My Dearest Mrs Smith
without waiting for a reply as to the "Felicie Koll" matter in which I am much interested and naturally anxious to hear if you can get her a hearing in some English paper? I write you today because my heart is very full of joy, hence the "Hallel" at the top of the page. Last Sunday I had a very trying day that is it - began well, but at about two o'clock everything seemed to be wrong. There was much serious illness among my friends and the Bible Class girls were all out and the spirit seemed faint and weary and I felt discouraged.

when I picked up "The Parish Visitor" then on the first page was your paper on "The Chariots of God". Now I had read it some years ago, but it was to me at this time, a revelation. I too, "had gone down into Egypt" and I had refused to mount the very Chariots of the Lord that stood waiting at my side - "ingratitude", "depression" even "the slow servant", only taking the form of unkindness in an educated friend all here I had refused. But your kind & my dear, dear friend once more pointed the way and I mounted contentedly & joyfully the chariot he had prepared. Surely it must be welcome words that on this side of the water I pray for God's tenderest and sweetest ^{blessing} to be upon you. Lovingly in L
