

Asbury Theological Seminary

ePLACE: preserving, learning, and creative exchange

---

Correspondence

Hannah Whital Smith

---

1983

Box 3_21 (Correspondence- Unidentified Authors, Various Dates)

ATS Special Collections and Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://place.asburyseminary.edu/hwscorrespondence>

Part of the Christianity Commons

---

Mr. Smith for the little book you sent me. I like it much. — I should so like to see you when you are in England again, though "Irene" is a long time to look forward to. The months seem so very very long to me just now. —

You will see in the little book the mention of my little one, who was taken home last November year. "Little Philip".

"Gillian sends her dear love to Alys & thanks her for her kind letter - which she hopes to answer in a few weeks time -" She is stronger than she was - but is of course rather busy just now - the care of the house has now fallen upon her -

My father is pretty well - & in fair spirits - but he feels the loss most deeply - it is a tremendous loss for him. Thank you dear