Maximum Registration: 20
Catalog Description: The biblical narrative provides ample understanding of what makes leadership "Christian." Whether one follows the models of the kings and prophets or the kenosis of Christ and subsequent Christian followers, the Christian leader is called to a distinctive style of leadership. This course exposes Christian leaders to the principles and practices that nurture life-long servanthood. Participants will examine and seek to practice Christian community as the crucible for authentic Christian leadership.

MEETS TUES: 6:15-9:00PM
Welcome to "Theology of Servant Leadership." The biblical narrative provides ample understanding of what makes leadership Christian. Whether one follows the models of the kings and prophets or the kenosis of Christ and the subsequent Christ followers, the Christian leader is called to a distinctly different style of leadership. During this course you will be exposed to the principles and practices that nurture life-long servanthood. We will also examine and seek to practice Christian community as the crucible for authentic Christian leadership. Thus, we will have a great time of both learning content and building relationships—directly applying our learnings to our ministry settings.

SERVANT LEADERSHIP IN ITS BASIC FORM...

The phrase "Servant Leadership" was coined by Robert K. Greenleaf in The Servant as Leader, an essay that he first published in 1970. In that essay, he said:

"The servant-leader is servant first. It begins with the natural feeling that one wants to serve, to serve first. Then conscious choice brings one to aspire to lead. That person is sharply different from one who is leader first, perhaps because of the need to assuage an unusual power drive or to acquire material possessions. The leader-first and the servant-first are two extreme types. Between them there are shadings and blends that are part of the infinite variety of human nature."

"The difference manifests itself in the care taken by the servant-first to make sure that other people's highest priority needs are being served. The best test, and difficult to administer, is: Do those served grow as persons? Do they, while being served, become healthier, wiser, freer, more autonomous, more likely themselves to become servants? And, what is the effect on the least privileged in society? Will they benefit or at least not be further deprived?"

Learning Goals

Upon the completion of the course, the student should be able to:

1. Articulate the general biblical and theological understandings of servant leadership.
2. Identify various leadership styles, contexts and preferences of key biblical figures.
3. Use biblical and theological criteria for evaluating leadership style and practice.
4. Demonstrate an understanding of servant leadership from the Wesleyan perspective.
5. Demonstrate an understanding and practice of shared power.
6. Articulate models of accountability and staying under authority as a leader.
7. Demonstrate leadership values that reflect the priority of Jesus.
8. Practice habits and attitudes that nurture healthy personal vision.

ASSIGNMENT GUIDELINES

Writing: Writing clearly and concisely is an important measure of graduate-level work. All papers submitted for this class must be within the maximum defined length, typed, double-spaced, documented (using an official form of documentation) when drawing from readings or class notes, and use 12-point type.
Inclusive language is expected when referring to humans in writing and speaking.

Include your name on each assignment. You will want to get credit for your work.

Late work: All assignments are due at the class time of the day listed in the syllabus. Assignments turned in late, without the professor’s prior approval, will receive a 20% lower grade. Grades are NOT our focus but promptly completing assignments keeps you growing with the class and contributing to the growth of all class members.

Using the Internet: If you must miss a class, assignments may be sent as attachments using MSWord [DO NOT send as .docx].

Since we are working in a distance learning format, the use of the Virtual Campus will be used for the distribution of resources. HOWEVER, please send all communication directly to the professor (including quizzes and papers) via Zimbra.

Class Participation and Attendance: Promptness to class and regular class attendance is expected since interaction between us as learners is an integral part of the learning process. The professor will use attendance and class participation as one variable in determining the final grade.

THREE (3) ABSENCES will result in class failure

REMEMBER: One class absence equals one week’s worth of the semester!

ASSIGNMENTS

A. THE TEAM/SMALL GROUP.
Servants never minister alone. They always live and work in teams. Thus you will work with a group of 4 or 5 people throughout the semester. Each time you gather for class, you will practice the life of a small group (including Bible Study, Prayer & Caring, Mission/project) using a guide created by the professor and emailed to you in Zimbra. Then as a part of your projects, you will discuss your life in the team and its application to your leadership in ministry.

B. REQUIRED READINGS.
1. Read and DIGEST the article Servant-Leadership (Robert K. Greenleaf) on website: Also, spend some time nosing around

8. ORDER IMMEDIATELY! SPIRITUAL LIFE INVENTORY (SLI) and PERSONAL POWER PROFILE (PPP). These are both ordered from Janet Hagberg’s website. Go > janethagberg.com > janet’s books > profiles > personal power products.

See notes below about these two documents.

C. READING QUIZZES. (4 each x 25pts = 100 pts)

FOUR times during the semester the professor will ask you to complete a brief quiz over the current and past readings. This will include reading content, reflection and application questions.

Quizzes will be sent to each student as an email .doc attachment on Zimbra. Please open the quiz, fill in the answers, then resave, reattach and send to me by the stated deadline. Mark the SUBJECT line as QUIZ # ____.

D. SPIRITUAL LIFE INVENTORY and PERSONAL POWER PROFILE.

In the first couple of weeks of the semester you will ORDER and COMPLETE the SLI and PPP—purchased from the Janet Hagberg website (approx. $4-$6 each) and review the results with your team in the context of the class readings.

[You may take PPP on-line and save a dollar. The SLI will need to be ordered in paper form.]

E. LEADERÕS DESKTOP TOOLBOX ARTICLES/DEVOTIONALS. (3 x 50 pts)

Three times during the semester, each student will write a leadership article/devotion using the Writing Grid as a guide, choosing a pertinent topic related to Servant Leadership.

These articles include a chosen topic, related scripture, story narrative from the authorÕs experience, commentary on the topic and a list of related references.

WILMORE STUDENTS please attach your papers to an email and send directly to me with the subject line marked ÒTOOLBOX # _____ Ò

[If at some point these are collected into a book for publications, each student will be recognized for their work.]

F. LEADER INTERVIEW PROJECT. (135 pts.)

Your group will interview a key leader (of your choosing, approved by the professor) comparing her/his leadership style to Jesus, the principles discussed in class and the readings.

[Follow these guidelines precisely!]

THE PACKET YOU’LL SUBMIT: (Place the contents in this order)

1. Cover Page (section ØaØ)
2. Team Summary (section ØcØ)
3. Interview Summary (section ØdØ)
4. Presentation materials (section ØeØ)

THE PROCESS: (60/135 pts.)
a. (5) Design a Cover Page that includes: Group names, Whom you interviewed, Date & time of interview.

b. (15) Create 10 probing interview questions using class guidelines; set-up and perform a one-hour interview.

c. (10) In 1 page, write a Team Process Summary that describes how your team/group experience impacted this project. If there are varying opinions, make sure to include them.

d. (30) Write a five-page (maximum) Interview Summary to include:
   1) (5) Brief summary of interview process,
   2) (5) Questions with edited answers (and good quotes),
   3) (20) Conclusion and analysis that contrasts and compares your understanding of servant leadership with the leadership style of your interviewee.

THE PRESENTATION: (75/135 pts)

e. Your team will create a 20-30 min. multimedia presentation, presented to the class during the last class session. Use your best creativity, media, team-work and application skills to produce this project. Each team member will receive the same score except for a project participation score assigned by me.

Evaluation will be as follows: (see Grading Rubric for specific details)

(10) Media use; (10) demonstrable understanding and application of key leadership principles; (10) participation of all team members in presentation; (10) individual project-participation score; (35) inclusion of the following five sets of information.

The presentation must include: (35)
1. (5) Your interview questions,
2. (5) Significant identification of the person you interviewed,
3. (5) Nature of the leadership you found in that person,
4. (10) Comparison of your interviewee’s leadership and that of Jesus, your readings and class discussion,
5. (10) Key principles that your group discovered about teams and Servant Leadership,
