The Bishops presented to the conference their opinion on a point of law referred to them on Monday morning, and by preliminary remarks informed the conference that they wished it to be distinctly understood, that the opinion which follows has been received by them as an abstract question of law, and should not have any retrospective bearing, on the difficulties of Louisville or any past transaction whatever.

Moved and seconded that the opinion of the Bishops be recorded on our Journals; Carried. (The opinion) "The Form of Discipline prescribes the powers of every department in the Methodist Episcopal Church; & the union and prosperity of the whole body greatly depends on a clear understanding of the prerogatives of each department, and a careful attention to that appertains to it, without transcending its legitimate jurisdiction.

The questions proposed by the conference for our consideration, and on which our opinion is requested, refer to the powers of a quarterly meeting conference in a specified case.

The discipline has made it one of the duties of a Presiding Elder to call together, at each quarterly meeting, the official members of the circuit or station, which body, thus convened, is denominated a quarterly meeting conference and is invested with authority "To hear complaints and receive & try appeals. See Sect. 5 page 28"
That the Discipline, in this provision, distinguished between complaints and appeals is sufficiently obvious; and as neither the one, nor the other is defined or limited in this general provision, it becomes necessary to refer to other rules to ascertain the limitations and restrictions in either case, with regard to appeals, two things only need be states; 1st that they can only be admitted in cases where the forms of trial, as directed by the discipline, have been observed; and 2nd that they must be made to the quarterly conference next ensuing such form of trial.

Cases of complaint, as recognized by the form of Discipline are widely different, and may be embraced in two general classes, the first comprises all complaints which may be made against the members of the quarterly meeting & conference, on the examination of character, as provided. See p. 42; the second embraces the complaints of individuals in certain cases Viz. 1st In case of arbitration on disputed accounts, either of the parties being dissatisfied with the judgement of the arbitrators may carry his complaint to the quarterly meeting conference praying for a second arbitration; See p. 41. 2nd In case of non-payment of debts, when accounts are adjusted, and a committee determines what further time shall be allowed the debtor to make payment, and if any, what security shall be given in the premises; if the creditors complain that Justice has not been done him, he may lay his grievance before the quarterly meeting conference. Sect. 9 p. 42.

We find no provision in the form of Discipline investing the quarterly conferences with the right of jurisdiction in any other cases of complaint. It is, therefore, our opinion that a quarterly meeting conference has no jurisdiction in cases of expulsion of members, expelled, in which case the discipline limits the time of Appeal, for the safety of all parties to the quarterly meeting conference next ensuing the expulsion, and consequently, that such conference has no legal "right" to direct a new trial in case of an expelled member, on a complaint preferred by such member, after the time has elapsed in which he might have appealed.

Conference then took up the question "Who are admitted on trial?" And Bro. Abram Norfleet of Ky. Dt.
Peter Shelton - Ky. Dt.
Samuel Veach - Augusta Dt.
Hiram Baker - Augusta Dt.
& Daniel Tevis - Augusta Dt.
Henry Robertson of Augusta Dt. being recommended was not admitted.
Bros. Elias Lee of Salt River Dt.
Lewis M Goodson of Green River Dt.
Nathan Johnston of Cumberland Dt.
Jefferson C. Parish of Cumberland Dt.

Moved and seconded that we reconsider the Vote by which Bro. John Sinclair was continued on trial. Carried, and Bro. Sinclair after examination was admitted into full connection and Elected Deacon.
