

Asbury Theological Seminary

ePLACE: preserving, learning, and creative exchange

Correspondence

Hannah Whitall Smith

1983

Box 3_19 (Correspondence-Family, Russell, Alys Smith 1891-1894)

ATS Special Collections and Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://place.asburyseminary.edu/hwscorrespondence>

Part of the Christianity Commons

30 Jan 43.

Dear Alys

The little ones
came home so happy on Saturday after the delightful Tea party your Mother gave them. They enjoyed themselves immensely - Please thank your Mother for all her kindness to them.

Lins tells me you know of a charming kindergarten lady who w^d like to teach children for an hour
daily - would the mind going to Wimbledon?

^{a friend of mine}
M^{rs} Hallam Murray has a little boy of 6 who she wants to be taught a little every day & I told her of your protégée.
If you think the plan w^d suit w^d
you mind writing
straight to her -

Her address is Newstead

Wimbledon -

Mrs. Murray is very nice & her husband is one of the publisher's family.

Kitty & I are thrilled at the story - Thank you so much for lending it to us. It is so beautifully written & so clever!

Yours affectly

Label & Margesson

I lent her the Giant story.