

Asbury Theological Seminary

ePLACE: preserving, learning, and creative exchange

Correspondence

Hannah Whitall Smith

1983

Box 3_16 (Correspondence-Contemporaries B-W, 1874-1910)

ATS Special Collections and Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://place.asburyseminary.edu/hwscorrespondence>

Part of the Christianity Commons

Fromereau R Ipswich

10th Feb: 1887

My dear friend

A. Fowler,

I have often wished & intended to write a few lines to thee dear friend, since thy pleasant visit to our meetings, to tell thee how very much the little books of H. W. Smith's thou so liberally distributed among us, have been valued, & I believe blessed, indeed I find none of that kind so sweet & heart searching.
th. A. Lamb carrying

Thank thee very much for thy kind consideration in sending stamps for the postage, an item not always thought of,
we are getting our most capitally, orders coming in rather quickly just now, & we have nearly completed £13. 0. 0 I am thankful to hear that the school is in a good condition many new scholars & conversions one applied ^{last month} for membership in the church