

Asbury Theological Seminary

ePLACE: preserving, learning, and creative exchange

Correspondence

Hannah Whitall Smith

1983

Box 3_16 (Correspondence-Contemporaries B-W, 1874-1910)

ATS Special Collections and Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://place.asburyseminary.edu/hwscorrespondence>

Part of the Christianity Commons

4
for if God be on the Prohibition side who can prevail against us?

His presence is enough to make us mighty in valour and to give hope and courage; to the very weakest.

I remember four years ago our dear Mrs H. W. Smith wrote and said I think, if the women do their duty we shall elect our man in 1888.

We have a noble man in Gen. Lusk and though I cannot do much, for the people draw such an dreadful shroud the times - one thing I can do near at all times, my white ribbon and earnest pray and work for the Cause.

If you see dear Mrs Smith give her my love - and say that with her I rejoice that our loved ones are over there free from it all - and that the life and death of her two precious Sisters - as well as her own life has been and still is an inspiration to me.

I thank you for your very refreshing letter, and will be pleased at any time to hear again from you.

Sincerely yours in Christian
Love
Sarah Amelia Gause