To have the corn with Lady Henry. be sure of plan for a visit at West College - give for a new den - present to Bull's mother, most desires

*that, months ago, when the correspondence on this subject began, that there was to be in International. You know I was evidently "on the wing" in haste also and call some of those words, when I gave you the impression.
I know you great heart of your early that you will make all right. Am so glad*

You will like dear Jane Julia Ames - Blessed women both. Miss Ames is very gifted - has a 6th sense for journalism. She has edited the union equal a year or more it has greatly improved.

- I would like Lady Hawley S. to be married first & would leave proposed it - except that corner Mrs Foster of Canada insisted on marrying in my favor it seemed ungracious. - I will move U.S. sent to English leaders - in N.Y. & A. If there were more English writers & now other one from there it would help amazingly that a good one they many like Millen. Do urge her to do so. I think she can not trust too highly of this devotion to God. I believe she is the stuff out of which they make martyrs.
The other are great hearts for God & will love one another. I am in a great place & more persuading faith than even before. I think
