

Asbury Theological Seminary

ePLACE: preserving, learning, and creative exchange

Correspondence

Hannah Whitall Smith

1983

Box 3_14 (Correspondence- Willard, Frances 1890-1897)

ATS Special Collections and Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://place.asburyseminary.edu/hwscorrespondence>

Part of the Christianity Commons

THE COTTAGE,
REIGATE.

Sept. 6, 1892.

My dear Dr. Samuel:

I appreciate

with tenderness your most loving & kindly note received this morning.

Sady Henry is going to visit you with this about our meeting at Easton and we will then talk of your

blessed friends
most gracious
message through you.

I am very weary
and tears have come to my relief.

Isabel is my embodied Providence. I can say with true
reverence "How doeth
thy mercy budge me
round!"

Our little Nan
is the same
blessed, self-less
one we have acknowledged & loved so long. She sends her love and thanks for your thoughtful
message and invitation.

Thank our noble
Alice for her hand
in my Motherflowers
and give her, Mariechen and Logan if they are at home, my love, with my ever grateful

regards to R. P. S.

Frank Knowlton
that I love thee
thinner my blessed one
and am as I shall ever be all world. Thy loyal & grateful
Francis