Dear Mrs Smith

I often feel like writing and telling you, what a precious book, "Your 'Mounting Secret'" is to my soul. Open it - when or where I will. It does me good. We have quite a number of copies of it - here. Every body likes it, that reads it. I often wished I could meet - you, was sure I would see you at "Ocean Grove" this summer, my friend Mrs Geo Linville of Washington, told me you was just as good as your book.

I have a good deal to do with - young people's meetings, in our church, (M. E.) and think your Bible-reading leaflets "will assist me in my work. I use my own, but - write them, would like to see yours. Do you have any in regard to the higher life, one specially for seekers of pardon, as well as temperance. I wrote the other card, come to address it, saw it - was the Mrs Smith, whose book I prized so highly. So have written another.
