Section 2. Publishing Options & Signature

This page must accompany your manuscript and the rest of the submission materials. It must contain your physical signature.

Paper copies of dissertations and theses are available to library patrons. Embargos restrict digital access to the work to the public but is made available to the ATS community upon submission.

SELECT PUBLISHING OPTIONS:

I want my work to be available as soon as it is published.

__X__ Yes - I want my Work to be open access to the general public.

____ No - I would like access to my Work to be embargoed for two (2) years, during which time digital access will be limited to library patrons.

____ No - I would like accessibility of the digital dissertation to library patrons only.

Signatures required only when requesting Embargo:

_____ _____

Academic Advisor Date

_____ _____

Dean Date

Embargo Renewals

Embargoes are set to expire from the date of submission; this date will coincide with the degree date (month and year) on the title page of your thesis or dissertation.

Please note: you are responsible for keeping track of the embargo period--notifications will not be sent.

Acknowledgement: I have read, understand and agree to this Asbury Theological Seminary Publishing Submission, including all rights and restrictions included within the publishing option chosen by me as indicated above.
