1-1-2002

NT 602 Intermediate Greek II

Joseph S. Wang
Course Description:
This course fosters competence in New Testament Greek beyond the introductory phase through translation and analysis of significant portions of the Letters of Paul, Peter and Hebrews. This course can be a first course in Greek after comprehensive Greek. “II” indicates content, not level.
Prerequisite: NT 501/502 or passing Greek Examination

Course Objectives:
- Facility in translating the Greek of Letters of Paul, Peter and Hebrews and thus, e.g., developing Greek reading skills, building vocabulary, increased familiarity with the Greek verbal system, and review syntax.
- Working familiarity with the textual apparatus in Nestle-Aland Greek New Testament and competence with the range of text critical issues in the Letters of Paul, Peter and Hebrews.

Required Text:
- Nestle-Aland, Novum Testamentum Graece
- Wallace, Daniel B. Greek Grammar beyond the Basics: An Exegetical Syntax of the New Testament

Course Requirements:
- Regular attendance, preparation, and participation in the class is a necessity. Persons missing more than three course sessions will not be eligible for a passing grade. Preparation and participation involves regular reading, translating and analyzing in class of both prepared and sight passages from the Letters of Paul, Peter, and Hebrews in Greek. (25%).
- Textual Worksheets. Students will be required to prepare a series of text-critical worksheets on selected text-critical problems in the Letters of Paul, Peter and Hebrews (20).
- Mid-Term Translation Examination (20%)
- Final, Comprehensive Examination (35%)