

Asbury Theological Seminary

ePLACE: preserving, learning, and creative exchange

Correspondence

Hannah Whitall Smith

1983

Box 3_13 (Correspondence- Willard, Frances 1877-1889)

ATS Special Collections and Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://place.asburyseminary.edu/hwscorrespondence>

Part of the Christianity Commons

From Frank Willard

1879.

Going to Chicago. Sept. 23

Beloved Hannah.

What a cheery
breeze wafted from German town! It did
me a huge amount o'
good! When am I going to see thee? Those Chicago Bible Readings
surely must not fall through. Write me about them. Won't you come

from Indian aptas,
That's the nicest way.

Would you go to Paterson. N.J. if.

My nice friend
Kath Jackson should prepare the way
for reading? She wants to see you worse than any being reluctant &
she needs to - being sorely tried. As

2

to the Presidency,
beloved, I have

but this to say

"Behold the handmaid
of the Lord - be it unto me even as thou wilt".

I will not say nor
do anything in regard
to it - anything
independent of the most earnest pushing
of the Home

Protection work.
If my sisters want
me in that place
they must ~~con~~ put me there - but I think
there are many who
do not & my motto
in this regard is, first last & always "It is no place." Now
isn't that a right view for a Christian

to take - even if
 she is it, like you,
 Endued with "Conscious
 presence" but stays
 along as you, dear
 apostle, did once,
 "by faith". No, beloved,
 I do not get what I
 desire & want - but
 daily supplies of
 grace to help me through.
 I moved here to see

You - & I am
the most docile-
minded of women
perhaps too ready to be taught. Let me know when I can see you - When you can come to Rest Cottage, Evanston
whither I am bound
after the hardest summer
of my life - & believe

4

me lovingly always.

Journey
Frank