound & cheery - like thee own dear self - so wholesome & steady. Wait till you two meet!

Meanwhile, speak a good word for me for shall be over there someday.
With my little sketch of her in Daily Union Signal (the last one), & please reproduce as from me, in British women's Temp Journal & in other women's papers & The Christian. Read Convention number all through & see the situation. It is probably better that Mr. F. is gone.
This was a most considerate, courteous of splendid Convention.

Thou couldst but have approved. Thy loving message was gratefully recd & special return ordered on motion of Gen Mr. Hibben of Georgia
Dear Heart! My spirit is akin to thee & I greatly desire that beloved of blessed presence. Heavenly Father is leading me nearer to Himself! Love to all thine &
