Creative Preaching on the Sacraments
WO/PR 700
Tuesday/Thursdays, 2:30-3:45 p.m.

Prerequisites: a course in the range of PR610-49 and a course in the range of WO510-549.

Course Description:
What are the meanings of the sacraments and how can a preacher unfold these meanings for worshippers? These are the central concerns for this course.

This course will focus on a specialized form of creative preaching on the sacraments called mystagogy. This type of preaching will be explored in both its liturgical context in the early church as well as in modern attempts to reclaim it. The goal will be to assist the students in using historical models to develop a theoretical basis to support their practice of connecting Word and Sacrament. The course will involve student preaching. The course will thus include these three dimensions: historical, theoretical, and practical.

Professor’s information:
Dr. Lester Ruth; BC (Beeson) 218; 859-858-2175 or 859-219-9166; fax 858-2026; lester_ruth@asburyseminary.edu; Office hours: Tuesday/Thursday 1:15-2:15 and Thursday 4:15-5:15. During office hours, I can be contacted by telephone, email, or First Class chat room. Telephone calls preferred over emails. Appointments for other office meetings gladly welcomed.

Students completing this course will:
--develop a theology of Word in relationship to Sacrament
--understand historically the kind of preaching associated with sacramental administration in the late patristic church
--develop the necessary skills to translate the patristic approach to these issues to a contemporary context, particularly among post-modern hearers
--increase the student’s proficiency and comfort in preaching

Textbooks:
These three books are required:
--Satterlee, Craig and Lester Ruth, Creative Preaching on the Sacraments, Discipleship Resources.

Additional reading from materials on electronic reserve might include sections from the following:
--Danielou, Jean, The Bible and the Liturgy, Univ. of ND Press.
--Harmless, William, Augustine and the Catechumenate, 316-24 and 364-7
--http://liturgy.nd.edu/assembly/assembly23-2augustine.shtml (Augustine on eucharist)
--http://www.newadvent.org/fathers/1701026.htm (Tractate 26)
Professor’s Expectations for Students:
Because this class is held in a seminar format, attentive, consistent preparation of readings is expected. The professor also expects students to aim for the highest levels of understanding as represented by the attached statements concerning explanation, interpretation, application, perspective, empathy, and self-knowledge. Indeed, these will be the criteria by which grades are given in the assignments.
In addition, students are expected to participate well in class discussions. Here is how satisfactory and unsatisfactory preparation and participation are defined for this class:

Satisfactory preparation and participation by a student show the following characteristics:
- Attended all of class
- Has completed all the exercises and assignments assigned for the class
- Demonstrates engagement and interest with the class and the material
- Can show going beyond mere repetition of the material to be read and reviewed by asking questions or making comments that show her or his own insights on the material; this can be shown by insightful integration of today’s material with other course material; can discuss viewpoints with intensity but without combative or abusiveness
- Facilitates learning by others on the material by asking key questions, making helpful explanations or insights, and/or providing useful summary
- Can listen well and at the right time

Unsatisfactory preparation and participation by a student show the following characteristics:
- Missed class, arrived late, or left early for an inexcusable reason
- Did not complete all exercises and assignments assigned
- Acts dismissive, uninterested, or abusive toward the material, the class, or other class members; perhaps combative
- Shows no familiarity with the material or only the most rote, preliminary sort of repetition of the material to be read or reviewed; perhaps shows no ability to think beyond pre-formed opinions
- Does not help the learning of others or actually detracts from the learning of others
- Does not listen well and at the right time

Means of student evaluation:
There are four assignments that factor into the grade:

1) a 15 minute student presentation on a sermon (20% of grade)
   - Task: a 15 minute walk through/talk through of one of the student’s own mystagogical sermons; the student will need to write a manuscript (with copies for the professor and classmates) and also prepare for an oral presentation to be delivered in class
   - Task: to have thought through your own first attempt at a mystagogical sermon, talking the rest of the class through what you would like to do and assessing it by our standardized assessment sheet.
   - What the professor will be looking for: to see how well you understand mystagogy so as to be able to apply your multi-faceted understanding to a sermon suitable for today (see the attachment for the different aspects of understanding); he will grade the written sermon after your oral presentation
   - What to keep in account: Don’t actually preach this first sermon; pretend that you are a sport’s analyst providing “color commentary” on the sermon you would preach.
   - Due date: the schedule for the oral presentations will be determined in class; the written version is due for everyone on April 10
   - Grading scale: 0-20 points (expectation for B- = 16 points)

2) a first mystagogical sermon preached to the class (30% of grade)
   - Task: preach a mystagogical sermon on some aspect of worship appropriate for a congregation of your choosing today
   - What the professor will be looking for: see the included mystagogy checklist at the end of the syllabus
   - What to keep in account: would one of our patristic preacher’s recognize what you do and say “amen”?
   - Grading scale: 0-30 points (expectation for B- = 24 points)
3) a second mystagogical sermon preached to the class (30% of grade)
   ➢ Task: to preach another mystagogical sermon on a different aspect of worship
   ➢ What the professor will be looking for: see above.
   ➢ What to keep in account: see above.
   ➢ Grading scale: 0-30 points (expectation for B- = 24 points)

Note: While the professor will be asking for peer evaluation on assignments, he will not be basing the grades on these assignments on his own assessments and observation. He will use peer evaluations to see if there are areas of strength or weakness he has overlooked, that is, to inform his own assessment. Peer evaluations on sermons will be returned to students anonymously in order to be able to see how a range of people heard the sermons.

4) A book report on the book Sanctified Vision by O’Keefe and Reno (20% of grade)
   ➢ Task: using the template for a report to be distributed in class
   ➢ What the professor will be looking for: to see if you can use the O’Keefe and Reno book to understand the theology-and-use-of-the-Bible background that lies behind the patristic sermons we are reading in class
   ➢ Due date: March 11
   ➢ Grading scale: 0-20 points (expectation for B- = 16 points)

Course Schedule:

Note: The reading schedule is not predetermined. The pace of reading and specific readings will be determined as the class unfolds. If a student misses a class, it is the responsibility of the student to find out the readings for the following sessions. Generally the following is what should be expected. Please note that sufficient time will be given for each student to deliver two sermons as discussed above.

Mystagogical Checklist for __________________________’s sermon

First question:  What makes the sermon mystagogical preaching?
   Rooted in big biblical story as expressed in smaller biblical stories; there is a large cohesive story that crosses Testaments
   Connection to this story from the very Beginning
   Participation in this story now, e.g., ongoing conflict with Satan
   Participatory perspective:  the cosmic God with a cosmic metanarrative is working in the church’s worship now; this is what we are experiencing and participating in Uses biblical, cultural, and natural images to articulate this participation
   Uses a surplus of images
   Tends to be organized by the rite itself, i.e., is intimately connected to what we saw, heard, and tangibly sensed in the order of worship
   Purpose:  brings to light the meaning behind the obvious sacraments; to see beyond what our eyes can see, to discern participation in the Kingdom and the spiritual world
   Purpose:  explaining the experience; provide a lens for interpreting worship experience; reveal (metanarrative) meaning beyond the obvious

Comments:

First question:  scale:  0-12 points
Points assigned?

Second question:  What makes the sermon good mystagogical preaching?
   Taps into biblical, cultural, and natural images that already reside within the listeners
   Explores but doesn’t explain away
   Poetic, not discursive
   Abundance of images piled together
   Transforms the experience; heightens expectation in worship; anticipates and builds
   Calls for action/decision in light of the experience of an active God in worship Goes beyond expository preaching in that it is not really a matter of accepting or rejecting cognitive interpretation but draws people into participating in the mystery of the biblical story
   Tethered
   Appropriately triggered (not overused)

Comments:

Second question:  scale:  0-12 points
Points assigned?
Third question: What makes the sermon good preaching?
   Handling of body
   Mannerism
   Understanding of congregation and connection to them
   Rhetorical power; handling of words
   Good oral quality
   Trustworthiness of witness to the Gospel

Comments:

Third question: scale: 0-6 points
Points assigned?

Total points assigned: _____ (first question) + _____ (second question) + _____ (third question) = ________ (out of 30 possible points)

In my estimation this sermon as an example of mystagogy was (circle one) exceptional,

good,
acceptable,
marginal,
unacceptable.
