Welcome to IS 501X

Have you ever wondered about what is the kingdom of God, what does it mean to be the church, and how are we to participate as the church in God's mission to the world? In this course, we will have opportunity to consider a number of questions and issues including:

1. What is the Kingdom of God?
2. What is the Church?
3. How is the Kingdom of God present in the World through the Church?
4. How do we participate as the church in God's mission to the world?

We will be setting out on a journey, where we help each other give attention to these matters and work on developing our understanding of and responses to God in relation to them. May God grant to us the request of Paul's prayer recorded in Colossians 1:9-14:

Colossians 1:9 For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, 10 so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God. 11 May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully 12 giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. 13 He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, 14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. (NRSV)

I will be your guide throughout our journey together. As a guide I will help us to organize for the trip, chart the path we will take, set our pace, draw attention to landmarks, and record our findings. Obtaining Library Materials and Reference Assistance

Email: Ats_Reference@asburyseminary.edu

Toll-Free Reference Help Line: 1-866-454-2733

ExL students are encouraged to make use of local libraries, if possible. However, library services are always available to students through Asbury's B. L. Fisher Library. All requests for books and journal articles should be e-mailed to the Reference Desk (ATS_Reference@asburyseminary.edu). The Reference workers (Hannah, Robbie, and Nina) will also assist ExL students with reference requests, using various online databases, or doing research on a specific topic.

To request material from the B.L. Fisher Library, begin by searching the library catalog (for books available in the library) or one of the restricted journal databases available on the library's website (www.asburyseminary.edu/library - choose "library catalog" or "restricted databases"). Then send an email to the reference desk citing the sources that you would like to request. If you need help searching the databases, do not hesitate to call (1-866-454-2733) or email the reference desk. Students who live within a 50 mile radius of either the Florida or the Wilmore campus should come to campus to obtain their materials.

Please allow 5-10 business days for all requests to be filled. ExL students are billed for the cost of photocopies (5 cents per page); however, shipping via media rate is free. (Media rate normally takes 5 business days for shipping, but it can take two weeks to addresses in the West). Express mail services (prices vary according to weight) and scanning (10 cents per page in pdf format) are also available. Requests generally require 1-2 business days to be processed. Plan ahead and make your requests early enough to allow for shipping and processing!

Catalog Course Description

What is the mission of the church? Behind this question is a cluster of related questions, the most important focused on the nature of God's creative and redemptive purpose (as this is expressed in the biblical story), its ongoing expression in the world, and its consummation in the eschaton. Participants in this course will explore how the church might discern, embrace, and participate in God's own mission.

Course Objectives

Having successfully completed this course, students will be able to:

1. Articulate an understanding of the biblical meta-narrative (the overall storyline presented by the Bible) that comes to focus for us best in Jesus' proclamation of the kingdom of God;
2. Identify the particular contribution of the Wesleyan tradition to our understanding of this meta-narrative;
3. Draw out major theological, moral, and philosophical implications of this meta-narrative, especially as these are related to the nature and mission of the people of God;
4. Evaluate cultural products (e.g., literature, television, movies, advertisements, print media, music) in light of major theological, moral, and philosophical implications of this meta-narrative;

5. Exercise criticism with respect to one's own cultural context and discernment with respect to the context of others vis-a-vis major theological, moral, and philosophical implications of this meta-narrative;
6. Articulate the ecclesial and missional implications of this meta-narrative-specifically for one's own context and generally for our shared global context; and
7. Exhibit a heightened sense of commitment to serving the kingdom of God in mission in the world.

Basic Orientation

1. Beginnings

Our course will begin on Tuesday, September 2, 2003. Sometime during the day, our course icon will appear on your FirstClass desktop.

2. Modules

Each module will be available by the first Monday, 12 noon ET of the period for which it is scheduled. Upon opening each module, you will find detailed instructions for that module. These modules will consistently be found within the Course Center. I will be on-line throughout each week to answer any of your questions, respond to your comments, and participate in discussions.

3. Windows and Icons

While I am sure that each of you are aware of the intended use of each of the items which appear in the IS501X folder, let me summarize the manner in which I intend to use them this semester:

The Course Center will contain a copy of the syllabus as well as all class modules.

The Discussion Center will be used for all public communications. Anytime you have a question or comment about the course, the modules, the assignments, or anything else which would be of interest to your classmates and me, you should post to the Discussion Center.

The Teams folder will be used for team discussions, collaboration and accountability to each other. Within the Teams folder you will find a file that lists the membership of each Team and a folder for each Team. To engage in discussions with your Team, simply click on your Team folder, read files posted by your Team members and post your own contributions to the discussion.

The To Office icon is for private correspondence between you and me. This is where you will submit individual assignments and send private correspondence to me.

The Archives Center will be used for storing conversations that have already taken place during the course of the semester. This keeps the Discussion Center from becoming too unmanageable.

The Chat Center is intended primarily for real-time interaction among students. You can get together with other members to study, ask questions, or to explore topics. None of the conversations carried on in this location is ever saved.

The Resource Center provides access to a number of specific tools available to all ExL students. These include access to the B.L. Fisher Library, the Services in Estes Chapel, ExL Updates, Guidelines for Success, Helpful Hints, Interesting Links, a Powerpoint Viewer, and a Real Audio player. I encourage you to take advantage of all these resources, and particularly to utilize the chapel access in order to connect with the seminary's on-campus opportunities for spiritual growth.

4. Endings

Our course will officially end (communication will come to a close) on December 12, 2003 You will receive an exit correspondence from me on that day. You will not be able to submit anything to me after 12 midnight (PT) on December 12.

Course Requirements

1. Students will be assigned to a Team consisting of five or six students and the professor. The Team will be the primary venue for discussion and mutual accountability. Students will submit to their Team folder Interaction Papers that will initiate discussions among their team members over required reading. The interaction papers will have three parts:

a. In part one students will write a few sentences that identify the subject of a particular reading and what is the writer's thesis or concern in relation to that subject.

b. In part two students will briefly identify one or two specific issues raised in the reading that are important to them and briefly (in a few sentences) indicate why they think the issue(s) is(are) important to them.

c. In part three students will raise one or two questions prompted by the reading that they would like their team to discuss.

2. Students will each week submit to their Team folder their thoughts on at least two of the questions raised by their team members or professor (50 words or less per posting). This is a minimum expectation. I encourage all Team members to strive to respond to all members of their Team each week.

3. In each Module, students will be asked to engage in the study of biblical passages and/or some brief readings from the works of John Wesley that relate to the concerns of that Module. Readings from John Wesley are available electronically via the web through the ATS library. Students will each week submit to their Team folder a brief posting (50 words or less) of insights or commentary related to that study.

4. Students will spend a minimum of 12 hours participating in a Kingdom Project. A Kingdom Project will be defined as involvement in a group ministry of some kind that touches the lives of those outside of the church with the presence of the Kingdom of God. Possibilities for the Kingdom Project may include a ministry within which a student is already participating.

5. Each student will write a Kingdom Project Reflection Paper. The goal of the paper is to integrate experiences received through the kingdom project with the reading and discussion done for this class. Please write no less than three and no more than five pages. The reflection must be typed or printed with 12 point font, one inch margins on all four sides, and true double spacing. Near the end of the course students will be asked to submit their paper to their Team folder and to briefly (50 words or less) write a reflective response to the papers submitted by their Team members.

6. Mid-Term (1) essays. These essays give students an opportunity to demonstrate their achievement of the objectives for Module One (Kingdom - Living the Biblical Story). These objectives are as follows:

- a. Articulate the importance of "story."
- b. Discern how cultural products participate in inviting us into certain stories.
- c. Articulate the basis for the unity of Scripture in the overarching plan of God, from Creation to New Creation.
- d. Articulate the hermeneutical importance of the kingdom and of the incarnation for understanding the biblical story.
- e. Articulate how Wesley's understanding of the way of salvation may serve as a guide for reading the biblical story.

The essay will be no less than three and no more than five pages, 12 point font, one inch margins on all four sides, and true double spacing. I will post the specific essay question about two weeks before it is due.

7. Mid-Term (2) essay. This essay gives students an opportunity to demonstrate their achievement of the objectives for Module Two (Kingdom and Church). These objectives are as follows:

- a. Enumerate significant ways in which the ongoing life of the people of God participates in and extends the biblical story.

- b. Articulate how kingdom-living relates to a community of believers.
- c. Articulate an ecclesiology oriented around participation in the kingdom.
- d. Articulate basic forms of ecclesial practice (e.g., hospitality, mission) that are a necessary outgrowth of an ecclesial commitment to living in the kingdom.

The essay will be no less than three and no more than five pages, 12 point font, one inch margins on all four sides, and true double spacing.

8. Final essay. This essay gives students an opportunity to demonstrate their achievement of the objectives for Module Three (Kingdom, Church, and World). These objectives are as follows:

- a. Articulate the significance of the kingdom in terms of its cosmological and eschatological significance (rather than individual and subjective terms).
- b. Demonstrate the process of theological thinking - i.e., situating life within the interpretive and critical horizons of a theological vision of the purpose of God for creation that comes into focus in Jesus' proclamation of the kingdom.
- c. Draw out inferences of this view of the kingdom with respect to a range of social-ethical issues (e.g., money, justice, nationalism).
- d. Demonstrate the importance of understanding one's world in performing the kingdom.

Course Assessment

Student's fulfillment of the course requirements will contribute to their course grade in accord with the following percentages:

1. Interaction Papers and participation in discussion in their Team folders - 20%
2. Kingdom Project and Reflection Paper - 20%
3. Midterm (1) Essay - 20%
4. Midterm (2) Essay - 20%
5. Final Essay - 20%

Discussion in the Team folders will be evaluated as follows:

- a. Statements are succinct and understandable, reflecting student understanding of course material and its relationship to the questions or issues that are posed.
- b. Postings give evidence of critical reflection on the interface between course content and personal experience.

c. Postings are timely, promoting conversation among the members of the team.

I interpret letter grades to mean the following:

- A Exceptional Work
- B Good Work
- C Acceptable Work
- D Marginal Work
