TESTIMONIALS FROM CELEBRATED PIANISTS

To Wm. B. Bradbury's New Scale Piano-Fortes.

WILLIAM MASON.

"Mr. Wm. B. Bradbury:—Dear Sir,—After repeated tests of your new scale Piano-Forte, in almost every way musical composition and expression, I find that they possess, in the highest degree, all the essentials of a perfect Piano.

The grandness, purity, equality, and duration of tone are combined in a degree rarely to be met with. Their elasticity and perfection of the action gives the most rapid response to the touch. I consider them a very superior instrument, and as such they will command the highest commendation of the artiste, the critic, or amateur.—Yours, very truly,

New York, July 25, 1863.

HARRY SANDERSON.

"After a thorough and careful examination of your New Scale Piano-Fortes, I take great pleasure in expressing my opinion at finding so perfect an instrument. Of the many qualifications so requisite in a good piano, I must say I have met with any which, in every particular as to quality of tone, elasticity of touch, and beauty of workmanship, so combines them all as do your New Scale Pianos. I can most cheerfully recommend them to all interested in the pursuit of Musical Science.—Yours truly,

September 16, 1863.

GEO. W. MORGAN,
ORGANIST OF GRACE CHURCH, N. Y.

"To Wm. B. Bradbury, Esq.:—Dear Sir,—As you wish me to give my candid opinion of your new scale Piano-Forte—I can assure you that I admire them in the highest degree. The quality of tone is remarkably fine and the elasticity that can be desired, and I can only add—let the Pianos speak for themselves, and they will give every satisfaction and have never seen any instrument of the kind that has pleased me more.—Most faithfully yours,

New York, May 2, 1864.

J. N. PATTISON.

"Mr. Wm. B. Bradbury:—Dear Sir,—Having thoroughly examined and tried your new scale Piano-Forte, I have great pleasure in recommending them to those desiring a superior instrument. For duration, fullness, and singing of tone, elasticity and delicacy of touch, and perfect workmanship throughout, I consider them equal to any I have seen.

New York, September 8, 1863.

ROBERT HELLE.

"Mr. Wm. B. Bradbury:—Dear Sir,—The little affair at your Piano-Forte Rooms the other day when I met Sanderson, Morgan and others was a musical treat. I enjoyed it immensely; not only on account of the excellent made on the occasion, but also because it was always pleasant to have a good first class instrument to play upon; at Harry Sanderson's establishment, I was not prepared to find such Pianos. What more can be than the excellence of these instruments I don't know; for in every particular as to tone, touch, quality or power, perfect.

The duets played by Sanderson and myself proved the equality of the Pianos, for no matter which instrument played upon, and I believe we tried eight or ten of them, the effect was always the same.—Truly yours.

New York, June, 1864.

THE
GOLDEN CENSER:
A MUSICAL OFFERING
TO THE SABBATH SCHOOLS,
CHILDREN'S HOSANNAS TO THE SON OF DAVID:

"And when the Chief Priests and Scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, HOSANNA TO THE SON OF DAVID, they were sore displeased, and said unto Him, 'Hearest thou what these say?' And He said unto them, 'Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?'"

A great improvement has been made within a few years in the music of our Sabbath Schools. This may be attributed in part at least to the character of the music and hymns recently introduced. No longer resorting to low Negro melodies for their devotional hymns, our Schools have turned their attention to music of a higher order; music composed expressly for and adapted to the use of Sabbath Schools. It has perhaps been as much the privilege of the author of The Golden Censer, as that of any one to contribute to this result. The hundreds of thousands of Golden Chains, Showers, and Oriolas that have winged their way all over the land, testify to the success of this enterprise; while thousands of letters from Superintendents, Teachers and Pastors received by the author of these works, bidding him "God speed," bear uniform testimony to the good that has already been accomplished through their circulation.

The writer's especial attention was called to this work upon observing, a few years since, the character of the music that was placed in the hands of Sabbath School children, and, with a determination that his best talents as a composer should be devoted to the Sabbath School cause until our Sabbath Schools should at least be in possession of melodies and hymns composed expressly for their use, that were not only pleasing and attractive, but free also from all unhallowed associations, he set himself at work.

An ardent love for the employment, and a pretty extensive acquaintance with leading Sabbath School friends throughout the country, has brought to the author's aid a host of valuable assistants—writers of some of the sweetest hymns in our language, and many of these, ladies, whose devotion to the cause has inspired their pens with heavenly ardor. These hymns are brimful of the Gospel, and if they do not sing themselves right into the hearts of both teachers and children, the fault must be in the music, and not in the hymn. More than the usual number of scripture themes will here be found, while that most popular and appropriate modern feature, the ever recurring "Refrain" and "Chorus," sung as children only can sing them, tend to fasten like "a nail in a sure place" the sentiment of the hymn. We have space only to suggest to those about adopting the Censer, the names of a few pieces as an introduction, viz.: Glory to the Lamb, page 5; My Sabbath Song, p. 6; The Sinner's Friend, 7; Sunday School Recruiting Song, 10; Jesus Paid it All, 12; We are Coming, 17; Never be Afraid, 20; The Blessed Sunday School, 30; Jesus Died for me, 36; Blessed Bible, 42; Bright Mansions, 48; The Better Part, 56; Seeking Jesus, 68; The House upon a Rock, 72; White Robes, 84; Something to do in Heaven, 80; The Little Band, 60; Always There, 9, &c., &c., &c.

We offer in the Golden Censer our sweetest incense,—the incense of children's Hosannas to their Saviour and King. May these be to Him an acceptable offering,—an offering of a sweet smelling savor.

Directions for the Movement.—Directions, partly in figures, are given to the different pieces at their beginning, as "24—two to the measure," etc., the meaning of which is, Take a string and attach a light weight to one end of it, holding the other between the thumb and finger, at a distance of twenty-four inches from the weight. Set the string in motion, oscillating like the pendulum of a clock. Two of these vibrations mark the time of a measure of this piece of music. The explanation being in brief thus: "String 24 inches long—two vibrations to the measure," etc., etc. The little pocket circular tape measure is very convenient for this purpose, the case serving for the weight.
NOTICE TO BOOK COMPILERS AND OTHERS.

The music and poetry of nearly every piece in the Golden Censer is the copy-right property of the author, having been composed and written expressly for this book, and "entered according to Act of Congress." No person, therefore, has a right to print in any form, or for any purpose whatever, either words or music, without first obtaining permission from the author. If hymns or tunes are desired for Sunday School Anniversaries, or for any other purpose, such permission must first be obtained, otherwise the person using them trespasses against the laws of copy-right, makes himself liable, and will be held accountable.

"Why should Children hold their Peace?"

Matthew 21: 15, 16

SEMI-CHORUS.

1. Why should children hold their peace?
   Did the loving Saviour say,
   When the haughty, hating Jews Sought their youthful songs to stay.
   "Ho-san-nah, ho-san-nah, ho-

   san-nah to the Son of David! Praise him, O praise him, Our Saviour and our King." "Suffer them to come," said Jesus; Hence our youthful throng.

   "Suf-fer them to come," said Jesus; Hence our joyful song.

2. Why should children hold their peace,
   When the whole creation sings,
   And the rounded firmament
   With its Maker’s glory rings?—Cho.

3. Why should children hold their peace,
   When their happy hearts rejoice?
   What so tuneful to our Lord,
   As his praise from childhood’s voice?—Cho.

4. Why should children hold their peace?
   Why did God their voices give;
   Save to praise the Lamb who died
   That the children’s souls might live?—Cho.

5. If the children hold their peace,
   Then the very stones shall sing,
   And the mountains and the hills
   Shall their echoing tribute bring!—Cho.

28—Two to each measure.

FULL CHORUS. ff
1. "Come to me all ye that labor, Heavy laden and oppressed," These were the precious words of Jesus.

2. "Take my easy yoke upon you, Leave the wrong and choose the right; Come learn of me the meek and lowly,

3. Lord, we come to plead thy promise,
   We, by sin and guilt oppressed,
   Would take thy easy yoke upon us;
   Grant us, Lord, on thee to rest.

   'Tis a Father's love, &c.

4. Guard us by thy kind protection,
   Purify our every heart;
   O teach us, Lord, and make us humble,
   Meek, and lowly, as thou art.

   'Tis a Father's love, &c.

* Words written for this work.
My Sabbath Song.

1. Strains of music often greet me As I join the busy throng, But there's nothing half so pleasant As the holy Sabbath song. No fear of ill, No fear of wrong, While I can sing my Sabbath song; My Sabbath song, My Sabbath song; I love to sing my Sabbath song.

2. 'Tis a song of love and mercy Speaking peace to all mankind; Telling sinners, poor and needy, Where the Saviour they may find. No fear of ill, &c.

3. Angels sweetly sing in glory Songs of praise to God, their King; But the song of blest redemption Man, redeemed, alone can sing. No fear of ill, &c.

4. While I live, O, may I ever Love the holy Sabbath song; And when death shall call me homeward, Join it with the blood-bought throng. No fear of ill, &c.
The Sinner's Friend.

Words by Kate Cameron.

1. Whatever cross the world may bring Of poverty and shame, To Jesus' hand we still can cling—He always is the same. He who was the sinner's Friend Will be happiness more dear, And fills with peace our heart. He who was, the sinner's Friend Will, &c.

2. In sorrow's hour his love can cheer, And bid our fears depart; He makes our with us to the end, Nothing every smile and tear: Our blessed Saviour's ever near.

3. Dear Saviour, make us truly thine, And all our sins forgive; Conform us to thy will divine, And bless us while we live. He who was, &c.

4. And in the world beyond the sky, With thee we'll gladly dwell; No more to weep, no more to die, No more to say farewell. He who was, &c.
Dare to do Right! Dare to be True!

2. Dare to do right! Dare to be true! God, who created you, cares for you too;
3. Dare to do right! Dare to be true! Do it so bravely, so kindly, so well, Angels will hasten the story to tell.

Stand by your conscience, your honor, your faith; Stand like a hero, and battle till death.

Treasures the tears that his striving ones shed, Counts and protects every hair of your head.

Dare, Dare, Dare to do right! Dare, dare, dare to be true! Dare to be true! dare to be true!

1. Why should cold or stormy weather Keep me on this holy day From my duty to my Saviour,
2. Blessed place, where every moment Seems a treasure bright and fair, Dear-ly prized above all others,

CHORUS.

From the Sabbath-school away. Always there, Always there, There to join in praise and prayer; There to meet my teacher dear, There to join in praise and prayer, There to meet my teacher dear, And join in praise and prayer.

3. When on earth my Saviour wandered, Cold and weary, many a day, He at midnight sought the desert, In its solitude to pray.—Cho
4. With an humble, lowly spirit, Would I know and do his will;

Learning under every trial How to suffer and be still.—Cho.

5. Ne'er shall cold or stormy weather Keep me on this holy day From my duty to my Saviour, From the Sabbath-school away.—Cho.
Sunday School Recruiting Song.

Words by Mrs. E. M. Sangster.

Single Voice, (Boy) or Semichorus. 18—Two to each measure.

1. Do you know any little bare-foot boy, In a garret or a cellar, Who shivers with cold, and whose garments old—Will scarcely hold together? Go bring him in; there is room to spare; Here are food, and shelter, and pity: And we'll not shut the door 'Gainst one of Christ's poor, Tho' you bring every child in the city.

Girl.

2. Do you know any little tired girl,
   Whose feet with cold are aching;
   Whose shrinking form braves the winter's storm;
   The alms of the richer taking?
   "Go bring her in," &c.

3. Can you think of a comrade who often goes
   To play in the lots on Sunday,
   And who's late at school, and who breaks the rule
   Of his teacher dear on Monday?
   "Go bring him in," &c.
4. Go! gather them in from the tenement house,
   And the merchant's stately palace;
From the world's dark strife, and the heavenly life,
   Let them drink from the golden chalice.
   "Go bring them in," &c.

5. 'Tis the Master's work! there is none so low,
   But his loving hand may reach them,
   And there's none so sunken in want and woe.
   But we'll joy to help and teach them.
   "Go bring them in," &c.

   With holy confidence to sing
   That death has lost his cruel sting.

   No fear, no woe, shall dim the hour
   That manifests the Saviour's power.

   The name before his wondrous birth To Christ, the Saviour, given. [Jesus;]
   We love to sing around our King, And hail him blessed D. C. For there's no word ear ever heard, So dear, so sweet, as Je-sus.

   They wrote his name above him,
   That all might see the reason we

Sweet Land of Rest."

C. M.

Wm. B. Bradbury.

1. Sweet land of rest! for thee I sigh, When will the moment come? When I shall lay my armor by, And dwell with Christ at home.

2. No tranquil joys on earth I know, No peaceful sheltering home—This world's a wilderness of woe, This world is not my home.

3. To Jesus Christ I sought for rest,
   He bade me cease to roam,
   But fly for succor to his breast,
   And he'd conduct me home.
   Home, home, &c.

   This vale of sin and gloom,
   I long to leave the unhallowed ground,

Our Fathers Long Ago. (Concluded.)

Little hands in prayer, Children in that pilgrim band Clasped their little hands in prayer.

2.
Sweetly rang their evening hymn
O'er that region vast and wide,
Through the forest dark and dim,
And the rocking pines replied.
'Twas a cold December night,
And the earth was robed in snow,
But the stars with mellow light
Blest our fathers long ago.

3.
When the early buds were seen,
And the robin's song was heard,
Children frolicked on the green,
Happy as the woodland bird;

Culled the daisy young and fair,
Watched the brooklet's quiet flow,
Banished every cloud of care
From our fathers long ago.

4.
When our country's banner bright
Told her deeds of noble worth,
Children hailed its radiant light,
Hailed the land that give them birth;
Children now rejoice to hear,
All their youthful hearts can know,
And the precepts still revere
Of their fathers long ago.
3. Still the mighty King of Salem
   Comes in holy triumph nigh,—
   Still hosannas, loud resounding,
   Rise from infant tongues on high,—
   Still the sceptic and the scoffer
   Sneer and ridicule the song,—
   And the Saviour smiles as sweetly
   On the happy infant throng.

4. In the day when gathered millions
   Sing hosannas, far away,
   'Mid the shining hosts of angels,
   Infant tongues shall swell the lay.
   Come then, children, to the Saviour,
   Sweetest welcome waits you here;
   And with those bright hosts in heaven,
   You shall sing his praises there.
We are Coming, Blessed Saviour.

3. We are coming, blessed Saviour, Our Father's house we see— A glorious mansion ever For children young as we. We are coming, &c. Our Father's house we see.

4. We are coming, blessed Saviour, That happy home is ours; If here we gain thy favor We'll reach those fragrant bowers. We are coming, &c. That happy home is ours.

Morn of Zion's Glory.

1. Morn of Zion's glory, brightly thou art breaking. Holy joy thy light awaking; Morn of Zion's glory, streams of rich salvation Flow to every nation.

Ancient saints foretold thee, Seraph angels glad behold thee:

2. Morn of Zion's glory—
   Every human dwelling
   With thy notes of joy is swelling;
   Morn of Zion's glory.
   Distant hills are ringing,
   Echoed voices sweet are singing
   Haste thee on,
   Like the sun,
   Paths of splendor tracing,
   Heathen midnight chasing.

3. Morn of Zion's glory—
   Now the night is riven;
   Now the star is high in heaven;
   Morn of Zion's glory.
   Joyful hearts are bounding,
   Hallelujah sweetly sounding;
   Peace with men

Bartimeus. 8s & 7s.

1. In the cross of Christ I glory, Towering o'er the wrecks of time; All the light of sacred story Gathers round its head sublime.

2. When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive and fears annoy,
Never shall the cross forsake me;
Lo! it glows with peace and joy.

3. When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance streaming
Adds new lustre to the day.

4. Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified;
Peace is there that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

5. In the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the lights of sacred story

The Gathering.

Joyfully, with Spirit and Energy. MM. J-160.

1. We gather, we gather, dear Jesus, to bring The breathings of love, 'mid the blossoms of Spring;
2. When, stooping to earth from the brightness of heaven, Thy blood for our ransom so freely was given;

Our Maker! Redeemer! we gratefully raise Our hearts and our voices in hymning thy praise,
Thou designest to listen while children adored, With joyful hosannas—the bless'd of the Lord.

REFRAIN.

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hosanna in the highest! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hosanna in the highest! Hallelujah!

3. Those arms which embraced little children of old,
   Still love to encircle the lambs of the fold
   That grace which inviteth the wandering home,
   Hath never forbidden the youngest to come.
Hallelujah, &c.

4. Hosanna! hosanna! Great Teacher, we raise
   Our hearts and our voices in hymning thy praise,
   For precepts and promise so graciously given,
   For blessings of earth and the glories of heaven,

What shall I Do for Jesus.

1. What shall I do for that kind Friend Who once for me so poor became; Who had not where to lay His head, Who suffered death, reproach, and shame. What shall I do, What shall I do, What shall I do, &c.

2. For Him who bore my sins a-way, Who freely shed His blood for me, Who sought me when I went a-stray, Redeemed my soul and made it free. What shall I do, What shall I do, What shall I do, &c.

3. For Him who, with such tender love, Bestows the riches of His grace; For Him who intercedes above, And for my soul prepares a place. What can I do, &c.

4. I'll give to Him my heart and life, And love and serve Him day by day; And this shall be my only strife, That from His fold I may not stray. This can I do, &c.

Who is my Neighbor?

Words by Mrs. M. A. Kidder.

1. O, who is my neighbor? pray tell me, As I journey along here below;

2. The world is thy neighbor, poor pilgrim; From the beggar so wretched to see,

For my Bible commands me to love him As myself, and my neighbor I'd know;

To the rich man that rides in his carriage, All alike have a claim up on thee!

Is it he who sits down at my table, My brother so dear unto me,

Go ye out in the highways and hedges, The alleys, the lanes, and the street;

Or my friend who hath done me a favor, My neighbor, O, where may he

For ye never have need to stand idle The want of a neighbor to
Who is my Neighbor? Concluded.

3. Drink deep from sweet charity's fountain;
   Little failings in kindness o'erlook;
   For our Saviour had pity for others,
   And he never his neighbor forsook
   He never forsook, &c.

   My neighbor, oh! where may he be?
   The want of a neighbor to greet.

   Where may he be? where may he be?
   He hath said that a cup of cold water,
   If given in the name of the Lord,
   In that day when he makes up his jewels,
   Shall meet with a tenfold reward!
   A tenfold reward, &c.

Melody, or Chelmsford. C. M.

1. Come, let us join our cheerful songs
   With angels round the throne;
   Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
   But all their joys are one.

   Worthy the Lamb that died, they cry,
   To be exalted thus;
   Worthy the Lamb, our lips reply,
   For he was slain for us.

2. Jesus is worthy to receive
   Honor and power divine;
   And blessings more than we can give
   Be, Lord, forever thine.

4. Let all that dwell above the sky,
   And air, and earth, and seas,
   Conspire to lift thy glories high,
   And speak thine endless praise.

   Doxology.—To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
   One God, whom we adore,
   Be glory, as it was, is now,
   And shall be evermore.

"Your Saviour Wept." C. M. Double.

Words by C.

Gently. 32—Three to each measure.

1. How sweet in every trying scene, That wounds the spirit here, To feel that Jesus bore our grief, And know he still is near;

O ye who o'er the couch of death Your lonely watch have kept, Tho' anguish rend your aching breast, Remember Jesus wept.

2. He groaned in spirit while he spoke:
   "Where have you laid the dead?"
   "Lord, come and see," they murmured low,
   He followed where they led;
   Beneath a cold sepulchral stone
   An only brother slept,
   And angels wondered as they gazed,
   For lo! the Saviour wept.

3. How oft the prayer our lips would breathe. The heart alone may speak;
   How oft the penitential tear
   Bedews the mourner's cheek:
   Poor child of toil, though dark and sad,
   Thy weary lot may be,
   With few to smooth life's rugged path,
   Thy Saviour wept for thee.

1. When I can read my title clear To mansions in the skies, I bid farewell to every fear, And wipe my weeping eyes.

Cho.—I want to go, I want to go, I want to go there too, I want to go where Jesus is, I want to go there too.
2. Should earth against my soul engage,
And hellish darts be hurled,
Then I can smile at Satan's rage,
And face a frowning world.

Cho.—I want to go, &c.

The Land of Canaan.

1. We journey on to the land above,
A land of light and a land of love;
We're strangers here, and the land we're in,
Tho' a pleasant land, is a land of sin.

We are journeying on to the land of Canaan;
Travelling with Abraham, and rest at home with the Lord our God.

2. A little while in the land below,
To that above we will shortly go;
A few more days on the pilgrim road,
Then we'll

There we shall dwell, ever in the land of Canaan.

We'll look to that where we soon shall go;
And fix our eyes on our Saviour's throne,
We must seek for strength in his grace alone.

We are journeying, &c.

The land above we will gain at last,
And shout for joy, as we enter in,
Farewell, farewell to the land of sin!

"The Master has Come over Jordan."

Extract from a letter from Rev. Wm. Goodell, D.D., of Constantinople, Turkey, to Rev. Dr. Prime, of New York:

"I come to ask a special favor of you, viz.: that you will see that 'sweet singer in Israel' and composer, Mr. ——, and ask him to make a tune for that beautiful hymn beginning with 'The Master hath come over Jordan.' The tune should be a very simple one and suited to the popular ear, that all the Christian mothers in the world may learn to sing it by hearing it once. We shall pray that Brother —— may be where John was 'on the Lord's day' (not in exile, but in the spirit); and may be assisted to make a tune which shall be sung in my land by my tongue, not only till the beginning of the Millennium, but straight through till the very end of it, and even far beyond."

1. "The Mas-ter has come o-ver Jor-dan," Said Han-nah, the moth-er, one day;

"He is heal-ing the peo-ple who throng him, With a touch of his fin-ger, they say;

And now I shall car-ry the chil-dren—Lit-tle Ra-chel, and Sam-uel, and John,
2. The father then looked at her kindly,
   And said, as he tenderly smiled,
   "Now who but a fond loving mother
   Would think of a project so wild.
   If the children were tortured by demons,
   Or dying with fever, 'twere well;
   Or had they the taint of the leper,
   Like many around us who dwell."

3. "Nay, nay, do not hinder me, Nathan.
   I feel such a burden of care;
   And if to the Master I tell it,
   That burden He'll help me to bear;
   If He lay but His hands on the children,
   My heart will be lighter, I know,
   For a blessing for ever and ever
   Will follow them each as they go."

4. So, over the mountains of Judah,
   Along with the vines all so green,
   With Esther asleep on her bosom,
   And Rachel her brothers between;

5. "Now, why shouldst thou hinder the master,"
   Said Peter, "with children like these?
   Thou knowest from morn until evening
   He is teaching, and healing disease."
   Said Jesus: "Forbid not the children,
   Permit them to come unto me!"
   Then He took in His arms little Esther,
   And Rachel He sat on His knee.

6. The care-stricken heart of the mother
   Was lifted all sorrow above;
   His hands kindly laid on the children,
   He blest them with holiest love;
   And said of the babes on His bosom,
   "Of such are the kingdom of Heaven."
   Then strength for all duty and trial,
   That hour to her Spirit was given.

Do Good.*

Quick and Lively. 4—One to each measure.

1. Do good, do good, there is ever a way, There's a way where there's ever a will; Don't wait till to-morrow, but do it to-day, And to-day when to-morrow comes still. Do good, do good, there's prove you are grateful to God from your heart, And your neighbor you love as yourself. Do good, do good, &c.

2. If wealth be yours, then be willing to part With a portion, at least, of your wealth, And do it to-day, And to-day, when to-morrow comes, still, And to-day, when to-morrow comes, still.

   The ill which I this day have done;

Words by Mrs. Doct. Palmer. “Thy word have I hid in my heart.”—David

Gently, with strong emphasis. 22—Three to each measure.

Music by Wm. B. Bradbury.

1. Blessed Bible! how I love it! How it doth my bosom cheer! What on earth like this to covet? Oh, what stores of wealth are here! Man was lost and doom’d to sorrow, Not one ray of light or bliss Could he from earth’s treasures borrow, Till his way was cheer’d by this. Blessed Bible, Blessed Bible, how thou dost my spirit cheer, cheer.

   Precious Word, I'll hide thee here,
   Sure my very heart will bless thee,
   For thou ever say'st "Good cheer!"

   Tell how far thy rovings led,
   When this book brought back thy wand'ring,
   Speaking life as from the dead.
   Blessed Bible! &c.

4. Yes, sweet Bible! I will hide thee
   Deep—yes, deeper in this heart;
   Thou through all my life wilt guide me,
   And in death we will not part.
   Part in death? no, never! never!
   Through death's vale I'll lean on thee;
   Then in worlds above, forever
   Sweeter still thy truths shall be.

Jesus' Little Lamb.

INFANT CLASS SONG.

24—Two to each measure.

1. I am Jesus' little Lamb, Therefore glad and gay I am; Jesus loves me, Jesus knows me,
   All that's good and fair he shows me, Tends me ev'ry day the same, Even calls me by my name.

A new heart is a singing heart. Have you, dear reader, a heart that leads you to love to sing the praises of Jesus?

"Mr. Ellinswood came and asked me if I had found the dear Jesus, and I told him I was trying to find him. When he prayed for me, I resolved that I would love the dear Jesus, and when he got through praying, I thought I had found the dear Jesus; and when I went home that night I got down on my knees, and gave myself right up to Jesus, and I know he took me, and I prayed for him to give me a new heart, and he gave it to me. Oh! Mr. Hammond, I feel so happy since I found the dear Jesus: I feel like singing all the time,"

Young Soldiers of the Cross.

Words by Mrs. E. M. Sangster.

Spirited and Energetic.  Three to each measure.

1. Go forth, young soldier of the Cross, The battle hour is nigh, And ye have bound the armor on, And sworn to do or die. Our bugle ne'er shall sound retreat While Jesus leads us to loss, If but one soldier die. Whene'er you dare the hostile ranks, Forget not that within there hides a most terrific foe, The wily "in-bred sin." A beautiful crown is waiting for you, Far away in the promised land; A beautiful crown is waiting for me, Far away in the promised land.

2. Be watchful, army of the Cross, The foe is lurking nigh: A soul must be the mighty full chorus.

on; We will not lay our weapons by Until we wear the crown. A beautiful crown is waiting for in the promised land; A beautiful crown is waiting for me, in the promised land.

Composed for, and sung at, the 48th Anniversary of the New York Sunday-school Union, May 10, 1864.
8. On guard, young soldier of the Cross,
   Through all the weary night,
   With praise and prayer relieve your care,
   And keep your armor bright.
Your Jesus once, "without the camp,"
   Bought liberty for you;
Then bravely fight for truth and right,
   And keep your crown in view.
   A beautiful crown is waiting, &c.

4. Rejoice, young soldier of the Cross,
   The victory is sure;
   The harp, the palm, are waiting all
   Who to the end endure:
Your weary feet shall walk the street
   All paved with gold, on high;
And he who wore a crown of thorns,
   Will crown you in the sky.
   A beautiful crown is waiting, &c.

The Standard of the Cross.
MISSIONARY SONG.—Tune, "Young Soldier."

1. The sacred banner of the Cross,
   The pledge of victory won
By him who in his anguish cried,
   "Thy will, not mine, be done."
Ye, who have borne through many a field
   Its blood-stained colors fair,
Go where your dear Redeemer trod,
   And plant that standard there.
   A beautiful crown is waiting, &c.

3. Jerusalem shall yet rejoice
   To hail Messiah's reign;
The solitary place be glad,
   The desert bloom again;
Her ruin'd towers, her crumbled walls,
   Their ancient glory wear;
The crescent to the Cross shall bend,
   Go plant that standard there.
   A beautiful crown is waiting, &c.

2. On Jordan's bank, on Olives' mount,
   And all those dewy plains
Where Judah's harp in happier times
   Rang out its tuneful strains:

   For Closing School.
   Tune.—OLD HUNDRED.

1. Dismiss us with thy blessing, Lord,
   Help us to feed upon thy word;
All that has been amiss forgive,
   And let thy truth within us live.

2. Though we are guilty, thou art good,
   Wash all our works in Jesus' blood;
Give every fetter'd soul release,
   And bid us all depart in peace.

Spirited.

1. Go work to-day in the vineyard of the Lord, Work, work to-day, Work, work to-day; To those who toil he has promised a reward.

CHORUS.

Work, work to-day, work to-day; For a crown of life you may win and wear, In your father's house there are mansions fair. Go

For a word may fall or a tear may start,
That will find its way to some grateful heart.
Go work to-day, &c.

"MARY HATH CHosen THAT GOOD PART, WHICH SHALL NOT BE TAKEN AWAY FROM HER."—Luke 10: 46-52.

15—One to each.

DUET. Gentle.

1. Mary sat at the feet of Jesus,
   Heeding nought but his holy teaching;
   Lowly, meek—with a humble heart,
   She had chosen the better part.

CHORUS.

Mary's part was the better part, Sitting at the feet of Jesus; There, with an humble, a broken heart,
   I would choose that better part.

2. Cares that long with their weight oppressed her,
   Tears that oft to her eyes would start,
   All were lost in a beam of comfort:
   She had chosen the better part.—Cho.

4. Jesus, now at thy footstool kneeling,
   Grant thine aid to my longing heart;
   May sing with the blest in glory,
   I have chosen the better part.—Cho.

Man the Life-Boat!

Quick and Spirited.

Wm. B. Bradbury.

On the billow's feathery height; Now 'midst fearful depths descending, While we wither at the sight.

2. Courage! courage! she's in safety!
   See again her buoyant form,
   By his gracious hand uplifted,
   Who controls the raging storm.
   With her precious cargo freighted,
   Now the life-boat nears the shore;
   Parents, brethren, friends, embracing,
   Those they thought to see no more.

3. Christian, pause, and deeply ponder;
   Is there nothing you can do?
   The sinking ship, the storm, the life-boat,
   Have they not a voice for you?

There's a storm, a fearful tempest—
   Souls are sinking in despair;
   There's a shore of blessed refuge,
   Try, O try to guide them there.

4. O, remember Him who saved you,
   Whose right hand deliverance wrought,
   Who, from depths of guilt and anguish,
   You to peace and safety brought;
   'Tis His voice who cheers you onward—
   "He that winneth souls is wise;"
   Launch the Gospel's blessed life-boat;
   Venture all to win the prize.
A group of happy children, One bright and sunny day,
Were tripping, lightly tripping To Sabbath-school away,
Along the fields and meadows, Where buds and blossom grew;
Their hearts were full of gladness, Of gladness, of gladness, Their hearts were full of gladness, Their faces smiling, too.

They loved the blessed Bible,
They loved the house of prayer,
For there they hear of Jesus,
Of Jesus, of Jesus,
For there they hear of Jesus,
And learn to praise him there.

Then let us all remember,
And keep this holy day,
And when we're lightly tripping To Sabbath-school away,
We'll thank our heavenly Father
For his own word of Truth;
We'll give our hearts to Jesus,
To Jesus, to Jesus,
We'll give our hearts to Jesus,
And serve him in our youth.

   CHORUS. More Spirited.

   Then go with me to the Sabbath-school,

   Telling of redeeming love,
   Sweetly wafted far away,

   Would you live forever blest,
   With your Saviour and your God?
   Would you on his bosom rest,

   Then go with me, &c

3. Can you with those children kneel
   In the Sabbath-school to-day?
   Do you humbly, truly feel
   Every word they say?
   Is a glistening tear-drop seen
   Trickling down your cheek the while?
   In its penitential beam,
   View a Father's smile.
   Then go with me &c.
Go and Tell Jesus.

1. Go and tell Jesus, weary, sin-sick soul, He'll ease thee of thy burden, make thee whole;

2. Go and tell Jesus, when your sins arise
   Like mountains of deep guilt before your eyes:
   Go and tell Jesus, He only can forgive.

3. Go and tell Jesus, he'll dispel thy fears,
   Will calm thy doubts, and wipe away thy tears;
   Go and tell Jesus, He only can forgive.

Look up to Him, He only can forgive, Believe on Him and thou shalt surely live.

CHORUS.

Go and tell Jesus, Go and tell Jesus, Go and tell Jesus, O turn to Him and live.

THOU mayst be happy, and for ever rest—Chorus.

D. C. Weary of wand'ring long, &c.

I thought these weary feet Straightway would find All rough and rugged paths Left far behind.

2. But, as I onward passed,
The way grew steep;
And black clouds gathered fast,
And skies did weep,
And darkness seemed to hide
The toilsome road;
Amazed, again I cried,
"Thy way, O God!"

3. "A lamp unto my feet,"
God's word did prove;
A "still, small voice," and sweet,

Each step, this darksome night,
Is bringing me
Still nearer to the bright

DIALOGUE SONG.

1. What do you do at the Sabbath school, At the Sabbath school, At the Sabbath school? What do you do at the Sabbath school,

At the happy Sabbath school? { First we sing a song of praise, Then in prayer our voices raise, }
{ Then we each our lesson say, Closing with another lay, } That's what we do at the

Sabbath school, At the Sabbath school,
That's what we do at the Sabbath school, At the happy Sabbath school.

2. What do you learn at the Sabbath-school,
At the happy Sabbath school?

Love the happy Sabbath school?
There we with our Saviour meet,
At the blood-bought mercy-seat;
Where he ever whispers, "Come
To thy blissful, heavenly home."
That's why we all love the Sabbath school,
Love the happy Sabbath school.

   Ashamed of thee, whom angels praise,

2. Ashamed of Jesus! that dear Friend,
   On whom my hopes of heaven depend!
   No! when I blush, be this my shame,—
   That I no more revere his name.

State Street. S. M. J. C. Woodman.

1. Blest be the tie that binds Our hearts in Christian love; The fellowship of kindred minds Is like to that above.
2. Before our Father's throne We pour our ardent prayers; Our fears, our hopes, our aims, are one, Our comforts and our cares.

3. We share our mutual woes,
   Our mutual burdens bear,
   And often for each other flows
   The sympathizing tear.

4. This glorious hope revives
   Our courage by the way;
   While each in expectation lives,
   And longs to see the day.

4. Then let my house be built upon a rock.
   For there it will stand forever;
   The floods may come, and the rolling thunder's check
   May beat upon my house that is founded on a rock.
   But it never will fall, never will fall,
   Never, never, never!—Chorus.

Ashamed of Jesus! yes, I may,
When I've no guilt to wash away,
No tear to wipe, no good to crave,
No fears to quell, no soul to save.

Ashamed of Jesus! that dear Friend,
On whom my hopes of heaven depend!
No! when I blush, be this my shame,—
That I no more revere his name.

Poor Pilgrim.

1. Come, poor pilgrim, sad and weary, Why heaves thy breast? Roaming this wide world so dreary,
   There is rest for thee in glory, Among the blest; Listen to the joyful story,
   Sighing for rest.

Scatter Smiles as You Go.

Words by R. S. T.

7—One to each.

1. Scatter smiles, bright smiles, as you pass on your way, Thro' this world of toil and care; Like the beams of the morning that gently play, They will leave a sunlight there. Scatter smiles, bright smiles, Scatter smiles, bright smiles, Scatter smiles, bright smiles,

Scatter smiles, bright smiles, bright smiles, smiles as you pass on your way, Scatter smiles, bright smiles, Scatter smiles, bright smiles.

Scatter smiles, bright smiles, 'tis but little they cost; But your heart may never know What a joy they may carry to weary ones Who are pale with want and woe.—Chorus.

2. Scatter smiles, bright smiles, o'er the grave of the past, Where the orphan's treasure lies; In the tear-drop that glistens there light will shine,

3. Scatter smiles, bright smiles as you pass on your way.

As the rainbow paints the skies.—Chorus.
"Scatter Smiles as You Go."

4. Scatter smiles, bright smiles, o'er the young who have strayed,
   From the path where once they trod;
You may lead to the fountain of truth again,
You may bring them home to God. — Chorus.

   Through this world of toil and care;
Like the beams of the morning that gently play,

The Solid Rock. L. M. 6 lines.

1. My hope is built on nothing less Than Jesus' blood and righteousness; I dare not trust the sweetest frame, But wholly lean on Jesus' name: On Christ, the solid rock, I stand; All other ground is sinking sand.

2. When darkness seems to veil his face,
   I rest on his unchanging grace;
In every high and stormy gale,
My anchor holds within the vale:
   On Christ, the solid rock, I stand; All other ground is sinking sand.

3. His oath, his covenant, and blood,
   Support me in the overwhelming flood:
When all around my soul gives way,
He then is all my hope and stay:
   On Christ, the solid rock, I stand; All other ground is sinking sand.

They have clean robes, white robes, White robes are waiting for me! Yes, clean robes, white robes, Wash'd in the blood of the Lamb.

The Lamb upon Calvaru

1. I saw One hanging on a tree In agonies and blood, Who fixed His languid eyes on me, As near His cross I stood.
2. Sure never till my latest breath Can I forget that look; It seemed to charge me with his death, Tho' not a word He spoke.

CHORUS.

O, the Lamb, the loving Lamb, The Lamb upon Calvary, The Lamb that was slain and liveth again To intercede for me.

3. My conscience felt and owned my guilt,
   And plunged me in despair;
   I saw my sins his blood had spilt,
   And helped to nail him there.
   O, the Lamb, the loving Lamb, &c.

   "I freely all forgive;
   This blood is for thy ransom paid,
   I die that thou may'st live."

O, We are Volunteers.

From "The Silver Chime," by permission.

Not too Fast. 7—Four to each measure.

We are volunteers in the army of the Lord, Forming into line at our Captain's word;

The glory of our flag is the emblem of the dove, Gleaming are our swords from the forge of love;

Our foes are in the field, pressing hard on ev'ry side,—Envy, anger, hatred, with self and pride;

Glorious is the struggle in which we draw the sword, Glorious in the Kingdom of Christ, our Lord;

We are under marching orders to take the battlefield, And we'll ne'er give o'er the fight till the foe shall yield.

We go forth, but not to battle for earthly honors vain, 'Tis a bright immortal crown that we seek to gain.

They are cruel, fierce and strong, ever ready to attack; We must watch, and fight, and pray, if we'd drive them back.

It shall spread from sea to sea, it shall reach from shore to shore, And His people shall be blessed for evermore.

CHORUS.

Come and join the army, the army of the Lord, Jesus is our Captain, we rally at his word;

Sharp will be the conflict with the pow'rs of sin, But with such a Leader, we are sure to win.

2. Tempt not my soul a-way, Jesus is mine; Here would I ev-er stay, Jesus is mine;
3. Farewell, ye dreams of night, Jesus is mine;
   Lost in this dawning light, Jesus is mine;
   All that my soul has tried,
   Left but a dismal void,—Jesus has satisfied,
4. Farewell mortality,
   Jesus is mine;
   Welcome eternity,
   Jesus is mine;
   Welcome, O loved and blest,
   Welcome, sweet scenes of rest,
   Welcome my Saviour’s breast,

Dark is the wilderness, Earth has no resting-place, Jesus a-lone can bless, Jesus is mine.
Perishing things of clay, Born but for one brief day, Pass from my heart away, Jesus is mine.

Yes, children, children Are in that glorious kingdom, That kingdom, That kingdom, That kingdom bright and fair.

2. O, in that glorious kingdom
   Is built a throne of gold;
   Its ornaments are jewels,
   With riches all untold.
   A kingdom, kingdom,
   A bright and glorious kingdom,
   A kingdom, a kingdom,
   A kingdom bright and fair.

3. O, in that glorious kingdom,
   And on that golden throne,
   There reigns the blessed Saviour,
   Those children are his own.

4. And in that glorious kingdom,
   Around the throne of gold,

   Their numbers are untold.
   Yes, angels—angels
   Are in that glorious kingdom;
   That kingdom, that kingdom,
   That kingdom bright and fair.
5. The children of that kingdom,
    Around that glorious throne,
Have palms and crowns of victory,
    And harps of sweetest tone.
    All singing—singing
There in that glorious kingdom;
    That kingdom, that kingdom,
    That kingdom bright and fair.

6. And now they lift their voices
    In praises loud and sweet,
And cast their crowns of victory
    Down at their Saviour's feet.

Forever in that kingdom;

    That kingdom bright and fair.

Response to "Jesus Paid it All."

The following hymn, by the REV. E. P. HAMMOND, was first sung at a large Union Meeting of Children and Youth, in Rochester, N. Y., October 4th, 1863. As a response to that beautiful hymn, "Jesus paid it all," on page 12, it will be found very useful; for who that is truly converted, does not wish to be "doing something" for Jesus?

1. I have cast my "doing" down,
   Yes, down at Jesus' feet;
   Now I stand in Him alone,
   All glorious and complete.
   Jesus paid it all,
   All to Him I owe;
   Something either great or small,
   From love to Him I'll do.

2. Now to Jesus' work I'll cling,
   Alone by simple faith;
   Doing was a "deadly" thing,
   It would have been my death.
   Jesus paid it all,
   All to Him I owe;
   Something either great or small,
   From love to Him I'll do.

3. Legal works I've given o'er,
   My Jesus is my all;
   Sins that tasted sweet before
   Upon my senses pall.
   Jesus paid it all, &c.

4. Jesus once in anguish bled
   Upon the cruel tree;
   There He bowed His sacred head,
   And suffered all for me.
   Jesus paid it all, &c.

5. "Twas my sins that nailed Him there,
   My sins that shed His blood,
   Mine that pierced His bleeding side,
   The blessed Son of God.
   Jesus paid it all, &c.

6. All my life shall now be given
   To Christ, my risen Lord;
   Learning all the way to Heaven,
   My duty in His Word.
   Jesus paid it all,
   All to Him I owe;
   Something either great or small,
   From love to Him I'll do.
"All By Grace."

"BY GRACE ARE YE SAVED, AND THAT NOT OF YOURSELVES: IT IS THE GIFT OF GOD."

1. O, if my soul is saved from death, 'Twill be by grace—all by grace; Let praise employ my latest breath, Praise praise, for grace.

My strength in weakness, hope in fear,
A living light my way to cheer; O for grace, for saving grace!

2. If Jesus cleanse me from my sin, 'Twill be by grace—all by grace; If now I feel a peace within, 'Tis all by grace.

Be this my shield against despair,
My joy in every pain I bear;
Be this the burden of my prayer,
O for grace, for saving grace!

3. If rescued from the tempter's hand, 'Twill be by grace—all by grace; If on the Christian's Rock I stand, 'Tis all by grace.

Not of myself, no work of mine Can light the spark of love divine;
No, Saviour, no, the gift is thine,
O for grace, for saving grace!

4. If on the wings of faith I soar, 'Twill be by grace—all by grace; Where sin and death are felt no more, 'Tis all by grace.

O when my captive soul is free, When life eternal open for me, That glorious theme my song shall be,
Saved by grace, yes, saved by grace.

Will You Go?

D. C.

1. We're trav'ling home to heav'n above, Will you go? will you go? Millions have reach'd Anointed kings and priests to God.

2. To sing the Saviour's dying love, Will you go? will you go? That blest abode,

3. And millions now are on the road, Will you go? will you go?
Will You Go? Concluded.

2. We're going to see the bleeding Lamb,
   Will you go? will you go?
   In rapturous strains to praise his name,
   Will you go? will you go?
   The crown of life we there shall wear,
   The conqueror's palms our hands shall bear,
   And all the joys of heaven we'll share;
   Will you go? will you go?

   Come, Thou Fount. (Nettleton.) 8s & 7s.

1. Come, thou Fount of every blessing, Tune my heart to grateful lays;
   Streams of mercy, never ceasing, Call for songs of loudest praise.
   I love Jesus, Hallelujah, I love Jesus, Yes, I do, I do, I do love Jesus, He's my Saviour, Jesus smiles and loves me too.

2. Teach me some melodious measure,
   Sung by raptur'd saints above;
   Fill my soul with sacred pleasure,
   While I sing redeeming love.—Chorus.

3. Jesus sought me, when a stranger,
   Wand'ring from the fold of God;
   He, to save my soul from danger,
   Interposed his precious blood.—Chorus.

4. Prone to wander,—Lord, I feel it;
   Prone to leave the God I love;
   Here's my heart—O, take and seal it,
   Seal it from thy courts above.—Chorus.
1. Go to thy rest in peace, And soft be thy re-pose; Thy toils are o'er, Thy troubles cease, From earthly cares in peace, thy rest, and while

2. Go to thy peaceful rest, For thee we need not weep, Since thou art now among the blest, No more by sin and sorrow pressed, But hush'd in quiet sleep, But hush'd in quiet sleep.

3. Go to thy rest, and while Thy absence we deplore, One thought our sorrow shall beguile— For soon with a celestial smile, We meet to part no more, We meet to part no more.

4. Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled; Then, in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tear is shed.

Death of a Scholar. 8s & 7s. Dr. L. Mason.

3. Dearest sister, thou hast left us,
   Here thy loss we deeply feel;
   But 'tis God that hast bereft us;
   He can still our sorrow heal.

4. Yet again we hope to meet thee,
   When the day of life is fled;
   Then, in heaven with joy to greet thee,
   Where no farewell tear is shed.
"Even Me."

Such testimony as the following, has induced the reprint of this beautiful hymn:

"Thank you for singing that hymn, 'Even Me,' for it was the singing of that hymn that has saved me.

When they all sung those beautiful words, 'Let some droppings light on me, and Blessing others, O bless me, Even me,' it seemed to reach my very soul. I thought Jesus can accept me, Even me,' and it brought me to his feet, and I feel my burden of sin removed. Jesus has accepted me, EVEN ME. Can you wonder that I love those words, or love to hear them sung? Ah! may I too sing them, when He shall take me before his throne at the last, and accept EVEN ME. Yours truly,

W. B. Bradbury.

Nevermore be Sad or Weary. Theo. F. Seward.

1. This is not my place of resting, Mine's a city yet to come; Onward to it I am hastening. On to my eternal home.

2. In it all is light and glory, O'er it shines a nightless day; Every trace of sin's sad story—All the curse has passed away.

CHORUS.

Never-more, Nevermore, Nevermore be sad or weary, Nevermore, Nevermore, Nevermore to sin again.

3. There the Lamb, our Shepherd, leads us
   By the streams of life along,
On the freshest pastures feed us,
   Turns our sighing into song.
Nevermore, &c.

4. Soon we pass this dreary desert,
   Soon we bid farewell to pain,
Nevermore be sad or weary,
   Nevermore to sin again.
Nevermore, &c.
1. Hark! what mean those holy voices, Sweetly sounding thro' the skies? Lo! th'angelic host rejoices; Heavenly hallelujahs rise, Hear them tell the wondrous story, Hear them chant their hymns of joy, "Glory in the highest—glory! Glory be to God most high!"

FOR CHRISTMAS OR OTHER FESTIVALS.

2. Peace on earth—good-will from heaven, Reaching far as man is found; "Soul's redeemed, and sins forgiven," Loud our golden harps shall sound. Christ is born, the great Anointed; Heaven and earth his praises sing! O, receive whom God appointed. For your Prophet, Priest, and King.

3. Haste, ye mortals, to adore him; Learn his name, and taste his joy; Till in heaven ye sing before him, Glory be to God most high. Haste, ye mortals, to adore him;Learn his name, and taste his joy;Till in heaven ye sing before him,Glory be to God most high.
Jesus our Pilot.

"And He arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still."—Mark iv, 39.

Words by Kate Cameron.

16—Two to each measure.

1. Jesus is our Pilot,—No one else can guide Our frail bark in safety, O'er life's stormy tide.
2. Jesus is our Pilot,—Leaning on His arm, We are safe from danger, Safe from fear and harm.
3. Jesus is our Pilot,—Well he knows the way, From these earthly shadows, To the realms of day.

When the waves of trouble Baffle human skill, He can always calm them With His "Peace, be still!"
In His strong protection Let us ever rest; Refuge from all sorrow On His faithful breast.
He can find that harbor, Others seek in vain, Where as Lord of glory, Evermore He'll reign.

FULL CHORUS.

Jesus is our Pilot—Guided by his hand, We shall reach the Haven, On the golden strand.
The following interesting incident has given rise to the beautiful song, "A Light in the Window."

A boy, at the age of twelve years, worked out by the day to support a widowed mother, carrying home his earnings at night. "One night," he says, "it being very dark and muddy, and having three miles to travel, and a heavy bundle to carry, I did not reach home until late: my mother, feeble and weary, had retired, but she quickly aroused when she heard my voice, and soon met me at the door, with a warm kiss, and warmer tears, and a 'God bless you, my dear boy.' As she received my bundle, she exclaimed, 'After this, my son, I'll set a light in the window for you;' and, true to her word, the bright light in the window appeared, and O, how it cheered my heart ever after, for years. Health failing me, I left home, (after my brothers could help mother,) and went to sea. When three years from home, and on the Pacific Ocean, my mother died; but just before she expired, she said to those around her, 'O give Edward my dying blessing, for he has been a good boy. Tell him I have gone to Heaven, and I will set a light in the window for him.'

SOLO, or a few voices.

1. There's a light in the window for thee, brother, There's a light in the window for thee;
2. There's a crown, and a robe, and a palm, brother, When from toil and from care you are free;

A dear one has moved to the mansions above, There's a light in the window for thee.
The Saviour has gone to prepare you a home, With a light in the window for thee.
A Light in the Window. Concluded

CHORUS.

A mansion in heaven we see, And a light in the window for thee.

3. O watch, and be faithful, and pray, brother,
   All your journey o'er life's troubled sea,
   Tho' afflictions assail you, and storms beat severe,
   There's a light in the window for thee.
   A mansion in heaven we see, &c.

4. Then on, perseveringly on, brother,
   Till from conflict and suffering free;
   Bright angels now beckon you over the stream,
   There's a light in the window for thee.
   A mansion in heaven we see, &c.

ANSWER TO "A LIGHT IN THE WINDOW."

1. O, the moonlight is dreary and cold, mother,
   As it looks in the eye of the sea;
   The waves are asleep in the arms of the deep,
   And my spirit is pining for thee.
   Chorus.—Thou art gone, and I soon shall be there,
   In thy crown of rejoicing to share;
   I hear thy soft whisper again,
   And thy "light in the window" I see.

2. I am far from the home of my youth, mother,
   I'm alone on the wide-rolling sea;

3. I remember the spot where I played, mother,
   When a child, in my innocent glee;
   The church where it stood at the end of the glade,
   And the prayer that I lisped at thy knee.—Chorus.

4. I am watchworn and weary to-night, mother,
   In my bark on the wide-rolling sea;
   I know there's a rest in the heaven above,
   Oh, my spirit is pining for thee.—Chorus.

   Go work in your master's field, Away!
   Sound the trumpet, sound the trumpet of salvation,
   The Lord is your strength and shield.
   Let the distant isles be glad,
   Let them hail the Saviour's birth,

3. Ye have listed in the army of the faithful
   Like heroes the battle fight, Away!
   There are foes on every hand that will assail you,

   The sword of the spirit wield, Away!
   Ye shall conquer through his mercy who hath loved you,
   The Lord is your strength and shield.
   Ye are marching to the land
   Where the saints in glory stand,
   And the just for joy shall sing,
   Ye by faith may bring it nigh;
   Ye shall reach it bye and bye,
   And your shouts of triumph ring.

Song of the Lilies.

"Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow."—Matt. 6, 28-30.

Words by Rev. J. A. Collier, Kingston, N. Y.

1. Hark, the lilies whisper Tenderly and low, "In our grace and beauty See how fair we grow;" Thus our heavenly Father Cares for all below. The lilies of the field, The beautiful lilies of the field, Your Father cares for them, And shall He not care for you?

2. Hark, the roses speaking, Telling all abroad Their sweet, wondrous story, Of the love of God, In the Rose of Sharon, Jesus Christ the Lord. The roses how they bloom! The beautiful roses, how they bloom! Your Father cares for them, And shall He not care for you?

3. Buttercups and daisies, And the violets sweet, Flowers of field and garden— All their voices meet; And their Maker's praises To our souls repeat. They sing their Maker's praise, The beautiful flowers, how they sing! Your Father cares for them, And shall He not care for you?

4. Let us, then, be trustful, Doubting not, although Much of toil and trouble Be our lot below. Think upon the lilies, See how fair they grow. The lilies of the field; The beautiful lilies of the field; Your Father cares for them, And shall He not care for you?

1. I am a patriot true, Sir, Yes, I am, Yes, I am; I am a patriot, true sir, a patriot firm and true,
Each thought and word is loyal, Yes, it is, Yes, it is; Each tho't and word is loyal, My theme is ever new.

The True Patriot.

2. I am a patriot true, Sir,
   Yes, I am, yes, I am;
I am a patriot true, Sir,
   Like those of SEVENTY-FIVE.
I love that patriot spirit,
   Yes, I do, yes, I do,
I love that patriot spirit,—
   'Tis in my breast alive.
I will not shun the toil or care,
But for my country do or dare;
I will not shun the toil or care,
   But bravely do or dare.

3. I love my country's cause, Sir,
   Yes, I do, yes, I do;
I love my country's cause, Sir,
   Her noble, sacred cause.
And I'll obey her laws, Sir,
   Yes, I will, yes, I will;
And I'll obey her laws, Sir,
   Her just and righteous laws.
Her Constitution I will prize,
   So just and equal, good and wise,
Her Constitution I will prize,
   So just, and good, and wise.

My country's good is all, Sir,
   Yes, it is, yes, it is;
My country's good is all, Sir,—
   To me the breathe of life.
I'd pour the blood from every vein,
To leave her free from every stain,
I'd pour the blood from every vein,
   To leave her free from stain.

2. My native country! thee,
   Land of the noble free,
   Thy name I love;
   I love thy rocks and rills, Thy woods and templed hills;

   And ring from all the trees
   Sweet freedom's song:

Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

   Author of liberty,
   To thee we sing:
   Long may our land be bright

With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King.
Once more Our Youthful Throng.

Words written for this work.

DUET. 17—Two to each measure.

Arranged from the German for this work.

1. Once more our youthful throng In sweetest union raise To God our choral song Of gratitude and praise.

2. From yonder world of light Our Father bends His ear, With angels robed in white, Our grateful song to hear.

SEMI-CHORUS.

\{ f When shall we join the holy angels, Tun-ing their harps on yonder hap-py shore? \}
\{ p When in the smiling fields of Eden, When shall we meet the loved ones gone be-fore? \}

FULL CHORUS. ff

Hallelujah, sweetly singing, Thro' eternal a-ges ringing, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Praises to the Lamb.

3. His eye that never sleeps,
   With ever-watchful care,
   His faithful children keeps
   From each besetting snare.

4. Dear Saviour, may we rest
   Our heart, our hopes on thee;
   Reposing on thy breast,
   From every danger free.

When shall we join, &c.
Watchman, Tell Me. 7s & 8s. Double. 123

Moderato. 18—Two to each measure.

DIALOGUE.

1. Watchman, tell me, does the morning Of fair Zion's glory dawn?
Have the signs that mark its coming Yet upon thy pathway shone?
Pilgrim, yes! arise, look round thee: Light is breaking in the skies;.... Gird thy bridal robes around thee, Morning dawns, arise, arise!

2. Watchman, see, the light is beaming,
Brighter still upon the way;
Signs through all the earth are gleaming,
Omens of the coming day
When the Jubal trumpet sounding,
Shall awake from earth and sea,
And the saints of God now sleeping,
Clad in immortality.

3. Watchman, hail, the light ascending,
Of the grand Sabbatic year;
All with voices loud proclaiming
That the kingdom's very near:
Pilgrim, yes, I see just yonder,
Canaan's glorious heights arise,
Salem too appears in grandeur,
Towering 'neath its sun-lit skies.

4. Watchman, in the golden city,
Seated on His jasper throne,
Zion's king enthroned in beauty,
Reigns in peace from zone to zone;
There on sun-lit hills and mountains,
Golden beams serenely glow;
Purling streams and crystal fountains,
On whose banks sweet flow'rets blow.

5. Watchman, see, the land is nearing,
With its vernal fruits and flowers,
On just yonder, O how cheering
Bloom forever Eden's bower's!
Hark! the choral strains are ringing,
Wafted on the balmy air,
See the millions, hear them singing,
Soon the pilgrim will be there.
Praise the Lord.

ANTHEM.

1. Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord. O praise the Lord when blushing morning wakes the flowers fresh with dew;

2. Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord. O praise the Lord, and may his blessing guide us in the way of truth;

Praise him when revived creation beams with beauty fair and new. Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord when early keeps our feet from paths of error, make us holy in our youth. Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord, ye hosts of Breezes come so fragrant from the flowers. Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord, ye millions by the brookside, and ye heaven, ye angels sing your sweetest lays. Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord, O utter forth his glory, sound a-

Praise the Lord. Concluded.

Nearer to Thee.

1. Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee! E'en tho' it be a cross That raiseth me; Yet all my song shall be, Nearer, my God, to thee,

2. Tho', like the wanderer, The sun goes down, Darkness be o-ver me, My rest a stone; Yet in my dreams I'd be Nearer, my God, to thee,

3. There let the way appear Steps unto heaven: All that thou sendest me, In mercy given; Angels to beckon me Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee!

4. Or, if on joyful wing, Cleaving the sky, Sun, moon, and stars forgot, Upward I fly; Still all my song shall be, Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee.
Victory at Last.

Words by Mrs. M. A. Kidder. A PROPHETIO SONG AND CHORUS. Wm. B. Bradbury.

15—Four to each measure.

1. For many years we've waited To hail the day of peace, When our land should be united, And war and strife should cease; And now that day approaches— The drums are beating fast, And all the boys are coming home, There's victory at last.

FULL CHORUS.

There's victory at last, boys, victory at last; O'er land and sea Our flag is free; We'll nail it to the mast, Yes, we'll nail it to the mast, boys, Nail it to the mast, For there's victory, victory, victory at last.

2. The heroes who have gained it And lived to see that day, We will meet with flying banners And honors on the way; And all their sad privations Shall to the winds be cast For all the boys are coming home- There is victory at last.

3. O, happy wives and children Light up your hearts and homes, For see, with martial music "The conquering hero comes," With flags and streamers flying, While drums are beating fast; For all the boys are coming home- There is victory at last. There is victory, &c.

FROM THE EVENING POST AND NEW YORK TIMES.

"One of the interesting musical events of the season is the competition in instruments, and the success that has attended the exhibition of Bradbury's piano-fortes at the several fairs recently held. This success is more remarkable from the fact that a new competitor for public favor has always to contend with the prejudices of those who are interested in keeping their old favorites in the front rank, and it is only when the intrinsic merits of a new instrument are so apparent as to render opposition to it hazardous to their professional reputation that it can get a fair start.

"This has been the opening year for Bradbury's instruments, and thus far with the following result:
I. First prize at the New Jersey State Fair at Patterson
II. First prize at the New York State Fair at Utica;
III. First prize at the Ohio State Fair at Cleveland
IV. And now, at the Fair of the American Institute, in this city, it has also been awarded the first prize*.

"There was a large number of fine pianos in this exhibition, and the managers of it devoted to them the largest and most prominent space in the main hall in the Academy building. Among these the beautiful square piano contributed by the manufacturer, William B. Bradbury, maintained a first place, being remarkable for power, brilliancy, richness, purity and equality of tone, combined with delicacy of touch, strength of frame, and general excellence of mechanical manipulation. This piano has Mr. Bradbury's new and improved scale, which is now receiving the highest commendations from first-class musical authority, as well as the public generally.

"This piano has an iron frame, overstrung base, and every real modern improvement; it is constructed of the best thorough seasoned materials, and its outward finish is second to none. We are informed by the managers that Mr. Bradbury did not manufacture this instrument especially for exhibition, but that it was taken promiscuously from his general stock.

"The public are already indebted to Mr. Bradbury for his labors as a composer of church and Sabbath-school music; but it would seem that his success in that department is to be eclipsed by the honors thrust on him in his new sphere."

* P.S.—Since the above was written, I have received the following additional First Premiums, viz.: Pennsylvania State Fair, Illinois State Fair, and Indiana State Fair. W. B. B.
Received the Gold Medal at Fair of Am. Institute, 1863.

The subscriber has now so enlarged and increased his manufacturing facilities as he believes will enable him to meet the unprecedented demand for his beautiful instruments. His factory is twice its former size.

BRADBURY'S PIANOS are made of the BEST THOROUGHLY SEASONED material. He employs the BEST MECHANICAL SKILL and talent of the city.

BRADBURY'S "NEW SCALE," drawn and prepared expressly for his new instruments, is in advance of other improvements in POWER, BRILLIANCE, RICHNESS, PURITY, and EQUALITY OF TONE, combined with DELICACY OF TOUCH and STRENGTH OF FRAME. He invites the closest criticism of the best unbiased judges. Every department of the business is conducted under Mr. BRADBURY'S OWN personal supervision. Every instrument fully warranted.
THE MUSICAL PROFESSION OF NEW YORK TO WM. B. BRADBURY.

STRONG INDORSEMENT OF
WM. B. BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

The most eminent of the musical profession of New York City, after frequent and thorough trials of my New Scale Piano-Fortés, have given me the most emphatic and unqualified Testimonials. The following is a specimen of the voluntary testimony I am constantly receiving from gentlemen entirely disinterested, and, as all will acknowledge, most thoroughly qualified to judge of the merits of a Piano-Forte.

"We have examined, with much care, Mr. Wm. B. Bradbury's New Scale Piano-Fortés, and it is our opinion that, in power, purity, richness, equality of tone, and thorough workmanship, Mr. Bradbury's instruments excel.

"We find great brilliancy and a beautiful singing quality of tone most happily blended. We have rarely seen a square Piano-Forte combining so many of these qualities essential to a perfect instrument."

GOTTSCHALK,
The renowned Pianist and Composer, after a careful and thorough examination of Wm. B. Bradbury's New Scale Piano-Fortés, says:

"I have examined with great care, Mr. Wm. B. Bradbury's New Scale Piano-Fortes, and it is my opinion that they are very superior instruments.

"I have especially remarked their thorough workmanship, and the power, purity, richness, and equality of their tone. I recommend, therefore, these instruments to the public in general, and doubt not of their success.
